Jurors selected —

Cheri Ann Lindsey, 12, a newspaper carrier, in his home at 6½ Sturgis St., Binghamton. He is serving 33½ years to life in prison.

Chandler, who claimed his actions were motivated by a flashback to his participation in a Vietnam atrocity, is serving 50 years to life in prison for the stabbing murders of his daughter, Bonnie, 5, and stepson, Mark, 10, Oct. 8, 1980, in Kirkwood.

Opening statements in the Wagner trial are expected today. As of last night, four women and two men had been sworn in as jurors.

Jury selection got off to a slow start yesterday morning when Broome County Judge Patrick D. Monserrate said he and the lawyers in the case would question each prospective juror who had read, heard or seen media accounts or otherwise had knowledge of the case.

In the process, Fox, Monserrate and District Attorney Gerald F. Malles questioned about 55 people at the judge's bench, excusing 21 of them. That left a pool of 50 prospective jurors before the first 16 were called to the jury box for questioning.

The selection process is scheduled to continue at 9:30 a.m. today.

For the first time yesterday, Wagner was led to and from court without a paper bag on his head. Fox had been attempting to keep the media from photographing Wagner because, he has said, he feared the courtroom identification process would be tainted.

Testimony has indicated Wilmott and another boy, 11, were near the bridge early April 18 when they met Wagner. Police and jailers from both Binghamton and Virginia have said Wagner admitted stabbing Wilmott. Alex Minor, a Binghamton detective, has said Wagner told of seeing the boys "going through vehicles" and approaching them with a butcher knife. According to Minor, Wagner told him the stabbing followed a sexual overture by Wilmott, and that as he stabbed Wilmott, Wagner "kept thinking of Trooper A.K. Golleher."

Golleher had handled the investigation that resulted in Wagner's conviction of sodomizing a girl, 3, in Buena Vista, Va., in December 1987. He was convicted on that charge several days before his arrest in the Wilmott case.

Fox mentioned that sexual abuse trial yesterday, saying he expected Wagner will tell jurors that he considered it an unjust conviction. "I expect Mike is going to explain that what happened (with the girl) was accidental and that he still feels he was wrongfully accused," the defender said.

"I expect Mike is going to testify and tell you what was going on in his life and mind" at the time of Wilmott's stabbing, Fox said.

Fox said he expects his client to testify he didn't stab Wilmott and that because he was "mess'd up in his mind" that "led him to tell police what he did."

The defender asked for assurances from prospective jurors that they were "comfortable" with the prospect they might have to consider Wagner's mental state if they decide he did the stabbing.

Fox said Monserrate may instruct jurors that under certain circumstances a jury must take into consideration a person's mental condition, and that a finding of first-degree manslaughter could result.

He also called for assurances that Wagner would not be judged more harshly because he is not a Broome County resident. Testimony has indicated that Wagner, who earned money polishing trucks at truckstops, came to Binghamton to sell his car.

Lawyer wants manslaughter considered if man convicted

BY GEORGE

Michael N. Wagner is charged with stabbing a Binghamton man to death, his lawyer will ask the jury to declare it manslaughter if the man is convicted, the attorney said.

James J. Fox, Broome County public defender, told jurors he expects Wagner to stand and say he stabbed 12-year-old Austin E. Wilmott III early April on the north end of the Washburn Bridge. Wilmott was with his father, Austin Wilmott, at 22 James St. at the time of the slaying.

Wagner, 35, is charged with first-degree murder. Fox said his client testified to "confessions" to police at the time of his arrest in Virginia May 5 were made while Wagner "was in a state of high anxiety."

The defender said he hoped jurors will determine that Wagner did not stab Wilmott, but that if they determine he was the killer, they declare Wagner's mental condition was such that the crime amounted to first-degree manslaughter.

State penal law says homicide committed under the influence of "extreme emotional disturbance" constitutes a mitigating circumstance reducing murder to first-degree manslaughter.

The defense of extreme emotional disturbance has been used several times in Broome County homicide cases in recent years. In the most recent case, a jury decided that Connie Ambrose, then 26, of Binghamton, acted under extreme emotional disturbance Feb. 26, 1986, when she shot Gregory Wheaton, the father of her infant daughter, as Wheaton slept in her apartment at 194 Murray St., Binghamton. Ambrose is serving a prison sentence of five to 15 years for her first-degree manslaughter conviction.

Chester T. Chandler, now 40, and James B. Wales, now 39, were unsuccessful in their attempts to convince juries they were in a state of extreme emotional disturbance when they killed children.

Wales was convicted of the March 26, 1984, rape-murder of a child. See JURORS Page 7A

Trial begins in boy's stabbing

Suspect expected to claim admission of guilt due to stress

By KEITH GEORGE
Staff Writer

A jury will hear opening statements today in the trial of a Virginia man charged with second-degree murder in the stabbing death of a 12-year-old Binghamton boy.

Michael N. Wagner, 35, is accused of killing Austin E. "Eddie" Wilmott III by stabbing him repeatedly with a butcher knife about 12:40 a.m. April 18 at the north end of Binghamton's Washington Street Bridge.

A jury of seven women and five men was selected from a field of about 160 panelists summoned over two days. The final six jurors were chosen yesterday.

Wagner is expected to testify that he falsely confessed to killing a Binghamton boy because of stress over a sexual abuse conviction in Virginia, his lawyer, Public Defender Thomas J. Fox, said yesterday.

Fox has a fallback position. He has said that if jurors believe Wagner was telling the truth when he admitted the stabbing to police in Virginia and Binghamton, they should declare Wagner guilty of manslaughter, not murder.

Fox repeatedly asked prospective jurors their reactions to information volunteered by Fox that Wagner was convicted in Rockbridge County, Va., of sexually abusing a 3-year-old girl just before his arrest for the Wilmott killing in early May.

From remarks by Fox, Wagner is expected to testify that he had been drinking heavily in the time leading to his trip to Binghamton and that the sodomy charge weighed heavily on his mind. Prospective jurors repeatedly said they were surprised that Fox had brought up the sexual abuse conviction.

Fox also has asked for assurances that jurors will not perceive him as trying to bully a child when he cross-examines an 11-year-old boy who has said he witnessed the stabbing and talked with the killer.

The defender said he will ask the boy if he lied, as the boy already admitted in pre-trial hearings. Wilmott's friend has said that his descriptions to police of the killer and some of the man's actions were tailored to match the stories of two girls he had heard talking in the police station after the killing.

Several policemen have said Wagner told them he was skateboarding somewhere near the Holiday Inn Arena when he saw two boys searching cars in the parking lot, and that he approached them with the knife.

Boy recounts Wilmott stabbing

12-year-old's last word was 'help'

By KEITH GEORGE
Staff Writer

An 11-year-old Binghamton boy told a jury yesterday that he watched Michael N. Wagner repeatedly stab Austin E. "Eddie" Wilmott III and heard the dying boy's final word: "Help."

When police reached the blood-splashed scene at the north end of the Washington Street Bridge a few minutes later, they found Wilmott's lifeless body with eight knife wounds, according to testimony.

District Attorney Gerald F. Mollen told jurors that the evidence, including the punctures of Wilmott's heart and liver and a lung, would convince them that Wagner, 35, of Virginia, killed the 12-year-old boy with intent and without provocation.

Yesterday's testimony before a courtroom audience that at times included as many as 40 people, offered drama but few surprises. Most of the details had been revealed at earlier hearings, including the testimony of Wilmott's friend, who has not been identified by the Press & Sun-Bulletin and who is called "Charley" for this story.

Charley, a close friend and classmate of Wilmott, said he lived on Binghamton's South Side a few blocks from a house at 22

James St. where Wilmott was living with his father.

Wilmott and Charley had been out until early April 18, looking for unlocked cars to steal from as they walked through downtown Binghamton heading for Wilmott's home, Charley said.

Earlier Wilmott had persuaded an uncle to telephone Charley's mother, pretending to be Wilmott's father, assuring her that Charley was welcome to stay overnight, Charley told jurors.

Among items that Wilmott took from cars, Charley said, were one or more cassette tapes, 30 cents and a flashlight.

Mollen told jurors in his opening statement that it was the boys' searching of cars in the Holiday Inn-Arena parking lot that attracted Wagner's attention.

Charley identified Wagner as the killer. He told Public Defender Thomas J. Fox the man had been "acting nice" as the three squatted, talked and lit matches near a wall at the north end of the bridge.

Wagner had asked the boys where he could get some marijuana, then questioned them about their names, schools and addresses, to which they responded with phony information, Charley said.

Then Wagner told Wilmott to bring him a nearby paper milk carton and Wilmott started to get it, said the boy.

"That's when the man ran up behind Eddie, spun him around by his shoulder and grabbed him by his privates," Charley testified.

"Eddie squatted down and said 'No! Help,' and Wagner pulled a knife and began stabbing Wilmott, exclaiming, 'You were in my car' with each thrust, the boy said.

Charley watched the stabbing as he ran toward Riverside Drive, he said. After seeing Wagner running toward downtown Binghamton on Water Street, Charley returned, he said.

"Eddie was laying on the bridge," he said.

"Did you talk to him?" Mollen asked.

"Yes, he said 'Help,' and I said 'I'd get some help,'" Charley said.

Richard M. Wesser told jurors he had just left Out Our Way, a bar on South Washington Street, and was walking toward the bridge about 12:30 that morning when Charley ran from the south end of the bridge shouting for help. Wesser said he and Charley returned to the tavern and telephoned police.

Kevin T. Moriarity, a Binghamton patrolman, said he rushed from a patrol car parked at the bridge and saw a boy's sneaker and green flashlight, still turned on.

Then Moriarity saw Wilmott's body on the metal flooring at the end of the bridge, he said. He found no pulse, so Moriarity and a patrol partner began cardiopulmonary resuscitation, the patrolman said.

"I think it reasonable to assume there was some sexual component" to the killing, Mollen told jurors. He said that assumption could be based on Charley's statement that Wagner grabbed Wilmott's genital area and Wagner's statements to police that Wilmott had made a sexual overture.

He said that "regardless of the motive," jurors would find Wagner guilty of murder.

Mollen also said Wagner was the man who called Binghamton police claiming to be a William Sampson who had witnessed the killing and gave a description of the suspect and his car. Mollen said the call was significant because the caller mentioned two things that had not been made public until that time: that the victim had been stabbed in the face, and that the boys had been going through cars in the hotel parking lot.

In his opening remarks, Fox said Wagner will testify that he made false confessions May 5 to the Binghamton killing because two days earlier he had been convicted of sodomizing a 3-year-old in Virginia.

"He so despised that label in Virginia and so feared his fate in the Virginia prison system with that label that he told police he stabbed Eddie Wilmott to get away from Virginia," Fox said.

Wagner told police he would rather face a murder charge in New York "than what he perceived was awaiting him in Virginia," Fox said.

During testimony, Charley admitted he lied to police when he was first questioned, tailoring his description of the killer as a man in bell-bottom jeans and a cap who was "playing with himself" to fit that of a man he heard described by two women in a police waiting room. He told Mollen he thought the lie would somehow help police.

He also lied May 5 when he viewed a lineup and denied seeing the killer, Charley said. A minute later, alone with his mother, he said had seen the killer but had been afraid to say so, he testified. He viewed the lineup again and picked Wagner.

The trial continues today.

Wagner's friend says defendant confessed to 'killing little boy'

By KEITH GEORGE
Staff writer

Michael N. Wagner phoned a friend in Virginia from Broome County Jail June 4 and told her "I killed a little boy," the woman testified in Wagner's murder trial yesterday.

Wagner, 35, who last lived in Boone Vista, Va., is expected to take the stand this afternoon. His lawyer has said Wagner will deny being the man who stabbed Austin E. "Eddie" Wilmott III to death early April 18.

The jury of seven women and five men heard several witnesses testify yesterday that Wagner had admitted stabbing Wilmott, 12, in a confrontation just north of the Washington Street Bridge. They included police investigators from Virginia and Binghamton and the manager of a Pizza Hut in Boone Vista who said Wagner telephoned her a month after his arrest and admitted killing a little boy.

Virginia L. Breeden, the Pizza Hut manager, said Wagner told her the boy "turned on him with a knife" and he retaliated by stabbing Wilmott.

Virginia Breeden

"I stabbed him and I couldn't stop because of everything that had built up in me," Wagner said, according to Breeden.

Under cross-examination by Public Defender Thomas J. Fox, Breeden said that Wagner, who had done odd jobs at the restaurant, had seemed under intense pressure in Virginia because of a sodomy charge against him there.

Wilmott was dead of eight knife wounds when police arrived, after a younger boy who said he saw the stabbing ran for help.

second-degree murder.

Witnesses called yesterday by District Attorney Gerald F. Molten described Wagner as a man obsessed with the sodomy charge and his claim that a Virginia state trooper had "set him up" for conviction.

Alex J. Minor, a Binghamton police investigator, said that during a seven-hour car ride from Virginia to Binghamton May 5, Wagner seldom stopped talking, repeatedly switching from talk of the sodomy charge to the Wilmott killing.

Wagner continually said that if it hadn't been for A.K. Colleher, the Virginia trooper, "this thing in Binghamton would never have happened," Minor said.

"He said he was sorry for what happened in Binghamton and he blamed Trooper Colleher and he also blamed the boys' parents," Minor said. Wagner said he had followed Wilmott and a friend, 11, after seeing them trying to enter cars, including his, in the parking lot of the Holiday Inn-Arena just after midnight April 18, Minor said. Wagner called the boys "street kids who had no business being out at that time of the night," Minor said.

Wagner told Minor he was thinking of Colleher as he plunged the knife into Wilmott, who lived at 22 James St. on Binghamton's South Side, Minor said.

David Vernon Reynolds, a sheriff's investigator from Rockbridge County, Va., said that earlier May 5 Wagner volunteered to him a story similar to that told by Minor. One difference was that Wagner told Reynolds that Wilmott swung at him with "a rock or brick," rather than a knife, Reynolds said.

Wilmott's 11-year-old friend testified Wednesday that neither boy had a weapon or made an aggressive move. The boy said the killer calmly talked with them and then suddenly grabbed Wilmott and began stabbing him, exclaiming, "You were in my car."

Reynolds said Wagner told him of getting a butcher knife from his car and following the boys to the bridge, intending to make a citizen's arrest and return them to a hotel security worker.

Both investigators said Wagner told them Wilmott had made a sexual overture to Wagner just before the stabbing. Wilmott's friend said there was no such talk.

Austin E. Wilmott, the slain boy's father, stood glaring at Wagner after yesterday's testimony, then was pulled by the arm toward the courtroom door by friends.

Also yesterday, Binghamton Police Lt. David E. Eggleston told of receiving a phone call April 21 from a man identifying himself as William Sampson, a trucker from the Baltimore area who claimed to have witnessed the stabbing from the bridge. The caller refused to give his name but revealed information known only to police, Eggleston said.

Eggleston said that while driving Minor and Wagner to Binghamton May 5, Wagner, upon hearing Eggleston's name, said, "Oh, you're the guy I called on the phone." Eggleston said he had already decided — having heard Wagner testify May 3 at the sodomy trial in Lexington, Va. — that the voice he heard on the phone April 21 was Wagner's.

Wagner, a thin 6-footer with brown, tightly curled hair that laps over the back of his shirt collar, has cried briefly several times in court. He dabbed at his eyes yesterday as the trial resumed in a courtroom packed with at least 70 spectators, including members of a high school class who had been instructed by the judge to listen with decorum.

Linden Inman and Joseph E. Danvers, correctional officers with the Broome County Sheriff's Department, both said Wagner discussed the killing with them. Danvers told Fox he was unable to "shut him up" on the topic.

Broome County Judge Patrick D. Monverrate said the trial will resume at 1 p.m. today.

Wagner says he saw man kill Wilmott

By KEITH GEORGE
Staff Writer

Michael N. Wagner testified in his murder trial yesterday that he watched from Binghamton's Washington Street Bridge as a stranger stabbed Austin E. "Eddie" Wilmott III early April 18.

Wagner, 35, said he paused to look at the dying 12-year-old boy but did not help because he feared he would get in trouble for illegally leaving Virginia while on bail on a sodomy charge.

Instead, Wagner trailed the killer and gave Binghamton police a description of the man and his car in a phone report under a phony name three days later, Wagner told jurors in a packed courtroom.

Wagner's multiple confessions to police were motivated by what he characterized as his unjust conviction of a charge that he sodomized a 3-year-old girl in Virginia, he said.

Wagner said he lied when he told police he killed Wilmott because he did not want to go to prison in Virginia with the sodomy label, in part because he feared inmates would kill him.

He told his lawyer, Public Defender Thomas J. Fox, that he was so repulsed by the sodomy conviction, and so afraid of its consequences that he preferred to face a murder charge in New York.

"But on the witness stand today you've had a change of heart?" District Attorney Gerald F. Mollen asked at the close of his hour-long cross examination. "You don't want to be convicted of murder now, do you?" Mollen said.

"Who wants to be convicted of anything?" Wagner replied. "But it would be self-defense murder rather than sodomy. Is that wrong to say?"

"No, you're exactly right, thank you Mr. Wagner," the prosecutor said, ending his questioning.

Austin E. Wilmott Jr., the dead boy's father, said outside the courtroom after court adjourned until Monday that Wagner's story was "a crock."

"If he didn't kill Eddie, who did?" said the father, who said he has since moved from 22

Michael Wagner

James St. to 336 Clinton St., Binghamton.

The father did not hear all of Wagner's testimony. On two occasions, when Wagner began talking of his son, the elder Wilmott left the courtroom, making loud exclamations.

"I have to get out of here, I'm sorry," he said, soon after Mollen began questioning Wagner. Wilmott later said he became emotional upon hearing Wagner speak his son's name as Wagner told of seeing "Eddie Wilmott" try to push away his killer.

Shawn Levens, mother of the dead boy, gave her former husband a parting pat on the arm as she passed him while leaving the courtroom area. The two have been divorced about 10 years, Wilmott said.

Wagner told Mollen he lied when he told police that Wilmott had made a sexual overture and displayed a knife or other weapon.

"It was just a brutal attack by a man on a boy and the boy's dead," Mollen said. "That's what you saw and that's what happened on the bridge?" the prosecutor said. Wagner agreed, and later Mollen noted that Wagner had not hesitated to "dirty the name of a dead boy" with lies.

Wagner said he grew up in York, Pa., where he was bullied by tough kids, and that after unsuccessful attempts at various jobs, decided to be his own boss. He developed a truck wash and polish business in Bakersfield, Calif. The company eventually employed four others before it was shut down for drainage problems in 1985, and he returned to the East Coast, he said.

His chief interest since childhood has been cars, he said, and Mollen produced a map and notebooks in which Wagner documented in great detail the daily travels throughout the country in his vehicles. During a robbery in 1974 in Texas, he was shot in the stomach by thugs and as he lurched from his vehicle he "tried to save the car" by taking the boys and was shot again in an elbow, he said.

Wagner said he had been married and divorced some years ago in the Harrisburg, Pa., area in 1985

he met a woman with a young daughter. He contemplated marriage and came to think of the daughter as his own, but the relationship ended last year with Wagner testifying in Virginia that the woman had abused the child, he said. His former girlfriend then "made a deal" with a prosecutor that led to Wagner's conviction May 3 of sodomizing the child. He explained to jurors how, he said, his contact with the child while having sex with the woman in a travel trailer had been "accidental."

Wagner said he drank beer while driving to Binghamton April 17 to sell a 1977 "junker" car because he thought a car from the South would bring a better price in an area where road salt rusts cars, he said.

He remembered Binghamton, he said, because when he was here on earlier occasions, he had gone to a bar, the now-defunct Bobby Dee's, on Lewis Street. It was his custom then, he said, to sleep in his car in the Holiday Inn-Arena parking lot.

He parked in that lot after dark April 17, drank more beer, and began skateboarding in front of the Arena, he said.

After hearing a woman yell at two boys who were looking in cars in the hotel lot, he hid his skateboard and walked south, across the bridge. When he returned across the bridge, Wagner said, he stopped upon hearing a man talking with two boys, one of whom backed away just before the man pulled a knife and began stabbing the other.

Three days later he called Binghamton police collect from a pay phone at a Baltimore motel claiming to be a William Sampson and gave Lt. David Eggleston a description of the killer, he said.

He denied making the call to throw police off his track with phony information. If he had been the killer, he asked Mollen, "Why would I have come back and sold my car in Binghamton" the afternoon of the killing?

On May 3 he was convicted of sodomy and denied bail when Alex J. Minor, a Binghamton detective, identified himself and told the judge Wagner was a murder suspect.

He considered himself "walking dead" because of the deplorable conviction, Wagner said, so with encouragement from a Virginia investigator, he confessed to the killing he had witnessed, tailoring the facts to support a self-defense claim.

Testimony in the trial ended when Mollen decided after Wagner's testimony not to call rebuttal witnesses. Among those on hand was Virginia State Trooper A.K. Golleher, the man Wagner claims "set him up" and ruined his life on the sodomy charge.

Fox requested that County Judge Patrick D. Monserrate instruct jurors that besides considering the murder charge they can consider first-degree manslaughter under the theory that the killing occurred during a period of "extreme emotional disturbance" or with intent to inflict serious harm but not to kill. The judge made no immediate ruling.

Michael N. Wagner, under cross-examination yesterday, insists he would rather be convicted of self-defense murder in New York than face sodomy charges in Virginia

Wilmott stabbing case expected to go to jury

Suspect: Killer or spectator?

By KEITH GEORGE
Staff Writer

A jury will be asked today to decide if a Virginia man was a spectator or the killer when a Binghamton boy was knifed to death early April 18 at the Washington Street bridge.

Michael N. Wagner, 35, of Buean Vista, has taken both roles in recounting the killing of 17-year-old Austin E. "Eddie" Wilmott.

Wagner, charged with second-degree murder, was on the stand most of Friday afternoon, trying to persuade jurors he had lied in his many "confessions" to police.

Wagner told jurors he was standing on the north end of the bridge and watched the dying boy crawl toward him as the stranger fled. Wagner stood over the boy seconds later, wanting to help, but decided "I was in the wrong place at the wrong time" because he had left Virginia illegally on bail, he said.

Instead, he said, he followed the killer, described by Wagner as 18 or 20 years old with red hair. He said he had watched the man repeatedly knife Wilmott with no apparent provocation as the boy yelled for help and tried to run.

A boy with Wilmott that night, however, identified Wagner as the killer and said nobody else was in sight when Wilmott was attacked.

Wagner claimed he talked to the boy as he stood by Wilmott, asking "What's happening?" just before Wagner left to follow the killer.

One of the first questions District Attorney Gerald F. Mollen asked Wagner Friday concerned a television show that the second boy, 11, said had been mentioned by the killer. The boy testified that before Wagner pulled a knife he calmly talked with the two boys, at one point saying he drove "a car like Starsky and Hutch."

Wagner, a lanky man who looks younger than his age and was nicknamed "Space Case" by school mates in York, Pa., said he had seldom watched television because he had lived in his car and traveled so much. Wagner had come to Binghamton late April 17 in a 1977 Mercury Marquis, which he sold the afternoon of the killing to a mechanic at a Town of Chenango used car lot.

Wagner said he has loved cars since boyhood. Apparently, the car he drove most in his self-documented travels through the United States was a 1972 red Torino hatchback which, he said, had gone 460,000 miles.

"Isn't that a red Torino in Starsky and Hutch?" Mollen asked.

"It's a lot newer than mine," Wagner replied.

"On April 18 when you were in Binghamton, wasn't that red Torino in a garage at your parents' house?" Mollen asked. Wagner said it was.

Both Wagner and the second boy told jurors the killer yelled, "You were in my car," as he stabbed Eddie. Wagner said he had seen the two boys entering cars earlier in the nearby Holiday Inn-Arena parking lot, but that they did not enter his car. He denied owning a flashlight found by police at the scene that the second boy said had been stolen from a car by Wilmott.

Mollen apparently had been unable during his case to present evidence that police had recovered a knife from Wagner's car in Virginia

May 5. Wagner that day drew a picture of the knife and a diagram showing David V. Reynolds, a Virginia investigator, where it would be found, according to pretrial testimony.

Jurors learned of the knife when Wagner began telling Mollen that he "lived in his car" and that just as "ordinary people" keep knives in houses, "I had knives" in the car.

The prosecutor then produced the knife and drawing. "You had that knife in your car, and on May 5 you told Reynolds that's the knife you used to stab Eddie, right?" Mollen asked about the confession Wagner later denied. Wagner agreed.

Reynolds had testified that before confessing to the Wilmott killing, Wagner had asked whether a knife washed in gasoline would show blood traces. Each time Mollen asked Wagner about that statement Friday the defendant gave a rambling answer, saying he had to answer "my own way," and talking of other things.

Wagner claims he was so obessed with what he says was an unjust child-sodomy conviction May 3 in Virginia that he gave a phony confession "to get me out of Virginia" and because Reynolds had led him to believe such a confession would bring him professional help.

Mollen asked why Wagner would "dirty a boy" with a claim that Wilmott had offered to perform a sexual act for money, something the boy's companion said never happened and which Wagner told jurors was his lie.

Wagner said he said that because he was "dead set against" such activity. He said that admitting that in his confession, which he later repudiated, would help explain why he "went off" and began stabbing uncontrollably.

Wagner also admitted he lied when he told police and others that Wilmott had pulled a knife on his attacker.

"So you told all the police officers you were going to come in and testify that you did it, but it was in self-defense," Mollen said. Wagner agreed.

Wagner guilty in death of boy

By KEITH GEORGE
Staff Writer

Michael N. Wagner was convicted late last night of second-degree murder in the April 18 stabbing death of 12-year-old Austin E. "Eddie" Wilmott.

Members of the dead boy's family gasped and cried upon hearing the jury's decision at 11:10 p.m.

"Eddie can rest in peace now," said his father, Austin E. Wilmott Jr. "They've convicted the man who killed my baby."

The jury deliberated about seven hours, and preparations were being made to sequester them at a Binghamton hotel when the verdict came.

Wagner could be sentenced to as many as 25 years to life and faces a mandatory 15 years to life in prison. Broome County Judge Patrick D. Monserrate scheduled sentencing for Jan. 13 and sent Wagner back to the county jail where he has been held since May 5.

Wagner's lawyer, Public Defender Thomas J. Fox, argued that his client did not kill the boy, but asked that if jurors found Wagner guilty of murder, that they consider whether he acted under the influence of extreme emotional disturbance. Had jurors so found, it would have meant a manslaughter conviction, which carries a maximum of 8½ to 25 years in prison.

When Wagner was escorted to the judge's bench, he made some remarks that were inaudible to spectators. The judge replied, "The prisoner is remanded to the custody of the sheriff."

The judge said later that Wagner had asked him for the death penalty. New York state does not have the death penalty.

Wagner's lawyer had asked jurors that if they decided Wagner had committed murder, they consider the argument that he acted under the influence of "extreme emotional disturbance." Such a finding would have reduced the conviction to first-degree manslaughter.

Wilmott was stabbed with a butcher knife early April 18 at the north end of the Washington Street Bridge in Binghamton.

District Attorney Gerald F. Mollen, in his closing statement, ridiculed the claim that Wagner had been a witness rather than the killer. He said Wagner had tortured the truth for his own purposes in various accounts of the killing, and that the defendant's deliberate actions before and after the killing belied the claim of extreme emotional disturbance.

Mollen told jurors they probably will never know for sure what Wagner's motives were in stabbing the boy. "But they were certainly twisted reasons, reasons that are abnormal that you will not fully understand being the persons that you are," the prosecutor told the jury of seven women and five men.

"What you do know from the evidence, and beyond a reasonable doubt, is that the person who chose to kill Eddie Wilmott by using that butcher knife, and using it eight separate times, is Michael Wagner," Mollen said.

The prosecutor said Wagner purposely withheld from the jury the reason he had "chosen" Eddie Wilmott to kill.

"He knew the reasons were so dark that you as jurors would not accept them as an explanation for this killing, and so he chose to keep those reasons to himself," Mollen said.

The prosecutor said the most obvious possible motives, and those that fit Wagner's profile, were cars and sex. Wagner was obsessed with his cars, and the testimony suggested he had seen Wilmott steal a flashlight from his car in the parking lot of the Holiday Inn-Arena, Mollen said.

The prosecutor displayed a short, pointed butcher knife that police had found in Wagner's car May 5 in Buena Vista, Va.

Fox had told jurors there were areas of reasonable doubt that Wagner was the killer, besides Wagner's denial in testimony Friday. They included a somewhat shaky identification of Wagner by the second boy and lack of any concrete evidence such as fingerprints.

A. YEAH AND GREW, ALL THE OBSESSIONS. UH, I MADE A MISTAKE THE FIRST ENCOUNTER I HAD WITH ANYONE WAS THE KID ACROSS THE STREET, WE WERE BOTH ABOUT THE SAME AGE, TYSON, IT WAS CONSENSUAL IN A PORT..

Q. (IN OHIO?)

A. YEAH THAT WAS REALLY THE FIRST TIME BUT IT WAS JUST VERY LIGHT SEX, KISSING, HOLDING THAT TYPE OF THING.

Q. HOW OLD WERE YOU AT THAT TIME?

A. I WAS 14, I THINK HE WAS 14 SOMETHING LIKE THAT. IT WAS CONSENSUAL.

Q. AND THE NEXT TIME AFTER THAT WASN'T UNTIL YOU WERE IN..

A. RIGHT..

Q. IN THE SERVICE.

A. THAT WAS NOT..THAT WAS NOT UNTIL THE HICKS INCIDENT. THAT WAS NOT CONSENSUAL.

Q. RIGHT.. THIS OBSESSION THAT YOU SPEAK ABOUT, I MEAN, HOW WERE YOU ABLE TO CONTROL YOURSELF WHILE YOU WERE IN THE SERVICE AND GOING THROUGH HIGH SCHOOL AND ON INTO THE SERVICE?

A. HEAVY DRINKING, PORNOGRAPHY, MASTURBATION.

Q. THAT SATISFIED YOUR NEEDS AT THE TIME.

A. RIGHT. BUT ONCE I HAD THE OPPORTUNITY AND THE UH..A PLACE WHERE I COULD ACTUALLY MAKE THESE FANTASIES COME TRUE THEN TRYING TO HOLD THEM BACK WAS, JUST SEEMED TO BE TOO MUCH, I WENT THROUGH THAT WITH YOU TOO..(UNINTELLIGIBLE).. DESIRE GREW AND GREW MORE CONSTANT STRONGER.

Q. SO ONCE YOU WERE ABLE TO OBTAIN YOUR OWN APARTMENT, YOUR OWN PLACE.

A. EVEN BEFORE THAT..

Q. EVEN BEFORE?

A. I WAS DRIVEN ENOUGH TO TRY TO..TO DO, ACTUALLY DO IT IN WEST DALLAS, BEFORE I GOT THE APARTMENT THAT'S HOW DRIVEN AND HOW STRONG THE DESIRE WAS.

Q. WHEN DID YOU FIRST EVER THINK ABOUT KILLING SOMEBODY? WHEN DID THAT ENTER YOUR MIND?

A. WHEN I WAS SIX, SIX, WHEN I WAS ABOUT 15 OR 16 THOSE FANTASIES STARTED ENTERING MY HEAD, WHY THEY DID I DON'T KNOW. I NEVER THOUGHT IT WOULD REALLY HAPPEN BUT EVERYTHING WAS SET UP SO PERFECTLY THAT ONE TIME IN OHIO..

Q. (WITH THE HITCHHIKER?)

A. YEAH, YEAH. THAT'S NO EXCUSE FOR IT BUT IT'S JUST WEIRD HOW EVERYTHING WAS JUST PERFECT THAT ONE TIME.

Q. (WHAT DID, JEFFREY, WE DIDN'T TALK IN GREAT DETAIL ABOUT THAT FANTASY, WHAT WAS IT THAT YOU...YOU'D BE SEEING WHEN YOU CLOSED YOUR EYES OR THE, AROUSAL, WOULD YOU BE FEELING? WHAT EXACTLY WAS THAT?

A. YEAH..THOUGHTS OF A GOOD LOOKING WELL BUILT YOUNG GUY, HAVING TOTAL CONTROL OVER HIM..UH..UH...I DON'T KNOW IF KILLING EVER CAME INTO IT, CAME INTO PLAY BUT IF THAT WAS THE ONLY WAY TO KEEP HIM THEN THAT WOULD BE DONE.

Q. (SO THEN THE TOTAL DOMINATION, TOTAL..)

A. RIGHT.

Q. (LOVE SLAVE?)

A. YEAH.

Q. (OK..WHAT ABOUT THE DISMEMBERING?)

THERE WAS NOTHING SEXUAL ABOUT THAT, THAT WAS JUST..

Q. WHAT ABOUT, HOW DID YOU LEARN ABOUT WHAT CHEMICALS TO USE?

A. THAT WAS TRIAL AND ERROR TOO, I HAD CALLED A COUPLE TAXIDERMISTS PRETENDED THAT I WAS, WANTED TO UH.. DRY OUT RABBIT SKINS OR SOMETHING LIKE THAT. AND THERE WAS THIS PHARMACY RIGHT NEXT TO MY APARTMENT THAT HAD, WHERE YOU COULD BUY GALLONS OF CHLORALFORM, EITHER, FORMALDEHYDE, SO IT'S PRETTY CONVENIENT.

Q. RIGHT. IS THAT HOW YOU WOULD CONTROL SOME OF YOUR VICTIMS WITH CHLORALFORM OR EITHER?

A. I TRIED THAT BUT IT NEVER WORKED. FOR SOME REASON THOSE TWO CHEMICALS DO NOT WORK, WHETHER I HAD THE WRONG TYPE I DON'T KNOW. IT WAS JUST THE SLEEPING PILLS THAT WERE MOST EFFECTIVE.

Q. YOU NEVER HAD TO USE PHYSICAL FORCE TO KEEP THEM THERE?

A. ONE, A COUPLE TIMES I DID. I NEVER WANTED TO I WANTED TO.. TO MAKE IT AS QUICK AND PAINLESS AS POSSIBLE, RIGHT. AND THE ONE TIME THAT THERE WAS A PHYSICAL FIGHT I WAS OUT OF PILLS, THAT WAS THE TIME I TOLD YOU THE GUY ROLLED ON THE FLOOR AND KNOCKED THE TABLE OVER, THERE'S A MARCH STATUTES, THOSE GRIFFINS..

Q. GRIFFINS.

A. AND THE OTHER TIME WAS WHEN THAT 15 YEAR OLD WENT BACK WITH ME, HE WAS WORKING THE BAR, THE 219 BAR?

Q. UH HUH.

A. AND UH.. UH.. DIDN'T HAVE ANY PILLS SO I WHACKED HIM WITH A RUBBER Mallet IN THE BACK OF THE HEAD. HE LEFT, CAME BACK ASKED FOR SOME MONEY, GOT INTO A FIGHT, AND ENDED UP LETTING HIM GO IN THE MORNING.. THEN HE WENT AND TOLD THE POLICE A WILD TALE THEY DIDN'T BELIEVE HIM AND SO.. BUT THAT WAS ABOUT THE ONLY TWO TIMES.

Q. WHAT TYPES OF TOOLS DID YOU USE FOR DISMEMBERING THESE VICTIMS?

A. LARGE HUNTING KNIFE WITH A RUBBER GRIP, VERY LARGE.. BOUGHT IT AT THE KNIFE STORE IN THE GRAND MALL..

Q. (SERRATED?)

A. NO, NO SERRATED IT WAS JUST LARGE, THE BLADE WAS ABOUT THAT BIG, THICK.. VERY SHARP..

Q. WOULD THAT WORK?

A. YEAH.

Q. WAS IT EASY TO, TO DO?

Q. ANY ORDER YOU WOULD GO IN?

A. NO JUST UH..I FEEL UNCOMFORTABLE TALKING ABOUT IT ON TAPE NOT KNOWING WHO'S GOING TO BE LISTENING TO THE TAPE, THIS PART.. DO YOU GUYS REALLY NEED THIS ON TAPE?

Q. YEAH, IT'S LIKE I SAY, IT'S FOR BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE FOR TEACHING.. (I WOULD BE WILLING, TO TAKE NOTES IF YOU WANT TO TURN THE TAPE OFF.)

A. I'LL JUST GIVE YOU A GENERAL DESCRIPTION.

Q. SURE.

A. JUST SLIT FROM THE STERNUM TO THE YOU KNOW, PUBIC AREA, REMOVED THE INTERNAL ORGANS AND THEN CUT THE FLESH STARTING FROM THE CALVES, LEGS, AND THEN UP, REMOVED THE HEAD AND PUT THAT IN THE FREEZER, AND UH..THE BONE, THE SKELETON THAT WAS DEFLESHED I WOULD PUT IN THAT LARGE 80 GALLON COOKING POT THAT I HAD POUR IN THE BOX OF THAT WALL CLEANING SOLUTION, I'D STRIP THE REMAINING FLESH OFF, TURN UP TO A BOIL..AND DID THE SAME WITH THE HEADS SO I HAD A CLEAN SKELETON, A BIG CLEAN SKELETON AND UH..SOMETIMES I WOULD SAVED PORTIONS OF THE FLESH WITH CONSUMPTION, MOST OF IT WENT OUT IN THE GARBAGE OR IN THE ACID BATH AND A LOT OF THE UNUSED SKELETONS WENT INTO THE ACID BATH TOO. OR WERE FLUSHED DOWN THE TOILET..SO THAT'S HOW IT WAS DONE.

Q. THIS RITUAL YOU HAD WITH YOUR VICTIMS, HOW LONG OF A PERIOD OF TIME DID THIS GO ON WITH JUST ONE VICTIM UNTIL YOU WERE TOTALLY SATISFIED?

A. IT'S, FOR A LONG TIME IT WAS JUST ONCE EVERY TWO MONTHS, NEAR THE END IT WAS ONCE EVERY WEEK.

Q. ONCE A WEEK?

A. YEAH JUST REALLY GOT COMPLETELY OUT OF CONTROL.

Q. NOW AS THE SKELETONS STARTED FILLING UP IN YOUR APARTMENT THERE WERE YOU CONCERNED ABOUT DETECTION? OR ABOUT THE POLICE?

A. NOT UNTIL A POINT WHERE IT GOT TO THE POINT WHERE I COULDN'T EVEN FIT THEM IN THE FREEZER AND I HAD TO BUY THAT LARGE BARREL THAT HAD HEAVIER PLASTIC SO THAT I COULD ACIDIFY THEM WITHOUT ANY LEAKAGE OR SMELL. AND IT WOULD GET..

Q. WOULD THAT GET RID OF IT? (WOULD THAT MELT THEM OR..)

A. THAT, YOU CAN BUY THESE GALLON JUGS OF MURATIC ACIDS, IT'S THE DILUTED KIND OF HYDROCHLORIC ACID..I HAD 16 GALLONS OF IT THERE WAITING

TO USE IN THOSE THREE SKELETONS THAT WERE IN THE BLUE, BLUE TUB. YEAH THAT WILL ACIDIFY IT WITHIN A COUPLE DAYS YOU CAN SCOOP IT OUT AND POUR IT DOWN THE TOILET, BONES EVEN.. AND UH..STUFF..

Q. WHEN YOU STARTED BECOMING CONCERNED AT THAT ONE POINT WHERE YOU COULDN'T FIT IT IN THE FREEZER ANYMORE, WHAT ACTION DID YOU TAKE THEN?

A. I BOUGHT THAT LARGE 55 GALLON BLUE BARREL, PUT THE, PUT THE THREE SKELETONS THAT I WASN'T GOING TO KEEP IN THAT, HAD THE, HAD THE UH, UNBOILED HEADS FROZEN IN THE FREEZER AND ONE SKELETON THAT I WASN'T GOING TO BOIL AND KEEP. SO I WAS JUST GOING TO POUR ALL THOSE JUGS OF MERIDIC ACID IN THERE AND ACIDIFY THEM BUT NEVER DID GET THE CHANCE.

Q. AT ANY TIME DID YOU EVER HAVE TO REMOVE ANY BODY PARTS FROM YOUR APARTMENT AND BURY THEM OR DISCARD OF THEM SOMEWHERE?

A. NEVER DID THAT, NEVER DID THAT..

Q. SO EVERYTHING WAS RIGHT IN YOUR APARTMENT.

A. EVERYTHING WAS RIGHT IN THE APARTMENT. NOTHING, FLESH DID GO OUT SOMETIMES IN THE GARBAGE BUT IT WAS TIGHTLY WRAPPED AND IT WAS UNDETECTED, NOBODY EVER DETECTED IT.

Q. DO YOU HAVE YOUR OWN PERSONAL SECURITY SYSTEM?

A. YEAH, RIGHT.

Q. WHAT WAS THAT?

A. I INSTALLED A SECURITY SYSTEM, 400 DOLLAR SECURITY SYSTEM, INSTALLED A LOCKING BATHROOM, I MEAN BEDROOM LOCK..HAD A VIDEO CAMERA, DUMMY VIDEO CAMERA, AND UH..INSTALLED MY OWN LOCKS IN THE DOORS, YOU KNOW, SLIDING DOOR, KEY CHAIN LOCK..

Q. NOW YOUR VICTIMS, YOU HAD SEX WITH THEM PRIOR TO THEIR DEATHS?

A. PRIOR AND AFTWARDS.

Q. (AND IT STILL WOULDN'T SEXUALLY SATISFY YOU?)

A. IT SATISFIED ME FOR A SHORT TIME BUT IT NEVER, IT NEVER DROVE THE DESIRE FROM ULTIMATE FULFILLMENT AND SATISFACTION AWAY. THAT COULD ONLY BE DONE I THOUGHT THROUGH ACTUALLY HAVING CONTROL OF SOMEONE.

Q. (THAT WAS THE MIND SETTING, WE TALKED ABOUT LAST WEEK THAT IT WOULD JUST GROW..)

A. RIGHT, I MEAN IT WAS THE MAIN FOCUS OF MY LIFE..AFTER I GOT OFF WORK THAT'S THE FIRST THING I'D DID WAS HEAD TO THE PORN SHOP, MAKE PLANS TO GO INTO CHICAGO WATCH THE STRIP TEASE ACTS, UH..MY WHOLE LIFE REVOLVED AROUND THAT SCHEDULE.

Q. DID YOU EVER KEEP A DIARY OF THESE INCIDENTS?

A. I WAS NEVER ONE FOR WRITING LETTERS OR KEEPING DIARIES.

Q. SO YOUR DIARY WAS BASICALLY YOUR FANTASY THAT YOU KEPT IN YOUR MIND AND YOU REHASHED OVER THE..

A. USED THE PICTURES THAT I TOOK.

Q. OH YOU TOOK PICTURES OF THEM?

A. YEAH POLAROID PICTURES. IF I HAD HAD A VIDEO CAMERA I WOULD OF PROBABLY USED THAT BUT I NEVER WENT THAT FAR.

Q. DID YOU HAVE TO SECURE SOME OF YOUR VICTIMS I MEAN WITH BONDAGE OR HANDCUFFS OR ANYTHING TO KEEP THEM TOTALLY UNDER CONTROL?

A. I STARTED DOING THAT UH..WITH UH..LET'S SEE..STRAUGHTER, MR. STRAUGHTER, AND YEAH I BOUGHT HANDCUFFS AT THE ARMY SUPPLY AND UH..DID THAT AFTER THEY WERE DRUGGED I HANDCUFFED THEM..(UNINTELLIGIBLE) I'D HANDCUFF THEM AND...I WASN'T INTERESTED IN TORTURE, THAT'S NOT WHAT INTERESTED ME, ALL I WANTED TO DO WAS MAKE IT QUICK AND PAINLESS FOR THEM. I KNOW IT SOUNDS RIDICULOUS FOR ME TO SAY THAT BUT THAT'S WHAT MY GOAL WAS SO I'D HAVE COMPLETE CONTROL OVER THEM SO I WOULDN'T HAVE TO WORRY ABOUT THEM LEAVING IN THE MORNING AND I COULD FULFILL MY FANTASIES.

Q. SO YOU APPARENTLY DID HAVE A CONSCIOUS ABOUT THESE PEOPLE EXPERIENCING PAIN.

A. THAT'S WHY I GAVE THEM THE SLEEPING PILLS BEFORE...YEAH, AND UH.. IT USUALLY WORKED I MEAN I WOULD USUALLY USE SEVEN SLEEPING PILLS.

Q. WAS THERE ONE PARTICULAR VICTIM THAT WAS THE MOST SEXUAL SATISFYING EXPERIENCE YOU HAD?

A. UHH...THE ONE I TOOK THE MOST PICTURES OF UH...BLACK GUY, MET IN FRONT OF THE BOOKSTORE ON 27TH STREET, YOU KNOW WHAT BOOKSTORE THAT IS, (UNINTELLIGIBLE) TOTAL, TOTAL COINCIDENCE, I WAS, JUST 3 O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING, I HADN'T MET ANYBODY INTERESTING AT THE BARS DOWNTOWN, I WAS JUST GOING TO GO IN AND LOOK AT SOME PORNOGRAPHY AND GO BACK TO SLEEP AND AS I WAS APPROACHING THE BOOKSTORE I SAW HIM WALKING OUT, NICE LOOKING GUY, ASKED HIM WHETHER HE WANTED TO GO BACK AND HE SAID "YES" AND UH..SO HE'S THE ONE I TOOK THE MOST PICTURES OF.

Q. (THAT WAS YOUR MEMENTOS?)

A. UH HUH.

Q. DID YOU EVOLVE INTO ANY SATANIC ACTIVITIES?

A. IT, IT WAS LEADING TOWARDS THAT WAY.

Q. AT WHAT STAGE?

A. TOWARDS THE MIDDLE AND LATER PARTS..I NEVER, NEVER WAS INVOLVED WITH ANY GROUP BUT I WAS READING A LOT OF LITERATURE ON IT AND WONDERING WHETHER IT WAS POSSIBLE TO GAIN EVEN MORE POWER THROUGH RITUALS AND STUFF. I DIDN'T KNOW, I WAS JUST EXPERIMENTING..

Q. DID YOU DABBLE IN THESE RITUALS? IN YOUR OWN APARTMENT?

A. SOMETIMES YEAH, IN THE BEDROOM, THAT'S WHY I HAD THE ALTERS SET UP AND EVERYTHING..

Q. (YOU HIDE THE SMOKE WHILE THESE GUARDS COME BY) YOU HAD AN ALTER SET UP IN YOUR BEDROOM?

A. YEAH, THE..THE DESIRE TO FULFILL THE FANTASIES BECAME THE ALL CONSUMING THING..

Q. SO THESE INTENDED TARGETS WERE JUST LIFELESS PEOPLE EVENTUALLY, JUST OBJECTS?

A. THAT'S HOW I VISUALIZE THEM YEAH.. THAT'S WHY I NEVER GOT TO KNOW ANY OF THEM REAL WELL, IT MADE IT EASIER..JUST SEXUAL OBJECTS.

Q. WOULD YOU FEEL, THE BLACK VICTIM THAT YOU SPOKE OF, DID YOU HAVE FEELINGS FOR HIM SINCE YOU FELT LIKE HE WAS THE..

Q. YOU WOULDN'T KILL YOUR, AFTER HAVING A SEXUAL EXPERIENCE WITH THESE PEOPLE, DID YOU KILL THEM THAT DAY OR COULD YOU LEAVE THEM IN YOUR APARTMENT AS YOU WENT ON TO DO YOUR ACTIVITIES THE NEXT DAY?

Q. WAS THE CANNIBALISM A SEXUAL GRATIFICATION TOO?

A. IT WAS . IT STARTED OUT AS EXPERIMENTATION..MADE ME FEEL LIKE THEY WERE MORE APART OF ME..

Q. (THAT'S INTERESTING)

A. SO IT DID GIVE ME SOME SATISFACTION AND THERE WAS SOME GRATIFICATION.

Q. (HOW WOULD YOU PREPARE IT?)

A. UHH..ON THE STOVE, ON THE SKILLET, UH, JUST LIKE YOU PREPARE A REGULAR PIECE OF MEAT, THEY'D BE UH, CUT INTO YOU KNOW, SIZES THAT WERE SMALL ENOUGH TO EAT.

Q. (ANY OTHER ORGANS?)

A. HEARTS, LIVER, THIGH MEAT, BICEPS, BICEPS..

Q. (HOW DID IT TASTE?)

A. UHH....THERE'S NO WAY OF SAYING IT WITHOUT SOUNDING UH...GRUESOME..

Q. (I DON'T FIND IT OFFENSIVE.)

A. WELL IT.....I, I DON'T KNOW HOW TO DESCRIBE IT. YOU'VE HAD FILET MIGNON, HAVEN'T YOU?

Q. (UH HUH, THAT'S ONE OF MY FAVORITES)

A. YEAH. VERY TENDER...

Q. WHEN YOU FINALLY WERE ARRESTED, OK, WAS THERE ANY TYPE OF RELIEF? THAT YOU SAID "GOD IT'S FINALLY OVER"?

A. JUST FOR..IN TERROR

Q. OR YOU REGRETTED THAT YOU WERE CAUGHT.

A. I DON'T REGRET IT. THAT'S THE FUNNY THING, PART OF ME REGRETS IT..NO IT'S OK..

Q. YOU SURE?

A. YEAH...INTELLECTUALLY I KNOW THIS IS THE BEST THING THAT COULD OF HAPPENED FOR ME AND EVERYBODY ELSE INVOLVED BECAUSE I COULD NOT STOP MYSELF. UH..SO I KNOW INTELLECTUALLY THIS IS THE BEST THING FOR EVERYBODY.. ON THE EMOTIONAL LEVEL THERE'S STILL A LOT OF WANTING TO BE ABLE TO HAVE THE FREEDOM TO GO TO CHICAGO, DRINK, SPEND THE NIGHTS

NIGHTCLUB..YOU KNOW..THE NIGHTLIFE. SO IT CAUSES TENSION.
A LOT OF TENSION SOMETIMES. SOMETIMES I HANDLE IT BETTER THAN WEEKENDS ARE THE WORST.

(WHY IS THAT? BECAUSE THAT WAS YOUR PATTERN?)

RIGHT.

(RIGHT, THAT'S WHAT I THOUGHT.)

IT WAS A LOT OF FUN, I HAVE TO ADMIT, IT'S A LOT OF EXCITEMENT..
STALKING AND PREYING..

NOT NECESSARILY THE GRUESOME PART BUT JUST BEING OUT IN THE
IN THAT TYPE OF ATMOSPHERE.

THE FREEDOM TO..

NOT HAVING TO PRETEND THAT I WAS SOMETHING THAT I WASN'T. YOU AND WATCHING THE STRIP TEASE ACTS, THERE'S SOME PRETTY GOOD ONES.

I USED TO GO TO BISTRO 2, THAT'S A GOOD ONE IN CHICAGO..CAROL'S, RTEX, THESE HUGE MULTI FLOOR NIGHT CLUBS, STAY OPEN TILL ABOUT
THE MORNING. THEN THEY'D HAVE THE BATH CLUBS, SPEND THE REST OF THE NIGHT IN THOSE.

(WOULD THAT COST?)

OH HUH..ABOUT 16 BUCKS A NIGHT JUST TO GET IN THERE.

(THEN ANYTHING GOES?)

ANYTHING GOES. WHIRLPOOL, SAUNA, STEAM ROOM, THEY HAVE IT ALL
THEY HAVE THE VIEWING.

(THERE'S A PLACE IN NEW YORK, UP ON 50 SOMETHING STREET I CAN'T REMEMBER THE NAME OF IT, IT'S BEEN SO MANY YEARS, IT'S BEEN 10 YEARS
I'VE BEEN ASSIGNED THERE BUT THAT'S THE SAME ONLY IT WAS MALE,

NO, IT WASN'T

Dahmer denies killings outside Wisconsin, Ohio

Florida police investigate possible links to Adam Walsh

Police Dept. - 921-3361 3411 (305)

By Robert Dvorzhak
Associated Press writer

MILWAUKEE — Jeffrey Dahmer, who admitted killing 11 people whose remains were found in his dilapidated apartment, has denied involvement in slayings other than in Wisconsin and Ohio, his lawyer said Saturday.

Attorney Gerald Boyle's statement came as Milwaukee police worked with detectives investigating whether Dahmer, 31, could be a suspect in unsolved missing persons or murder cases in several states. Authorities in Germany also were investigating Dahmer in at least five unsolved murders near an Army base where he had been stationed.

One of the unsolved U.S. cases is the abduction and killing of 6-year-old Adam Walsh, whose disappearance 10 years ago Saturday in Florida focused new nationwide attention on missing children. Walsh's head was found in a canal two weeks later. Dahmer's father said his son lived in Florida at the time The Milwaukee Sentinel reported Hollywood police confirmed they were investigating whether Dahmer may have been involved in the boy's death, though they stressed that they didn't consider him a suspect. Police believe Dahmer may be responsible for at least 17 deaths over 10 or more years.

Boyle, in a statement, quoted Dahmer as saying "I have told the police everything I have done relative to these homicides. I have not committed any such crimes anywhere in the world other than in this state except I have admitted an incident in Ohio."

"I have been totally cooperative and would have admitted other crimes if I did them. I did not fully thus will serve to put rumors to rest," Boyle quoted Dahmer as saying. He said Dahmer wouldn't comment further.

Several newspapers have reported that Dahmer has confessed to killing a man in Ohio. Police in Bath Township, Ohio, confirmed they have sealed off the grounds of Dahmer's former home there and will search for body parts Monday.

The Akron (Ohio) Beacon-Journal quoted unidentified police sources saying Dahmer had sex with a man, killed him and buried him near his home while he has living with his parents in 1978.

Township police Capt. John Garber said he wouldn't comment on the report but confirmed that Bath and Summit County, Ohio, doesn't happen very often, but I'm at a loss for words," said Nicola, drawing loud laughter from those in attendance.

Nicola, a hemophiliac, contracted the deadly HIV virus through one of hundreds of blood transfusions he received as a child. Last year, he was diagnosed as having AIDS and in March told the world he had the fatal disease.

County detectives interviewed Dahmer on Saturday in jail in Milwaukee. He said police would discuss the case at a news conference Sunday.

Police in the Milwaukee suburb of West Allis also said Milwaukee authorities had contacted them about the possibility that Dahmer killed someone while living with his grandmother West Allis police Chief John Borzic told The Milwaukee Journal. He would interview the woman and get a search warrant if necessary.

In Hollywood Fla. police spokesman Ed Cunningham said detectives had contacted Milwaukee police to investigate possible links between Dahmer and the Adam Walsh case. But he emphasized Dahmer was not a suspect in Adam's murder.

Dahmer's father said his son spent six months in Florida after he was discharged from the Army in 1981, sleeping on the beach or at a motel by night and working in a sandwich shop by day, according to The Milwaukee Sentinel.

CHOPPERTOWN, N.Y. (AP) — Henry Nicola, the only Boy Scout in the nation known to have AIDS, became an Eagle Scout Saturday night at a lakeside ceremony punctuated by both tears and laughter.

With his parents and grandparents at his side, the 17-year-old received an Eagle Scout medal — the highest rank a Boy Scout can achieve. Nicola devoted an AIDS education program to fulfill the community service requirement for becoming an Eagle Scout.

Taped beating launched police reform, Bradley says

Tom Bradley

By Michael Freeman
Associated Press writer

LOS ANGELES — Mayor Tom Bradley says he has long known about racism and brutality in the Police Department, but it took a startling videotaped beating of a black man by white officers to generate public support for reform.

"Without something of a dramatic fashion to hit the people squarely between the eyes, there was no way that you could convince the majority of the people in the city that these kinds of abuses happen," Bradley said in an interview.

The mayor spoke at length Thursday about the March 3 assault of motorist Rodney King and the political turmoil that followed, capped this month by the release of a civilian panel's report that found instances of brutality and racism running virtually unchecked in the 8,300-officer department.

The Christopher Commission also recommended that police Chief David F.ustes step down and, 13 days later he announced he will retire in April.

Bradley said a vigilant Police Commission, a citizen oversight panel appointed by the mayor, will keep a close eye on Gates during the next nine months. He suggested Gates' departure will allow for a new kind of department more sensitive to community needs.

Gates since the chief was appointed by the Police Commission 13 years ago.

"I had hoped the Christopher Commission would come out with a hard-hitting report," he said. "Frankly I did not expect that they were going to focus so clearly on Chief Gates and ask for his retirement."

An effort is under way to put on the ballot, probably in June, a measure asking voters to back the commission's recommendations to limit the chief to two five-year terms and give the mayor a bigger say in the chief's selection.

Bradley says a chief can be legally hired by April 1 under the current system, which gives the final say to the Police Commission and not him.

The mayor said he'd like to see a chief with strong supervisory skills who can translate policies from above to action on the street, as well as an ability to relate to the public. He said this kind of chief can come from within or outside of the department.

Bradley said he wants police officers to get out of their patrol cars for about an hour each shift and walk down a sidewalk or go through a shopping center to develop a better rapport with the public.

"As it is now, they ride down the streets and these are just faceless bodies there on the sidewalk or in the shopping centers. No connection between them, no opportunity to relate to them."

King was struck more than 50 times by baton-wielding officers after he was pulled over in his car for speeding. Four officers await trial on a variety of felony charges. The beating, videotaped by a resident from his apartment balcony, has been shown many times on national television.

The videotape started it, but Bradley said the catalyst for change was the Christopher Commission report, named after chairman Warren Christopher, a former deputy secretary of state. After its release, a majority of City Council members and prominent business leaders backed Gates' retirement.

Bradley has been tangling with

Mr. Michael Satz
State Attorney - 17th Judicial Circuit 201 South East 6th Street
Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33301

Dear Michael:

I have been speaking on and off to Jack Hoffman, the lead investigator in my son Adam's murder case, for several months about the need of the Hollywood police to speak to Jeffrey Dahmer concerning Adam's case.

It is my understanding that Dahmer's father came forward and said that his son had mustered out of the Army and was hanging around the Hollywood Florida area at the time of Adam's death. I also understand two credible witnesses have come forward placing Dahmer inside and outside the Hollywood mall the day of Adam's abduction.

I had hoped the Hollywood police could talk to Dahmer during the early stages of his case, but it is my understanding that Dahmer's defense attorney prevented any law enforcement agency with an unresolved case to talk to Dahmer if the state the case was from, was a death penalty state. I believe the FBI's assisting Jack Hoffman in getting access to Dahmer.

I have discussed the situation with my wife Reve, and we both concur that it is acceptable for you to offer whatever concessions you deem necessary in order for the Hollywood police to question Dahmer.

We are not vigilantes nor are we obsessed with vengeance, but after ten years of heartache and the nightmare of wondering why and who took Adam and if they would ever strike again against our family or our two beautiful new children, we need to know something. I know Dahmer will never get out of prison and I believe he will receive justice in the next life as well. At least knowing whether he did it or not would be some consolation.

Many people in the criminal justice system and the public have forgotten that Jeffrey Dahmer started out as a pedophile, kidnapper, and torturer of young boys and committed the ultimate travesty to a family. After being released on parole for the kidnapping and molestation of the youngest son in the family, in an act of cold blooded brutal revenge, he kidnapped, tortured, and murdered the other son in that family. He certainly fits the profile of someone who might be capable of murdering a beautiful six-year-old boy.

You have our confidence, and I know you will proceed full speed ahead.

If I can be of assistance with any law enforcement agency please don't hesitate to call me or my assistant, Karen Tate, at 202/895-3092.

Re: Jeffrey Dahmer

Dear Mr. Mozenter:

In response to your correspondence addressed to Detective Hoffman dated August 18, 1992, please be advised that Detective Hoffman interviewed the above-referenced subject on August 13, 1992, regarding any possible involvement in the disappearance and death of Adam Walsh during the summer of 1981. Adam Walsh was kidnapped from the Hollywood, Florida area in July of 1981 and his body was subsequently discovered in the Fort Pierce area of Florida. Following Jeffrey Dahmer's arrest, Milwaukee Police informed the Hollywood Police Department that Dahmer resided in the South Florida area during the period in which Adam Walsh was kidnapped and murdered.

According to several recent United States Supreme Court cases, you have absolutely no standing to assert Mr. Dahmer's fifth or sixth amendment privileges regarding unrelated incidents for which he has not been charged. It is well established that Mr. Dahmer must personally invoke his fifth and sixth amendment privileges in order to prohibit interview contact by law enforcement. Aside from this, we have additionally discovered that you are not defense counsel for Mr. Dahmer and even if we were to question him regarding his involvement in the multiple homicides that took place in Milwaukee, Mr. Gerald Boyle and not yourself would be contacted regarding a possible interview.

I am very disappointed that you have to resort to derogatory and idle threats in your correspondence to Detective Hoffman. Detective Hoffman is an experienced detective who obviously is far better versed in the laws regarding police interviews than you

Dear Detective Hoffman:

Please be advised that I represent the above mentioned individual who is currently serving seventeen consecutive life sentences at the Columbia Correctional Institution in Portage, Wisconsin.

It has been brought to my attention by my client and his family that you visited him and questioned him concerning an open homicide which apparently took place in 1981 in Florida. I am advising you that you are not to speak to my client without an attorney present, either myself or Steven J. Eisenberg, Esquire of Madison, Wisconsin. It was also brought to my attention that you taped your interview with my client. I am respectfully requesting that you forward this conversation to me at the above address, or I will take the appropriate legal action to retrieve this tape. I am surprised that an experienced police officer would attempt to interrogate a suspect without either warning him of his Constitutional Rights against self-incrimination or contacting his attorney prior to any questioning. until March 24, 1981. DABMER was the subject of numerous actions on the part of military authorities for alcohol abuse. His file reflects numerous periods of counseling by enlisted personnel and officers regarding his behavior and actions that were a result of his alcohol abuse. Notations in his military file reflect counseling on August 8, 1980, August 11, 1980, September 2, 1980, December 8, 1980, December 23, 1980, March 7, 1981 and March 9, 1981. DABMER was enrolled in an alcoholic rehabilitation program from February 5, 1981, but stated he did not enter into the treatment program and indicated he was not willing to control his alcohol intake. On March 24, 1981, DABMER was transferred from Germany to Fort Jackson, South Carolina where he was discharged on March 26, 1981 with an honorable discharge.

DABMER denied having any contact with local authorities while in Germany and further denied any homosexual activities while in Germany. He further denies ever having travelled to any location to meet with homosexuals and has not had any correspondence with anyone residing in Germany after his return to the United States.

DABMER stated that he travelled in October of 1980 to Munich for the October Fest and stayed there for several days and also travelled to Lansthal (phonetic) Germany for training and temporary assignment for two months. He further stated that he travelled on short trips to areas around Baumholder but did not stay overnight.

It has been determined that DABMER was accompanied to a military aircraft for travel from Germany to Fort Jackson, South Carolina and he has denied having returned to Germany since his military discharge. DABMER does not have a U.S. passport nor has any relatives living in Germany.

DABMER has been involved in homosexual activity from his youth. He admitted his first homicide in June of 1979 involving a hitchhiker who he picked up in Summit County, Ohio. This homicide has been verified through the discovery of skeletal remains. DABMER's victims have been victims of opportunity that involve an age group from fourteen to twenty-eight years of age. The majority of his victims are black males, hispanic males and three white males and one oriental male. He did not indicate any racial preference for his victims but rather stated the victims were victims of opportunity and were available when he was seeking one. There is no evidence in this investigation to indicate that DABMER has ever associated socially with females, but this could not be discounted. The majority of DABMER's victims were homosexuals or street hustlers who would engage in sexual acts for money. The only common thread regarding his victims seemed to be opportunity and their desire to accompany him to his apartment with the promise of money.

JEFFREY DANGER, FOREIGN POLICE COOPERATION-MURDER

CITY of HOLLYWOOD, FLORIDA

POLICE DEPARTMENT • 3280 HOLLYWOOD BOULEVARD • ZIP 33021-0887

RICHARD H. WETT
Police Chief

August 7, 1992

Mr. Michael Satz
State Attorney
201 S.E. 6 Street
Ft. Lauderdale, Fl. 33301

Dear Mr. Satz:

As you know the Hollywood Police Department has been actively investigating the abduction/homicide of Adam Walsh since July 27, 1981. Over the years this agency has pursued numerous leads and interviewed many potential suspects. As of this date no individuals have been charged in this murder case.

On July 22, 1991 the Milwaukee Police Department arrested Jeffrey Dahmer, charging him with 11 counts of homicide. After Jeffrey Dahmer's arrest, he received national media coverage.

The Milwaukee Police along with the Federal Bureau of Investigation profiled Jeffrey Dahmer as a serial murderer responsible for more than 17 deaths over 10 or more years.

As a result of this background investigation of Jeffrey Dahmer, it was revealed that Dahmer was discharged from the Military, March 26, 1981. Mr. Dahmer then flew to Miami, Florida. Jeffrey Dahmer lived in South Florida for 5 months, leaving September 1981 returning to Bath, Ohio.

After Dahmer's arrest, Gerald Boyle was assigned as the attorney of record. Mr. Dahmer continued speaking with the Milwaukee Police about the murders he committed. When outside agencies wanted to speak with Jeffrey Dahmer confirming unresolved homicides, his attorney Gerald Boyle would not allow police departments whose state had the death penalty to speak with Mr. Dahmer. Since Jeffrey Dahmer's convictions for murder, he is no longer represented by council. Mr. Dahmer has no other cases pending against him.

On July 30, 1991 William Bowen drove to Hollywood, Florida from Birmingham, Alabama at his own expense. Mr. Bowen advised this detective that he has been following the Jeffrey Dahmer case through the media. After seeing Jeffrey Dahmer both on television and in the newspapers, he recalled an incident which he witnessed on July 27, 1981 at the Hollywood Mall. Mr. Bowen said he was living in Hollywood at the time.

Mr. Bowen was parking his vehicle on the west side of the Sears Store. After he exited from his vehicle, he witnessed a W/M early 20's who was wearing an army fatigue jacket struggling with a small child. The child was saying "no I'm not going, no I don't want to go". The W/M then threw the child into a van that was parked in the fire lane next to Sears. The van then sped off. When Mr. Bowen learned of the abduction of Adam Walsh, he said he gave this information to a police officer. Mr. Bowen then moved back to Alabama and thought this case was eventually resolved.

On July 28, 1991 Mr. Bowen was reading the Birmingham News which had written that Jeffrey Dahmer may be a suspect in the Adam Walsh murder. When Mr. Bowen saw the photograph of Dahmer, he got a flashback that the W/M he saw forcing a child into a van back on July 27, 1981 may have been Jeffrey Dahmer. See attached statement.

On October 23, 1991 this detective met with Willis Morgan at police headquarters. Mr. Morgan informed this detective that he saw the photograph of Jeffrey Dahmer in the Miami Herald on July 28, 1991. After viewing Jeffrey Dahmer's photograph, Mr. Morgan recalled having contact with this subject back on Monday, July 27, 1981 at the Hollywood Mall.

Mr. Morgan stated that this subject attempted to pick him up. Mr. Morgan walked away from this subject and proceeded to the Sears Store where he lost this subject. Mr. Morgan said this W/M appeared to be in his early 20's.

That evening while watching the 11:00 O'Clock news, Mr. Morgan learned of the kidnapping of Adam Walsh. Mr. Morgan reported his incident to a uniformed police officer. According to Mr. Morgan, he is positive that the person he had contact with at the Hollywood Mall was Jeffrey Dahmer. See attached statement.

This detective has been corresponding with Special Agent Neil Purtell of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Agent Purtell has been conducting numerous interviews with Jeffrey Dahmer in his prison facility in Madison, Wisconsin. Agent Purtell having knowledge of the two aforementioned witnesses, and the knowledge that Jeffrey Dahmer was in the South Florida area for 8 months at the time of Adam Walsh's kidnapping and murder, he feels it would be extremely important that I interview Jeffrey Dahmer.

I have been in constant contact with John Walsh regarding his son's murder for the past 11 years. Mr. Walsh was informed at the beginning, after Jeffrey Dahmer's arrest that he was in the South Florida area when Adam was kidnapped.

Mr. Walsh was advised at the time that Mr. Dahmer's attorney did not want any police agencies whose state had the death penalty to speak with his client. After speaking with his wife Reve, John Walsh informed this detective that he personally had no objections if the State Attorney's Office waived the death penalty for Jeffrey Dahmer in order for this agency to interview him.

Mr. Walsh has conveyed his feelings in a letter recently mailed to your office. I am requesting at this time that your office draw up a letter to Jeffrey Dahmer or a representative of his that the State of Florida would not pursue the death penalty should Mr. Dahmer make admissions regarding the death of Adam Walsh. I would need this letter as soon as possible to take with me when I go and interview Jeffrey Dahmer sometime next week. It may not be necessary to reveal this letter to Mr. Dahmer when I interview him unless he brings up the death penalty for the State of Florida.

Sincerely,

Detective J. Hoffman

Q. And what happened at Radio Shack?

A. I was almost getting ready to leave Radio Shack and I saw some items on the table that said Red Tag Sale so I was looking at these items when somebody approached me. Actually what happened was, I was standing there and I noticed from my peripheral vision there was someone standing in the doorway and he was just standing there and standing there and just standing, so I looked at the

Q. Do you know which doorway of Radio Shack?

A. Right. The only entrance to Radio Shack from the mall, from inside the mall. Anyway, I noticed somebody staring at me with a big smile on his face, smirk or whatever and as soon as I looked at him he says "hi there, nice day isn't it". He was standing in the entrance way and I just took a deep breath and I said geez, you know, I gave him a look like, you know, what are you lookin' at and I remember he smiled again and came over to me and he just was standing there. What was really strange is that he said "hi there, nice day isn't it" again when he came up to me but he said it like he was standing 20 ft. away, real loud but he was standing right on top of me. But see, I didn't answer him and I remember looking to my right to see where the guy was from Radio Shack and I saw him. He was all the way in the back and I saw him putting stuff on shelves or something because I figured I might need a witness or some help 'cause this guy was just standin' there. He wouldn't go away but finally he just turned around and left.

Q. Approx. how old was that subject then?

A. OK. I gave my statement 10 years ago when I came here and I said he was between 20 and 22 I think, 25 maybe was what I said back

Q. And how was he dressed?

A. OK He had blue jeans on that were worn exactly like the ones I'm wearing now. They were faded and worn exactly like these. Now I remember when he left the mall he crossed over on the right side of the mall and he was walking real slow almost like a saunter. I remember when I was watching him I kept saying I gotta remember this guy and I gotta remember what he was wearing and I and I was I looked at his hair. I remember sayin' I gotta remember everything about him. I know he had a yellow shirt on. It looked like a button type shirt and had faded blue jeans on.

Q. What color was his hair?

A. Scraggly, dirty blonde hair.

Q. How long was it?

A. OK When I saw him from the front when he was standin' in the Radio Shack it seemed to be longer but I remember when I was watchin' him from behind I remember thinking well his hair's not as long as it looked from the front. It was down almost touching his collar.

Q. He was by himself?

A. He was by himself.

Q. Other than making the statement that he stated to you "it's a very nice day", what did you do when you left Radio Shack?

A. OK I knew I had this sense that he was gonna approach somebody. He was intent on approaching somebody 'cause of the way he approached me so I just wanted to see what would happen when he approached somebody, what their reaction would be. That's one of the asons I was following him.

Did he appear to be gay?

Well, the only reason I sensed that is 'cause of the way, you know, he was trying to pick me up. You know, I mean, why would he pick me up, you know, some guy trying to pick somebody up, but I didn't sense anything from his voice or his tone, I didn't, you know, sense anything about that.

Alright.

But I assume that, you know, you know, why would he wanna pick somebody up. I knew he would approach somebody and I just wanted to see what their reaction would be and I remember when I was following him, I was also thinking that they might need some help, you know and I followed him.

Where'd he go?

OK. He went all the way down top Sears and he turned into Sears and I turned into Sears right behind him. I remember thinking, I was keeping a distance 'cause I was afraid if he saw me following him, he would get as you know, upset and I didn't want you know, no incident with him or anything so I was keeping a distance and I was watching, keeping an eye on him and I saw him turn into Sears. I remember when he went into Sears as soon as he entered, he was looking around for somebody but there was nobody there except the 2 girls behind the perfume counter. He didn't even glance at them. And then there was an older couple walking toward us and he just sort of glanced at them real quick and just kept walking.

He was walking in a westerly direction thru the store?

- A. Well, no I didn't lose him until we got to, this was like in the beginning of Sears, he walked all the way to the west and then he turned to the right as far as you can go west, to the last aisle and then he turned to the right.
- Q. Which would be north.
- A. Which would be north again.
- Q. And then at that location you lost him?
- A. OK. What happened was I figured that was the end of Sears and I figured he was gonna realize where he was at and turn around and come back this way and he would, you know, if I followed him any more, he would, well be face to face, so I sort of like went into the men's dept. and looked in there a little bit and just left at that point.
- Q. And you went back out to the east where your car was parked?
- A. Right.
- Q. Now, when you first had contact with him over at the Radio Shack, he was already in the mall, is that correct?
- A. Yes.

enter from there but I think he did, from my peripheral vision just from standing this way looking at the tapes, at the items on the table.

Q. What was your purpose for going over to the mall?

A. I went to Walgreens to look around and then I had time, I wasn't doing anything so I just strolled down to Radio Shack.

Q. Did you make any purchases that day?

A. Not that I recall.

Q. Now, when did you learn about Adams Walsh's abduction?

A. That same evening on the news when I went home.

Q. That would have been about what time?

A. About 6.

Q. OK. After you heard about that on the news reports, what did you do then?

A. I think it was the 11 o'clock news. I wouldn't swear to it but I'm pretty sure it was the 11 o'clock news that I was watching.

Q. After you heard about the abduction, did you ever make contact with any law enforcement agency at that time?

A. Yes I did.

Q. When would that have been?

A. The very next day.

Q. Where at?

A. Right here.

Q. At the Hollywood Police Dept.?

A. Yes.

Q. And did you speak to a uniformed officer?

A. Uniform, yes.

Q. And what did he do? Did he take a report?

A. He wrote down what I, my statement. He appeared to be writing.

Q. But you thought he may have been involved in it because of the fact that he approached you. Correct?

A. Well, because of the whole incident, you know, his persona. There was something about him. I knew that, you know, the guys, there was something wrong with this guy, just the way he looked, the way he dressed, the way he carried himself, everything.

Q. You can't put a time down that you were at the mall that day? Can you narrow it down?

A. I really can't. I really, really can't. I wasn't paying attention.

Q. What time do you usually get up in the morning?

A. In the afternoons, 10 - 11

Q. And do you have any recall what you did that morning after you got up? You stayed around. You had breakfast or what you did prior to coming to Hollywood?

A. No I really don't. I didn't leave the house. I was home.

Q. Now comes July of 1991, I believe you said you saw a photograph and a news account of the subject by the name of Jeffrey Dahmer who had been arrested in Milwaukee regarding some murders up there. Is that correct?

A. Yes

Q. After you viewed this photograph and read the articles, what did you think at that time?

A. Well, I knew it was him.

First I want to thank you for the informative book "The Milwaukee Murders" but I should add I'm writing this letter out of frustration more than anything else. I just can't seem to get anyone to believe me.

On the 27th of July 1981 I went to Radio Shack in the Hollywood Mall in South Florida. While looking at some items marked real big sale a young tall man approached me and said "Hi there, nice day isn't it?" I looked him square in the face but never answered him. After a tense moment of him staring at me I looked around for some help but being a slow Monday afternoon I was alone. Then just as suddenly he turned and left.

I knew he had intent on picking someone up and out of curiosity as to what their reaction would be, I followed him down the Mall - keeping my distance.

Sure enough when he turned into Sears, I could see by the way he was looking around that he was looking for someone to approach but Sears was as slow as the rest of the Mall. Before I knew it we were at the far end of Sears when he turned to the right toward

The toy department.

I didn't follow him into the toy dept. because I was afraid he would turn around and come back toward me so I left.

Anyway that evening I heard on the news about a 6 year old boy being kidnapped from the toy dept. at Sears.

The next day I went to the Hollywood Police Dept. The officer I talked to was as inept as they come and the only thing he wanted to know was if I saw a tag number or if I actually saw this man grab the boy. When I said no, he dismissed me with "we have your statement, if we need to contact you, we will!" But they never have.

I have always made it a point to remember the face of that young man and Ten years after, I have a name to go with it after Jeffrey Dahmer had his photo on the front page of The Miami Herald.

The boys name is Adam Walsh and his head was found two weeks later decapitated!!

Thanks for your time and please follow through on this.

A. I WAS LOOKING FOR A PARKING PLACE THAT WAS CLOSE TO THE ENTRANCE OF SEARS I REMEMBER THE MALL BEING VERY CROWDED AND I WAS LOOKING FOR A PARKING PLACE. I WANTED TO PARK NEAR THE, NEAR THE OPENING. AS I GOT OUT OF MY CAR I SLAMMED THE DOOR AND AS I LOOKED UP TOWARD THE SEARS TO START WALKING I HEARD THE RACKET OF A MAN DRAGGING A BOY OUT BY HIS ARMS REALLY MAN HANDLING HIM AND TO THE, TO THE BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE BEING THE DISTANCE THAT I WAS MAYBE 50 FEET I DON'T KNOW UH, I HEARD THE LITTLE BOY SAYING I DON'T WANT TO GO I'M NOT GOING, SOMETHING ALONG THOSE LINES. THE MAN PROCEEDED TO PICK THE BOY UP THROW HIM PHYSICALLY INTO THE VAN THAT WAS PARKED WHAT I THOUGHT AT THE TIME LOOKED LIKE A FIRE LANE, UH, AND I VIVIDLY REMEMBER THIS VAN, SCREECHING OFF. YOU COULD HEAR THE TIRES SCREECHING AS THE VAN TOOK OFF AS IF THIS MAN WERE REALLY...

Q. WHAT DIRECTION WAS THE VAN FACING, PARKED?

A. THE VAN WAS FACING AWAY FROM ME HEADED TOWARDS SOUTH SO I WAS LOOKING AT THE BACK END OF THE VAN AND TOWARD THE FRONT SIDE FROM THAT BACK END.

Q. OK WHEN YOU FIRST HEARD THE COMMOTION THAT UH, BROUGHT YOUR ATTENTION TO THE AREA, HOW FAR APPROXIMATELY WERE YOU FROM THE LOCATION WHERE THIS MAN WAS PULLING THE BOY?

A. I HAD WALKED MAYBE 3 OR 4 STEPS JUST RIGHT OUT OF THE PARKING SPACES IN TO THE ROAD THAT GOES BESIDE SEARS AND I JUST STOPPED BECAUSE OF THE COMMOTION THAT I HEARD AND FOR WHATEVER REASON I JUST STOPPED.

Q. WHAT WAS YOUR APPROXIMATE DISTANCE?

A. UH, WELL I LOOKED AROUND TO SEE MAYBE IF I HAD MISSED SOMETHING MAYBE YOU KNOW MAYBE, MAYBE SOMETHING WAS GOING ON I DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT AND THE ONLY THING I REMEMBER WAS THERE WAS ANOTHER LADY GETTING OUT OF A CAR AND SO I WENT ON IN TO THE SEARS STORE AND, AND DIDN'T THINK ABOUT IT YOU KNOW I, I KIND OF PUT IT TO THE SIDE OF MY MEMORY ALTHOUGH IT DID STICK WITH ME THAT THIS DID SEEM ODD THAT A GUY WOULD THROW A KID IN THE TRUCK AND THEN EXCUSE MY LANGUAGE, HAUL ASS AWAY FROM WHERE I WAS STANDING LIKE THAT AND MAKE SUCH A RUCKUS AT YOU KNOW AT A PUBLIC PLACE AT A MALL.

Q. CAN YOU DETERMINE AT THAT POINT IF UH, ONCE HE PHYSICALLY UH, PUT THE KID INTO THE VAN UH, DID YOU KNOW IF THE ENGINE WAS RUNNING OR HE HAD TO START THE IGNITION OR...

A. UH..THERE'S A POSSIBILITY THAT THE ENGINE COULD OF BEEN RUNNING I'M NOT SURE I DON'T REMEMBER HEARING THE TRUCK CRANK I DO JUST REMEMBER HEARING THE VAN GOING INTO GEAR AND TAKING OFF.

Q. AND COULD YOU TELL OR OBSERVE IF THERE WAS ANY OTHER OCCUPANTS IN THAT VAN?

A. I COULD NOT TELL IF THERE WERE ANY OCCUPANTS. I DO NOT KNOW. AT, AT THE POINT WHERE I DROVE UP THE VAN WAS ALREADY ASIDE..

Q. DID THAT VAN HAVE REAR DOORS?

A. YES.

Q. BUT NO WINDOWS?

A. I DON'T REMEMBER SEEING ANY WINDOWS.

Q. DID YOU NOTE IF IT HAD ANY SIDE DOORS BESIDES THE DRIVER'S DOOR AND THE PASSENGER DOOR?

A. NO I DON'T. I DON'T REMEMBER IF IT HAD ANY. I; I DON'T REMEMBER SEEING ANY WINDOWS ANYWHERE.

Q. COULD YOU MAKE OUT THE TYPE OF VEHICLE IT WAS?

A. NO IT WAS SIMILAR TO I GUESS A FORD ECONO TYPE VAN UH..

Q. NOTHING UNUSUAL ABOUT IT LIKE A UH, LADDERS OR ANYTHING LIKE THAT ON THE VEHICLE? CHROME, RUNNING BOARDS?

A. WHAT WAS UNUSUAL TO ME WAS HOW PLAIN IT WAS. IT WAS NOT, IT DID NOT LOOK LIKE A RECREATION VEHICLE, RECREATIONAL VEHICLE. IT WAS JUST VERY, VERY PLAIN.

Q. DID IT APPEAR, WHAT YEAR, COULD YOU MAKE OUT IF IT WAS AN OLDER VEHICLE OR A NEW..

A. IT SEEMED TO BE JUST A VEHICLE OF THE TIME IT DIDN'T SEEM TO BE OVERTLY OLD OR UH NEW, IT JUST SEEMED TO BE JUST YOU KNOW JUST A VAN. I KNOW THAT'S NOT REALLY ANSWERING YOUR QUESTION PRECISELY BUT IT, IT, IT JUST SEEMED LIKE IT WAS IN OK SHAPE, IT DIDN'T LOOK OLD OR NEW.

Q. FROM THE TIME YOU HEARD UH THE COMMOTION UNTIL THE TIME THAT UH, THE SUBJECT WAS ABLE TO PUT THE CHILD IN THE VAN AND SPEED OFF ABOUT HOW MUCH TIME ELAPSED?

A. PROBABLY NOT MORE THAN 10 OR 15 SECONDS IF THAT LONG. IT WAS A VERY SHORT INCIDENT AND IT REALLY STUNNED ME THAT IT HAPPENED SO QUICK AND THEN NOT ONLY WAS THERE SIGHTS BUT THERE WERE SOUNDS. THE KID SAYING HE WASN'T GOING TO GO ANYWHERE AND THE VAN SCREECHING OFF AS, AS I WAS STANDING THERE IN THE PARKING LOT.

Q. WHAT DID YOU PROCEED TO DO AT THAT MOMENT?

A. I LOOKED AROUND TO SEE IF ANYBODY ELSE HAD SAW ANYTHING, IF I WAS MISSING SOMETHING YOU KNOW YOU THINK WILL ARE THEY MAKING A MOVE OR SOMETHING WHAT'S GOING ON. AND THE ONLY THING THAT I REMEMBER IS SEEING A LADY GET OUT OF THE CAR.

Q. OK FOLLOWING THAT DAY, DID YOU BECOME AWARE OF THE ABDUCTION OF ADAM WALSH THROUGH THE NEWSPAPERS OR TELEVISION?

A. THROUGH THE NEWSPAPERS AND THE TELEVISION, I BELIEVE THAT THE FIRST TIME THAT I WAS AWARE OF IT WAS I WENT TO A KENTUCKY FRIED CHICKEN WHICH YOU AND I DISCUSSED I THINK IS NEAR HERE SOMEWHERE ON HOLLYWOOD SOMEWHERE, UH, TO GET A BUCKET OF CHICKEN AND THAT'S WHEN I SAW A POSTER FOR ADAM WALSH. IT STUCK IN MY MIND BECAUSE I HAD NEVER SEEN A MISSING CHILD POSTER BEFORE, ESPECIALLY AT A DRIVE THROUGH.

WAS ASKING YOU DURING THAT COMMOTION DID YOU EVER HAVE AN CHANCE TO SEE THE CHILD?

THE FIRST THING I SAW WAS UH..I'M GETTING THE IMPRESSION OF A STRIPED HAIR OF HAIR THAT COMES STRAIGHT DOWN ALMOST LIKE A CHINESE BOWL OF STRAIGHT SCRUFFY. JUST AN AVERAGE LITTLE, LITTLE KID.

SHIRT OR PANTS OR ANYTHING?

REMEMBER.

COULD HE APPEAR, THE CHILD?

I GUESS I'M NOT A GOOD GUESS ON KIDS, UH 5,6 YEARS OLD MAYBE IN THERE.

OLD ENOUGH TO KNOW WHAT'S GOING ON IN LIFE BUT YOUNG ENOUGH THAT WAS ABLE TO SUPERVISE HIM AT, AT A MALL.

THE FOLLOWING DAYS WHEN YOU WERE AWARE THAT THIS CHILD WAS MISSING AT THE MALL, UH..HOW COME YOU DIDN'T COME FORWARD WITH THE INFORMATION THAT YOU BELIEVE TO YOU KNOW MAY BE RELATED?

AS A REPORTING OFFICER, I'M STILL TRYING TO DETERMINE IF IT HAPPENED
DURING A BREAK IN AT MY APARTMENT IT COULD OF BEEN THEN I DON'T, I DON'T KNOW THE DATE OF THAT BREAK IN IT COULD OF BEEN THAT WHILE THEY WERE DOING THAT, WRITING A REPORT UP I MENTIONED THAT TO THEM OR IT
MAYBE LATER, IT'S SO VAGUE AS TO WHEN I DID. I DID MAKE AN ATTEMPT TO TALK TO AN OFFICER AND GIVE HIM THE INFORMATION THAT I, OF WHAT I HAD HEARD THAT THE UH..

COULD YOU CONFIRM THE INFORMATION YOU PROVIDED THE OFFICER UH, WAS GIVEN TO THE AUTHORITIES TO FOLLOW UP ON?

THAT'S WHAT I ASSUMED. UNFORTUNATELY AFTER I GAVE THAT INFORMATION TOO MANY WEEKS AFTER THAT UH, I MOVED BACK TO MY PARENT'S CITY, UH, TO TRY TO GET BACK INTO TELEVISION. I WAS UNHAPPY WITH THE MONEY, MAINLY JUST HAVING PLANS. I'M FROM THE COUNTRY, WAS A LITTLE TOO FAR SOUTH FOR ME. IT WAS A BIG CITY AND,
I HAD SOME FRIENDS AND REALLY DIDN'T HAVE ANY SO I WANTED TO MOVE PART OVER IN TELEVISION WHICH IS MY, MY GIVEN PROFESSION OF DEGREE IN.

WERE YOU AT THE MALL BY YOURSELF THAT DAY CORRECT?

DO YOU REMEMBER HOW LONG YOU STAYED IN THERE WHEN YOU WENT BACK?

MAYBE AN HOUR OR TWO. I WAS JUST LOOKING AROUND THE MALL I, WENT INTO A BOOK STORE.

Q. DURING THE HOUR OR TWO THAT YOU WERE IN THE MALL AT ANY TIME DID YOU SEE UH. DID YOU HEAR ANY UH..PAGING FOR A CHILD, FOR ADAM WALSH?

A. I DO NOT REMEMBER ANY PAGING UH.

Q. WHEN YOU WENT AND RETURNED TO YOUR VEHICLE IN THE PARKING LOT, DID YOU SEE UH, NUMEROUS LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS OR SECURITY GUARDS UH, CHECKING THE AREA OF THE MALL?

A. NO I DID NOT. I DO NOT RECOLLECT THERE BEING ANYBODY LOOKING AROUND AT THAT POINT.

Q. OK. NOW AFTER YOU RETURNED BACK TO HUNTSVILLE, DID YOU READ ANYTHING ABOUT THIS CASE UH, THE NEXT FOLLOWING, THE FOLLOWING WEEKS AND MONTHS TO COME?

A. I EITHER READ ABOUT IT OR HEARD ON T.V. THAT SOMEBODY HAD ADMITTED THAT THEY DID THE CRIME. THAT THE PERSON HAD BEEN CAUGHT, HAD COME FORWARD, OR IT WAS SOMEBODY THAT HAD BEEN CAUGHT ON SOMETHING ELSE I'M NOT VERY SPECIFIC ON THAT. AND THAT'S WHEN I PUT THIS PARTICULAR CASE OUT OF MY MIND, THE PERSON HAS BEEN CAUGHT UH, AND I DIDN'T THINK ABOUT IT AGAIN, IT WAS A TERRIBLE CRIME AND I THOUGHT IT HAD BEEN SOLVED AND I DIDN'T THINK ABOUT IT AGAIN.

Q. SO THAT POINT, FROM THAT POINT ON UH, YOU BELIEVED THAT THE CASE HAD BEEN SOLVED WITH THE PERSON ARRESTED AND CHARGED IN THIS CASE, CORRECT?

A. RIGHT, CORRECT.

Q. AND IT WASN'T UNTIL YOU READ THE ARTICLE ON JEFFREY DOMER REGARDING UH, HIS ARREST AND CONFESSIONS TO OTHER HOMICIDES AND A POSSIBLE LINK TO THE FLORIDA AREA, CORRECT?

A. CORRECT, UH, IT HIT ME LIKE A BASEBALL BAT.

Q. AND THAT'S WHEN YOU WERE AWARE THAT THE ADAM WALSH CASE HAD IN FACT NOT BEEN SOLVED.

A. RIGHT, I WAS ALL THESE YEARS I HAVE WATCHED MR. WALSH ON VARIOUS THINGS I, ADAM WALSH WILL ALWAYS STICK IN MY MIND UH, AS, AS YOU KNOW THE LITTLE BOY THAT WAS AT THE SEARS THAT I WAS AT THAT GOT ABDUCTED, ABDUCTED, UH, AND IT WAS A SHOCK TO ME TO FIND OUT AFTER ALL THESE YEARS THAT THAT CASE HAD NOT BEEN SOLVED AND IT WAS NOT UNTIL I READ THIS CASE WITH THIS LITTLE BYLINE UNDERNEATH HERE THAT THEY WERE STILL INVESTIGATING THAT YOU KNOW IT HIT ME THAT THIS HAS NOT BEEN SOLVED, MAYBE I SHOULD GO BACK AND TELL WHAT I KNOW AGAIN SO THAT MAYBE THIS CAN HELP IN SOME WAY.

Q. AND THAT'S WHY YOU CAME FORWARD WITH THE INFORMATION CALLING THE POLICE DEPARTMENT ON SUNDAY?

A. RIGHT AS SOON, I MEAN AS SOON AS I READ THIS I SAT THERE AND I LOOKED, WHAT I DID WAS BASICALLY WAS I SPENT THE NEXT TWO HOURS LOOKING AT THIS PICTURE GOING..

Q. THE PICTURE OF JEFFREY DOMER.

A. RIGHT. I THINK I'VE SEEN THIS GUY SOMEWHERE AND THE THING THAT I REMEMBER IS THE CHIN. NOW IT VERY PRONOUNCE CHIN.

Q. RIGHT.

A. UH, THAT'S WHAT GOT ME STARTED SO I LOOKED AT THAT FOR TWO HOURS I TALKED TO MY WIFE ABOUT IT AND I DECIDED IT WAS TIME TO CALL UH, AND TO GIVE ANY KIND OF HELP THAT I CAN THAT'S WHY I PROVIDED THESE DOCUMENTS TO NUMBER 1 SHOW THAT I DID LIVE IN THIS AREA.

Q. RIGHT.

A. NUMBER 2 THAT I HAD BEEN TO THE SEARS STORE UH AND ANYTHING ELSE THAT THAT I'VE GOT THAT I CAN GIVE TO YOU GUYS TO HELP I'M MORE THAN WILLING.

Q. NOW SINCE JEFFREY DOMER HAD SURFACED AND BEEN ARRESTED IN THE CASES UP IN MILWAUKEE, YOU HAVE SEEN HIS PHOTOGRAPH AND ALSO I GUESS YOU'VE SEEN PICTURES OF HIM ON NATIONAL T.V.?

A. I HAVE SEEN HIS PHOTOGRAPH. I HAVE NEVER UNTIL I'VE EVEN SEEN VIDEOS FROM CNN AND WHAT NOT

Q. RIGHT.

A. IT WASN'T UNTIL I SAW THIS PROFILE THAT IT STARTED TO RING A BELL.

Q. OK.

A. UH, I'VE ONLY SEEN FRONTAL PICTURES OF UH, MR. DOMER. UNTIL I SAW THAT PICTURE AND THE WAY THAT PICTURE IS FRAMED WITH THE CHIN JUDDING IS, IS JUST RING AND BELL RANG A BELL THAT MAYBE, MAYBE THIS HAS SOMETHING TO DO WITH WHAT I HAD SEEN AND LIKE I SAID I DIDN'T GET A 10 POINT IDENTIFICATION STRAIGHT AT HIM BUT I DO REMEMBER THE CHIN AND UH..

Q. SO THIS PHOTOGRAPH IN THE BIRMINGHAM NEWS DATED SUNDAY JULY 28TH IS THE PHOTOGRAPH YOU'RE REFERRING TO IS THAT CORRECT?

A. RIGHT. THAT IS CORRECT.

Q. OK NOW THIS PHOTOGRAPH OF JEFFREY DOMER AND THE INDIVIDUAL THAT YOU HAD WITNESSED ON THAT DAY BEING MONDAY JULY 27TH, OK, HOW SIMILAR ARE THEY?

A. I WOULD SAY VERY SIMILAR IN, IN THE POINT OF THE CHIN AND MAYBE, MAYBE THE WAY THE TOP OF THE FOREHEAD AND THE NOSE ARE. JUST AS FAR IT JUST REMINDS IT'S KIND OF CAVE MAN LOOKING IN A WAY. VERY PRONOUNCE FEATURES WHICH IS WHAT I REMEMBER OF THE PERSON THAT WAS DRAGGING THIS KID OUT OF THIS VAN.

Q. OK NOW, 10 YEARS AGO THAT WOULD BE MAKING JEFFREY DOMER 21 YEARS OLD, HAS HE CHANGED MUCH IN TEN YEARS?

A. FROM LOOKING AT THAT PICTURE AND LOOKING AT THE PICTURE, TRYING TO REMEMBER WHAT I HAD SEEN PICTURING IN MY MIND I WOULD SAY NOT VERY MUCH TO ME.

Q. OK YOU MENTIONED IN YOUR STATEMENT ABOUT THE THING THAT WAS QUITE UNUSUAL THAT BEING THE MIDDLE OF JULY VERY HOT HUMID IN SOUTH FLORIDA THAT THE SUBJECT YOU SAW DRAGGING THE CHILD FROM THE MALL AREA WAS WEARING AN ARMY FATIGUE JACKET.

A. RIGHT, CORRECT.

Q. ALRIGHT DID YOU HAVE KNOWLEDGE UH, PRIOR TO COMING HERE TODAY THAT JEFFREY DOMER HAD SERVED IN THE MILITARY?

A. I HAD READ SOMEWHERE BEFORE I CAME IN THAT HE WAS IN GERMANY IN ONE OF THE ARMED FORCES I DIDN'T I WAS NOT FAMILIAR WITH WHAT ARMED FORCE OR AT WHAT PERIOD AND ALL THIS THAT HE WAS, THAT HE WAS INVOLVED IN ALL OF THIS, NO, SO YES AND NO. I WAS AWARE THAT HE WAS IN THE ARMED SERVICES I WAS NOT AWARE OF WHAT PERIOD OF TIME IN HIS LIFE HE WAS IN THOSE IN THE ARMED SERVICES.

Q. OK, NOW YOU CANT SAY WITH A HUNDRED PERCENT CERTAINTY THAT THE SUBJECT THAT YOU SAW BACK ON JULY 27TH 1991 IS IN FACT JEFFREY DOMER?

A. NOT AT THIS POINT NO. WITH A BASEBALL CAP ON AND AT THE DISTANCE I CAN MAKE GENERALIZATIONS AT THIS POINT BUT I COULD NOT DEFINITELY IDENTIFY HIM ALTHOUGH LIKE I SAID BEFORE HIS FACE DOES LOOK FAMILIAR, UH, WHETHER IT'S THROUGH THAT FAMILIARITY OR THAT EVENT I CAN NOT SAY.

Q. WAS THERE ANYBODY ELSE IN THAT GENERAL AREA WHEN THIS OCCURRED?

A. NO. EXCEPT FOR SOME PEOPLE GETTING OUT OF THEIR CARS, THAT WAS IT, IT WAS JUST THE GUY, THE BOY..

Q. NOW THIS VAN WAS PARKED RIGHT BY CURB SIDE BY THE STORE CORRECT?

A. GOING THE OPPOSITE DIRECTION OF WHAT IT SHOULD OF NOW IT SHOULD OF BEEN FACING.

Q. SO HE WAS FACING SOUTH BOUND IN THE NORTH BOUND TRAFFIC LANE FOR THE BUSES.

A. EXACTLY.

Q. I SEE.

A. EXACTLY.

Q. DID YOU NOTICE THE LENGTH OF HIS HAIR UNDERNEATH THE BASEBALL CAP? CAN YOU TELL?

A. UH..DOWN HERE.

Q. AROUND THE COLLAR AREA?

A. YEAH COLLAR, MAYBE A LITTLE, NOT, NOT O, NOT A WHOLE LOT LONGER THAN THAT. DIDN'T SEEM TO BE HIPPIE TYPE IT WAS..

Q. COULD YOU TELL THE COLOR OF HIS HAIR?

A. UH, IT LOOKED LIKE KIND LIKE MY KIND, DIRTY BLONDE SEEM TO BE, IT WAS NOT BLACK, I DIDN'T SEE BLACK HAIR, I DIDN'T SEE RED HAIR, JUST KIND OF A BROWNISH TO BLONDE KIND OF DIRTY BLONDE COLOR.

Q. DID YOU NOTICE ANY ARTICLE OF CLOTHING UNDERNEATH THE JACKET, WAS THE JACKET OPEN?

A. THE JACKET WAS OPEN...THERE MAY HAVE BEEN A ROUND SET OF KEYS THE KIND THAT YOU PULL THE CHAIN OUT?

Q. RIGHT.

A. SOMETHING WAS SHINY UNDER THERE IT COULD OF BEEN THAT IT LOOKED LIKE UH, LOOKED ROUND AND LOOKED LIKE MAYBE IT HAD SOME KEYS ON THERE. I CAN'T SAY THAT IS A DEFINITE.

Q. OK.

A. BUT THERE WAS SOMETHING JANGLING AROUND THERE I BELIEVE.

Q. THE ONLY THING YOU REMEMBER ABOUT THE CHILD WAS A STRIPPED SHIRT?

A. I BELIEVE A STRIPED SHIRT, SOMETHING IN WHITE I THINK OR A MULTICOLORED LIKE A WHIT AND A RED AND A BLUE UH, ALTERNATING LIKE THAT.

Q. NO OTHER ARTICLES OF CLOTHING?

A. NO UH, MAYBE DARK PANTS IT JUST DIDN'T REALLY STICK OUT AT THE TIME I WAS TORN BETWEEN I WAS TRYING TO TAKE ALL OF THIS IN CAUSE IT HAPPENED SO SUDDENLY AND I WATCHING I'M REALLY WATCHING THE MAN MORE THAN I'M WATCHING THE LITTLE BOY BECAUSE OF THE MAN'S BEHAVIOR TOWARD THE LITTLE BOY, UH..

Q. WAS HE VERY HOSTILE?

A. YES, VERY HOSTILE AND THAT'S, THAT'S WHAT MADE ME STOP I MEAN I JUST STOPPED DEAD AND I'M LOOKING WITH THIS FUNNY LOOK ON MY FACE I WATCHED ALL THIS PROCEED AND I SAW THE GUY THROW THIS KID IN THE TRUCK AND OFF HE WENT, TIRES A SCREECHING. AND UH, THAT'S WHAT STUCK IN MY MIND ABOUT THAT WAS JUST HAD THAT NOT BRUTLE BUT LIKE YOU SAID HOSTILE LIKE YOU KNOW YOU'RE GOING, YOU HAVE NO CHOICE IN THIS MATTER.

Q. ALRIGHT MR. BOWEN I DON'T HAVE ANY OTHER QUESTIONS TO ASK YOU. HAS EVERYTHING YOU SAID IN YOUR STATEMENT BEEN THE COMPLETE TRUTH?

Dear Det. Hoffman:

The message below was taken from our hotline.

Mr. Morgan claims to have been approached by Dahmar, or someone resembling him, in the Hollywood mall 10 years ago the same day Adam was abducted. He says he went to the police at that time, but they did not believe him. He also claims Dahmar, or again someone fitting his description, tried to pick him up, but he rejected his advances.

Dear Detective Smith:

As we discussed during our phone conversation earlier today, in order for our laboratory to complete DNA analysis on the bloodstained section of automotive carpet, we would require a control exemplar from the victim. It is my understanding that a fragment of human mandible may be available. This item would be acceptable as a victim control sample.

On January 19, 1995 our laboratory received from you the following five (5) items of evidence:

- 1) Box of tape from machete
- 2) Machete and sheath
- 3) Envelope of taped debris from machete
- 4) Carpet standard
- 5) Standard of A.W. head hair

Deoxyribonucleic Acid (DNA) extractions were conducted on stains found on the machete (item #2); however, no detectable DNA of human origin was obtained. PCR analysis with HLA DQ $\alpha$  produced no results. No additional comparisons have been made in this analysis since no results were obtained from the primary item of interest. The remainder of the packaging and evidence is enclosed.

Police keep quiet on Walsh case

Department lawyer asks reporters to not interfere with investigation

By DONNA PAZDERA
Staff writer

HOLLYWOOD — The latest suspect in the 1981 disappearance of 6-year-old Adam Walsh could help police solve the murder case.

But police on Tuesday would only offer clues that seemed more like riddles toward the identity of a suspect in the murder of Adam, who disappeared from a shopping center across the street from the Hollywood Police Department Adam on July 27, 1981.

The boy's severed head was discovered by two fishermen two weeks later in a canal near Vero Beach, 129 miles from where he disappeared. Adam's body was never found and no one has ever been charged in the murder.

Police now believe more than one person is responsible for the killing, said Joel Cantor, attorney for the Hollywood Police Department. The new suspect is someone who has been mentioned in the past, but never interviewed, he said.

The attorney said he hopes that once the new suspect is interviewed, "We can bring [the investigation] to fruition in the near future."

"There is new information and there is a suspect, the suspect is a stranger," said Adam's father John Walsh, who hosts the television show America's Most Wanted. The show uses national television publicity to solve crimes.

Police called a news conference in response to news reports that the court files in the case would remain closed.

The Sun-Sentinel and the Palm Beach Post joined the Mobile Press Register in a suit to open court records in the 14-year-old murder case. On Monday, Broward Circuit Judge Leroy Moe refused to open the files, saying it could jeopardize the police investigation.

The latest suspect came to the attention of lead detective Mark Smith during the last 10 months as he reviewed the case. Smith, a 15-year veteran of the department, was assigned to the Walsh investigation last August. No interview date for the potential suspect was disclosed.

During the last 14 years, investigators have interviewed hundreds of potential suspects and witnesses in the case.

In fact, Cantor said on Tuesday, serial killer Jeffrey Dahmer was interviewed in a Wisconsin prison before he was slain by a fellow inmate earlier this year. Dahmer, who lived in Miami Beach for part of 1981, was ruled out as a viable suspect, Cantor said.

At Tuesday's news conference, Cantor pleaded with reporters to let police investigate without interference, saying, "We're concerned that this type of investigative reporting would impede our investigation."

Added Cantor: "Please don't force us to compromise our investigation. We feel we'll be able to solve this case.

We all want to catch the individual responsible for this horrible crime."

John Walsh released a videotaped statement after Cantor confirmed detectives were planning to interview the new suspect.

"We have always prayed that Adam's killer would be caught and brought to justice because I believe my family and I need that closure," Walsh said.

New leads keep Adam Walsh murder files closed

By CONNIE FRAYNER
Herald Staff Writer

Under pressure to release investigative records in the so-called 1981 abduction and murder of 6-year-old Adam Walsh, Hollywood police confirmed Tuesday they have up to three "potential suspects" in the case.

Police held a news conference Tuesday to answer a barrage of media questions after a Broward circuit judge ruled Monday the records should remain closed. A detective identified at Monday's hearing that the case was still active and that he had identified at least one new suspect within the past six months.

Joel Cantor, the department's legal adviser, said Tuesday that releasing the file could jeopardize the case. He would not say what evidence pointed to the new potential suspects, but would provide any information on who the potential suspects might be, or when any arrests might be made.

Walsh family members are not and have never been suspects, he said, adding that detectives believe Adam's killer was a stranger.

"We feel in good faith that we will be able to go ahead and bring this case involving the death of Adam Walsh to a close in the very near future," Cantor said.

Adam was abducted from the now-closed Sears store at Hollywood Mall in July 1981. His severed head was found floating in a canal near Vero Beach a few weeks later, but his body was never recovered.

Cantor said the Walsh case has never been closed. Police even sent a detective to Wisconsin two years ago to interview serial killer Jeffrey Dahmer after receiving information that he might have been in the Hollywood area when Adam was kidnaped.

"We get hundreds of leads every single month," Cantor said. "Some of them obviously more credible than others."

Cantor said the case file should remain secret "until the detectives have run out of leads or run out of suspects."

But an attorney for the Alabama newspaper that sued to get the files said the new leads may be a smokescreen.

"They're definitely trying to hold us off in court," said Thomas Julia, attorney for the Mobile Press Register.

The newspaper filed suit in April after the department denied a public records request by reporter Jay Grelen, who was investigating the unsolved Walsh murder for a series of articles.

On Monday, Broward Circuit Judge Leroy Moe denied the newspaper's request for the documents.

Julin said he'll wait a month or so to see what becomes of the department's leads. If there's no progress, he said he'll resubmit the request to open the files. If it's denied again, he may appeal to a higher court, he said.

"The police certainly are guilty of raising false hopes if they don't deliver," Julin said.

Adam's father, John Walsh, said in a telephone interview Tuesday he and his family have prayed for a resolution to the case for years. After Adam's disappearance, he launched a national campaign to find missing children and now hosts the popular America's Most Wanted television show.

"We have thought that whoever killed Adam might possibly be out there killing other children," he said. "We have prayed for justice."

Walsh said he had no objection to making the files public unless it hurts the investigation.

"I think it would be unconscionable for someone to print information that would alert a suspect or compromise a case," he said.

Castor insisted police are conducting a good-faith investigation, and offered as evidence the assignment of Detective Mark Smith, a "premier homicide investigator," to the case 10 months ago. Smith helped solve a 15-year-old murder case several years ago.

"We all here want to bring this case to a fruition," Castor said. "We want to be able to catch the individual who committed this horrible crime."

ASSOCIATED PRESS / For The Herald

OPTIMISTIC: Hollywood Police Department legal adviser Joel Castor explains why murder files have been kept closed.

Asked whether publicity might help detectives solve the case faster, Castor said, "I don't think this department wants to take the chance — that it would help versus impede."

And what if nothing becomes of this latest lead?

Said Walsh: "You hope for closure, but you know that sometimes it doesn't come. I certainly live in a world of violence and death, and sometimes you don't get resolution."

Time is right to open police files on Adam Walsh disappearance

From the beginning, the Adam Walsh murder case has been plagued by unanswered questions and public suspicions about what really happened, how and how well the police investigation was conducted, what evidence has been obtained, what leads have been followed or abandoned and who possibly committed this heinous crime.

Six-year-old Adam disappeared from a Hollywood mall on July 27, 1981. Two weeks later, his severed head was found in a canal 120 miles away, near Vero Beach. His body was never found. No one has ever been arrested.

Adam Walsh

The case became one of America's best-known and most notorious incidents of child kidnapping and murder. Adam's father, John Walsh, made his son's killing a national cause and worked to persuade lawmakers and Congress to toughen laws against child kidnapping and murder. John Walsh has since become host of the TV show, America's Most Wanted, which encourages viewer tips to catch criminals.

Questions over the unresolved case have been fueled by the Hollywood Police Department's refusal to comply with newspaper requests under the Public Records Law to open the investigative file for viewing and copying.

On Monday, Broward County Circuit Court Judge Laffey Mos allowed Hollywood police to keep the file confidential for now, while detectives pursue what they claim are new leads and some new suspects. Police claim premature disclosure of the case file could hurt the ongoing investigation.

The case became one of America's best-known and most notorious incidents of child kidnapping and murder.

Judge Mos said newspapers could refile their legal request for full disclosure in several weeks, after detectives question the suspects. The Mobile (Ala.) Press Register originally filed the suit seeking disclosure, and was joined by the Sun-Sentinel and The Palm Beach Post.

Unless the detectives can make an arrest, persuade the judge that an arrest or indictment is imminent or that the investigation is really progressing, after a few weeks the investigative file should be opened for press and public inspection.

Florida's 1988 Public Records Act was designed to maximize the kinds of records open to the public and minimize those that are kept secret. The act legitimately prevents disclosure of "active criminal intelligence ... and investigative information."

But the law does not provide a broad exemption for all police investigative files on unsolved crimes. It only permits such records to be kept secret if the investigation is "continuing with a reasonable, good faith anticipation of securing an arrest or prosecution in the foreseeable future."

Fourteen years of secrecy is long enough. It's about time to open the Adam Walsh files.

Retracing steps in unsolved Adam Walsh murder case

Tuesday, Aug. 11, 1981: John F. Monahan Sr. walks into a Vero Beach funeral parlor.

He is there to identify the covered head of Adam Walsh, 6½.

Only hours before, the little boy's parents, John and Revie Walsh, pleaded for their son's return on Good Morning America in New York City.

Their good friend, Monahan, waits for the undertaker to open a door and wheel out a small table.

"Adam was in our house just a couple of days before, and I had noticed his little teeth coming in," said Monahan. "He had smiled at me. So I asked them to open his lips a little bit so I could see the teeth."

It was Adam.

Thursday, June 22, 1995: The son of John F. Monahan Sr., Michael V., now 34, walks into the Hollywood police headquarters.

Homicide detectives ask him questions about the murder of Adam Walsh, unsolved for 14 years. Why are police talking to him now? "I don't really know," his father said.

WALSH FAMILY

Police mum; dad, lawyer say he's not a suspect

By Dave Karger

This is not the first time Michael Manahan's name has come up.

Twelve years ago, when Adam's parents and their son, John A. Walsh, were in the hospital, Michael Manahan was a lawyer and a friend of the family.

"I called the Hollywood Police Department and they told me absolutely not, he wasn't a suspect there and he isn't now," John Walsh says.

"I'm not, he said, 'to be honest, I'm not sure you could understand why Michael is in a hospital, because he has some mental problems and things like that. He does not have a lawyer.'"

John Walsh, now head of American TV, says he doesn't believe the man his lawyer friend was involved.

The police "have told us several times he is not a suspect," says Walsh's lawyer, George Terwilliger.

So why would police want to talk with Michael Manahan? "I'd go up to talk about it," Terwilliger says. "But it has nothing to do with him being a suspect."

Agency Executive Michael Collins, who represents Manahan in a D.C. law firm, says he doesn't think his client could be involved.

"I would never in a million years suggest this to be the case," Collins said.

THE MURDER INCIDENT

Several head, shatboard fight raised questions

On July 27, 1961, Adam Walsh walked in the toy department at Sears in the Hollywood Mall when his mother saw him for a minute, longer perhaps than she had for 17 1/2 years when she stopped to smile and bid him.

Three hours after Adam's disappearance, the body of a young boy was found near the Sears building.

"It's not my client's religion that he was supposed to find the body," D.P. Hughes, chief investigator for the Broward Medical Examiner's Office, said at the time. "Adam was dropped at the store in Florida and he never found. For some reason, he found this."

Broward Medical Examiner Dick Wright said the body had a heavy-headed appearance to cover the head of the child — after he was dead.

Three days after Adam's disappearance — and 11 days before the body was found — Michael Manahan then "handed a date with a number in a fight over a shatboard, according to an Oakland Park police report."

What happened that Thursday, July 20, 1961, comes from a sworn statement of Ray Allen Dwyer, then 19, of Margate.

"A friend of mine told me there was a kid out there with my general appearance," he said. "I had been warned from his car a month earlier."

"I went out and asked him if I could see the kid and he said sure. And I looked at it and immediately recognized the head as being mine," Dwyer said.

Detective "Denny" Rhoads "I grabbed my head for Detective Rhoads, made the "major case cover" from Manahan and kept it after discovery of Adam's head by Oakland Hollywood Police.

"From everything that is known, it would appear the 'kid' Manahan was really 'Michael Manahan' was really 'Michael Manahan,'" said Terwilliger, John Walsh's lawyer.

"But I think a police department would be concerned in being sure that if it was a case of a kid and it was not a suspect and that was the end of it."

John Walsh's lawyer said that John Walsh had spoken to him on Nov. 4, 1963, two years after Adam's death, however for John Walsh and Hollywood Mall manager James J. Campbell.

From the start, Campbell had been a police police suspect. He was Adam's father.

"I was his father, his brother, his uncle, he had blood — all of them," Campbell said. "I didn't go out with my friends much or go out on dates, I would rather stay home and do something with Adam."

Until two weeks before the disappearance, Campbell had lived with the Walsh family. But he had moved out and was living separately with John Manahan (D.C. name was John Jr. and John).

On the morning of the crime, John Campbell said he was surprised to see Adam and Adam left to go, but he would be at the store that day.

Under oath, he was asked about Manahan and the murder.

"You were aware of the fact that Manahan was the one who was involved," said William C. Condon, a lawyer for Sears.

"Yes," he said.

"When you discovered that you were over my department that day, did you have any conversation with Adam's mother?"

"No," he said.

"Do you say that she is a suspect in relation to your son's disappearance? Why do you think that's a possibility?"

"I believe I happen to know Michael Manahan very well and —"

"That's all in there about your knowledge of Michael Manahan that makes you so certain he wasn't involved, even though he's a disturbed other people's child?"

"That's a very clear kind of man. I've known him since he was five years old. We were in the same grade when together, we lived down the street from each other."

When Adam turned up missing that morning, both Terwilliger and Michael Manahan rushed to Sears.

Sam Conroy, an attorney for the Hollywood Mall, has worked in three Virginia Beach, Va., stores — and believes now — a stranger did it. "The child was abducted by some kid who I have no contact to the coroner."

The Walters dropped the case after Campbell refused that he and Adam had a two-year love affair.

Ron Wright said the killer used a heavy-bladed instrument to sever the head of the child — after he was dead.

Three days after Adam's disappearance — and 11 days before the head was found — Michael Monahan, then 20, hacked a door with a machete in a rage over a skateboard, according to an Oakland Park police report.

What happened that Thursday, July 30, 1981, comes from a sworn statement of Ray Alan Bryan, then 19, of Margate.

"A friend of mine told me there was a kid out there with my special skateboard," he said. It had been swiped from his car a month earlier.

"I went out and asked him if I could see the board and he said sure. And I looked at it and immediately recognized the board as being mine," Bryan told Detective William "Dusty" Rhodes. "I grabbed the board and he still had a hold of it, and he yanked it and then I yanked it back out of his hands."

Bryan ran into a nearby skateboard shop and slammed the door.

"He was outside the door telling me if I didn't open the door that he was going to cut me up. And I didn't open the door and pretty soon he started busting the door down and I started seeing a blade coming through the door."

"I thought he was going to kill me. You just don't get that mad over a skateboard. Maybe he's got a screw loose."

The kid with the machete "busted through the door and we surrendered and I gave him the skateboard back," Bryan said.

When someone asked him what the problem was, he "threatened everyone in the place with the knife, saying that if anyone wanted to take the skateboard away from him, they were welcome to."

Detective Rhodes asked Bryan, "How else did he ever come to you with the machete actually threatening your life with it?"

"Within six inches of my throat, Christine Ann Goodie, 47, said "he had a very mean look on his face. I'm glad he took his frustrations out on the door instead of us."

Police identified the kid with the machete as Michael V. Monahan. Police dropped the case when the victim declined to prosecute. I've known him since he was five years old... We went to the same grade schools together, we lived down the street from each other."

When Adam turned up missing that terrible day, both Campbell and Michael Monahan rushed to Sears.

Rex Conrad, an attorney for the Hollywood Mall, now retired in West Virginia, believed then — and believes now — a stranger did it. "The child was abducted by some whacko. I have no evidence to the contrary."

The Walshes dropped the lawsuit after Campbell testified that he and Reve had a two-year love affair.

COULD PUBLICITY HELP?

Reporter argues yes,
Walsh friend says no

Fourteen years after Adam's death, the mystery is back in the news. It resurfaced after Jay Grelen, a reporter for The Mobile (Alabama) Press Register, wrote a series of stories.

When Hollywood Police refused the Alabama paper's request to see investigative files, the newspaper filed suit. This month, Hollywood Police told a Broward Circuit judge the files must remain secret — because detectives are still chasing leads.

Michael Monahan's father, John Sr., downplayed the sordid incident and dismissed any notion his son could have been involved.

"He was a teenager at the time and somebody stole a skateboard, he took a machete and hit at a door."

Mostly, John Sr., a business consultant, directed his anger toward the Alabama reporter.

"It's my son and I don't think he's capable of doing anything like that," John Monahan said. "He may be the suspect in the mind of this renegade reporter who's in this thing for personal gain."

"Let this schmuck try to go out and help capture 100 of America's Most Wanted," the senior Monahan said, a reference to his friend John Walsh's TV show.

If anyone can catch the killer, Monahan said, it's John Walsh.

"Do you think at this juncture after 14 years that any further publicity will help in any way? It will only damage. Who has a better capacity to find someone than

Police mum; dad, lawyer say he's not a suspect

ADAM, FROM 1A

This is not the first time Michael Monahan's name has come up.

Twelve years ago, when Adam's parents sued Sears Roebuck & Co. and Hollywood told about the disappearance of their son from the store, a lawyer asked a crucial witness if Michael Monahan "might have been somehow involved in Adam's situation."

"I called the Hollywood Police Department and they told me absolutely not, he wasn't a suspect then and he isn't now," John Monahan said.

His son, he said, "is extremely angry and I think you could understand why. Michael is in a landscaping business, he loves animals and children and plants and things like that. He does not have a temper."

John Walsh, now host of America's Most Wanted TV show, doesn't believe the son of his longtime friend was involved.

The police "have told up point-blank, he is not a suspect," said Walsh's lawyer, George Terwilliger.

"So, why would police want to talk with Michael Monahan? It's up to them to talk about it," Terwilliger said. "But it has nothing to do with him being a suspect."

Attorney Bradley Michael Cohen, who represented Monahan in a DRJ case last year, scoffed at any thought his client could be involved.

"I would never in a million years..."

But Detective Rhodes confiscated the "sugar cane cutter" from Monahan and kept it. After discovery of Adam's head, he notified Hollywood Police.

"From everything that is known, it would appear the machine incident involving Michael Monahan was totally coincidental," said Terwilliger, John Walsh's lawyer.

"But I think a police department would be criticized as being negligent if they didn't look at it. They looked at it and it was not connected and that was the end of it."

The machine incident surfaced publicly in a civil lawsuit that John Walsh filed against Sears.

On Nov. 4, 1983, two years after Adam's death, lawyers for Sears and Hollywood Mall questioned James E. Campbell.

From the start, Campbell had been a prime police suspect. He was Adam's godfather.

"I was his father, his brother, his uncle, his best friend — all of them," Campbell said then. "I didn't go out with my friends much or go out on dates, I would rather stay home and do something with Adam."

Until two weeks before the abduction, Campbell had lived with the Walsh family. But he had moved out and was living part-time with John Monahan Sr.'s two sons, John Jr. and Michael.

On the morning of the abduction, Campbell said he stopped by to see Steve and Adam. Steve, he said, told him the would be at the store.

BODY NEVER FOUND
Adam Walsh.

John Walsh of America's Most Wanted.

Reporter Greica responded: "The great irony in this is that I'm only doing what John Walsh has made a career out of doing. By publicizing cases, sometimes you can develop new leads. The bottom line is somebody killed this little boy and got away with it."

ONE 'UNDERGROUND'

Walsh family friend served time for extortion

Today, Michael V. Monahan is a convicted felon. A federal jury in Jacksonville found Monahan and three other men — including the son of a reputed South Florida crime family boss — guilty of extortion in 1990. They abducted a Dade stockbroker who failed to pay back a $400,000 loan — borrowed at 50 percent interest.

But before the case went to trial, the victim, stockbroker Christopher James Letalle, disappeared.

His corpse turned up in a ditch in rural Monroe county March 15, 1990. Someone had shot him five times in the chest.

"It was a professional-type job," said Gail F. Conolly, with the Statewide Prosecutor's Office. "His head was driving his mother's car, and the car was found with latex rubber — indicating someone was wearing latex gloves."

The culprit, or culprit, even stripped the seat covers. "To take away any hairs and fibers," Conolly explained.

Prosecutors used a statement Letalle made before his death, plus tape-recorded phone calls, and a federal judge gave Monahan five years.

"He served four years in prison for something he didn't do," his father said. "My son is underground. I swear to you on my wife's grave, I don't know where he lives, and I don't know what his telephone number is."

The Herald tried to reach Michael Monahan, leaving repeated messages with his father and a note at the house of an acquaintance in Davis. He didn't respond.

HOST'S CRIME-FIGHTING TV SHOW: John Walsh.

Defense attorneys said the four defendants passed polygraph tests about the stockbroker murder.

"Who are the suspects?" "I can't really answer that because it's still under investigation. It's not a closed case," said Conolly.

CASE STILL OPEN

Hollywood detective cites three potential suspects

Neither is the killing of Adam Walsh.

Said Paul Dungan, a top aide to Hollywood Chief Richard Witt: "I've been asked by the boss to not dwell into the particulars of the case."

'I called the Hollywood Police Department and they told me absolutely not, he wasn't a suspect then and he isn't now.'

JOHN MONAHAN, speaking of his son, Adam

Hollywood Detective Mark Smith, an analytical and persistent detail man, is on the case. In court the other day, Detective Smith said there were three potential suspects.

"He said one had been a suspect from very early on," said Thomas Julia, an attorney for newspapers fighting for the police files. "And one had come to light in the last six months. And one he didn't say really when that person had become a suspect."

Said Terwilliger, Walsh's attorney, "The new suspect in the case is a stranger to the family."

With his son's case back in the news again, John Walsh issued a statement from the office of America's Most Wanted.

"We have always prayed that Adam's killer would be caught and brought to justice. I believe my family and I need that closure."

Walsh case ops keep coming in break still goal retiring major

FRESH POWER
and Staff Writer
HOLLYWOOD — It has been 10 years. There are no suspects or clues in one of the nation's most publicized kidnap and murder cases, police continue to check every lead, follow every trail, hoping one day to find the person who lured the 10-year-old Adam Walsh.

Maj. J.B. Smith was a sergeant in a robbery unit when Adam Walsh was abducted in 1981. On Friday, Smith will retire after 21 years with the Hollywood Police Department.

He will leave Florida but will not give up his hope that one day the Adam Walsh case will be solved.

Even 10 years after the murder, the department continues to receive letters with possible information about the case, most of them forwarded from calls to the Adam Walsh Resource Center and The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. The 10th this year arrived Tuesday afternoon.

"It's a typical lead," Smith said. "There's very little information, but we can't be set aside. This could be the one we need."

Investigators have followed hundreds, maybe thousands, of leads. They have eliminated all of them, including the most promising suspects: Otis Toole and his lover, convicted one-eyed mass murderer Leroy Lee Lucas.

"Otis Toole is probably the most complete investigation we've ever seen to prove that somebody didn't do it," Smith said. Toole confessed, recanted, confessed, then recanted again. He never was charged. He is serving a life sentence in Florida State Prison for a 1982 Jacksonville arson/murder. He will have to serve at least 25 years before he will become eligible for parole. Lucas, who was on Death Row in a Texas prison, was extradited to Florida in December to stand trial in four other slayings.

Smith thinks it will be a tip, possibly from someone who saw something or knows something but was afraid to come forward, that eventually will lead to the murderer.

"I don't know of any homicide that's this old that's going to be solved because of legwork," Smith said.

There are others who still think about the case.

Dennis Neylon, one of the lead detectives in the case, is retired and lives in Colorado.

"It's probably one of the toughest cases I ever worked on," Neylon said. "The notoriety of the case was nationwide."

"I have to agree with J.B. ... Somebody's going to make a call," Neylon said. "A lot of cases are like that. You'll work it and work it and work it, and one day you get a call and it all comes together."

Adam Walsh was abducted from the Sears store in the Hollywood Mall — across the street from the Hollywood Police Department.

Two weeks later and 120 miles away, his severed head was found in an isolated canal by some fishermen. His body never was found.

A piece of paper lay on the desk of Hollywood police Maj. James B. Smith. On it was the name, someone claims, of the man who killed Adam Walsh almost 10 years ago.

"For all I know, this is the name of the murderer," Smith said.

As with other leads in the case, Smith will turn it over to the members of the department's detective division, which he has commanded since February 1989.

It will be the last lead he asks the 53 members of his division to check out. After 21 years on the force, Smith will retire Friday.

Smith, 60, is using the occasion of his retirement to once again focus attention on the unsolved murder of Walsh, the seven-year-old Hollywood boy who was abducted from Sears at the Hollywood Mall on July 27, 1981.

Two weeks later, fishermen found the boy's remains in a canal along Florida's Turnpike at mile marker 130 in Indian River County. Police still have no motive for the murder.

Smith was a sergeant in department's robbery unit at the time of Walsh's abduction and assisted in the local search for the boy. In 1984, as a lieutenant, he headed an investigative task force investigating the claim by drifter Otis Toole that he killed the boy.

"It took us almost a year to prove he didn't do it," Smith said.

The case remains open, and leads keep coming in. Ten have been investigated this year alone. They come in through phone calls, from the Adam Walsh Child Resource Center, and like the one on Smith's desk, from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children in Arlington, Va.

"It's not going to be the detectives' legwork that's going to solve this case," Smith said. "It's going to be people calling in information."

Police are encouraging anyone who may think they know anything about the case to give them a call. Even if the information may seem to be insignificant.

"In many cases, 99 percent of the time, somebody has information that could help that they didn't think was important," said Assistant to the Chief Paul Dungan.

"I'd certainly like to see Adam's murderer found," said John Walsh, the boy's father. "I personally don't get the fascination with the 10 years (anniversary). It's just as tough now as it was then. It's something we deal with every day and it's just as tough."

Walsh, now the host of the Fox Television program "America's Most Wanted" that has resulted in the arrests of 157 fugitives in three years, said he understands

'It's not going to be the detectives' legwork that's going to solve this case. It's going to be people calling in information.'

that it takes criminal investigations take a long time.

"I know now after working on the show," he said. "I didn't know that before. I think the Hollywood police have tried very hard."

Smith said he will retire to a cottage on the lake in Greenville, S.C., where he hopes to spend time fishing and teaching at a law enforcement academy.

He said his career is not the stuff of which TV miniseries are made.

"If you're looking for the exciting, shootout story, it's not here," Smith said.

Nevertheless, Smith is one of four officers in the department to receive the department's Legion of Valor for courage.

In May 1977, he and his partner, Ron Hickman, responded to a hostage situation to find a boyfriend, who had beaten up his girlfriend, was threatening to shoot her.

Smith and Hickman found the man armed with a rifle and shotgun. After talking to the man on the phone and getting his confidence, the two detectives were able to disarm the man.

The year before, Smith was the detective in charge of the murder investigation of Laura Cagle, the mother-in-law of then Police Chief Sam Martin.

Four days later, Smith charged another resident of the Okomo trailer park with strangling Cagle, who had caught the man breaking into her trailer.

Police Chief Witt said he will have a hard time finding someone to replace Smith. Though several candidates have the skills, they don't have a particular element that Smith has.

"J.B. brings a character to the job," Witt said. "He's quiet, but so dependable that the people who work for him and the people for whom he works for, both gain a strength from his reliability."

Back in Smith's office, he fingers the paper with the alleged murderer's name on it. In the corner of the stationary is the logo of the Adam Walsh Child Resource Center and the words, "If his song is to continue, we must do the singing."

"I guess we're doing the singing for the police," Smith said. "It is a solvable case and there is someone out there who knows who did it."

EXHIBITS:

Submission 03

- One sealed brown paper bag containing exhibits #7 thru #14 from carpets and padding in 1971 White Cadillac Sedan de Ville, VIN 683491Q134601
- 07 One sealed manila envelope containing "carpet sample #1 from driver's side"
- 08 One sealed manila envelope containing "carpet sample #2 from driver's side"

EXHIBITS (cont.):

- #11 One sealed manila envelope containing "carpet sample #1 from rear floorboard
- #12 One sealed manila envelope containing "carpet sample #2 from rear floorboard
- #13 One sealed manila envelope containing "carpet sample #3 from rear floorboard
- #14 One sealed manila envelope containing "carpet sample #4 from rear floorboard

Submission 04

- #15 One sealed brown paper bag containing "machette with canvas sheath"

RESULTS:

Exhibits #7 thru #14

The "carpets and padding from the front and rear floorboards of the 1971 White Cadillac Sedan de Ville" were treated with luminol, a presumptive chemical test for bloodstaining. Areas of strongly persistent luminescence were noted on the portion of "carpet from driver's side", on the portion of "carpet from left rear floorboard", and on the "padding underneath the carpet from left rear floorboard". These results as well as separate chemical tests demonstrated the presence of a trace of bloodstaining on these carpets and padding. There was an insufficient amount of blood for further tests.

Exhibit #15

Chemical tests on the blade edge of the "machette" demonstrated the presence of a trace of bloodstaining in a quantity that was insufficient for further testing.

Chemical tests for bloodstaining on the "canvas sheath" were inconclusive.

REMARKS:

Debris from the "machette blade" and from the "canvas sheath" will be forwarded to the Microanalysis section of the Tallahassee Regional Crime Laboratory. Results of their analysis and the disposition of the evidence will be the subject of a separate report.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Director Rod Caswell RC
Deputy Director Dale Heideman DH

FROM: Inspector W. J. [unclear]

SUBJECT: Possible Missing Evidence - Adam Walsh Death Investigation; Laboratory Case Number # K11043357 - 10/25/83

Special Agent Fred Hobbs, Division of Criminal Investigation, Bureau of Investigative Services, contacted our office requesting help in locating some old evidence in reference to the above captioned death investigation. The original request was made to SA Hobbs from the Hollywood Police Department as they have been unsuccessful in finding some items of evidence that had been sent to the Jacksonville Laboratory for analysis in 1983.

The evidence in question was in fact submitted to the Jacksonville Laboratory in October and November, 1983 and then several items were transferred to the Tallahassee Laboratory for analysis:

Submission 01 and 03 were transferred to Tallahassee on November 8, 1983 via certified mail, #P276000227

Submission 04 was transferred to Tallahassee on November 23, 1983, via certified mail, #P276000241.

Submission 06 was transferred to Tallahassee on November 21, 1983, via certified mail, #P446862136

The contents of those submissions contained the following Exhibits, #1, #2, #3, #5, #6, #15A, #15B, 15C, and #A

Memorandum
January 30, 1995

After reviewing the complete documentation in both the Micro and Latent case files it is clear that all the evidence that was transferred to Tallahassee Regional Crime Laboratory was returned to the Hollywood Police Department on February 11, 1984. This is documented by US Postal Return Receipt (# 191905) that is attached to the Micro case file. The package was signed for by someone named Sykes (initials illegible)

Writer also spoke with Bureau Chief Steve Platt, on this date, reference the same case number and inquired as to what documentation that they had on any submissions from the case (#831043357) that were analyzed in the Jacksonville Regional Laboratory. He informed me that all items that were submitted to the Jacksonville Laboratory had also been returned. The returns had either been by registered mail with return receipts or were returned to a Detective Buddy Tearey, Jacksonville Sheriff's Office (now retired). He further stated that he has had two other inquiries about the case in the past several weeks from the Hollywood Police Department and informed them of this same information.

Writer was unable to contact SA Hobbs on this date (1/30/95) as he was out of the office until Tuesday, January 31, 1995. I will attempt to contact him then and provide him with the findings of this inquiry.

DATE: August 16, 1994

FILE: ADAM WALSH HOMICIDE

SUBJECT: RECOMMENDATION/SUMMARY OF
CASE 81-56073

FROM: DETECTIVE MARK SMITH HOMICIDE UNIT

REFERENCE: 81-56073

Det Mark Smith

AS PER YOUR REQUEST TO REVIEW THIS CASE JOINTLY WITH HARRY O'REILLY, THE FOLLOWING WILL BE A SUMMARY AND SUGGESTIONS REGARDING FURTHER INVESTIGATION AND RE-INVESTIGATION OF MATTERS ORIGINALLY COVERED IN THE INITIAL INVESTIGATION. HARRY WILL BE MEETING WITH ME AT AN UNDETERMINED DATE WITH HIS SUGGESTIONS.

I WAS ABLE TO SPEND A REASONABLE AMOUNT OF TIME REVIEWING THIS CASE WHICH HAS A RATHER LARGE INVESTIGATIVE FILE. DUE TO THE AMOUNT OF TIME SINCE THIS INCIDENT, IT WOULD BE VIRTUALLY IMPOSSIBLE TO SET OUT AND TRY TO ESTABLISH NEW SUSPECTS OR MOTIVES. THEREFORE, I BELIEVE IT MAY BE BENEFICIAL TO EXPOUND UPON SOME OF THE INFORMATION THAT THE ORIGINAL INVESTIGATION WORKED WITH. HOWEVER, THERE HAVE BEEN MANY TIPS RECEIVED OVER THE YEARS SINCE THE INCIDENT THAT ARE BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN FOLLOWED UP ON WITHOUT ANY POSITIVE RESULTS.

IT IS BELIEVED, DUE TO THE DIRECTION THE ORIGINAL INVESTIGATION LED, THAT THERE MAY HAVE BEEN SOME INVOLVEMENT BY SOMEONE WISHING TO GET BACK AT JOHN WALSH. RIGHTFULLY SO, THIS WAS VIRTUALLY ELIMINATED AS A POSSIBILITY.

THE INVESTIGATION ALSO CENTERED ON THE POSSIBILITY THAT A LOVE TRIANGLE INVOLVING CLOSE FRIEND OF THE FAMILY, JAMES CAMPBELL, MAY HAVE BEEN THE CAUSE OF THE SLAYING. AFTER REVIEWING CAMPBELL'S STATEMENTS MADE AT THAT TIME, WHEREIN HE ADMITTED TO THE AFFAIR, AND HIS DESCRIBED WHEREABOUTS THE DAY OF AND AFTER THE ABDUCTION, IT IS MY OPINION THAT HE HAD NEITHER THE OPPORTUNITY NOR THE MOTIVE TO CARRY OUT THIS ACT. BASED ON STATEMENTS MADE BY THE WALSHES, CAMPBELL WAS CONSIDERED A CLOSE FRIEND OF THE FAMILY AND GODFATHER TO ADAM AND CARED VERY MUCH FOR HIM. THOUGH ADAM COULD BE CONSIDERED THE REASON WHY REVE WALSH WOULD NOT LEAVE JOHN WALSH FOR HIM, IT IS MY OPINION THAT THIS IS NOT A STRONG POSSIBILITY BASED ON THE PREVIOUSLY MENTIONED STATEMENTS. THOUGH I DO NOT CONSIDER CAMPBELL A SUSPECT, I DO FEEL IT WOULD BE BENEFICIAL TO RE-INTERVIEW HIM AS HE BECAME ALIENATED DURING THE INITIAL INTERROGATIONS. CAMPBELL IS STILL BELIEVED TO BE LIVING LOCALLY AND THIS SHOULD BE DONE WITHOUT DIFFICULTY. I HAVE SPOKEN WITH THE POLYGRAPHER USED BY THIS AGENCY, JOE MATTHEWS, AND REVIEWED HIS REPORT AS WELL. I DISCOVERED THAT HE TOO FOUND CAMPBELL AND BOTH WALSHES TO BE NON DECEPTIVE.

ALMOST TWO WEEKS AFTER THE DISAPPEARANCE, ADAM WALSH'S SEVERED HEAD WAS DISCOVERED ADJACENT TO THE TURNPIKE NEAR MILE MARKER 126. I BELIEVE IT WOULD BE BENEFICIAL TO CONDUCT A FOLLOW-UP INSPECTION OF THIS AREA FIRST HAND TO TRY TO MAKE A DETERMINATION WHY THIS AREA WAS SELECTED. ONE OF THE REASONS MAY BE TO DETERMINE, IF THERE IS, ANY CONNECTION TO THIS AREA AND ANYONE ASSOCIATED WITH OUR AREA AT THAT TIME. UPON REVIEWING THE PHOTOGRAPHS, IT APPEARED THAT THIS COULD BE AN AREA PICKED AT RANDOM AS THERE WAS AN ACCESS ROAD VISIBLE FROM THE TURNPIKE. I HAVE SPOKEN WITH AN OFFICER WITH THE ST. LUCIE COUNTY SHERIFFS OFFICE WHO WAS INVOLVED IN THE ORIGINAL INVESTIGATION WHO WAS WILLING TO AGAIN ASSIST THIS AGENCY IN THIS MATTER.

I WOULD ALSO SUGGEST THAT AN INTERVIEW TAKE PLACE BETWEEN THIS AGENCY AND THE MEDICAL EXAMINER INVOLVED, DR. RONALD WRIGHT, AS WELL AS THE MEDICAL EXAMINER INVESTIGATOR, D.P. HUGHES, REGARDING THEIR FINDINGS. ALTHOUGH IT MAY BE SOMEWHERE IN THE FILE, IT WAS NOT CLEAR TO ME WHAT THEIR OPINIONS WERE OTHER THAN THE CAUSE AND APPROXIMATE DAY OF DEATH. WHAT COULD BE IMPORTANT WOULD BE THEIR OPINION ON THE CONDITION OF THE SEVERED HEAD AND HOW LONG IT MAY HAVE BEEN IN THE WATER WHERE IT WAS DISCOVERED.

IN 1983, OTTIS TOOLE SURFACED AS A SUSPECT IN THIS CASE. ACCORDING TO THE CASE FILE, TOOLE TOLD ANOTHER DETECTIVE WHO WAS QUESTIONING HIM REGARDING ANOTHER CRIME, THAT HE THOUGHT HE WAS THERE TO TALK TO HIM ABOUT THIS MURDER. TOOLE WENT ON TO CONFESS, RECENT AND THEN CONFESS AGAIN. ALTHOUGH THERE WAS NO EVIDENCE TO IMPLICATE TOOLE AT THE TIME OTHER THAN HIS CONFESSION, THERE ALSO WAS NOTHING FOUND TO EXCULPATE HIM. ONE OF THE BELIEFS BY THE ORIGINAL INVESTIGATORS WAS THAT TOOLE WAS CONFESSING FOR PUBLICITY FUELED BY SPECIFIC FACTS FURNISHED BY AN OVERZEALOUS JACKSONVILLE DETECTIVE. ACCORDING TO THE CASE FILE, TOOLE DID ACCURATELY DIRECT INVESTIGATORS TO THE CORRECT AREA WHERE THE SEVERED HEAD WAS LOCATED AND ACCURATELY DESCRIBED THE ROUTE TAKEN. THE SUBSEQUENT FOLLOW-UP INVESTIGATION COULD NOT ACCOUNT FOR TOOLE'S WHEREABOUTS AT THE TIME OF THE ABDUCTION/HOMICIDE. THE FOLLOW-UP INVESTIGATION WAS ABLE TO DETERMINE TOOLE'S WHEREABOUTS PRIOR TO AND AFTER THE HOMICIDE HOWEVER. THE CAR TOOLE STATED THAT HE USED WAS LOCATED AND F.D.L.E. CONDUCTED TESTS REGARDING BLOOD DETECTION. ALTHOUGH IT MAY BE IN THE CASE FILE, I WAS NOT ABLE TO LOCATE THE DISPOSITION OF THIS TEST.

BASED ON THE ABOVE, I WOULD SUGGEST THAT ANOTHER INTERVIEW OF TOOLE TAKE PLACE. THE REASON FOR THIS WOULD BE TWOFOLD. FIRST, TO GAUGE HIS RESPONSE REGARDING HIS MOTIVATION AND SINCERITY FOR CONFESSING AND/OR HIS RECENTING. SECONDLY, IF HE DENIES INVOLVEMENT, TRY TO DETERMINE HIS WHEREABOUTS AT THE TIME OF THE ABDUCTION/HOMICIDE THUS SUCCESSFULLY ELIMINATING HIM AS A SUSPECT. ONE POSSIBLE SCENARIO COULD BE THE REAFFIRMING OF HIS ORIGINAL STATEMENT OF HIS INVOLVEMENT. IF THIS OCCURRED, A DIFFERENT APPROACH COULD RESULT IN A MORE SPECIFIC AND ACCURATE DESCRIPTION OF WHAT MAY HAVE OCCURRED.

I HAVE BEEN IN CONTACT WITH JOE MATTHEWS WHO WAS PREVIOUSLY MENTIONED IN THIS SUMMARY. JOE MATTHEWS IS AN INSTRUCTOR IN INTERVIEWS AND INTERROGATIONS AS WELL AS A HIGHLY REGARDED POLYGRAPHER. MR. MATTHEWS HAS AGREED TO ACCOMPANY THIS AGENCY IN AN INTERVIEW WITH TOOLE FREE OF CHARGE. ALTHOUGH HE MAY HAVE ULTERIOR MOTIVES FOR THIS WILLINGNESS TO ASSIST, I FEEL MR. MATTHEWS IS A RESOURCE THAT COULD BE BENEFICIAL TO THIS INVESTIGATION. TO GO ALONG WITH THIS, I WOULD ALSO SUGGEST TO RELOCATE THE VEHICLE MENTIONED BY TOOLE IF POSSIBLE. CONTACT WITH F.D.L.E. MAY BE ABLE TO DETERMINE IF THERE WAS ANYTHING DETECTED IN 1983 THAT PRESENT DAY TECHNOLOGY MAY DETERMINE TO BE OF ANY EVIDENTIARY VALUE.

THOUGH TOOLE MAY NOT HAVE ANY INVOLVEMENT IN THIS CASE, I FEEL BASED UPON THE FACTS KNOWN, THAT THE POSSIBILITY EXISTS THAT SOMEONE LIKE HIM OR RANDOM TYPE VIOLENCE DID OCCUR. TOOLE HAS NOT BEEN SUCCESSFULLY ELIMINATED AS A SUSPECT IN THIS CASE.

I HAVE A TENTATIVE APPOINTMENT WITH HARRY O'REILLY TO INSPECT THE AREA PREVIOUSLY MENTIONED OFF THE TURNPIKE ON AUGUST 23, 1994. AFTER THIS MEETING, WE WILL GET TOGETHER AND MAKE OUR FINAL RECOMMENDATIONS.

REFERENCE:

IN MY INITIAL MEMO REGARDING THE RE-INVESTIGATION OF THE ADAM WALSH HOMICIDE, IT HAD BEEN SUGGESTED THAT ATTEMPTS BE MADE FOR GENETIC TESTING OF EVIDENCE OBTAINED IN THE INITIAL INVESTIGATION. THIS EVIDENCE, RECOVERED FROM JACKSONVILLE, CONSISTS OF SUSPECTED BLOODSTAINED CARPET FROM A VEHICLE AND BLOODSTAINED MACHETE AND SHEATH. THIS EVIDENCE WAS COLLECTED IN 1983 AND TESTED POSITIVE BY THE F.D.L.E. LAB FOR BLOOD. WITH TECHNOLOGY LACKING AT THAT TIME, NO FURTHER TESTS COULD BE PERFORMED.

THE MACHETE AND SHEATH, ALONG WITH A SMALL PORTION OF THE CARPET, HAVE BEEN STORED IN THE HOLLYWOOD PD EVIDENCE ROOM. THESE ITEMS, ALONG WITH A CONTROL SAMPLE OF ADAM WALSH'S HAIR, WILL BE DELIVERED TO THE GENETIC DESIGN LABORATORY IN GREENSBORO, N.C.. IN CONVERSATION WITH THE F.D.L.E. CRIME LABORATORY SEROLOGIST JAMES POLLACK, WHO WORKED THIS CASE ORIGINALLY, HE RECOMMENDED THIS LABORATORY FOR THE TESTS NECESSARY TO EXTRACT (DNA) FROM THESE ITEMS TO BE COMPARED WITH THE CONTROL SAMPLES OF HAIR AND/OR BONE. THE BONE SAMPLES, STORED AT THE BROWARD MEDICAL EXAMINERS OFFICE, WILL NOT BE REMOVED FOR TESTING UNTIL IT IS DETERMINED WHETHER THE PREVIOUSLY MENTIONED SAMPLES ARE SUFFICIENT FOR FURTHER (DNA) ANALYSIS. I HAVE CONVERSED WITH DR. PERPER AND CHIEF INVESTIGATOR D.P. HUGHES REGARDING THIS EVIDENCE. IT WAS MUTUALLY AGREED UPON THAT THIS EVIDENCE WILL REMAIN, AS THE (DNA) TESTING WILL VIRTUALLY DESTROY THE PORTION OF THE BONE.

I MADE CONTACT WITH DONNA FERRARO AND KEVIN NOPPINGER OF THE SEROLOGY DEPT. OF THE B.S.O. LAB. THEY WERE ADVISED OF THE EVIDENCE TO BE TESTED. THEY STATED THAT THEY DID NOT HAVE THE CAPABILITY TO CONDUCT SUCH TESTS AND RECOMMENDED TWO PRIVATE LABS IN NORTH CAROLINA, ONE OF WHICH WAS GENETIC DESIGN. I SUBSEQUENTLY MADE CONTACT WITH THE F.B.I. LABORATORY IN WASHINGTON, WHO ACKNOWLEDGED THAT GENETIC DESIGN IS A RECOGNIZED PRIVATE LAB CONDUCTING (DNA) ANALYSIS.

UPON PHONE CONTACT WITH GENETIC DESIGN, I DISCUSSED THE EVIDENCE TO BE EXAMINED WITH SENIOR FORENSIC SCIENTIST JOHN M. RADER. MR. RADER STATED THAT GENETIC DESIGN USES THE F.B.I. PROTOCOL FOR EXTRACTING (DNA). MR. RADER FURTHER STATED THAT THEY HAVE THE CAPABILITY TO CONDUCT FIVE DIFFERENT TESTS, INCLUDING RFLP AND PCR, ON ONE SAMPLE OF EVIDENCE. ACCORDING TO MS. FERRARO AND MR. NOPPINGER, THIS IS THE MOST EXTENSIVE TESTING AVAILABLE FOR THE EVIDENCE TO BE SUBMITTED. MR. RADER STATED THAT GENETIC DESIGN HAS DONE FORENSIC WORK FOR CRIMES IN FLORIDA AND HAVE TESTIFIED IN FLORIDA COURTS.

ON 01/12/96, I SPOKE WITH JOHN WALSH REGARDING THE DIRECTION BEING

TAKEN IN THIS RE-INVESTIGATION. MR. WALSH AGREED WITH THE TESTING MENTIONED IN THIS MEMO INCLUDING THE POSSIBILITY OF TESTING BONE SAMPLES OF THE REMAINS. DEPENDING UPON THE RESULTS OF THE TESTING PERFORMED BY GENETIC DESIGN, A FOLLOW-UP MEMO MAY BE PREPARED FOR FURTHER RECOMMENDATIONS.

June 1989

Dear Rev. Walsh,

I am very saddened and horrified by the atrocities that are still being committed against our children and the lack of ability of our society to locate, prosecute, and punish the perpetrators. I thank you for your massive contribution to a better world.

I received some information in 1981 about your son's killer and have recently obtained more. I was hesitant to relay this knowledge to you in 1981, and am still, due to the possibility of the unreliability of my source and the sketchiness of the detail. I hope that this information will lead to the arrest and conviction of the men involved. Please at least check out this lead. I choose to not get involved directly because of the complexities involved and because I fear I may be killed myself if they know who I am. If I find out anything else I will let you know. I leave my name as Jane Doe Smith.

The murderer's name is Martin Fostick or Fosdick. They were two men who committed the crime. The driver of the light blue or white late model (in 1981) Ford van was in his Fifties and has thinning blonde hair and is overweight. Fostick collects memorabilia from World War II, but more secretly has a fascination with Hitler. Fostick may be some kind of Dr. or veterinarian, as they have access to prescription drugs and hypodermic needles. They have cages with locks in the back of their van. Fostick may even have children of his own, but he never takes them to his wood cabin and dog kennels in a remote area of Florida. That is for, as he calls them, "The other world's children." Fosdick is a Florida resident.

The other man, had dark hair and is/was in his thirties, thin, tall, and was dressed in a security guard's uniform, navy blue and grey. He was the one who lured your son out of the store. He has a skin problem and acne scars on his face and suffers from some kind of dermatitis. His most frequent occupation is some kind of uniformed guard, however his employment pattern is more sporadic and less stable than Fosticks. He came from out of state and fled to Florida after he and another man, who is either in prison or dead, participated in a killing spree. He is a follower.

By themselves the two men were not as deadly. Fostick is the leader, the mastermind. People will be less likely to accept Fostick's involvement, because of his public side.

I regret that I could not find out the exact location of this cabin, because it is by surveillance of this place that they may be caught hopefully prior to the act. The cabin has a room especially for the children. However, they keep all the toys and costumes locked up in a built in wooden cabinet that is about the size of a floor gun/rifle cabinet. About 40 feet from the cabin they have a dog kennel (cement and fencing). The place looks like a legitimate retreat from the exterior. The area is heavily wooded and in a remote area of Florida.

I hope this information along with what you already have will give you enough to find them. These men have been killing children for many years, at least one a month and sometimes they take more than 1 child there at a time. They have kidnapped these children all over Florida and even as far up as Georgia. Their killing has recently become more fervent and bizarre. Adam was one of their first, so he didn't suffer as much as the children after him. He was heavily drugged. I hope that offers you some comfort, because of what you might find out later.

Please follow up on this, the killing must stop.

conduct the benefit there.

A spokesperson for Hollywood Mall Inc. said Tuesday that Walsh and his wife are due to meet today with mall representatives to discuss their plans for October. No final confirmation has been granted that the mall will be available.

But Ms. Goldberg and friends of the Walsh family are going ahead with planning for the benefit.

"This is for the purpose of forming the nucleus of a process to build a national support system for missing children," Ms. Goldberg says. "For those who are missing presently and to prevent those children who are targeted from being abducted."

The benefit envisioned by its organizers would see the mall's corridors filled with people selling items and professional services to raise money for groups aiding children and families victimized as the Walshes were.

Money will also be used to forward petitions to United States legislators, urging them to pass the Missing Child Act before Congress. Passage of the act, co-sponsored in the Senate by Republican U.S. Sen. Paula Hawkins, would automatically place the names of children less than 17 years old on the National Criminal Information Center computer 48 hours after their disappearance.

Additional funds will be used to print and circulate literature and films throughout the nation alerting people to the plight of missing children. Child Find, a non-profit group based in New York, claims 50,000 children are reported missing each year nationwide.

"Some of these groups don't even have the money to send out these movies they've made about how children can avoid abduction," Adam's father says. "I do believe that people have their own problems, but this is certainly one of the most worthwhile causes that I can think of."

Walsh, who says feelings of loneliness and a sense of loss over his only child's brutal murder are only now beginning to sink in, calls the contributions of people like Mrs. Wolff and Ms. Goldberg "just phenomenal."

"People have been made aware of what a national problem it is, and how hopeless it is for these little children, and no one does anything about it," he claims. "Now people are really getting personally involved with it, which is just terrific."

Both Mrs. Wolff of Ft. Lauderdale and Ms. Goldberg, a Hollywood resident, met Adam's parents only after the boy was reported missing. Ms. Goldberg says she originally felt "so helpless," but says now, "I feel now that I can help."

On the weekend of the Adam Walsh benefit, its organizers hope posters of missing children will be displayed not just at the Hollywood Mall but in shopping malls throughout the nation, wherever children are known to be missing.

Also on that weekend, the benefit's organizers plan to enlist the help of the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts of America. Ideally, Ms. Goldberg says, they will be soliciting financial contributions to help fund missing children awareness groups.

Ms. Goldberg is confident her plans will be fully realized, and says, "There's a lot of nationwide support being shown."

Children are abducted, they are mutilated, they are sexually abused and they are whisked away never to be seen again.

"This is an opportunity to build a support system throughout the nation."

While friends of the family pursue plans such as those outlined by Ms. Goldberg, Adam's parents have not slowed their efforts to open a Hollywood office for a missing children assistance program. Telephones at what had been the Adam Walsh Crisis Center on city hall circle are now being answered with the words, "Adam Walsh Missing Children Outreach Program."

Walsh says that is only a working name for the group; there are "10 or 15" other names under consideration. The new group eventually will move from its city owned office on Hollywood Boulevard into separate quarters.

Adam's mother plans to devote all her time to the Hollywood program when she and her husband return from a vacation to update New York after Adam's as-yet unscheduled cremation.

A decision on a final site for a memorial garden for Adam is not expected for at least a week.

Walsh Center inspiring tribute to six-year-old

Adam Walsh is dead, and none of us likes to be continually reminded of the terrifying way in which he was taken from his family, and the brutal way in which his young life ended.

But in death, Adam is becoming a symbol for all lost or taken children, many of whom are generally ignored by over-worked authorities who feel they can't act unless they're presented evidence of an actual crime.

In their grief, Adam's parents are taking action.

It's the terrible way in which many movements are started, out of anguish, out of frustration, out of the realization that for all our cunning and expertise there are still many areas in which we fail.

A new telephone in Broward County now is answered: "Adam Walsh Outreach Center for Missing Children."

It is quite an impressive title to stand in memory of a little six-year-old.

Center could help children of the future

It's an organization that came too late to help this child and many others who wandered away from home years ago and were lost forever.

But, with community help, and support that should sweep the nation, it might help children of the future.

There are children who disappear who are never sought by officials because they are old enough to be considered just run-aways.

There are children snatched by relatives who are pursued only slightly because it's considered just a "family matter."

There are children like Adam, whose kidnaping has to be left in the hands of local police unless there is some evidence he has been taken across state lines.

In short, there is no nationwide network set up for recovering missing children.

At least, there was no such network.

The Walsh Outreach Center could be the key.

A fund-raising event has been set for Oct. 17 and 18 at the Hollywood Mall to help organize the group. Those wishing to donate items that could be sold to help the cause can call 923-6494.

Adam Walsh tragedy not in vain

Missing child center in search of home

By Charlie Brown
Sun-Tattler staff

With John and Rave Walsh on vacation in Ithaca, N.Y., the task of relocating the Adam Walsh Outreach Center for Missing Children from its city-owned space is in the hands of friends and relatives.

Hollywood city officials agreed the morning of Aug. 10 to convert the former county property appraiser's office on city hall circle into a command center with five phone lines.

The phones were needed to handle an expected deluge of calls stemming from a television appearance the next day by Adam's parents to plea for the safe return of their only child on ABC's "Good Morning America."

The severed head of 6-year-old Adam, abducted from the Hollywood Mall July 27, was discovered the evening of Aug. 18. But final confirmation on the remains' identity was not made until late the following morning.

By that time, the crisis center was in full operation, and Adam's parents had already appeared on the TV show.

The massive community support for the parents of the murdered child, and the Walshes' increased concern for families with missing children, has given birth to a local missing children awareness program headed by Mrs. Walsh.

The multiple phone lines and large office space now afforded to the Walshes and their associates are no longer needed.

Family friend John Monahan is looking for assistance in finding office space and supplies the Outreach Center for Missing Children can use. Monahan, a business associate and personal friend of Walsh for 10 years, was the person called upon to help identify Adam's remains.

"We're going to try to find them an office, preferably in the Hollywood area, maybe close to their (McKinley Street) house," Monahan says. "If we can get it donated, a maximum of three people would need desks and chairs," he adds. "I have an IBM typewriter which would do fine if it were repaired."

Monahan says the program is looking "for a little outside assistance" in the form of donated stationery and business equipment.

Once established, Monahan says the program will have three goals.

A primary goal will be to do anything possible to assist Republican U.S. Sen. Paul Hawkins in gaining passage of the Missing Child Act, now before Congress. That legislation is designed to increase FBI involvement in investigating the disappearance of any children under 17.

Secondly, the program will aid police agencies where possible in recovering abducted or missing youngsters. The agency also will continue to administer a $100,000 reward offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of Adam's killer.

Walsh says he believes the name, Adam Walsh Outreach Center for Missing Children, to be "a bit long," and says other names are being considered. "I think everything possible was done (after Adam's disappearance) in terms of an all-out community effort," Monahan says in reflecting on the Hollywood community's reaction to the crime. "Unfortunately, any clues we had in that short span were not strong enough to help.

"In most cases, kidnapers or perverts would not do something as macabre and horrible as this."

The Walshes are expected to be in upstate New York for a week to 10 days, and will visit with Jeff and Karen O'Regan while there. The O'Regans had spent most of the time between Adam's abduction and funeral in Hollywood helping the boy's family.

The cremation of Adam's remains has been delayed until the Broward Medical Examiner's office has completed its work.

Although Edwin Johnson, the examiner's medical and legal investigator, says it has been determined how Adam's decapitation occurred, that information is not yet being made public. Tests are still being conducted to determine how long the boy's head had been in the water.

Plans for an Adam Walsh Memorial Benefit at Hollywood Mall Oct. 17 and 18 are still in motion. Hollywood Mall marketing director Joy Adams has confirmed the shopping center will be available for the October benefit.

"We told them we're going to do everything possible to help out," Ms. Adams says.

The Walshes have not settled on a location for a memorial garden in their child's memory. The sites under consideration are near the couple's home.

Walsh memorial benefit in planning

By Charlie Brown
Sun-Tattler staff

Bylvia Goldberg and Ada Wolff, two women who never knew the Walsh family before Adam Walsh's July 27 disappearance, are at the center of plans for an Adam Walsh Memorial Benefit Oct. 17-18 at the Hollywood Mall.

Six-year-old Adam was taken from the Sears toy department at the mall and was not seen again until his severed head was found floating in an Indian River County canal Aug. 18.

The Broward women hope the October weekend will only be the beginning of a National Missing Children Week honored throughout the country Oct. 17-25.

The Hollywood benefit and missing children week are designed to raise money for groups aiding families of lost children and to change legislation affecting the FBI's alleged limited involvement in missing child investigations.

Ms. Goldberg says the benefit weekend will open with a proclamation by Mayor David Keating. She hopes to obtain similar proclamations from Gov. Bob Graham and President Ronald Reagan.

Before gaining the president's and governor's stamps of approval, however, Ms. Goldberg and her network will need permission from the mall's owners to

Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. _____:

Because I am so astounded by the complexity of the problem of vanished children in America, I am writing to ask your help in obtaining the following legislation advocated by the BEE SCOFIELD AWARENESS PROGRAM:

- immediate search when any child under 18 is reported missing
- one national agency responsible for finding missing children
- elimination of half & pawns privileges for child molesters and kidnappers

Your actions to make these laws a reality will do much to insure the human rights of our children and to stop a great American tragedy.

Respectfully,

2. To create a national network of volunteers to help families of missing children.

3. To obtain beneficial legislation, such as:
 - Immediate search for all children under 18
 - National police network (linking of existing police, highway patrol and sheriff's departments under FBI leadership)
 - No hat or parole privileges for child molesters
 - Extended carfers for minors

4. To spread police procedures and usage. Specifically:
 - Eliminate 24-hour waiting policy
 - Simplify jurisdictional channels
 - Establish auxiliary volunteer search teams
 - Encourage make-up actions
 - Encourage more communication between police and victims' families
 - Publicize mandatory police accomplishments

Most of them were first-timers. As they waited to be fingerprinted Monday, they shifted from foot to foot, glancing nervously around the room.

Some said they wanted to stay in the room down the hall, where the Nighty Nites cartoon was showing.

These weren't hardened criminals from big-city jails but suburban schoolchildren, serving as guinea pigs while their parents learned how to take their fingerprints.

"It's a lot harder than I thought — it looks so easy," said Lynne Newberry, as she smudged a card with the tiny fingers of her daughter Jodie, 4.

Starting today and continuing for the next seven weeks, children will be fingerprinted in public schools. Parents will keep the only copies of the prints. If a child is arrested, the prints will be compared to the school prints.

Some said they wanted to stay in the room down the hall, where the Mighty Mouse cartoon was showing.

These weren't hardened criminals from big-city jails but suburban schoolchildren, serving as guinea pigs while their parents learned how to take their fingerprints.

"It's a lot harder than I thought — it looks so easy," said Lynne Newberry, as she smudged a card with the tiny fingers of her daughter Jodie, 4.

More than 100 volunteers from 11 Broward elementary schools learned to take fingerprints at Maplewood Elementary School in Coral Springs.

This was the first training session, part of a voluntary fingerprinting program that has spread nationwide after the 1981 kidnap-murder of six-year-old Adam Walsh of Hollywood.

The child-advocacy center that bears Adam's name hopes the fingerprinting program will help police find lost children and ease parent's worries about their youngster's security.

Newberry knows about worry. Her daughter Toni, 9, a fourth-grader at Cypress Elementary School in Pompano Beach, has met potential kidnapers, she said.

"She's almost been taken twice," Newberry said. "One time she was at a neighbor's house and a couple in a van told her to get in. The second time she was riding a bike and a man told her to get in his car."

Fingerprints can't stop a child from getting lost or kidnaped. But the prints can help police nationwide identify and find youngsters.

"You just feel more comfortable knowing you've done everything you can do," Newberry said.

The Adam Walsh Child Resource Center has spent more than $13,000 on the fingerprinting program. The Broward Sheriff's Office is helping train volunteers to employ an inkless system.

Starting today and continuing for the next seven weeks, children will be fingerprinted in public schools. Parents will keep the only copy of the prints. If a child disappears, they can give the copy to police.

The Maplewood volunteers will fingerprint children this week at 11 elementary schools in Coral Springs, Pompano Beach, Coconut Creek and Tamarac.

Six more of the one-day training sessions will be held for volunteers from elementary schools in the rest of the county, said Sharon McMorris, assistant director of the Walsh Center.

Eventually, program officials hope to fingerprint more than 42,000 of Broward's 52,000 elementary school children, said Denny Abbott, executive director of the Walsh Center.

Children in Hollywood schools are being fingerprinted under the city's "L.M. Thumbuddy" program that started in March. The cities of Tamarac, Sunrise and Plantation also have offered programs through their police departments.

The Walsh Center plans to fingerprint children older or younger than elementary school age on May 28.

The Winn Dixie supermarket chain also plans to offer free fingerprints of youngsters, South Florida division security manager R.C. Schwieger said. The program will start within two weeks at 142 stores from Ke, West to Jensen Beach.

Committee to study child care needs

By CATHY SHAW

The center is a nonprofit agency devoted to helping abused, neglected and missing chil-

Ideally, Broward would have group homes for troubled teenagers, foster homes for problem children and wide-ranging tests for determining who belongs in them.

But mental health services for children are conceived in chaos and delivered "by the seat of our pants," Denny Abbott, executive director of the Adam Walsh Child Resource Center said Saturday.

dren. Abbott says he wants to bring order to county chaos.

Saturday morning he gave the Community Mental Health Board an offer it couldn't refuse: the pledge of 21 mental health workers to review Broward services for children, gather statistics, make plans and report back in three months — all for free.

"Children, who need the most care, have received the least," said Abbott, who figured that children under 18 make up some 20 per cent of the population, but were only getting 13 per cent of the board's yearly state allocation of $4.7 million for community mental health programs.

He said money spent now to help children would defray the cost later of housing troubled adults in hospitals, prisons and on welfare programs.

"Pay me now, or pay me later," Abbott said. The board chose to pay him now, particularly with no funds involved.

The new committee, which includes doctors and social workers from South Florida State Hospital, Henderson Mental Health Clinic, Nova University and county schools, began meeting informally a few months ago.

Abbott called its preliminary findings "eye-opening." He outlined the shortcomings of mental health care for children:

- Inadequate funding.
- No list of priorities.
- Fragmented services.
- No statistics on needs.
- No program reviews.

He said the informal committee, blessed now with the mental health board's interest and approval, would gather statistics, identify gaps, and "advise the board quarterly on the status of children."

Board member Sharon Solomon was enthusiastic.

"We move in this town from crisis to crisis," she said. "It's critical that we develop long-range and short-term plans."

Board member Austin Tupper was skeptical.

"They're not asking for dollars now, but in the future, they will be," he said. Still, he supported a motion to recognize Abbott's committee, as did the rest of the board.

Abbott explained that the official recognition

"gives us credibility and makes the committee feel like collecting information."

He said the committee already had learned that dozens of adolescents now at South Florida State Hospital "have no business being there."

"We're too willing to dump kids in the state hospital when a group home would be far less expensive and far more effective," Abbott said.

He added that plans to open therapeutic foster homes for emotionally disturbed children should be expanded.

"We're going to figure out what we need," he said. "For the first time we'll gather meaningful data on what's out there, how much it costs, and how many are on the waiting list."

Disturbed adolescents to get separate housing

By MARY C. HICKEY
Novelty Staff Writer

A treatment program for emotionally disturbed adolescents is scheduled to open on the grounds of South Florida State Hospital next month, solving at least in part a problem that has long disturbed Broward's child advocates.

Emotionally disturbed teenagers are housed in the same hospital ward as severely psychotic youngsters. Mental health professionals and child advocates have argued that that can hinder their rehabilitation.

When the Children's Psychiatric Center starts its program in November, 20 of those young men and women will leave the psychotic ward and move to two cottages in a remote part of the hospital grounds in Pembroke Pines.

The treatment there will be more tailored to their specific needs, said Denny Abbott, director of the Allan Walsh Child Resource Center. Abbott has been lobbying for a separate program for nonpsychotic youngsters for the past year.

"This is a partial answer to what we've been fighting for," Abbott said.

"We would have preferred having them completely moved off the hospital grounds, but we couldn't find any program that would do that. So this is definitely the right step."

The Children's Psychiatric Center is a private nonprofit firm that has contracted with SFSH to run the new program. It operates similar programs in Dade County; this is its first Broward venture for the Miami-based firm.

Its $342,000-a-year agreement with SFSH, still awaiting final approval from the state Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, will allow the hospital to reduce its adolescent population from 90 to 30 and to treat only the most severely insane.

"It's just another part of state-mandated deinstitutionalization," said SFSH Administrator Robert Burton.

Money for the new program will come directly from SFSH's budget, he said. As a result, there will be more layoffs of state employees at the hospital.

Employee groups are complaining that these layoffs will not only hurt them, but also will be detrimental to the quality of care for patients who remain in the state institution.

"They're putting all this money into the private-sector program and leaving the state adolescent ward with minimal staff," said Peter Gilbert of the Florida Nurses' Association, which represents SFSH's doctors and nurses.

Burton denied the psychotic adolescent unit will be shortstaffed as a result of the new program. He also said he doesn't think many employees will suffer as a result.

"One of the stipulations of the contract [with Children's Psychiatric Center] is that our employees get first consideration in hiring."

Safety

To present the hour-long seminar to children in grades kindergarten through third, guidance counselors and members of the parent teachers associations can attend a two-hour training period at the center.

Ms. McMorris, with the help of two parents, recently lectured Linda Egan's third-grade class.

There are different rules to memorize for certain situations. Ms. McMorris told the class.

The most important rule to remember, she said, is "if someone grabs you into the car, you can yell and scream and kick as much as you want to get away."

When lost in a store or shopping mall, a valuable rule is never to leave the store you're in, and look for a cash register because a store employee probably is nearby and can help, she added.

Like many school lessons, homework also was assigned. Each student was to go home and agree on a secret word with his or her parents.

This would be a code word and if a child's parents send someone to pick up the child from school, the code word would be used before climbing into the car. Ms. McMorris said.

And "talk to parents about whose car you can get in and whose house you can play in," she added.

"If something happens at the house you're playing in and you feel uncomfortable, leave and tell your parents about it," Ms. McMorris said. "Don't be afraid to tell your parents," she stressed.

During the seminar, children frequently asked questions and afterward said they learned how to react if a stranger approaches.

"If you're home alone and a stranger calls and asks if you're home alone, you should ask who it is first," Cheryl said.

Richie Denis, 9, said he was most impressed with the code word. "You'll be safer that way," Richie said.

After hearing how dangerous it could be to talk to strangers, Tammy Gribham, 9, said, "I learned not to get into cars and if he (a driver) offered me money, I wouldn't take it."

Elementary pupils learn 'safety with strangers'

By Beverly Senecker
Staff Writer

The day after 4-year-old David Edward Rattray was rescued unharmed after being abducted two days earlier from his Vero Beach home, 9-year-old Cheryl App was busy asking questions.

"What if somebody drove up to you and said, 'Get in or I'll kill you,'" she inquired.

"You stay away from the car and run away as fast as you can," responded Sharon McMorris, of the Adam Walsh Child Research Center in Plantation.

Cheryl's question and the answer were timely — a man had broken into the Rattray's home just three days earlier, bound and gagged a woman, tied up David and left a note demanding $250,000 for the boy's return.

Disgraced, David was found alive and unharmed two days later. His mother found him in the trunk of a car at a golf course while the man who had kidnapped him was in the hotel with his own gun. Cheryl was a victim with an FBI agent and a police officer.

David was lucky.

With the endorsement of the Broward School Board, Ms. McMorris is trying to ensure other children placed in what could be dangerous situations get away safe.

Safety With Strangers is a program that was started in January and will be presented in the county's 37 elementary schools.

Computer to list missing children

While Congress and the Florida Legislature consider bills to create a computerized list of missing children and teenaged runaways, two Broward groups are starting an inventory of their own.

Aided by a $2,300 donation from a Hallandale Denny's restaurant, the Adam Walsh Outreach Center for Missing Children and Child Advocacy Inc. are preparing to inaugurate a computerized directory of missing youngsters linked to local police agencies.

The Adam Walsh Center was started after six-year-old Adam Walsh was kidnaped in Hollywood last summer. His remains were found in a canal west of Vero Beach two weeks later.

Child Advocacy already has purchased a computer terminal for its office. The computer will store descriptions of missing children from Broward and any U.S. city that alerts Broward.

Officials expect many out-of-town reports because Fort Lauderdale is a popular wintertime destination for teenaged runaways.

The $2,300 donation will be used to help purchase a second $3,500 computer terminal for the Broward Sheriff's Department. The terminal will be linked to Child Advocacy's files. The organization still is seeking the remaining $1,200 it needs to buy the terminal.

Sharon McMorris, assistant director of Child Advocacy, said the Sheriff's Department will send all information about Broward missing children to the group for storage in the computer.

The terminal at the Sheriff's Department will allow all Broward police agencies access to Child Advocacy's information 24 hours a day.

The private, nonprofit agency will continue to maintain and update the listings at its own expense.

"I think it's real important," said Sharon Solomon, assistant to Sheriff Robert Butterworth. "We look at ourselves as being maybe the pilot of a state or even a national program."

Solomon said the department didn't have enough money in its budget to start the system itself.

"It could be a year or two before anything like this gets developed statewide or nationally," Solomon said. "Why waste a year?"

Hospital program seeks surrogate parents for kids

By Rochelle Koff

Ben's stepmother drifts in and out of Fort Lauderdale, but doesn't go to South Florida State Hospital to visit her 14-year-old. His treatment, education and future have been left to strangers.

"We have no way to reach his mother, no way to get her to come in and discuss her child's progress or needs," said Mary Proheim, a specialist with the exceptional-student program at SFSH.

"The frustration is we have children whose addresses are a matter of miles away but, for one reason or another, their parents don't get involved," she said.

"It may take the help of others to see that Ben and youngsters like him receive at least the education they need."

"We're in the process of training volunteers to act as surrogate parents for kids whose parents are not available," said Nancy McBride, coordinator of the program for the Adam Walsh Child Resource Center. "They will be speaking for children who can't speak for themselves."

The program is the first of its kind nationally to provide surrogates. With approval of the state Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, the center is starting out with a group of volunteers for 30 students with emotional handicaps in SFSH's special-education program.

"It's not going to be an L Under federal law, the school system needs parental permission before children can be tested to determine if they should be put in a special-education program.

Public Law 94-142 calls for a team, including a parent or surrogate, to develop an educational plan for a handicapped child, review it regularly and ensure it's carried out.

The federal law also requires that the parent or surrogate represent the handicapped child when the school system is deciding what the child needs to learn, said Jane Nester, administrator in the Broward school system's exceptional educational program.

"Everybody who cares and is responsible for the child makes the decision," Ms. Nester said. "The parent's role has no more weight than that of the educational staff."

But that role is essential, Ms. McBride said, to ensure that the rights of the child are safeguarded.

The program is the first of its kind nationally to provide surrogates. With approval of the state Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, the Adam Walsh Child Resource Center is starting out with a group of volunteers for 30 students with emotional handicaps in South Florida State Hospital's special-education program. Volunteers, who must attend two three-hour training sessions, will be asked to sit in on all meetings about the child's educational progress.

"Sometimes it takes an advocate to see that the right things are done," she said. "When there isn't a parent or advocate, there's the potential the child's needs could be overlooked."

The school system now has to scramble to get someone involved when the child doesn't have a parent or relative to represent him or provide necessary signatures, Ms. Nester said. "We exhaust administrative remedies. The biggest hurt is to the child."

While some parents don't respond, others don't live in Broward and cannot become involved.

"We get requests from parents all over the state and out of the state asking us, 'Isn't there anyone there who can sit in for me?'" Ms. Proheim said.

The Adam Walsh Center assisted Ms. Proheim in the past by speaking but advocates willing to do that when the need arose.

"We realized how great the need was," Ms. McBride said.

The schools must ensure the children get the education they need in the least restrictive setting. A surrogate parent may review a youth's file and question whether the child actually belongs at the hospital.

"When it's time to discharge the child, the surrogate will play a role in helping to find the best program for the child," Ms. McBride said. "We're not looking for someone who's just going to rubber-stamp everything."

As a result, the role is a demanding one.

"The law is very complex. The procedures the school must follow are complex," Ms. Nester said. "We need someone who cares about kids and is willing to spend the time to learn something very technical."

Just how much of an advocate the surrogate is willing to be could bring an emotional challenge as well.

"We might get a person who is willing to take a real interest and concern in a child, get to really know the child," Ms. Proheim said. "Some might be reluctant to get that involved."

Only five have volunteered so far.

One of the them, Lisa Strachen, was formerly an advocate for abused and neglected children.

"I have two teenagers of my own in the public schools, and I've had to act as an advocate for children who are perfectly capable of speaking up," she said. "These children don't have the ability to speak for themselves or ask questions."

Those interested in volunteering can call the Adam Walsh Child Resource Center at 475-4847.

Young victims of sexual abuse are system's victims, expert says

Josephine Bulkeley. To hold symposium on child abuse.

By MARY C. HICKY

The confused young victims of sexual abuse, and the perpetrators, are often the ones punished by the legal system. Josephine Bulkeley, director of the American Bar Association's child-abuse project, said Wednesday.

People who sexually molest children frequently go free because of complications in prosecuting such cases, where there often is little evidence and a lot of emotion, Bulkeley said at a news conference at the Breward County Courthouse.

It is the children who suffer, she said, as they are forced to recount again and again the complete strangers the personal horrors of the crime. Sometimes, it becomes so overwhelming that families decide to drop charges rather than put the child through further trauma.

Social workers, police officers, prosecutors and judges are "stepping and leaping" at handling cases of sexual molestations of children, Bulkeley said.

To help make them more effective, she yesterday recognized at Salt Lake City a four-day symposium at Marion Hall in Park Leadership today for more than 50 professionals from Breward, DeKalb and Palm Beach counties.

Bulkeley was invited to Park Leadership by Danny Abbott, director of the Adams Walsh Resource Center.

"We are concerned about the apparent increase in sexual-abuse cases here in Breward County," Abbott said.

Abbott said he became particularly concerned after a Breward judge freed an alleged child molester because the state's main witness, a 12-year-old, was disqualified on a technicality.

"We'd like to make sure small procedural errors don't prevent cases from being prosecuted," Abbott said.

Guest Judge Robert Abel, who made the decision that, from Abbe's situation and such (their verbal publicity), and child-abuse cases are often difficult because of technicalities. Abel said he will attend today's symposium.

Bulkeley, who has conducted similar sessions around the country, will discuss ways law enforcement agencies can make prosecution of crimes possible, while minimizing trauma to children.

"For example, a lawyer can videotape an interview with a child rather than make him keep repeating the story," Bulkeley said. "He can set up a special room where a child will be comfortable. If possible, he can even interview him in his own home."

The lawyer, whose symposium also will address legislative and legal issues, also said she will coordinate with prosecutors, police and social workers the importance of working with an entire family in placing together adoptable or-

House OKs bill prompted by slaying of Adam Walsh

By JANE STONE
Staff News Service

WASHINGTON — With little fanfare or debate, the House Monday passed a bill designed to help track missing children and unidentified bodies.

Broward County residents John and Revie Walsh, whose six-year-old son Adam was murdered after being abducted in July 1961, have lobbied hard for the Missing Children's Act. It would establish a national clearinghouse within the FBI's National Crime Information Center for missing children and unidentified dead persons.

Walsh has come to Washington at least five times in an effort to convince officials of the need to set up a national system to coordinate law enforcement proceedings to find missing children.

Sponsored by Rep. Clay Shaw (R., Fla.), the measure passed by voice vote. The bill has yet to be voted on in the Senate. According to Shaw, more than 50,000 American children disappear every year and an additional 1,000 dead children lie unclaimed in morgues.

The measure was prompted by the slaying of Adam Walsh on July 27, 1961, of young Adam Walsh from a Hollywood shopping mall. The child's head was found in a canal alongside the Florida Turnpike, about 100 miles north of Hollywood, two weeks later. The case remains unsolved.

After the disappearance of their son, the parents discovered there were no state or national files on missing children. The Walshes appeared on a national television show to appeal for clues to Adam's whereabouts. The next day his body was discovered.

The Walshes could not be reached for comment Monday night.

Shaw and Rep. Paul Stene (D., Ill.), the co-sponsor of the legislation, cautioned that the Missing Children's Act would not be a panacea for all the problems facing about 10 million children and their parents.

The Senate bill, sponsored by Sen. Paula Hawkins (R., Pa.), varies significantly from the House version. The Senate bill would allow parents to file information on their children directly with the FBI after consulting local authorities.

Senate OKs missing-children bill

By JANE STONE
States News Service

WASHINGTON — A Broward county resident whose son was kidnaped and killed last year said Friday he will go to Washington to push for a Senate-passed bill designed to help families learn the fate of missing children.

John Walsh figures he'll have to take on the FBI to do it.

On Thursday night, the Senate, by a voice vote, approved Walsh's adoption of the Missing Children's Act, which has provisions to help track missing children and unidentified bodies.

The House version of the bill passed by voice vote on Monday.

A conference committee of both houses will meet next week to iron out the differences between the bills.

Walsh, in a telephone interview from his home in Broward, said he will push for the Senate version because the House bill does not guarantee that statistics on lost children will be logged with the FBI.

The House bill would expand the FBI's National Crime Information Center to include missing children and unidentified bodies.

But, according to Walsh, the bill doesn't guarantee that statistics on lost children will be logged, because only local authorities could file the information with the FBI.

The Senate bill would allow parents to file the data directly with the FBI after contacting local authorities.

"Without the parental reporting provision, the House bill is gutless," Walsh said. "It's a rubber stamp that won't give parents much peace of mind. It puts them at the mercy of the local law officials to insert the statistics.

"For example," Walsh said, "if you have this redneck sheriff in Florida who doesn't file the information on your red-haired, seven-year-old girl and she turns up dead in Wyoming — she's going to be buried in an unnamed grave. And you'll probably never know what happened to her."

Walsh's six-year-old son, Adam, disappeared from a Hollywood shopping mall on July 27, 1981. Two weeks later, the child's head was found floating in a canal alongside the Florida Turnpike, about 130 miles north of Hollywood.

Most studies estimate that more than 50,000 U.S. children vanish every year.

Walsh has already made at least five trips to Washington to convince officials to set up a national clearinghouse for information on missing children.

Missing Children Act only as good as its use

THE MISSING CHILDREN Act, signed into law this week by President Reagan, will be only as good as people make it.

The act directs the FBI to establish a computerized clearing house for information on missing children, set up an unidentified bodies file and allow parents access to the system.

The impetus for the bill came from the tragic death of 6-year-old Adam Walsh of Hollywood, who was abducted from a store by an unidentified man and later found dead near Fort Pierce.

As Adam's father, John, said after the president signed the bill into law, the success of it depends on getting parents, law enforcement officials and medical examiners to use it.

John Walsh

In Broward, that awareness is present. Information on missing children already is being put into the national computer and a separate computer that now covers only Broward law enforcement agencies but which officials hope someday soon will extend to Dade and Palm Beach counties, too.

The Broward computer is operated under the auspices of the Sheriff's Office and the Adam Walsh Resource Center. Officials say it contains more detailed information that could assist in identifying missing children.

Sgt. Sal Monello, supervisor of the juvenile task force for the Broward Sheriff's Office, said the information on unidentified bodies will be a great help in clearing many of the missing children cases.

But Monello said that in addition to names and a date of birth the national computer also should have "physical identifiers" information on other children because runaways often refuse to give correct information to authorities.

The scope of the problem is enormous. In Broward alone, Monello estimates that 200 names per month are added to the missing children list. Authorities are able to clear many of these and others from out of state on which they have sufficient information, but a significant number remain missing.

The Missing Children Act should help parents and law enforcement authorities better able to track down children who have disappeared. The network, however, will be only as good as authorities and law enforcement agencies choose to

Laymen recruited to represent children

By Rochelle Koff
Staff Writer

They speak up for abused and neglected children who may be nearly as defenseless in the court system as they were at home.

But they are not attorneys or social workers.

"They are just people who care about children," said Sharon McMorris, of Child Advocacy Inc.

The non-profit organization is looking for caring people to volunteer their services as guardians ad litem for abused and neglected children who come before the circuit court.

"A guardian ad litem is a person who represents the child's interest," added Ms. McMorris. "Children often get lost in the system. The guardian ad litem makes sure they don't get lost."

Although laymen are now being used as guardians ad litem throughout the state to ensure the child doesn't become lost in the system, only court-appointed attorneys have been used in abuse cases in Broward.

Ms. McMorris said volunteers are able to spend more time on cases than private attorneys at a much reduced cost.

In 1980, there were 3,487 reported cases of child abuse and neglect in Broward. In the first seven months of 1981, there were 2,092 reported cases.

These cases didn't all wind up in court, but Ms. McMorris said that in an overburdened, adversary process, the voices of children are often unheard and their best interests overlooked.

The Legislature tried to prevent that in 1978 when it passed a law requiring the court to appoint guardians ad litem for abused and neglected children involved in judicial proceedings.

In 1980, the legislature appropriated $200,000 for a pilot program to train volunteer laymen as guardians ad litem. Nine circuits in Florida, excluding Broward, have been using laymen to represent children in court.

Child Advocacy is using part of money received from other grants to pay for such a program here — at least until May when funds may run out.

The non-profit organization has consulted with the state Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and Broward circuit court in establishing a volunteer guardian ad litem program here.

Mark Polen, chief judge of the Broward's juvenile division, said he thinks one big advantage of using laymen is "it could ultimately save the county a lot of money. If we get qualified laymen to do the same services or work in conjunction with an attorney, it would be a big savings."

He said it costs the state an average of $300 to $400 when a private attorney is appointed in a child abuse case as guardian ad litem.

Polen said he would refer cases to volunteer guardians ad litem, who must first go through an intensive training period, but the idea of using laymen in complicated and emotional court battles hasn't been greeted with total enthusiasm.

"I have yet to be convinced a layman is in a position to do everything a lawyer can do," said Broward Juvenile Court Judge Estelle Moriarty. "And a concerned lawyer can do everything a layman can do. Attorneys I have used are terrific."

Ms. McMorris said the volunteers will be "carefully supervised by attorneys (working with Child Advocacy). I don't think judges have found too many attorneys who have the time a volunteer would have to devote to a case."

William Gladstone, administrative judge of the family division in Dade County — which uses laymen as volunteer guardians ad litem — said, "In my view, it's the most exciting program in the courts since I've been a judge. In situations where an attorney is needed, we still use an attorney. But there are a lot of things of things a lay guardian can do that doesn't require the skills of a lawyer."

The guardian ad litem job includes investigating the child's background by talking with teachers, neighbors, family, psychologists and whoever else can provide insight into the child's background. The guardian ad litem presents that information to the judge along with a recommendation about what would be good for the child.

The guardian ad litem also monitors the agencies and people who provide services to the child to be certain children receive the help they need.

To do all this, guardians ad litem must go through a 21-hour training session so they will learn about child abuse and neglect, how such cases are handled, how the court system works, how to write reports and get information from the community.

Ellen Hoffenberg, project director for the state's pilot guardian project, said there are now over 300 volunteer guardians ad litem statewide who handled more than 700 cases in the past year.

Missing Child act now law 'Great day for Adam,' — Reagan

By Gayle McCracken

Staff Writer, Washington, D.C. Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Almost 15 months after Hollywood's Adam Walsh was kidnapped and murdered, President Ronald Reagan has signed into law a bill that will make it easier for parents to search for their missing children.

"It's a great day for Adam," Reagan told John and Reve Walsh, parents of the young boy who was 6 years old when he was killed.

During a ceremony in the White House Rose Garden, Reagan called the Missing Children Act a "compassionate measure." And he praised the Hollywood couple for "committing their lives" to improving the chances for parents to locate their missing or dead children.

The Missing Children Act will reassure parents that an effort is being made to find, or in more tragic cases, to identify their children.

Reagan said the law also provides for the FBI to accept information for the com-her eyes and winked at the Walshes while the president spoke.

After signing the bill, Reagan walked a few feet across the Rose Garden to where the Walshes stood holding their 3-month-old daughter, Meghan.

"He thanked us for our diligence and perseverance in getting this bill passed," Walsh said. "He asked about Meghan and said she has a good Irish name."

For the Walshes, the presidential signing marked the climax of a long battle that began when Adam was kidnapped from a toy department in the Hollywood Mall on July 27, 1967. The child's severed head was found two weeks later floating in an Indian River canal. His killer has not yet been found.

Throughout their search, the Walshes hit one roadblock after another as they tried to alert local law enforcement agencies in Florida and across the country that their child was missing.

After learning that 70 percent of Florida's police officers didn't know an FBI computer was available for sharing information about missing children, the Walshes decided they had to try to change the system.

"I felt the only thing I could do to keep my sanity was to do something for Adam, because the children are the true victims," Walsh said.

So the Walshes began lobbying for the bill that establishes a separate file in the FBI computer for information about missing children and another file on bodies of dead children.

"I don't feel it was a vindication," Walsh said. "It's something that should have been done a long time ago. I'm just sorry it was my son's tragedy that brought it to the nation's attention."

The law also provides for the FBI to accept information for the computer system from parents of missing children if local law enforcement agencies fail to do so.

"I always thought I wouldn't believe it until it was signed," Walsh said. "It might not have helped find Adam, but it certainly would have facilitated our hunt."

But enactment of the new law marks only the beginning for the Walshes. They will continue trying to make parents and police officers aware of the system and of the seriousness of crimes against children.

"As emotional as it is, as hard to take as it is — it does happen," Walsh said. He looked down, fidgeting with Meghan's tiny pink sweater. "It happened to us."

INSTRUCTIONS PERTAINING TO A RISK OF FIRE, ELECTRIC SHOCK, OR INJURY TO PERSONS IMPORTANT SAFETY INSTRUCTIONS

WARNING. When using electric appliances, basic precautions should always be followed, including the following:

1. Read all the instructions before using the appliance.
2. To reduce the risk of injury, close supervision is necessary when an appliance is used near children.
3. Do not put fingers or hands into a waste disposer.
4. Turn the power switch to the off position before attempting to clear a jam or remove an object from the disposer.
5. When attempting to loosen a jam in a waste disposer, use a wrenchette or allen wrench as described under "Trouble Shooting."
6. When attempting to remove objects from a waste disposer use long-handled tongs or pliers.
7. To reduce the risk of injury by materials that may be expelled by a waste disposer, do not put the following into a disposer:
  - a. Clam or oyster shells.
  - b. Drain cleaner.
  - c. Glass, china, or plastic.
  - d. Large whole bones.
  - e. Metal, such as bottle caps, tin cans, or aluminum foil.
  - f. Whole cornhusks.
8. When not operating a disposer, leave the drain cover in place to reduce the risk of objects falling into the disposer.
9. The unit must be properly grounded outlined under "Electrical Connections."
  - a. GROUNDING INSTRUCTIONS FOR CORD CONNECTED UNITS. This appliance must be grounded. In the event of a malfunction or breakdown, grounding provides a path of least resistance for electric current to reduce the risk of electric shock. This appliance is equipped with a cord having an equipment-grounding conductor and a grounding plug. The plug must be plugged into an appropriate outlet that is properly installed and grounded in accordance with all local codes and ordinances.
DANGER - Improper connection of the equipment-grounding conductor can result in a risk of electric shock. Check with a qualified electrician or serviceman if you are in doubt as to whether the appliance is properly grounded. Do not modify the plug provided with the appliance — if it will not fit the outlet, have a proper outlet installed by a qualified electrician.
  - b. GROUNDING INSTRUCTIONS FOR PERMANENTLY CONNECTED WIRES. The appliance must be connected to a grounded, metal, permanent wiring system, or an equipment-grounding conductor must be run with the circuit conductors and connected to the equipment-grounding terminal or lead on the appliance.

ELECTRICAL CONNECTIONS:

Note: For assistance, Simplified Electrical Wiring Handbook, F5428, is available in the electrical dept. of your Sears store.

1. Disconnect electrical current at the service panel.
2. Run an electrical wire to Junction Box "A." (Locate under the sink area) (FIG. 10).
3. From Junction Box "A" run a line to a wall switch (B) equipped with a signal light. Run a line from wall switch to disposer (FIG. 10).

Model 175.66580 only: Wall switch is not needed, switch is built-in. Run wire directly from Junction Box "A" to disposer.

4. Remove electrical cover from base of disposer and pull out black and white disposer wires. Install appropriate BX or Romex electrical connector (not furnished) in opening provided. Run BX or Romex supply line through connector and clamp in place.
5. Connect the wires from disposer to BX or Romex cable using electrical wire nuts as shown (not furnished). For 3-wire cable, attach third wire to the ground screw (FIG. 11). Replace wires and electrical cover.

BE SURE UNIT IS GROUNDED. RUN A GROUNDING WIRE FROM THE GROUND SCREW OF THE DISPOSER TO THE NEAREST SUITABLE GROUND.

6. Where available, a buried metal water pipe system should always be used as an electrical ground. Be sure to check your water meter to see if there is a wire which jumps across it. (FIG. 12). If there is no wire, your cold water pipe is not grounded. Add a wire as shown.

If your water system contains plastic piping or insulating couplings, it cannot be used for an electrical ground. In this event, a separate electrical ground (Check local codes) must be provided.

Congratulations on your poor police diplomacy.

Adam didn't suffer - not you.
How are you and?

Adam was dead only 2-3 days.
Forensics know a head decomposes in water, especially when it's a bloody mess being fed on by water creatures.

You try very hard to please the public. Try telling the truth instead of using a police cover-up. You are full of shit!

I hope this "crocodile" language wakes you up! You are nothing special. Adam is quite a man.
He makes his father look like 3 mos. old. It's a miserable way to keep payment to. Askel out from top table

Find out what happened.

Police should be more sensible than sacrificing a 6 yr. old child.

Now that the State has custody of Adam, you can do some investigating.

I don't approve of the way
Adam had to meet death.

This sounds like the murder company Adam kept with was on barbiturates with no rational thinking.

260
Adam was a little friend to me, and his backyard should not have ended with "Camp Water"

Police can be coming - try a police hook - think!

Dear Jim —

I want to ask you a question.

Do you think that by the remotest of coincidences that the name of Adam Walsh's killer could be the same as the <sup>last</sup> name of the killer here who cut the throat of a go-go dancer in a motel shower, several years ago? This dude was convicted here in 1976 —

I programmed for a name, as you know, and I discussed with you how the shower curtain drama, & cut throat "wife" my mind showed me reminded me of that case here. (I told you that I'd mentally "heard" the killer's name 4 hours before he killed this girl!)

This dawned on me today when I thought how many <sup>my</sup> dreams concerned people leaving, or going — and that a Cushman, that postman dune are only go — carts of a kind. ("go-go")

If I've made all this harder than it is for a year, I'll just scream! (Ha! Ha!) We often fail to recognize sheer coincidence, & just discard a real clue, or solution — what do you think? ...?

Thanks,
Tracy Sheen

she had got a ride to the Beach
she put her name on a piece of paper Burndette Keane

she said she had a Machette to protect her self with, was Bare foot, said, she was headed to Cal.
I gave her my address & told her to let me know if she got to Cal. so far -

This girl started down the St. and this man blew his horn & she came back to his truck smiling and got in with him. They were both doing their laundry & she got through first.

if they knew each other in side
I could not tell it

When I read this paper clipping
I thought he could have been the man & killed her and took the

he may have noticed me looking

Mrs Acuna no # 554-1547 stated she had no info regarding the Walsh case. but advised that the Haitians have a religious cult that believes in sacrificial offerings and decapitations. These are performed on white children under the age of 7 years. The cult is called "MANIGO". The procedure is to decapitate & remove numerous organs from torso for other offerings, mainly heart, liver etc.
These are done to create new life for good luck or to aid a dying loved one.

Det. Jack Hoffman,
Enclosed are copies of the medical Examiner's office here in Phx., Dr. Erdman's report from Texas and Dr. Kirby's report from the University of Ariz.

The human jaw bone was found in Feb. '82 and the skull was found in Oct. '82 in the same area approx.
300 feet apart. The area where the skull & jawbone were found is common desert terrain, unpopulated area.

I'm still waiting for a report from the Univ. of Wyo. and expect to have that by the end of the week. All photographs of the skull except for what we have in our files as evidence are in Wyo. and I'll send you some pictures
when I get them back.

If I can be of further assistance feel free to contact me.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

November 3, 1982

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Myrna Froning 256-1803

Maricopa County Sheriff's Office detectives are seeking the assistance of the public in identifying a young woman whose skull was found in the desert north of Scottsdale recently.

The skull was found in an area north of Jomax Road and east of Pima in early October. It has been positively matched with a jaw bone found in the same area in February of this year. The death is believed to have occurred approximately 18 months ago. Precise cause of death has not yet been determined.

The woman is believed to have been a small-framed Caucasian between the ages of 15 and 19 years. Her face is believed to have been quite thin and her upper teeth may have protruded. Recent dental work, within two years of death, is indicated with fillings in both upper and lower molars. The young woman's hair was probably light brown.

Investigators believe that the woman may have been younger than the accompanying artist's concept may indicate.

Anyone who may have information about the possible identity of the young woman or who may know of a missing person who might fit her description is asked to contact Sergeant Dominic Marino or Detective Bob Barrett of the Maricopa County Sheriff's Office at 834-4052.

Re: Case #ML 82-979
#82-1780)

The following are the results of my examination of the cranium and mandible from a young Caucasian female recovered by the Maricopa County Sheriff's Office in the spring and fall of 1982. The mandible is reputedly recovered in connection with the recovery of the cranium. Examination of the skeletal remains began on October 18, 1982 in the Human Identification Laboratory of the Arizona State Museum, Tucson, Arizona. Present at the time of initial examination was Det. Robert Barrett (#202) of the MCSO.

Female.

15 to 19 years dentally.

Caucasian.

Not determinable.

Observation:
A total of 28 teeth are erupted at the time of death. The four 3rd molars are non-erupted. The mandibular anterior teeth exhibit slight crowding. The anterior teeth show first degree dental attrition and the molars and premolars exhibit "crazing" and antemortem chips of their occlusal surfaces.

Dentition: (continued)

Silver amalgam restorations are observed on 11 of the teeth as follows:

1. Upper right 2nd molar (#2): DO, F;
2. Upper right 1st molar (#3): MO, L;
3. Upper right 2nd premolar (#4): O;
4. Upper left 1st molar (#14): FDL;
5. Upper left 2nd molar (#15): MOD;
6. Lower left 2nd molar (#18): O;
7. Lower left 1st molar (#19): O, F;
8. Lower left 2nd premolar (#20): O;
9. Lower right 2nd premolar (#29): O;
10. Lower right 1st molar (#30): O, F;
11. Lower right 2nd molar (#31): O.

The upper right central incisor (#8) has a resin restoration of the mesio-lingual surface; the upper left lateral incisor (#10) has a resin restoration of its mesio-surface. The lower right 2nd molar (#31) exhibits a temporary filling of its distal-facial surfaces.

There are bilateral Carabelli's cusps on the maxillary 1st molars (#3, #14). The facial surface of the upper left lateral incisor (#10) exhibits enamel hypoplasia. There is an antemortem chip on the mesial occlusal surface of the upper right central incisor (#8). There is a slight torus palatinus observed on the maxillae.

Hair:

Three light to medium brown Caucasian head hairs are recovered from the cranium and mandible. The longest, measuring approximately 30 mm in length, is removed from the dehydrated tissues on the mandible. Shorter hairs measuring approximately 7 mm and 15 mm in length are recovered from the cranium. No root ends are observed on any of the three fragments. Some postmortem sun bleaching is observed on the longest hair fragment.

Det. Robert Barrett

Page 3

Osseous pathology: None observed.

Osseous anomaly: Torus palatinus of the maxillae.

Cause of death: Not immediately determinable.

Period since death: Estimated to be not less than 2 months nor more than 10 months prior to recovery of the remains.

Other data: Ten periapical dental radiographs are taken of the maxillary and mandibular dentition for possible use in establishing positive identification. The cranium and mandible are turned over to Det. Hilbrand of the Maricopa County Sheriff's Office on October 27, 1982 for return to that Department.

NAME: Unknown      AGE: 33 (plus or minus 3 years)
SEX: Female      WEIGHT: 100 lbs (plus or minus 5 lbs.)
RACE: White      HEIGHT: 5'1" (plus or minus one inch)

CAUSE OF DEATH: Decapitation with sharp cutting instrument.

MANNER OF DEATH: Homicide.

MECHANISM OF DEATH: Severance of head resulting in loss of central nervous system control and massive exsanguination.

I. INTRODUCTION:

On 16 February 82, I was asked by Judge Glenn Stone to assist in the forensic investigation of what appears to be decapitated human remains found along side a county road East of the City Limits of Plainview, TX.

II. DESCRIPTION:

The body is indeed that of an adult female which had been decapitated at the level of the 6th cervical vertebra. Animal activity is advanced.

The hands are found tied with a brassiere over her back. There is moderately advanced postmortem decomposition. No maggot activity is present.

The present total length of the body is 53 inches (without head).

The right tibia measures 32 cm.
The right femur measures 41 cm.
The right humerus measures 33 cm.
The left humerus measures 32 cm.
The right ulna measures 30 cm.

Based on the above data, the estimated total pre-existing body length (height or life stature) was 5'1" (plus or minus one inch).

There are no fractures; recent or healed, nor other injuries (gunshot wounds, incised wounds, etc.)

The chest and remaining structures of the neck reveal only moderate putrefaction decomposition. These structures are covered by moderate amounts of skin which has largely undergone autolytic changes. The muscle masses and overlying skin are partly absent due to animal activity. The better preserved areas are noted in the upper back and lower neck. The pectoral, deltoid and trapezius muscles are partly preserved bilaterally. The arm muscle masses are largely absent with exposure of the respective skeletal bone structures.

The cervical resection line (decapitation line) at the lower neck has a multi-level aspect as if the perpetrator had taken a knife and had cut the prevertebral soft tissue structures by taking several transverse strokes and incising several inches in depth with each stroke. It then proceeded to strike on the vertebral body in a similar fashion. It was severed at the level of the intervertebral space separating the 5th and 6th vertebrae. The larynx and upper segment of the trachea was incised and assumed to have remained with the separated head portion. The distal segment of the trachea and of the cervical blood vessels retracted into the chest and were found in a retrosternal location.

The anterior thorax reveals advanced animal activity beginning from the 7th rib and on downwards. The costo-condral structures below this level are largely missing.

The posterior thorax and dorsal regions reveal well preserved para-costal muscular structures. There is advanced hardening due to dehydration changes (drying-out) of the skin covering the upper most 10 cm. of the posterior chest.

The anterior abdominal wall is absent as well as the enterity of the abdominal viscera. The liver, gastrointestinal tract, the spleen, the pancreas, the adrenal glands and the kidneys are included.

The chest cavity has segments of the lungs present - upper one/half of each. The lower lobes are absent bilaterally.

The diaphragm is absent. The heart is normal in size, shape and color. It reveals only mild decomposition changes. The cusps, leaflets and coronary arterial tree are normal. No lesions are seen.

The lungs and attached tracheo-bronchial tree (retrosternal segment only) have a dark reddish softened amorphous and semi-liqueous matter which resembles clotted blood which has undergone liquefaction degeneration.

The lungs are only partly aerated but have a softened but homogeneous consistency. No localized lesions were present.

Pelvic Organs: The rectum and urinary bladder are absent. The Uterus is present and weighs 85 gms. Only the adnexa are not present. The uterus is normal in size, shape and color. The os is rounded. It is consistent with that of a nulliparous adult female.

The uterus (with cervix): It weighs 85 gm. and measures 9X4X3.5 cm. in overall dimensions. The serosa is pearlsh white and dull. The ectocervix measures 2.5 X 2 cm. in transverse and A-P dimensions respectively. The os is rounded and patent. It measures 0.5 cm. in diameter. The uterine cavity is empty. It is lined by friable dark reddish endometrium averaging 0.3 cm. in thickness. The myometrial walls average 1.8 cm. in thickness.

III. MICRO:

Lungs: The alveolar architecture is readily identified. The bronchiolar epithelium has largely undergone cytolysis. The alveoli are filled with hemorrhage. Intact RBC are identified. There is no evidence of acute or chronic inflammatory response. The alveolar septa are well preserved and its capillaries are morphologically intact.

Uterus: The cervix shows normal architecture. The endometrium has largely undergone cytolytic changes and the myometrium is well preserved microscopically. In between myometrial fascicles there are identifiable islands of endometrium. These have undergone cytolytic changes although their pre-existing architecture is readily identifiable.

Skin: There is advanced cytolysis. However the epidermic pre-existing architecture is identifiable. The basal layer contains only occasional cells which contain melanin pigment.

The pelvic bones and lower extremities (with exception of ankles and feet) are largely devoid of attached muscle and subcutaneous structures. No skin is identifiable over the pelvis, gluteal regions, perineal region, thighs and upper 2/3 of the lower legs. These structures show evidence of carnivorous animal activity.

The hands are covered by hardened, dried-out skin. The nails are intact and well groomed, but no coloring lacquer is identifiable.

The iliac crests (posterior and anterior), the pubic bone and inner half of both scapular bones (shoulder blades) are missing, reflecting animal activity.

IV. SUMMARY:

The remains are of a white female in her thirties - median estimated age of 33.1 yrs. (plus or minus 3 years); estimated weight - 100 lbs. (plus or minus 5 lbs.); her stature was "short" (pettit) and is estimated to be 5'1" (plus or minus 1 inch); strongly suggestive to be right handed; she was nulliparous. (she had never delivered a baby and most likely she had never been pregnant as judged by the presence of rather advanced uterine adenomyosis and the rounded undilated cervical os).

The body had advanced animal activity but is felt to have died (under normal environmental conditions such as temperature, moisture and wind velocity) approximately 6 days when found (prior to the body being frozen - if it ever was frozen) - as judged from the decomposition stage of the uterus, lungs and muscle masses. (Add to the 6 days mentioned above any number of days which the body could have remained frozen). The degree of animal activity is considered severe; dog-size animals are felt to be necessarily involved in order to explain the needed strength to pull out the abdominal viscera and to chew the iliac crests and scapulas.

The victim died as a result of decapitation. No other injuries were found. The severance of the head is felt to have occurred while she was alive as aspiration of blood into the alveoli is present which occurs when respiratory (inspiration) activity draws blood into the tiny peripherally located air sacs. Lack of acute or chronic inflammatory response indicates that death followed immediately thereafter.

Therefore, homicidal decapitation is offered as manner and cause of death respectively. The mechanism of death is massive exsanguination and disconnection of central nervous system control over vital functions.

3 years ago a man fitting this description came through the back door of her house (nude) and went to her daughter's bedroom (5 yrs old) Mother saw him & called City of Miami Police. They have comp. & fingerprints but never caught anyone. Case still open.

(occurred around July 1st)

Man called to make us aware of a case in Calif where a 6 yr old boy was abducted from a shopping center in Anaheim & found strangled in Pasadena 1 week later. This man lives in that area & just learned of this case. He is in Fla on vacation.

RE: ADAM WALSH

Dear Sergeant Naylon:

On August 12, 1981, a Mr. Hector Rivera responded to my office and provided information that may be of value to your investigation.

On August 9, 1981, 9:00 p.m., Hector and his six year old were in the Emergency Room of Broward General Hospital, when the below listed subject approached and said something to his son. When Hector called his son away from the subject, the subject met with a black male and they exited the Emergency Room. The black male was apparently in some pain and Hector thought it strange that he would leave before being treated. Hector followed them to the exit where they entered the below listed vehicle. No tag information could be obtained.

Hector could provide no further information, nor was he able to advise if any of the hospital personnel observed the interaction. Hector is not sure if either subject checked in at the hospital desk.

If further information is required please contact Hector Rivera. 6237 S.W. 23 Street, Miramar; Home Phone: 961-5838, Work: 691-7914.

Subject: W/M, 40-45, 5" 9" - 6" 0", 230 pounds, muscular, well dressed, wearing gold jewelry, black & gray hair, van dyke beard, spoke with northern accent.

While at Foster-Johnson myself & ID Watkins observed a w/m operating a dark brown Ford Custom truck with a white top, tinted windows & a sun roof, stop on the west side of the Funeral Home. Subject got out and looked over at the Funeral home for a moment. I noticed that the subject looked alot like the artist composite. (The tag FXR 494.) I went over to copy the tag and upon looking back toward the liquor store, where the subject went, observed the subject looking out the east window of the store watching us. When the subject saw I observed him he left the window and grabbed a bottle from the shelf and walked to the other side of the store. About 3 to 4 minutes later the subject came out of the store. The subject walked to his vehicle. I stopped the subject to ID him. The subject was very nervous. The subject became more nervous when I told him why I stopped him. ID Watkins attempted to photograph the subject from a distance but the subject kept turning away. Subject D.L. was photographed.

The reason for him checking was that he remembers a dark blue van in the service center at the same time he was there and remembers it speeding away. He can positively identify the driver. ## Police baffled by lack of leads

Search cut for Adam's killer

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. — The search for the killer of 7-year-old Adam Walsh, who disappeared from a department store on his mother's shopping trip, has been called both baffling and stumped by police.

"We have nothing to go on. Nothing whatsoever," said police spokesman Paul Barbetta Friday. "We're cutting down on leads and investigators. They've fallen behind on their other work."

"It's really frustrating," he said. "It's really frustrating that we can't go further than that which stopped dead."

Extensive investigation, which began after Mrs. Walsh reported her son missing July 27, expanded to involve law enforcement agencies all over South Florida. It also has taken men to several hotels in a canal bed in Pompano in Indian River County, Fla. and Broward County.

scanned the terrapine roadside looking for clues and pieces of the boy's body; deputy sheriff's from Broward and other counties plucked in, and the 28-officer Hollywood police force threw its entire homicide and robbery divisions — nine detectives — into the investigation.

Now, said Barbetta, only two detectives — Jack Hoffman and Jim Gibbons — are assigned full time to the case, with two auxiliary officers answering phones for tips that are coming in by the thousand a short time ago.

Police have only two leads — they have identified the instrument used by the killer to sever the boy's head and they have a description of a suspicious blue van sighted near the Hollywood Mall Sears store, where Adam disappeared after his mother left him looking at video games while she shopped.

Police are keeping knowledge of the decapitating instrument secret, Barbetta said. Broward medical examiner's investigator D.P. Hughes said that's to eliminate "the chances who want to claim responsibility" for the boy's death.

Searching for the van — and the mustachioed driver seen by two witnesses, from whose descriptions a composite sketch of the suspect has been made — has consumed most of the investigators' time.

"I can't give you the number of vans we've checked out but we must have had 2,000 calls," Barbetta said. "We checked out one guy four times in two days, different officers checking him. We've had calls from South Miami to Daytona Beach."

Investigators have been checking a list of 8,700 Ford vans sold in South Florida in the past three years, or far to no avail.

Despite extensive testing, the medical examiner's office has been unable to determine when Adam was killed.

W. J. H. 14th Oct 1981

This opening statement is being prepared for the upcoming meeting with members of the Hollywood, Fl. Police Dept, in charge of the Adam Walsh murder.

However, at this writing, this meeting is still in doubt, due to skepticism of Det. Hoffman, and I might add a hostile attitude.

I had previously called the Hollywood Police Dept & requested a return call by those officers in charge of the Adam Walsh case. In allowing this by a personal letter to the Hollywood Police Dept, with no response what so ever, even though I was calling from Vero Beach, Fl.

I reasoned that this department probably received thousands of similar calls & letters. As I contacted W. C. K. T. Channel 7, in Miami. After a reasonable time lapse, I phoned the Hollywood P.D. & spoke with Mr. Fred Barletta. Shortly after I received a call from Mr. Hoffman, who informed me that he had indeed received the material I had previously sent to W. C. K. T. I told him my phone was tapped & he advised me to go to a pay phone & call him collect, which I did.

 I told these agents that there

Pure speculation
"It has just been called to my attention that a well dressed man's body was found recently on I. 95 Ave, recently, with two slings in his hands, muddled. (I don't get the local paper every day, so I missed that story.)

But let me tell you that it would have passed as pure speculation on the surface. I'm fortunate in not knowing at the time ~~where~~ I talked to Det. Hoffman He surely would have thought I was paranoid.

This information was forthcoming by the same law enforcement who previously informed that Linda Tscholl's throat was (in essence) cut almost to the point of adam's apple.

But now I recognize it as a final warning from the "not-punks".
I'll go to the Press Journal & read the story.
(I won't read what description was given of his rectum, like Joey Caloma hit man received from me in 1976. But their kind promise under the 22nd & subsequent, when he misadventured.) The strops must think it's not. I can see... well it does.
But only if I mean it through the number, like for the Journal of Carl. Salk. Del., Berlin 7304

I realize that these people in charge of the investigation are tired from the long overtime & frustration of not coming any closer to solving this heinous crime and they have the respect and understanding of all Americans.

Then he hit me with a question, "Did you send an anonymous letter to a Charles Meese in Orlando, Fla?" I told him I didn't know any Charles Meese, or any newspaper letter. People who know me would tell you at least two things, I don't write graffiti or bathroom walls - or send letters unsigned, (I excepted) Harold H. Blum

"Gentlemen:

There is no doubt in my mind this meeting would not be necessary but for me, or one kind of this conspiracy & others to be so named, because young Adam Walsh, would still be a live & well with his parents and his death would not have been found up in Indian River County on August 30th, there would have found Fred Astaire, have been murdered as another warning to myself.

Here are part of the other conspirators, Former President Nixon & John Mitchell, Huberman, Ellikman, John Deon, Pat & Barbara Bush, the good to do, Walker, David Hartman, William White and an innocent A.D. let question by

"What about that statement of Barbara Walters?" Fitzwater (first Governor Carter and Vice President Ford debate Oct. 1976)
Fitz, more than anything else - panicked these conspirators, because now they could possibly be exposed for those latent Watergate related crimes, and I might add - their "mission impossible" caper, what I profess now "and I want to make myself perfectly clear" Watergate, never was ended Aug 10th 1974. It just went back into the house, where I had originally dragged it into the light of day, for a while!
Gentlemen: nothing will bring Jude & Adam back, but we can lay this case out into the open and perhaps stop the assassinations.
I have elements within the F.B.I. who are on on the conspiracy as to say the least,
"fears!" etc., after seeing these near-hood elements into another. Then he saw Jack White name in 1976, and then informing on them, how is what the Director said four days later at an impromptu television news conference. "I wish I could categorically state that the breakins have occurred - but I can not - I was lied to!" (Clarence Kelley 1976: & not June 17th, 1972.)

During the course of this phone conversation with Nat Hoffman, he asked me, "How do you think the F.B.I. would impede our investigation?" I said yes. I knew they would try to discredit my allegations - as they did in the publication of Washburn, Pa. 1970. Just one of the four reasons the F.B.I. themselves carried out the original investigation two separate entries, and I might add that the newspapers felt back, line, + ven for the case - leaked that the Central Intelligence Agency, were pressured into telling the F.B.I. to conduct investigation of the investigate-bankers, John Dorian, as quite a convincing actor - (after all he did end up in Hollywood.) But this will come out in due before long, as he himself predicted, continually it was as hard to do then, as it is now, to contact the families of these innocent victims, I had no choice then, I had no recourse but to appear here today. I am thankful to you + soul. F.B.I. was many more reeducated within that time period.

we already know - this will help us solve this case almost immediately." (F.B.I. airtel)

His warning was close to me as a father and husband. I left my family, business & resigned my landlocked island office, and ran without even goodbyes to my family. But I never stopped fighting them.

21 months later, in Fort Rucker, Fla. I met with two Palm Beach Post investigative reporters.

Mr. Mike Adams & Bruce Henderson, & related my story up until that date in time.

F.B.I. made long distant calls to Pennsylvania. To Kenneth Spillane. "Do you know a Mr. Blum, who contacted you when your parents were in prison?" (Mike Adams) "yes I do, and I sent the F.B.I. airtels to see them." (K.S.) "But did they tell you?" (Mike)

"They told me Mr. Blum, knew absolutely nothing about us - we were about it and consequently... we never should meet with William (K.S.) John Mitchell, a politician, was appointed personally to have overall charge of this investigation by the President Nixon, over the head of the Super Cop Hoover??

I suspect this investigation Mr. Hoffman? Damn right! These reporters wrote the story - but it wasn't published until weeks later - March - Mitchell's fib bombed my last home in Panama. OCT 31, 1971. He then was right, I got that morning - news on the 17th of Nov. 1971. Let's see it Paramount - and consider my history. (Henderson #2) Harold H. Blum one whose page following.

Suspect is linked to other killings

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. —

The suspect charged with the description slaying of two people buried on University of California grounds once confessed to an Orange killing and linked that to a Minnesota murder, police say.

Royal Kenneth Hayes, 48, was arrested last week in a Santa Cruz motel room after Orange County coroner's office found a man's skeleton body in a shallow grave at the camp. A woman's torso was later unearthed nearby.

Santa Cruz District Attorney Art Deacon said the torso appeared to match a woman's torso found Feb. 29 at the base of a redwood tree in a plastic bag at the same site.

The victims have been tentatively identified, Deacon said, but he refused to release their names. The victims were not from Santa Cruz and not connected with the university, he said.

Authorities have not revealed why they feel Hayes is linked to the two Santa Cruz slayings.

Hayes was also charged with assault, false imprisonment and possession of weapons.

Dear Ms. Donovan:
I hope this finds you well and I'm sure you won't be feeling that way as you read this letter.
As you may suspect my flight to Atlanta, Ga. 7/18/80 did not stop the killings.
Add one woman whose only reason for leaving her husband cut from year to year was because she lived but a short distance away from me here in New Blach, Fl.
Each time they pulled such deeds
I would tell them about the story of the couple that finally had the child they had tried to have for so long. When it came, it was a 10 lb. head.

For 21 years they raised it in the basement, on the 21st birthday his father comes home from work, says, "to hell with it" I'm taking my son down to the pub for a drink."
Putting his son on the bar & pouring him his drink - he orders another.
His son suddenly falls to the floor dead. His dad knelt down & the bartender came over & said, "Well - he should have stopped, while he was ahead."

"You guys should have stopped by the way you were a head."

"So they sent me the head of one - six year old boy, named Adam W. Lick."

"For his time Mary, by all that holy,
they went to hell."

The boy with the slit throat & crushed and the boy's fingers were carried out at the highfoot pickets (John Wesley Dance) fish house on St. Pierce, St. L.

"...and you know why they did this..." I hope my sleep well with this, the rest of the life.

Crime Stopper:

If your minds are not blown apart by the murder & mutilation of young Adam Walsh, I would like to meet with investigative reporters from your N.B.C. stations.
"This time, they went to far."
I don't want to hear about going to the police. (I've tried that & lost, that is well covered & by the best) if I'm depthless, and I'm considerably more than ~~that~~ than it implies - then you know who "they" are.

If it's to big for you to handle -
I'll understand.

Adams' head was found in the location at the right date. Mine was on August 10th, 1976. James W. Sanderson, formerly of 630 Curtis Road Dr. Key Biscayne, Fla., did detonate, by command - control a C-4 bomb, near me August 10th, 1976, and Oct 15, 1976. Barbara (Dot) (Harris) Walters asked me to, "Trust Me 'Be Good to Me!"
There are reporters who would remember that infamous ad lib at the end of the last Gore vs Carter - Vice President Ford debate. Some too, might remember Clarence Kelley's swan-song to me

2/74. "We made a mistake of the mind and not one of the heart." (D.D. Director)
The same people that did the inhumane crime to that young boy, ~~the~~ ~~un-~~ ~~in-~~ ~~ter-~~ ~~ested~~ ated many more, ~~but~~ ~~was~~ ~~working~~ with me, including two nationally-known & respected reporters, i.e., The wires responsible for Jim Walter, unprovoked outburst, well explain for instance, that Frank Mc Kee, former N.B.C. Judge show, did of the cancer John Deen, spoke of and not, the chemical cancer.
"Do you think Watergate ended August 10th, 1974?" Ask Adam Walsh.
I know who did it & in what ~~high-~~ house. Refugentary would throw off the coroner's office, an ~~un-~~ ~~pleasant~~ ~~life-~~ time of death and did let a photo on the name of the so-called innocent-fisherman who just happened to find a young head, where it was.
My flight to Atlanta, Ga. was to stop the destruction 8/18/80. But no good. No trial and D.D. Cooper, a man goes free.

idea: The blast was so powerful, it blew the dockmaster out of bed 500 feet away. Seven police cars were at the scene, yet the explosion doesn't appear on local police records.
 • The body of a 300-pound hog — its throat deeply cut and surgically stitched together — was dumped on his doorstep in 1979 as a warning to "Deep Throat."
 • A shot at him this year in his Florida hideout grazed his hand and left two perfectly-aligned holes in a bear can he was carrying. The holes are too small even for a .22 bullet and Blum suspects a dart gun.

 With Woodward and Bernstein sworn to silence, Blum says he has become the target for those who want to hide the truth behind Watergate.
 Blum's extraordinary story began when he entered local politics in Oil City, Pennsylvania.

 He became a township supervisor in Venango County and ran as a Republican candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania.
 But he was so appalled by corruption in local politics, that he started campaigning against "dirty tricks."
 Late in December 1979 he received a letter from Clarksville, Virginia, saying: "Hey Blum... you are going to get a lesson. The number one... who is trying to get political power."
 Blum says he didn't know anybody in Clarksville, but two weeks later, the office of United Way members Union president, Jacob Yablonski, his wife and daughter were found brutally murdered at Clarksville in a crime that shocked the nation.
 Blum said "I didn't take it until I got the message. I withdrew from the governor's race and left Pennsylvania."
 To this day, my family feels deserted — which I did. I have grandchildren I've never seen."
 He also gave the FBI information about Yablonski's killers, which was never used.

Blum's extraordinary story began when he entered local politics in Oil City, Pennsylvania.

and sent it to Democratic Party worker Larry O'Brien.
 On June 17, 1972, the scandal that was to cause Nixon's resignation began with a break-in at O'Brien's office in the Democratic National Headquarters in the Watergate Hotel, Washington, D.C.
 One unanswered question about the Watergate Affair has been: What were the burglars after?
 Blum says he has the answer. "They were after the information I sent to Larry O'Brien," he said. "I knew my mail was being intercepted so I had carried the outside as if it were a campaign contribution."
 Blum's claim that he later tipped off the Washington Post through Rockefeller and Kissinger ties in with the Post reporters' statement that "Deep Throat" was actually several people.
 Although Blum has stayed alive by becoming a fugitive, he says others who learned his secret have been silenced.

 Blum's house in Oil City burned down in October 1971. He says it was fire-bombed.
 Blum says he used the $200,000 gathering more information about corrupt politicians.

 "There has been a lot of speculation as to why the wire was around Crane's throat," said Blum. "I'm afraid it was a message to me."
 What finally decided Blum to tell his story?

To whom it may concern:

Look through police files and you might find this man. He's been in and out of mental institutions and jails. Check for him as the killer of Adam Walsh.

I am a poor sketcher but I tried to show an oblong head, short-cropped grey hair, balding, sagging cheeks, bulbous reddish nose, wadded out blue eyes with bags around them. It would appear that he is in a book with two mug photos - one by side. In the photographs he is wearing a denim shirt. The photos are black & white. He is chunky of build and between 45-55 years of age. It would be a head to shoulder photograph.

Good Luck!

Dear Jim,

I just talked to Detective Lillian, and relayed the following to him —

I worked in E.S.P., and Astrology on an intercessional case, and did well on it. Now, under certain conditions given to me, I have a right to help in high circles of law enforcement, as a clairvoyant (working without pay). It was a real step up for me.

I hear you're a Lt. now. Good (Jupiter was in Taurus is good for promotions, as I recall telling you!!) Congratulations!!

I wanted to talk with you further about the Adam Walsh case — (I had shelved it mentally, for a while, and have been trying to help, via clairvoyance & astrology, to find a missing child that the Hazard, Ky. State Police are trying to find. I feel

I have made good progress in this —) I went over, in my mind, the things I'd thought I phoned in to you down here about the Adam Walsh case, and I feel that the person you should seek is a male hair dresser, who is a homosexual.

Do you recall my telling you that cards were important to this case? Well, my hair dresser, "William", once let me read his cards (for fun) with the only deck of cards he had, for which he apologized, which had, on the back sides, 52 photos (NOT VULGAR) of handsome young males, dressed in skimpy "pin up" type clothes.

This could tell my mind that the person responsible for Adam's death is a male model — or, a hair dresser!

Remember all the clues about the names Mark and Morris? Well, our friend, who has been here every day, always bragged about what wonderful blond hair he had (hair..... hair dresser)

The Mark I met fleetingly at the hotel in your city, I felt, was gay. He was also blond. (my hair dresser was brown-ette —)

So, I think you should check the hair dressers in that area, particularly the ones who were in that area when Adam disappeared. (Have any hair dressers left town???)

Our minister's first name is William. I dreamed of him to show my conscious mind the name "William", to remind myself of a "William", who put up fronts (of plastic, to keep the hair off of me, to remind my mind of the 52 cards of sexy males that I need his cards with, for fun. (He is a homo sexual, ~~man~~)

I'm sure you're as interested in tracking down Adam's killer as ever, as I am.

This could be his mother's hair dresser, or a friend of theirs, who is a hair - dresser, or one who worked close by -

Thanks for your help.

Best regards,

Tracy

Dear Jim —
Just left a message there for you — I think I finally see what my mind has been trying to get across to me!!! Thank God!!!!

Yesterday I could put it together. If I hadn't decided to add around the corner to get a code, I'd have missed it! Fate is a funny thing! —

The mind disguises people we don't like — That's why I've had a hard time with this — my nice lawyer and friend, Pete, the one who was carried out of Europe in a suitcase during world war II (remember?), and who now only take claims for accident cases, once lived in the apartments behind me (they are painted yellow, like my garage) in an apartment called Anderson Apts, which is owned by a man named Harry Jones — We all dislike Harry Jones because he had constructed a big, ugly yellow apartment behind the apartment where Pete used to live, and we all feel it doesn't comply with zoning laws, as there is not enough parking area; we feel angry + can't stand him!

So, I dreamed about Pete, standing with another man, behind some shelves holding merchandise displays, (I didn't want to see Jones) and Pete said in the dream "He wants to buy some real-estate" This is showing me real-estate-connected in some way with Pete, and a man he
+ I know — Jones.

Remember that I programmed my mind for a name 2943

So we have these names to consider 1. Jones 2. Harry (you remember my "beating to death" the clue + name of Harry)
3. Anderson.

After I could put this together, I kept hearing Perry Como singing in my mind (I had this happen all the time when I was working on this case) and I found out through the phone service that there is a Como Hairstylist there! This person were looking for might have worked there when Adam was kidnapped, or may work there now, too —
It could also merely show Hairstylist, or barber (second choice) — you recall my saying that before — The last clue "Perry Como could mean is that our killer is a Taurus (Perry Como is a Taurus born man, I know) — As you know, Perry Como used to be a barber — could mean that. (Taurus people are born between April 20th and May 22nd.)

Now, I asked myself if "Pete" could be the first name of our killer, and "Jones" his last name. There is a Peter Jones listed in the phone book, but the operator told me he does have a phone. I'd hate to scare an ~~innocent~~ innocent person, and I doubt if I got both names, but you could ask if the Walsh family have a friend called Pete Jones

Good luck on this, Jim! 2/9/44
Thanks a lot,
Troy

P.S. I have gotten both names of a person, but only once.

I left a message for you down there in to the Adam Walsh case — Now, I'll write for you —

I thought over the Adam Walsh case, and that all the clues my mind gave me putting up fronts (putting up fronts are my clue me in to Contractor — plastic curtains plastic bags, which I saw in dreams times — The name "Cashy" was to show actor — I know a man named Cashy who is a
All this to tell me that what happened
Walsh was what happened to the man and killed by a contractor named who buried them under his house after killing them — words, Adam was raped and killed, in ion —

as I've gone over in my mind show me at possibility that the person who killed could drive a wrecker. Remember all of it's and how often I'd say "He fell" my dreams of bandaged arms, etc?
— wrecker — yellow light — all on dream clues when I worked on the building I saw the headless body a shower curtain (plastic bag substitute) vision of my garage — So we have yellow light, (flashing hot yellow light the) garage — all showing, I feel, a who owns, or operator, a wrecker service out 2945 of a garage 11160 The Walsh's know anyone like this? Had they recently called a wrecker to tow them in? Is there such a service near by?

After I got this together, I looked at the planetary picture when Adam was kidnapped, and then I looked at the planetary picture
now. The stars are strong for you to catch Adam's killer, + solve this case during the next few weeks! I do pray so!!

Hope you're well and happy —

Best regards,

Tracy

Dear Jim,

It occurs to me that construction crews have "wrecking" crew men — As the sub-conscious does not reason, + a "wrecker" is a "wrecker" to it, so we should play this either way. The killer works on a wrecking crew for a construction company, or runs or drives a "wrecker" to haul autos after wrecks, etc.

All the names I got in dreams on this case either had a store front remodeled (Mark had his store front re-constructed) and the furniture store I dreamed about had its front remodeled (re-constructed) <sup>or close of page</sup> ~~who were contractors.~~ Was some re-modeling or re-construction going on nearby when Adam was kidnaped? Had an old building been wrecked, and torn down nearby? Was a new building being constructed? Did Adam know a construction man well? Does he know Adam's killer? As Jupiter, the planet that rules solving crimes and justice, is now exactly 90° (we say "square") to where the Sun was when Adam was kidnaped, our chances of chasing down the killer and bringing him to justice are very strong, as I said. So I know I can count on you to check out both "clues". — Thanks a lot!

Tracy

P.S. When one calls a "wrecker" to haul in a car, one has to show one's AAA Card. Remember, the word card rings a bell in me! I had to show my card twice on such occasions —

Psychiatrist in sex probe forced out of former jobs

A state Department of Mental Health official under investigation for alleged sexual harassment previously was forced to resign jobs in Kentucky and Montana. It has been learned.

It also was revealed that Winkler abruptly left his subsequent job at a state job. Montana officials said that in October 1979, Winkler was suspended by that state's mental health department into the Kentucky investigations.

At Davis, a superintendent of the Fine Hill School for Boys in Montana said The Sacramento-San Joaquin River Water Resources Institute is conducting the investigation.

There also has been a case in the formation of a unit in the state of California. Winkler is reported to be another of the state's additional director of the Mental Health Services of Institutions.

Michael McAttee, an assistant director general in Montana, said he noted that the suspension came about as a result of complaints referred to him in Kentucky which were not made in

I heard that Dr. Paul J. Winkler was up once, maybe twice, in The Navy, for either child molesting, or homosexuality. He is a known homosexual. He drinks, pops pills, loves guns! — He is, in plain words, a total psycho.

He was let go in California for sexually harassing a medical student. Mr. Wayne Wilson, of The Sacramento Bee Newspaper, sent me all the articles of stories there on Winkler. (This was 1979 — as I said)

I have called several states looking to see if Winkler was jailed there — He wasn't. I know he comes to Florida (to Naples) & to the Keys — He "fishes" in and does lots of "not-so-nice-as-that" things!

Dr. Paul J. Winkler is a hypnotist, a genius, a criminal, and a totally dangerous man. The F.B.I. told me that Winkler was not in a Federal Prison. He's probably out by now. God help us all! Winkler makes his patients take medicine that hurts, and could kill them!

Please let me know if he was arrested in your state. I'll phone the Justice Dept; & relay the info to them.

Tuesday

St. Dubose,

These are the mental impressions I've come up with as I've mentally concentrated on the Adam Walsh case, as I've sought to help, via clairvoyance.

Apparently the man I saw in the dream, + sent the look-alike photo to you, is either a "man of the cloth," a Reverend or Priest, who uses God to "hide behind" to carry out his crimes, or he pretends to be a "man of the cloth," and is a fortune teller, who uses this ruse to seduce and sexually assault, or worse! It is possible, of course, that he is a Reverend, or Priest, who is a fortune teller - hypnotist - seducer - and killer!

I met such a beast years ago when I and a friend went to see Reverend James Ellis (a real minister) who was a hypnotist-seducer, and "fortune teller" — He hypnotized people with a handkerchief, which he kept wrapping and unwrapping around his hand! (As a clairvoyant, I knew exactly what the old devil was up to, but I didn't believe, then, that one can be hypnotized against one's will (Now I know they can.) This man knew how to hypnotize you by startling you, and I know now that that is a very easy way to do this. (I learned this from Psychologists) - many and people learn these simple techniques and use them on their innocent victims!

(many books are available in "pulp stores".)

The more I relax, the more information comes to my conscious mind, from the sub-conscious.
As I say, the less I'm afraid, the more comes through.

This morning, I thought about the dream I had where a "man of the cloth" <sup>(not in his robe, but in street clothes.)</sup> <sup>was talking to me.</sup> In the dream, the "man of the cloth" said, "All right, anyone want to come along while I drive Mr.
— (can't recall the name) to Frankfurt?"

Now, I had to interpret what info had been sent to me in that dream, as I continue to concentrate on the Adam Walsh case.

The "man of the cloth" was obviously that. What did the reference to Frankfurt mean? I lived in Frankfurt when I went to the Reverend - sex offender - hypnotist's house. What did the words,
"Anyone want to come along while I drive?" mean?

This morning, after I arose, I got the answer,
when this thought came to my conscious mind -
"Father Pool lived in Frankfurt" - He was the Roman Catholic Priest there, and a fine & prince man! All right, I asked myself, after seeing that "Anyone want to come along while I drive?"
meant "Pool" (<sup>pool</sup> a-ride) -, what "man of the cloth" in Frankfort? Then I recalled Reverend James Ellis - a painful thought, because he'd gotten on his knees and ~~was~~ was feeling of me, sexually. - I screamed! My girl friend, who was with me, & sitting in the other room, heard me scream! I got off with a warning from this mad man that if I ever came back to his house, he would hurt me worse. (He needn't have bothered! He scared me half to death!)

In another dream, I saw a fallen jogger. One man said, when seeing form on the sidewalk by the jogger, "What is that?" The other man said, pointing to the jogger, "He has fits." The man beside him said, "I thought I saw him on his knees there."

All this about "he has fits," and "I thought I saw him on his knees there" shows my past experience with the evil Reverend - fortune teller - sex deviate, James Ellis.

The fallen jogger represents a friend of mine, named "Caskey," <sup>while jogging</sup> who fell <sup>and broke</sup> his leg several months ago, - (a fine man, and a wonderful father to his two adopted children) This dream again shows "Father," or Reverend, or Priest. By the fact that I chase to see Caskey, I think that the man were looking for could limp. It may simply be that my seeing a jogger is a reminder to me that my

Child was almost harmed by a sex-nut<sup>guy</sup> (he tried to get in her auto!) I still feel that by the fact my mind selected the one foggi<sup>guy</sup> who broke his leg, that the man we're looking for is crippled, & limps. (I think he is lame in his left leg) foot, making him limp.

My friend, Caskey, also plays Polo. I knew something about horses was in the puzzle. Caskey owns horses, & plays polo. Could it be that the killer limps because he had Polo ("polio")?
The subconscious, as I told you, talks in pictures, and words often "sound like" other words —

Often when I concentrate on a case, I'll adopt certain ideas, for a short time. Like, while I've worked this case I want to sail. I've never wanted to sail! So I know the killer sails!

I know he was a fisherman because I've been singing fishermen songs! I get a lot of ESP clues from songs I sing.

I'm still trying to get the killer's name.
I'll let you know when I do. I'm blessed with a very cooperative mind, and daily
I program my mind to please give me the name of the man who murdered Adam Walsh.
(God rest his dear soul!)

Gentlemen: My theory.

There are two homosexuals in the Sandcastle To Miami area. One in late twenties probably not over 30, the other in mid probably yet 20.

Adam Walsh in sig Yr be 7 NOV 14/81.

My theory is that it was both a planned job and a spur of the moment snatch.

The probably probability in my estimation is that these two young men already had a child living with them (come by oh, in a number of possible ways - purchase, unwanted snatch of poor child from crowded family - OR - almost had one who visited frequently and they decided to get their own.

(~~over~~) See page 2 2956

003256
Theory I - One or both in toy dept buying toy for child already living with them and found Adam "IRRESTIBLE."
his reaction to a couple of toy phrases for example and he willingly accompanies them which means or only one of them that when they got him home they decide to keep him, rather than some child they had planned to get perhaps the same way they got the first one. (CR had planned to get the first one) after "protesting"

I must insist on either a neighborhood child who was almost perfect except that did not fully belong to them. Incomplete!!

So Theory I:

- 2957
- (a) have one child. Adam being kept as companion. (Group of 4)
  - (b) at last have child of their own. (Group of 3)
(Remember these guys are intelligent + SINCERE!!)

If it's thing # 2, I believe they moved to a new (<sup>private</sup> home probably) belonging to one of them (I think they've got dough) and the other one only works at a good position. They would want to avoid suspicion at old neighborhood if neighbors close by. In either respect it is an experiment on their part of fulfillment and challenge. The psychological control thing would be quite different from hostage situation generally conducted recently. The conversion period will have a definite completion time in their minds after which I believe they will have to brag a little to intimate homosexual acquaintances about it but before that time I think they will be for 4

quite secretive about the whole thing to anyone at all.

After the conversion (if any is required in this case and I believe one in to an extent) they (the 3 or 4) [if it 4 they may be more shaky psychologically than if it's the 3] will convert from a "bomb shelter" to a "showplace for homosexual acquaintances."

You hope can comb all the middle (upper or better) income homes from Lauderdale to Miami which "might be occupied by a male homosexual couple" but I believe it's a lot of leg work isn't it?

Why not a publicity campaign designed to applaud their sincerity and the worth of their intentions which doesn't except to the two of them appeal (I mean not to homosexuals in general.) (or being a homosexual thing)

If you can get them to come forth willingly.

before they are convinced the conviction period is over I don't think you will be wise to send the homosexual thing openly but ~~subtly~~ subtly include in the campaign that you are following them and will insist they must philosophically concede that the child should be returned. In fairness to the time and the tempo I don't think that any other approach will work in this case. <sup>(they could speak into air - into thin air)</sup> I'd like to work on the "Wanted ad

A former police officer for the city of Miami should be investigated and quickly.

Frank Thomas lives in Hollywood and is acting very suspicious and odd. He is going around showing his police card, saying he is a policeman under cover and forcing young people, girls mostly, to do as he says. He tells them that they must do as he says or he will arrest them. The things he tells them to do is not within the law.

He is a menace to society and should be taken off the streets. My daughter is afraid to go out by herself for fear she will run into him again.

We followed him one day and found out where he is living. He is supposedly married to a woman living at 6851 Sherman Street in Hollywood.

People like him should be put away. Please do something about him before he harms someone or some gets killed.

Mr. & Mrs. John Walsh (Parents of Adam Walsh)
Hollywood, Florida 33022

2969

003269
June 27, 1982

Dear Mr + Mrs. Walsh,

We have something in common. We have gone through the same painful experience of losing a loved one at the hands of another. In one week it will be 1 year since our little 6 yr. old nephew, Jeff, was found murdered. He, too, disappeared from close to home in Anaheim Hills by a shopping center. This happened on Thursday evening around 6 pm, July 2, 1981. The next day his body was found about 20 miles from home. It was dumped there after he had been strangled.

When I read about Adam in the July 20 Family Circle I just cried and cried for him. Reading your story was like reliving our family's tragedy. My brother Bob and his wife Connie have been truly remarkable. Their strengths this past year are something I don't think I could have attained. Yet, the aunts and uncles and grandparents suffer too when something like this happens.

The new Reader's Digest I received 2 weeks ago in the mail has also seen fit to put an article in it on missing children. When I read it and really thought about the fact that there is no clearinghouse or central location for reporting missing children, I tended to agree with the statement that our country's priorities are mixed up in our concern for stolen cars and not for stolen children.

My husband Bob and I have one son, Chris, who is 8. I used to do what you did when going to a mall - letting Chris go look at the toy store when I was right next door looking at clothes. Since Jeff's death, I don't do that anymore. It's hard to believe someone could take your child in a during store and no one notice anything. In Jeff's case he had ridden his bike one block from home to a small shopping area of about 8 stores to look at the fireworks stand. When he didn't return home a half hour later my brother started searching. They found his bike behind a pizza place. They called the police and the search began which lasted all night. They called my folks, Connie's folks and us the next morning they had kept thinking, and hoping to find him. We helped search that morning, then police came and asked my husband to go to LA to the marque to identify a little boy who had been found that morning at a construction site in Panama.

My brother's sister-in-law agreed to be the one to go. About 3 hrs. later he returned and just seeing his face as he walked in told the 2972

whole story.<sup>4</sup> That was Friday.
They never did an autopsy until Monday so his funeral wasn't until Thursday - one week after he disappeared.
I don't have to go into feelings - you know them and then more because you lost your son as my brother and his wife did, but I still have mine. Nevertheless, if Jeff and Adam had been hit by a car - even hit & run, or had gotten cancer - you could accept it more so than someone stealing a child and murdering him. No one has been found here either as a suspect.
My brother tells us he was not sexually molested, yet I fear they did not tell us everything. They did say that Jeff was beaten, but after he died. I can't believe our world is so full of sick people! 2973 Bob and Connie also had to deal with reporters, and television

0 0 3 2 7 3 was even <sup>5</sup> at the funeral. Some people say that is heartless of the dia, but as the police pointed it, they wanted to show the public what was going on, to arouse public sentiment. There are two ward funds in Jeff's name, but none has come forth with any information.

Jeff had an older brother, Michael,
who is 11 and is doing very well.
He has grown up a lot and we're very proud of him. My boy, Chris, was when Jeff died and I think a little is young to really comprehend it
. He says he doesn't like to think about it because it's too sad, then he goes to play. I feel I have aged in years over him this past year.
I all have thought "what if the order is close by". As my step-in-law points out, he could be in the same grocery store with me while she's shopping. 2974

They are also <sup>6</sup> living and staying in the same house. Jeff's room is just as it was when he disappeared. His clothes are still in drawers, his stuffed animals "waiting" on his bed. The school work he had done for July 4th. still in his drawers. They are on year round school so he had just begun 1st. grade the day before on July 1st. He was ready to be a first grader then so he stayed in kindergarten 2 yrs. - he just wasn't ready to move up. So much of Adam sounded like Jeff. He also loved hats, loved the water and could swim like a fish. He would have been 7 on Aug. 18 - only 6 weeks after he died. A few days before his birthday his gravestone was set in place. It was very difficult to see.

Also one other thing prompted me to write this letter. My brother also referred to Jeff as his best friend in one of the interviews, just as

Mr. Walsh had referred to Adam.
I'm thinking he and my brother would get along well if they met.
Also I know Jeff and Adam are together in heaven, a place I believe has to be better than what we have here. A death as this has made me do a lot of thinking of God and religion. Bob and Connie also have become close to the Church where Jeff attended preschool.
I think if you don't bring God into this tragedy, it would be difficult to reach some peace in your life.

I had not intended to go on so,
but I feel I know you both from the article. You sound like the type of people that it would be easy to talk to even if these tragedies, which link us all, had never occurred.
My brother is also 36, his wife 35.
My husband is 40 and I'm 38. We have never had any bad luck in our lives, so when Jeff was murdered it was like double doses from the past and all the future years thrown at us at the same time. Plus you just don't see your children dying before you get old or ahead of you. My brother misses holding him and right after it happened he would hug and kiss Chris a lot as they were so close in age and size.

My brother had more bad luck early this year as he was laid off from his job at General Motors after 16 yrs. They closed down the plant in April. He was involved in some way with computers by the assembly line. He worked his way up there and feels GM made a lot of mistakes costing a lot of jobs. The three of them took a month trip across country visiting relatives & friends along the way. I think they needed to put those miles behind them. Everyone says the first year is the worst, but I think with the loss of a child you never get over it - never! Plus they don't blame one another - something I told them not to do early on. When I learned 75% of these marriages ended in divorce - they have given one another strength. 2977

Next weekend they do not want to be around the area so are going camping with friends. I, on the other hand, am going to the shopping center Jeff disappeared from and I'm going to sit and watch and see what it has been like 1 yr. ago.

My husband says I'm weird.
Something like this causes strange behavior. We don't want to see or hear any fireworks ever again.

Both of you really have been wounded and strong its apt behind is need for help in finding missing children. My sister-in-law said that year she just couldn't help with nothing. SHAM is an organization
"Strong Regulation Against Adult Predators". They contacted me also, it I was back in college last year - the best therapy for me, to help extra during, as I don't work.

Also <sup>10.</sup> Carnie was contacted by Victims - a group of parents whose young teen-age sleep had been picked up hitchhikers were murdered. She felt she was better off than a lot of them who had started going off the deep end. She also attended a meeting of Parents of Bereaved Children, but found she really didn't need a support group.
Pastor Bill, from Jeff's church, has been there for both of them and Michael.
I wish you both luck with your expected new arrival. I think it's a good idea to have another child.
Some people might disagree, but not
I. Of course, I was lucky to have Chris and would be thrilled if I had another - at almost any age.
Carnie can not have anymore -
she had a hysterectomy 2 summers ago. They have said they would not want another, but I think if they

Sat. morning

Dear Walter,

I wrote the letter late last night, then couldn't go to sleep. As much as we all suffered, you both really went through living hell so many long days — then to have it end as it did, so sad.

Just before because Jeffy was found and was buried, it didn't stop Connie & Bob from thinking at Christmas time that it was time for him to come back, he had been gone long enough. We will have to deal with that situation.

Last August, a week before Jeff's birthday, my brother appeared on local TV to talk about their life during the past weeks. It prompted me to write a letter to the Editor of the Santa Ana Register, an Orange County newspaper. It appeared Sat. Aug. 22. Three days later a 12-yr-old was dropped in Anaheim, a Register house - sexually molested & strangled - dumped about 25 miles from home. My article was to blame for his death. People tell me, but it haunts me. I believe they feel the man apprehended 2 days later was not involved in Jeff's - still, you never know. The newspaper is suing the state of Calif. for one million dollars for letting creep out of Jacksonville State hospital 3 mos. prior to her son's murder. They claim he had been rehabilitated. This is where the blame begins. Without these creeps, wouldn't need a clearinghouse for missing children. There are so many

How do you get people more interested in this sad problem than in the ERA or the anti-nuc<sup>8</sup> movement or whatever else that can draw out so many thousands of people? People don't like sad items - it could happen to them - and while they are very saddened at the time, as the months go by, they think you should be forgetting it.

My husband says Jeff's death changed me - I'm now meaner, get angry at Chris faster. I get angry at him when he is told something and prefers to do as he pleases - especially not telling me where friend's house he's at. I've gotten close to hysteria 2 or 3 times when I've had Bob go look for him. It can happen so fast, and then they are gone forever.

As Bob says, Chris will probably die hovered over a long time. Jennie doesn't want Mike to be overly protected. Plus in Jan. he ~~turns~~ turns 12. He no longer walks back & forth to school, but she says in a few years when kids want more independence could, they <sup>10.</sup> would feel differently

It is very late now, but I wanted to write you both and tell you someone else cares and feels for you and sympathizes with you and feels the same pain. I wanted to tell you that one of those murdered children besides Adam also had a name and was loved by someone. People don't think about this sort of thing very much - they're not involved. I've read other sad stories in magazines and my heart has always gone out to the survivors - and a prayer for the victims. Senseless crimes are and should be more cause for concern. Instead of worrying about defense and what's going on, who knows where - why isn't government doing more about murders of our children, senseless crimes. Who's letting these murderers out to do it again? We recently had a proposition pass here in early June primary - Prop. 8 - the Victims

They people we don't even know will help us out to do these things like make Jeffrey's coffin a little easier to accept. It has caused some of the best things I have felt and made us realize that there are still a lot of good people in the world.

Early on the evening of July 2, 6-year-old Jeffrey David Vargo hepped on his bicycle outside his parents' two-story Ashburn Hills home and went for a ride down which he never returned.
He was abducted from a nearby shopping mall where he had gone to get fireworks. The boy was strangled later that night and his body was dumped at a construction site in Pomona, 25 miles away.
Almost two weeks after David Vargo's disappearance, he was not found.

Abominably he was not found.

Love eases pain

boy's parents sat in the family room of their little building for a day to reach those who had suffered from in their time of tragedy.

"I just met only a few. I had my best friend," said Robert Vargo, his eyes reflecting his sorrow and pain. Added Cecilia Vargo, "We miss Jeffrey terribly. He was a real breeder who touched the hearts of a lot of people."

While the Vargos have gone through the shock and despair felt by those who lose a loved one suddenly, they said they have also had something give them a sense of love and sympathy. That came in the form of letters and telephone calls from strangers around.

Flurries have delivered flowers, some nearly fresh and many by postcard, to the Vargos' home. "I have had a lot of sympathy from people who don't even know me," said Cecilia.

been so good and kind and caring. He hasn't let me down to us or anything. He's just been our friend.

The funeral is now over. The Vargos' friends and relatives have gone. And the Vargo family leaves the hardest part lies ahead. They must resume their normal lives without the companionship of their youngest son.

"The worst thing now is silence," said Vargo, who will return to his engineering job at General Motors in Los Angeles Monday.

"Last week there were lots of people around. They went there aren't, and you have time to think."

"The little things bring it all back," Vargo said. And he talked about his son, Michael, complaining that it's lonely watching television by himself. And he talked of an empty chair at the dinner table.

"He's going to be here," he said.

They got some hate mail from people thinking they had sent a 6 yrs. old to do that.

Abducted Vargo boy strangling victim

Neighbors grief-stricken, and fearful

By Keith Easthouse
Register staff writer

ANAHEIM — A neighborhood huddled together in grief and some fear Monday when it learned that 6-year-old Jeffrey Vargo had been strangled after being kidnapped last week while on a short bicycle trip to his grandparents.

The boy's body was found at a construction site in Pomona early Friday.

Neighbors who said Jeffrey had drifted into the well-kept neighborhood, some residents talked about fears they now have for their own children's safety.

Other neighbors hovered around the Vargo home during the funeral and offered moral support.

"I can't believe the outpouring of love there has been...not just from friends but also from people we don't even know," said Conita Vargo, the boy's mother.

Her husband echoed her words. "People have been making breakfast for us, watering our lawn... all the things you have to do normally. It's been incredible," Robert Vargo said.

Neighbors also collected $1,000 for an anonymous reward for information leading to the arrest of the boy's killer.

General Motors Corp., where Robert Vargo works as an engineer, offered an additional reward of $5,000. And police officers in Anaheim and Pomona donated money that raised the total reward offering to almost $20,000.

Not far from view in the outpouring of support for the Vargo family was the memory of a youngster who was described in terms such as "a very special person" and "an outgoing, energetic youngster who was everybody's friend."

His father recalled that his son had recently started school and was excited with having his own lunch pail and, best of all, his own desk.

Jeffrey's mother remembered how her son found it easy to make friends in the neighborhood.

"Jeffrey had a warm personality... And, she added as she reflected on the family tragedy, "Maybe this one time he was friendly with the wrong person."

Terry Elm, a Vargo neighbor, said: "We're all professional middle-class people. We're tired of this. If we can't buy a $200,000 home in a nice neighborhood and feel our kids are safe... where can we go? You expect things like this to happen in lower-class neighborhoods, but not here."

Another neighbor vowed her children from now on will travel in groups, never alone.

Death at the age of 6

There is still an unsolved murder in Anaheim after six weeks. The murder is that of our six-year-old nephew, Jeffrey David Vargo.

He was the little Anaheim Hills boy who disappeared July 2. His body was found the next day in a Phillips Ranch construction site. He had been strangled. Jeffrey is gone — grabbed from our family and our lives — but never gone from our hearts. The murderer is still out there, living and breathing, still out there, going through hell over what he did.

Let me tell your readers what life is like after someone you loved is murdered. The grief is all-consuming. The loss is like a part of your own body is missing. My brother and sister-in-law, Robert and Constance Vargo (Jeffrey's parents), have retained their lives, but the sadness is there on their faces constantly. Jeffrey's grandparents are bitter, angry and resentful. We all weep openly and often. Our family is close and loving and with this we are giving each other the strength to deal with the senselessness behind our loss. I hope we will never fully recover from this.

Jeffrey would have been 7 years old last Tuesday, and the thought of that is very sad. He will never get to graduate from school, or get married or become a daddy. They taken from him, and from all my emotions who is lower than the lowest bit of living form.

This murderer is a bully who had to choose a young child; he is a real piece of shit; he had no time or half-time periods who didn't give a damn; he has no self-esteem and really hates himself; he has a poor relationship with women; he will never forget Jeffrey's screams or look at his face, and it will tear up his insides even though he knows Jeffrey is dead.

1st Amendment fight

"Norman Lear Takes on the Moral Majority." So reads a headline in the Aug. 17 "Account" section. It seems that Lear has formed his own group, "People for the American Way," whose main purpose is to combat the Moral Majority's efforts to limit "obscenity, pornography" (better known as sex and violence) on the TV screen.

Anahelm investigators worked through the week on the case, checking numerous telephone numbers but turned up no suspect.

Meanwhile, the neighbors and friends of Jeffrey's parents have collected $2,800 for a reward fund for any information leading to the arrest of the murderer.

Vargo's employer, General Motors Corp. in South Gate, yesterday announced it would contribute $5,000 to the fund, which will be administered by the Anaheim police.

Yesterday, Vargo recalled that Jeffrey had helped him wash the car and mow the lawn before leaving to play at the shopping center.

"He was happy and smiling," Vargo said.

Jeffrey was described as "all boy," an avid soccer player and a "tremendous swimmer" by close family friend and neighbor Terry Finn.

"He was very loving, very intelligent, a youngster whom everyone loved," said Finn, remarking that the boy would have been 7 on Aug. 18.

Finn called the tragedy "an absolutely freak thing." Still, the incident has mobilized families living in the area.

"We are mad," she said, adding that parents are meeting this week to discuss security measures for their children.

"We are united and we do not intend to have this happen to another child," Finn said. "We met the children down in this neighborhood and told them the brutal facts."

A memorial service for Jeffrey will be held tomorrow at the White Funeral Home in Bellflower at 7 p.m. A graveside service will be held Thursday at 11 a.m. at Lawn Vista Memorial Park in Fullerton.

Link probed in death of boy, attack on girl

By Chris Makoo
Herald Examiner staff writer

Anaheim police are probing a possible link between Thursday's kidnapping of a 6-year-old Santa Ana Canyon boy and the brutal molestation and strangled death of a 10-year-old Fountain Valley girl three days before.

While Anaheim police Detective Jerry Johnson said it was "too early" to establish a connection between the abduction case and the murder of Jeffrey David Vargo, he said he is "holding" the possibility.

A preliminary autopsy report yesterday showed the boy was strangled, but lab tests are needed to establish whether he was sexually molested.

"We can't say it's similar until after autopsy," Johnson said, referring to awaited lab-test results. "But we are ruling it out. We were aware of the case because it was so close to home."

In their Santa Ana Canyon area, Jeffrey's parents, Connie and Art Vargo, were still in shock. "It was hard because where he was

It was not more than a matter of 60 to 70 feet from my front lawn," said Robert Vargo. "The only reason is that my kid was in the wrong place at the wrong time."

Since the tragedy, the Vargos said they're grateful for the outpouring of support from friends and neighbors in the close-knit cul-de-sac in East Anaheim.

"People have been terrific," said Vargo in a phone interview yesterday. "When Jeffrey was still missing, neighbors came over at 3 and 3 in the morning with their flashlights, asking, 'Where can we look?'"

The Vargos' ordeal began when Jeffrey disappeared near his Edgemar Avenue home, in the same area where a Fountain Valley girl was left for dead after being sexually attacked and nearly strangled.

The partially clad body of the little boy, who was last seen at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at a shopping center, was found 12 hours later at a Fontana construction site.

A joint investigation is being conducted by Anaheim and Fontana police.

Fontana police Lt. Kurt Longstaff said he's still searching for more physical evidence in the Vargo case and isn't looking at the Fountain Valley case at the moment.

However, Orange County sheriff's investigators, in whose territory unincorporated Fountain Valley lies, said they've already forwarded data on the case to Anaheim police.

"We've been in contact with Anaheim and all the other agencies working on the case of the little boy," said Lt. Wyatt Hart of the Sheriff's Department. "There are similarities but there're also dissimilarities. Obviously we're not going to rule out the possibility that it's the same person. But we're not saying that it is either."

The girl was abducted shortly before 11 a.m. on June 29 in front of the Steola Elementary School in Fountain Valley, about 11 miles from Anaheim, said Orange County sheriff's Lt. Dennis Robb.

Robb said she was approached by a white male on foot who pretended he had "something in his eye" and needed help. The suspect then grabbed the girl, covered her mouth with a paper napkin and forced her into a nearby car, Robb said.

The suspect then reportedly drove the victim to a rugged area off Santa Ana Canyon Road between Anaheim and Corona, where she was sexually attacked and strangled, Robb said. "Left for dead, the girl regained consciousness and flagged down a me-

The child later gave police information for a composite picture of the abductor, who is being sought for kidnapping, child molestation, oral copulation, sodomy and attempted murder. The suspect is described as a white male, age 30 to 40, 5 feet 7 inches to 5 feet 10 inches tall, with a medium build, dark hair and eyes, and a white mustache and a white goatee.

Major crimes soar 1.1%, highest rise in state since 1975

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Major crime in California increased an average of 1.1 percent during 1980 over the previous year, the highest yearly hike in the state against people and property since 1975, Attorney General George Deukmejian reported yesterday.

Of all major offenses in California during 1980, Deukmejian said, 17.6 percent involved crimes against people, and 82.4 percent were property-related.

Deukmejian said crimes against people jumped by 12 percent, while crimes against property rose by 9.8 percent, the highest increase since 1975.

The 168-page report was compiled by the state Bureau of Criminal Statistics. Also, according to the report:

- Willful homicides totaled 3,406 in 1980, a 13.8 percent rise over 1979.
- Killings of peace officers decreased 10 percent in 1980, compared with 12 the previous year.
- Robberies leaped by 16.9 percent in 1980, with armed robberies making up 67 percent of the total, or about 67,700.
- Thefts of $200 or more increased by 10.5 percent, the largest single rate increase of all the major crimes.

Critics: Insanity plea irresponsible

By Stewart Taylor Jr.
The New York Times News Service

WASHINGTON — John W. Blackley Jr. was committed Tuesday to a federal mental hospital here for psychiatric examination to determine whether he should go free, amid a chorus of outrage from high administration officials and others at his acquittal Monday evening.

At the same time, two members of the jury that unanimously found Blackley not guilty by reason of insanity said that they thought he had been guilty and would have convicted him, but were worn down by the 10-hour jurors.

Federal District Judge Barrington D. Parker ordered that the 27-year-old lawyer who shot President Reagan and three others on March 28, 1981, be committed forwards" to St. Elizabeth's Hospital, and set Aug. 9 for a hearing on whether he "is entitled to release from custody."

Parker, who presided at an eight-week trial that ended by granting the controversial acquittal, said the jurors, and the hospital staff must determine "whether he is presently mentally ill or whether he has recovered his sanity, and whether he will act, in the reasonable future, in dangerousness to himself or others."

Blackley's defense lawyers said he had no plan to exercise his legal right to petition for release within 30 days of the verdict, and legal experts agreed there is little chance in any event that any judge would let him out of the hospital for at least a few years.

Among those who called Tuesday for reversing the insanity defense is prominent people like Blackley from occupying responsibility for crimes were Attorney General William French Smith, backed by the White House, Treasury Secretary Donald T. Regan and Sen. Orrin G. Hatch, R-Utah.

President Reagan declined to comment directly on the acquittal of the man who nearly killed him with an exploding bullet that lodged near his heart. But the White House said that Smith's position that the verdict shows the need for legal reforms to crack down on crime was "obviously the president's position."

Richard A. Menzies might have learned his fate in 1979 criminal cases pending against him Tuesday. But Menzies, who pleaded guilty to manslaughter in the pending death of a 4-year-old Redwood boy in 1979, didn't show up to see what his sentence might be if he pleaded guilty to charges of interfering and preventing burglary and theft of an automobile. He spent the day in a familiar environment — jail.

Arraigned Thursday by Redwood police, Menzies, 27, now faces additional charges of stealing a car, driving with a suspended driver's license, unauthorized use and possession of a driver's license and criminal driving. He is being held in Broward Jail's Pre-arrest center, with bond set at $1,000.

The arrest at 6500 N. Ocean Drive was at least Menzies' fourth since being released from prison for the attack on Peter Alan Wagner Feb. 17, 1975, and March 2, Menzies faces charges of interfering and preventing burglary and theft of an automobile.

The state decided not to file charges after Menzies was arrested Jan. 3, 1982, on charges that he received stolen property.

But the latter conviction given Menzies pales in comparison with his treatment after being indicted March 5, 1975, for second-degree murder in young Wagner's death. Also indicted was Denis Williamson, then 15, of Davie.

The two boys had been arrested five days after Peter and his 6-year-old sister, Charity Ellen, were assaulted in a field near New Hope Farms in Davie where the Wagners kept a home and pony for the youngsters.

When he discovered the children missing, after leading to the horses, Mrs. Wagner called her husband, Jerry.

He had been screaming in the grass as a crowd of about 200 people gathered for her injuries. She recovered at Memorial Hospital and testified before the grand jury that indicated her attackers. But the Broward State Attorney's office didn't pursue the murder charges for fear that alleged confessions given by the teens to Davie police would not hold up in court.

A state law stipulates that an arrested juvenile must be taken to juvenile detention facilities after a reasonable amount of time.

Philip Sauter, then Broward State Attorney, said

There was no ordered unavailability of witnesses from Lebanon, although embassy personnel at the Lebanese Consulate in Washington said they are helping Americans leave the country as soon as they can. The next ship is scheduled to leave Thursday.

The embassy said an estimated 2,000 Americans were registered as living in Lebanon, but it was unable to say how many remained in the war-ravaged country.

The French Embassy said it was closing down its consular section in West Beirut and withdrawing to the eastern sector, which is controlled by Lebanese Christians allied with Israel.

In London, the Foreign Office said British citizens should leave Beirut within 24 hours. The office said British has arranged for them to be evacuated to Cyprus Thursday on a British container ship.

Lebanon's Council of National Advisors met again to devise a political agreement that would prevent an all-out Israeli thrust against the 6,000 Palestinian guerrillas trapped in West Beirut.

After two hours of talks, Lebanese Prime Minister Chafic Wazzan said he had "nothing new to report."

Diplomatic sources said the council had suggested to U.S. presidential envoy Philip Habib that the Lebanese pull some of their forces out of the Beirut area, while the Lebanese army collects heavy weapons from the Palestinians and deploys troops in West Beirut.

"This could be a way out, but the question now is whether Israel will accept such a plan now that it's army has Beirut surrounded and the Palestinians trapped," one Western diplomat said.

Another Western diplomat said generally, "The Williamson had been in the police station for nine hours.

"We were nervous whether the statements taken from the youths would hold up in court," Sauter admitted then. The whole case against the two hanged on the statements, he said.

Sauter let the boys plead guilty to manslaughter June 24, 1975.

Both Menzies and Williamson received seven-year prison sentences from Broward Circuit Court Judge Louis Weising Aug. 4, 1975.

Had the state's prosecution and parole guidelines not changed, Menzies would have been on parole through Aug. 8, 1982, when his seven-year prison

Investigation: (including any further description of subject & vehicles)

At approximately 10:18 am, August 14, 1981, this investigating officer received a phone call from Bonny Johnson, the complainant, in reference to a composite that she had seen in the Friday morning edition of the Sun Sentinel News. She stated that she was at Denny's restaurant in the 1000 block of South Federal Highway, Deerfield Beach, and did see a man in there that, to her, matched the description that she saw in the paper. This is in reference to the Adam Walsh disappearance.

This officer, along with Det. Sgt. Rice, responded to the Denny's Restaurant. Once there, we did come in contact with the subject, Ronald Emerson Wynn. At this time we did have a conversation with Mr. Wynn, and did advise him that he matched the composite of a suspect in the Adam Walsh disappearance and murder. Mr. Wynn was very cooperative with these investigating officers. He did turn over to us his drivers license and registration to the vehicle that he was operating. The vehicle that he was operating at the time that we were talking to him was a 1962 GMC truck, lime green in color, bearing Florida RMP-447, and did come back listed to his home address of Occurrence [24] Deerfield Beach Post Office, Dfld. Bch., Fla.

 Occurrence [25] Sunday - Approx. one month ago
 Reported [26] 08-14-81 8:46 AM

(Including any further description of subject & vehicles)

On August 14th, 1981 at approximately 8:46 AM this responded to the Deerfield Beach Police Department in regards to a police information report.

As officer arriving at the station I met with the complainant, Veronica Jackson who stated that when she watched the news on August 13th, she observed a picture of a man who was involved in an attempted abduction of a child in West Palm Beach she observed this gentleman's name and at that time discovered that she had believed she had seen the subject once before. The complainant further stated that one month ago, approximately a month ago, unknown exact date, she was on the premises of the Deerfield Beach Post Office on South East 2nd Avenue where she observed a blue possibly Ford Van (dark blue in color) drive past on 2nd Street. Subject was looking out of the drivers window at the complainant and small white female child. He then pulled into the side parking area of the Post Office, circled around and backed out onto South East 2nd Avenue continuing to look at the complainant.

Complainant then seeing that the Post Office was closed she entered her vehicle and left the scene. The Van then went southbound on South East 2nd Avenue while the complainant went northbound on 2nd Avenue where she did not see it again.

The complainant described the VAN as follows;

Possibly a 1978 to 1979 Ford VAN, a dull dark blue color, no windows on the drivers side, however there were two doors on the back of the VAN which both had windows (clear type). The VAN does have an outside mirror on the drivers door, a small square type mirror with a triangle type mount to the VAN.

The complainant stated that the driver of the VAN did fit the description of the suspect involved in the West Palm Beach case.

This officer took the complainant back to the Detective Bureau where she spoke with Sgt. Kramer. Sgt. Kramer did notify Hollywood Police Department due to the fact that the West Palm Beach attempted abduction is presently being cross referenced to the Adam Walsh murder case. Hollywood Police Department Lt. Hynes was notified at 9:45 AM this date at which time he spoke with the complainant in this case.

No further information at this time.

When I chatted with you today (on the phone) calling you "Bill" - I thought, consciously, was because I've had my friend, Bill, (a cop) mind, & I said this to you. An error like the subconscious breaking through, and "Bill" a name I told Dennis Raylen that the night passes - I refer, of course, to the Adam Walsh -

, it is possible that baseball cards are to flea markets (plenty of them there, - I mean in your own town -) did a what leave a spot in the mall where it was when he was kidnapped, and maybe his mother or dad bought baseball cards (these are a Hot - Lex. flea markets) - It may be just or me to know that the killer ~~was~~ flea market for hang around one - I'd done one - that is unless he actually baseball cards as his lure, as I thought.

You can look into both - ing to the star patterns of Adam's dise of the birthdate I called in would mark it the killer. It shows that our killer angler. He is a fixed sign (Leo 26° - Aquarius s 26°, or Leo 26°) this correlates with you I wanted you to select out (in data on your child molesting arrest files - iller is a combination of a fixed sign (listed as the tail end of Gemini joined to it -

Gemini at the time of day (like this killer) or at the Time of year, late May thru most of June is the child molester! Did you read, "In Cold Blood"? The child molester was a Gemini. Killers + rapers of children are a fixed sign plus Gemini.

We have characteristics of the sign combined (time of day we are born) plus the characteristics of those of the sign ruling the Time of year (Taurus, Gemini, etc) — The characteristics of this killer are! A fixed sign will kill its victim, to assure the victim can't talk! He drives well! He is recreative, sexually motivated — Homosexuals have a fixed sign in half their star pattern. Gemini's characteristics are:

The ability to seem child like. Can be mimics. Can be very winning socially. They wear blue + drive blue (sky blue) cars —

This killer has part of Cancer in his rising sign (time of day pattern). He may drive a green car. It is possible he rented a car for his killing. Most fixed sign people like + drive black cars, even though Gemini loves light blue. They think black is more expensive looking.

Fixed signs, like the birthdays I called in won't leave home for long! He took the child, harmed, + killed him, dumped him, then came back home. He is very fixed in his habits!

I finally decided that the killer lives near where Adam was abducted from.

This killer may sell real estate, too. He loves the water + boats — may sell boats, too — Loves sea food — + meat, + potatoes. Everyone "just loves" him — Seems sweet + easy-going — Likes cartoons — may speak several languages — associates with people of all races, + colors — Goes to church! Is religious (+ insane) — Likes pets — Has no conscience — If married married someone younger than he, or much older! — Is a home lover! Takes many short trips — His luck should run out on him by next week! Thank God!

The planet of capture will sit alone in his star pattern.
He would live close to a shopping center because Gemini likes everything easy! He gambles - The fact that the killer still has his own teeth at his age shows his probably Scorpio - in this case born Nov. 19, or near that. He hates aging, & would talk all the time about "being an old man."

The killer is clever, & would fight to the death. He is armed (naturally) - He has several guns, & probably carries one all the time. He doesn't wear glasses (may use "readers", but only that).

He is probably a hypochondriac, goes to the doctor all the time, & takes a lot of medicine & vitamins. (Drinks, or takes drugs, too) - Has lung problems, sexual problems,
and could have stomach trouble.

As I told Taylor, his dress is casual, but he wears nice clothes - No Tie - I think he wears a hat, too - Just not always, of course. He would have male children - His hair is in wisps over his crown. Appears "bald" for the most part -

He looks like the typical middle class grandfather -
He looks for the mail everyday, & knows his postman well!
Gemini can't live without the mail, even if it's only first mail.

Well, Jim, that's all for now. Hope I've been able to help some. Good luck!

Best regards,

- Tracy Green

Dear Lt. Huber,

As I dream more (I never remember my dreams unless I'm trying to help with a case) I come upon more possibilities and I get new insight. Now, in most cases, not all, there are many ways to interpret a dream.

Now, it is possible that in this case I may have the name of the killer of Adam Walsh, but in that there have been two rapes so close to my home that I could hit the victim's house with a stone! and I'm a childhood rape victim, it is not unthinkable that I may have, in some dreams, been "chasing" the neighborhood rapist. Neither neighborhood victim was taken away in a car, so my dream where I saw the man, I feel is relative to Adam Walsh's case, & is accurate.

All dreams related to a priest, or preacher, may simply be my mind's way of showing me that Adam Walsh was sexually assaulted. He could be a priest, or preacher, I don't know for sure. Don't think perhaps, after my dream as my dreams continue, I reanalyze the previous ones to get the full story my mind is telling me. I talk you "Mr. Donald" came to my mind. I know feel that the key word in this clue is Donald. Later I had a dream of a woman dancing on one foot because, though her other leg was in fact, her foot was off! I had to ask myself what a woman with a foot cut off meant to me. It was easy! A young friend of mine fell through a glass door once, when she was running, & cut off her foot (they sewed it back on, thank God).
Then I re-examined the dream of the jogger who fell,

Where he was running. (Cashy is the friend I "saw" in the dream) (I never really saw his face.) The clue in this dream is "some who fell, when they were running" — (I'm looking for a name) —

Then, I was looking for "something about horses," as I told you. The girl, who had her foot cut off when she fell through a glass door, when she was running, moved to Pompano (horses run there a lot!) —

What did the dream of this girl dancing mean? What dancer did I know of whose name tied in to this girl's last name? This girl's last name was CONNERS. The answer to this was "Donald O'Connor," the movie-star dance guy I used to so admire. (Whether or not Donald O'Connor's name is Donald O'Connor or O'Connors I don't really know —)

Last night I dreamed that a man I know, whose name is GLASS, moved next door to me. The message from my brain to me, "glass door" — Relationship of thoughts are "glass door, fell, cut off-foot, running" — hence, the last name is most likely O'Connors, or O'Connor, or Connors, or Conner.

Now I had to hope that I could get a possible first name.

I thought about the fact that I wanted to sail, and Tom and again, as I plan a vacation, I've said, "I want to sail! I don't want to fly!" What that means to me is "Who sail to me" "I don't want to fly!" (Sailing being the alternative to flying) My dearest friend on earth, Kenneth, always hated flying.

I therefore feel that the person's name is Kenneth O'Conner, or O'Connors, or Conner, or Conner.

3005 (OVER)

(There is a dancing school here named "Habb," There is a vague possibility that "Hall" is the last name, but it would be last choice, in my opinion!)

I say again, this may be the local rapier's name, if self-preservation is taking over my mental programming of looking, mentally, for the name of Adam Walsh's killer. I had Chief Raymond Wright run a check to see if any person of the name given had an arrest record here - They had no name like that here, but the local guy may have no record yet, of course. Chief is keeping the names, in case.

I have to consider all possibilities.
I still think Adam Walsh's killer is a fisherman - for fun, or profit -

I wouldn't want to accuse an innocent person, & scare them into a heart attack, or something! I offer you what I have to offer, possibilities - I trust you, and your men, to weigh & consider what I present - Some dreams are set up in special lighting, & distance, to show me it is pure ESP, but all dreams aren't that easy to put together. Except for the fear of having the wrong person questioned, I have no fear of being wrong. If one can't face being wrong at times, the Clairvoyant world is not for them!
Hope I've helped you out.

Best regards,
Troy Green

Dear Friend,

Some people think this profession is glamorous.

It's about as glamorous as crawling on your stomach in a snake pit...as being marooned for weeks on a frozen island in the Bering Strait...as trying to change a roll of film with a 150-pound gorilla on your back.

But decide for yourself after you've seen National Geographic's new book, IMAGES OF THE WORLD. Even more than an extraordinary collection of photographs, this is the story of what goes on behind the cameras as told by the photographers themselves.

This unique volume introduces you to some of the most talented and highly motivated people in the field, people whose assignments may take them anywhere at any time. And as you soon learn, their job has its risks as well as its rewards.

For example, a member of our staff once telegraphed:

"24mm lens smashed by 200 buffalo."

There was the time when Loren McIntyre became lost in a storm over the Amazon jungle. Not only was visibility zero, but the pilot of his single-engine plane became suddenly ill with malaria.

One never knows what to expect in foreign lands. George Mobley once fled for his life across rooftops in Beirut, while the NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC writer blended in with the mob that chased him and -- to save his own skin -- joined in screaming "get the photographer!"

Off the coast of Australia David Doubilet had a close encounter of another kind when he looked through his camera lens and into the gaping jaws of a great white shark.

Glamorous? Sorry, I can't agree. Fascinating is a better word for this profession -- something I hope you'll discover for yourself in IMAGES OF THE WORLD.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Gilka

Dear Lt. Kubose,

I talked with your nice lady at the Bureau here about my impressions (I'm clairvoyant) in the Adam Walsh murder case - The picture with the red arrow, which I enclose, is how the man I saw in the dream must have looked when he was young. The man I saw in the dream, when I was mentally concentrating on this case, is an older man - Late 60's or early 70's (holds his age rather well.) He is balding (strips of hair across head) He is brunette haired, brown eyed, but pale skinned. He is soft spoken. He has an accent like he was originally from Chicago, or New York.

This man is big - He is about 6 ft. tall, & heavy. His stomach sticks over his belt when he sits down. (I saw him sitting in the car.) He has wrinkles of flesh around the lower jaw when he smiles. The fact that I saw him smiling, as I told the lady I talked with on your line there, shows me that his nickname is either "Smiley" (probably because he is a "poker-face" sort of person) or "Happy" - He has his own teeth - they are not pretty - are fular + old looking. This man was wearing a soft (white) shirt, & no tie - A solid color suit, either brown or dark blue - He has a manner so relaxed that he puts anyone at ease. His soft voice is soothing, but rasy + deep. His attitude put the child at ease, + he just drove off with him!

As I told my friend Chief Wright, of the Lexington Police Department, when I talked with him today about this case (Chief Wright knows me well, + can vouch for me) I know the kidnapper, killer is a fisherman. I told the lady that, when I called your office. Though I feel that he rented a motor boat at Vero Beach, I feel that they know him in Hollywood, Florida at one of the places where boats are docked, etc.

I feel the killer is a retired man, who lives in Hollywood, Florida - I feel he was born on Feb. 14 - around 1910 to 1913 -

I had some impressions about "Mc Donald's" - maybe there is one in the Shopping Center where Adam Walsh was kidnaped - (he probably still goes there - this killer has fixed habits)

As I said to the lady in your office, I had a clue about either the victim, or killer, having "fits" - I think the killer is probably the one who does (maybe fits of insanity) - If he has epilepsy, he would be an "Dilantin" (don't know how you spell that) - Pharmacies keep records both of Senior Citizens, + their drugs. Check around where the child was taken - The killer probably lives within a couple of miles from there -

I believe this was a sexually related crime - As I dream more about it, this fact is totally clear to me. That was my first thought, then I thought it might have been done by a paid killer — but it went like that —

As I talk Chief Wright today, I know from the "key dream" that it was a sexually motivated case — (I wonder, as I talk him, if Adam had seizure, & could have died of shock —
you all can find out about Adam Walicki's health from his family — This was just a passing thought, because I think Adam was murdered.

I worked on the Atlanta killings, with Vance Wright of Special Forces. Assistant Chief Redding has written to me, and so has his son, Mr. <sup>Dr.</sup> Brown — Chief Elkins, of the Ky.
State Police in Pikeville, Ky. can vouch for me.
I care about people, that is why I try to help in what cases I can. I pay my own calls, & get no money, or reward. In other words, I act out of love —

For what it may be worth, I heard, in mental Telepathy, "du Bois" — close to the sound of your name, 3 days ago! — In Telepathy + ESP, names often sound like other names —

I shall continue to work & concentrate, on this case, & try to get the killer's name. Names are my specialty, & when I did demonstrations for the public, names were the easiest for me. As my fears lessen, perhaps, I can get this name, or names; I hope so.

Thank you very much,

Troy S. Green

This story. Almost everybody knows the tragic story of Adam Walsh by and maybe in this instance that is good. Mothers all over Florida are keeping their kids a little closer to their side this week. They will think each time they want to look at dresses or shoes or whatever that somebody else's child disappeared when she took her eyes off him for a minute. A few fatal accidents that wouldn't have happened any more unusual or out of the ordinary than crossing the street or riding in a car.

But for Nerve Walsh, a woman who lives in the city where John and I live up, that one second will linger in her mind for the rest of her life. Nobody can blame her; it's not her fault. It's just one of those things women do. Watch their kids when they go shopping.

When going out to lunch Wednesday, after word of Adam's murder was spread, I noticed a woman with a whole slew of kids going shopping. She had her eye on each of them. When one kid started to wander she yelled at him to "get back over here with your man." He grumbled and did so right away.

John and I had a little side-story when we first heard that Adam Walsh disappeared from the Hollywood Mall. We had to, we had to go to the mall to see if we could find him. We had to, we had to go to the mall to see if we could find him. We had to, we had to go to the mall to see if we could find him.

July 8, 1982
(Adam Walsh County)

Dear Mr. Walsh:

I was recently in Hollywood, Florida, in an attempt to locate the parents of young Adam Walsh, but to no avail. I wanted Mr + Mrs John Walsh, to learn why their son was wasted in the most terrible - act my adversaries have ever perpetrated. (It could have been any - boy - child, but one from Hollywood.)

You may wonder, if I have information on Adams murder, "why haven't I come forth before this..."

I can assure you that I have and if you do not think (once they knew who I was) that they took me serious, let me get back to my phone-conversat ions with Mr. Fred Barbette, & detectives Hoffman & Hinkman.

"We always thought it was a mob-hit... we just didn't know why." (Fred Barbette) and at an interview with these two mentioned investigators, at the Holiday Inn, at Rice Beach, Fla.
"Now we will never find it."
(The body) (Det. Heckman) and after further information,
"I think what this would do to the county..." (Det. Hinkman)
I know if this letter reaches your eyes, you will hardly believe them - but it's true.
In an attempt to cover up this information from reaching you 2 now 3041

I shall give you a good example.
one that you can check up on locally.

Not being able to contact you in the phone book, I looked up the address of The Fort - Faunderdale News. I phoned the Editor, & was put on the phone with the assistant Editor King - somebody. I asked him if he would be interested in information about who murdered a man son, and why his head was placed on the bank (not in the water) of an Indian River County canal.
He asked where I was, and what my name was. I gave him the answer to both questions.

My location was a phone booth at the library, about 2 miles - away. He gave me the directions to his office and I arrived there about 5-minutes later.

Ken, was on the phone, as he asked me to talk to a women reporter. He guardedly spoke in confidence, into the ear.

I'm sure now, from something she said near the end, "indeed did you get out of the hospital?"
That bit, was probably what the Hollywood P.D. had told the other on the phone. "Why would they tell the school a bar-faced the..." Naturally to discredit me, with the newspaper-people.

If you would visit Vera Beach, and talk to the Western Union operator, who has a friend, high in the Vera Beach Fla P.D. the will verify the fact that I sent some wires to P.C. on Adam Watah - killers.

She will also tell you that her friend in the Vera Beach, P.D. acknowledged to her (what is an open understanding with police circles) that it was a political - killing.

Here we lay the answer of why you were never told the truth about your sons death.
The key is the date, that Adams Head was placed on the bank to be found August 10th 1981. an annual anniversary - present of Nixon & Company for what I caused to happen to him August 10th, 1954

I hope that this fact will not anger you further.

Meanwhile, I'm working on a solution that will bring out these allegations of all those innocents wasted, as a warning that if I do not stop my resistance, my own grandchildren will end up the same as Adam.

What really panicked them was (to her) an innocent ad-lib question to me on her program to a letter I'd previously mailed to Sandra Ferguson, of CNN Atlanta-Ga. "What about that statement of Barbara Walters?" (of Oct 1976. during the last Carter-Ford TV debate) I'm sorry Mr + Mrs Walsh, but you have a right to know, "What the country did to Adam."

Dear Mary and Tom;

It is with profound regrets that I failed in my attempt to free - disclosures and stop the assassinations of innocent people caught up in our just cause, by not being allowed to go to trial for obstructing 7/15/80.
Tom, you will no doubt remember my response to your question about being held in Fulton County jail. "I'm just happy to be here." "at least there will be no more killings while I'm in here."

and Mary; I also remember your reaction, as we sat on the bench just outside of the federal marshalls office that day in Atlanta. I could see that my report - file allegations produced a fuzzed expression on your face and I didn't blame you for not believing them because my name did not surface in the first - part of Watergate, 1967 - 7/15/80. Hopefully the same will not be allowed to continue much longer. Watergate and its subsequent coverage has resulted in three more brutal assassinations since I was denied - court and put on a bus out of state November 26, 1980.
There is no tri<sup>er</sup>'s motives that I will not go into at this time for their latest fear-mongers. But I can substantiate when the time arrives.

landmark in between these latest Mason - maps - 2 hits, was one that shocked the entire nation and you can well imagine it's effect on me.
Tom, you, more than Mary, will remember this anniversary - presents they give me each August 10th (The Bomb Detective by Wilson, former neighbor in 143 Biscayne, Jim Lindholm, August 10th, at the Fort Pierce (city Miami)
Walt & I wrote a demand $1,000,000 to Barbara Walters, and her associates in murder - conspiracy, because I remembered judge Liska's TV interview about how much Mr. Nixon, loved money. I wanted them to purchase my work-in-progress. (Through a friend in the book to know I knew Nixon, who was going to purchase a new home so I added on this letter, part of this million will go to replace the home Nixon and Mitchell, firebombed Oct 31, 1971.)
My first receipt was of registered mail to the demand. a couple weeks later the news broke of Mr. Nixon, purchasing a home in N.J.
The next reaction, was Judge Tribble, a look-alike of both Mary and my daughter Deborah. (Her throat was cut from ear to ear almost to the extent of deception.) He lived a short - stint away from me.
Then another letter to Barbara Walters. Then came August 10, 1981. (How many times this fact - stands . .
I had warned - them that "you people had better stop while you ahead.") and the vicious monster responded in kind. They sent me one to be found here August 10th, a young - boys head, Adam Wickett, scenario:
on my second - trip to Atlanta, to retrieve documents I'd mailed from Melbourne, 8/18/80, to two people who be at a court trial, I mailed a letter to ③ to reeman, Then a day or two later, returned me, to return the documents from me. I did not was out of town, (that's when I packed up my in your office.) and when I got back here watching the reeman report and handicided from out of the blue, "What about that out of Barbara Walters?" Big Brother heard it not at panicked-them. (See Frank Moore 1974 TV. AD 2185) kind-hit (but in between painted on my windshield ami. "1.2.4.5.F. & W.") a well-dressed man was found here with 2-slugs in his head.

 ve to go to Forrest (and Bates, Fl. 1974) another of my (McKen) was hit, within 10 days B.W. & Co. on the it body in and water, was reported-dead & located Smith (body o.p.) at his home in Fla. by phone.
 at respond for Adam Walsh, that was a warning (Don't answer body's ad-lib etc) on my and grandchildren. (When and of that time
 ... I may need your services Tom.) account Paul. "August 10th, Adam Walsh's head found laying on the bank beside the canal (note) Indian River County, just west of Vero Beach, two fishermen: Adam Walsh, was abducted 24th at a (Tom) Hollywood mall."
 Tom, what fishermen? <sup>But they were</sup> they were the ones to er here to be found August 10th, to be found Aug 10th.
 run into the canal it would have sunk and ter would have been the only one to find it.
 ed on the bank overnight, some wild animal found in the area. See how they work Tom.
 -Dicky was out of the country? with Babe Coburn?
 it to my stocking system which to be Oct 14, 1975 fact, see Accident Food, debt. "Trust the, be hard to do." (B.W.)

Tom, I must apologize for not telling you all pre-trial events. It would have conventionally slipped out, & perhaps did. i.e.,

8/15/80. a C. 7000 crew interceded me 725 in D.C. jail. That would interest you, since it was held prior to our first meeting.

Please mail copies of this to Judge Smith, & the Marshall. He's okay. and of course Sandi Treeman, (just for the record.)

Sincerely

Herald H. Bloom, (Doylehouse)

P.S. Adam Walsh delivered 120 miles away

The well dressed man 140 miles away?

"I'd have missed him except for a friend in local law enforcement. He had a reaction about the size of Jay Byrum would have had Tom, with the 22, & all..." Silence signified was there delirium necessary? For a point, over.
What comes fresh into mind, hence I wrote the latency night necessary for J.J. Linn & elsewhere the bureau. "What next...?"

(Perhaps the most profound statement forthcoming when I met with two Hollywood, Tex. Detectives come from Mr. Hickman, at the Holiday Inn here,

Adam Walsh's country, too?"

Detective Hoffman:

Mr. Blum asked that this letter be given to the Walshes.

Martha Brennan

4/28/82

Mr + Mrs John Walsh:
Hollywood, Cal.

Dear Mr. + Mrs Walsh:

I know, after all this time that you both are as shocked
as I am about your son's death.
If I could I would have and would now give my life to have him restored to you.

I hope you will not think me a cruel man for what I am about to disclose. Perhaps it will even help you both at first, because it will be explained that your son was not just picked up indiscriminately from <sup>3056</sup>

the Mall and later murdered.
It was for a definite purpose.
That, I'm sorry to say, is myself.
Many times I have started to write this letter and failed to complete it. I hardly know if this time will let me complete same because it is most difficult.
Adams - murder was a political assassination. That may seem strange for you to read this and I know that you will be bewildered by such a fact.
(What in God's name could make someone make such an absurd statement? "a six-year old boy... political murder...")
But the letter does not stop here like it did all those times before.
That's what makes it so difficult to write. (In the circle of the Vero Beach, Indian River County law enforcement, it is a well-known fact that it was a "polked killing.")

It is also a known-fact to the Hollywood, Florida, detectives
Mr. Hoffman and Nickman.

This reason is probably why you were never told the truth about your sons murder.

Because we both know the reason, the parties responsible and know it would be impossible to prove in a court of law.

Adam, was abducted July 27th, murdered sometime shortly thereafter and his head was held for deposit on the bank of a canal to be placed there and found on the date of August 10th. 3059

③

 It was a death-warning to me, that my children and unseen grandchildren would also be dispatched if I continued to resist those that I have been in deadly combat (their deadly combat) with for the past fourteen-years.

(August 10th, 1974. was the reason for August 10th, 1981.)

This was the day that through my effort a President resigned his office.

(Adams-murder was sandwiched inbetween two-other, equally brutal murders in New Beach, in that time period.)

Do not be angry at the Hollywood
 P-D, because they tried to solve this case & were heartbroken as much as I am yet. They knew 3060 that to tell you that it would do no-good. It would only deepen your sorrow.

When I first contacted the Hollywood
P-D, Foley thought perhaps that I was some kind of nut.

The follow up letter to Crim. Inf.
Channel 7 T.V. produced another, & another contact with the H. P-D., prior to Mr. Hoffman & Hinkman coming to New Beach to meet with me in person.

on one such phone-call to Mr.
Fred Barbetta, after they had read my information, his comment was... "We always thought it was a mob-hit... we just didn't know why." unquote.

While I'm quoting I shall quote Detective Hinkman, at the New Beach ⑤ meeting, and he, I could see, was heartbroken and under a great emotional stress.

"I think what this would do to the country?" almost like he was talking to himself instead of to me.

That statement often rang in my ears. Then I thought, what the hell... Wasn't it Adams-country too? How dare they do such a vicious-thing and think that by their very position and power, get away with it.

I know how to do it. It will take some time. But Adams-death will, with the aid of many people, the truth will come out and those who kill women and children especially will be branded forever, not only © to the public but to their own personal families as well.

"When I can, I shall deliver this to your office in Hollywood, after finding your address in the City Directory.

I was once a millionaire but that's been expended long ago towards the end. I will have to await funds to make it down there. This has been one of their most potent weapons. To keep me from working - thus broke.

But I survived to defeat these powerful people by the grace of heavenly hosts.

"In a way, Mr. Barbette's statement was correct, + in another wrong. Fatins killed Adam, not the mob! But they are interconnected.

I no longer could maintain ① Mr. Vero Beach apartment and have moved into a friend's condo in Fort Pierce. For that reason I shall not leave you my address, in Fort Pierce.

Just rest assured that we are working on it at a very high plane.

Meanwhile: Adams - death may well be the one that breaks their vicious conspiracy.

In deepest sympathy forever

DUNGEONS & DRAGONS or KNIGHTS IN HOLY LEGISLATION

CALIFORNIA CONGRESSMAN ROBERT DORNAN IS NOW TRYING TO HAVE FEDERAL LEGISLATION PASSED TO PREVENT SOME RECORD PRODUCERS FROM ALLEGEDLY INCORPORATING "SATANIC" MESSAGES IN RECORD ALBUMS. ACCORDING TO MR. DORNAN THE MESSAGES CAN BE HEARD BY PLAYING THE RECORD BACKWARDS. I DIDN'T EVEN KNOW YOU COULD PLAY A RECORD PLAYER BACKWARD?

I CAN'T HELP FEELING THAT MY SENSIBILITIES ARE BEING BUDPHONED AND FORGED INTO THE RAGE AND POWER OF A VOLCANO! IS THERE NO END TO THIS SILLY "FIDDLING" WHILE ROME BURNS BY THE RADICAL RIGHT KING RELIGIOUS FANATICISM?

I ASSUME, THAT IF MR. DORNAN BELIEVES IN SATAN HE MUST ALSO BELIEVE IN SANTA CLAUS, THE EASTER BUNNY, THE BOOGIE MAN, AND THE TOOTH FAIRY!!

J. B. S. HALDANE COUNTS FANATICISM AMONG THE ONLY FOUR REALLY IMPORTANT INVENTIONS MADE BETWEEN 3000 B.C. AND 1400 A.D. IT WAS A JUDIC-CHRISTIAN INVENTION. (HALDANE, The Inequality of Man. NEW YORK FAMOUS BOOKS, Inc., 1938) P. 49. IT IS ALSO IMPORTANT TO NOTE THAT PEOPLE LIKE ADOLPH HITLER EMPLOYED THE CONCEPTS OF FANATICISM VERY WELL.

MR. DORNAN'S PERFECT POLITICAL TIMING VIA THE F.B.I. SOCIETY STING OPERATION WILL SURELY PROPELL HIM INTO THE U.S. SENATE, BUT DO LITTLE TO SOLVE THE PROBLEM. GREAT MOVE SIR, I CON-SPATULATE YOU! TO FURTHER INSURE THAT PEOPLE DON'T ABUSE THEMSELVES AND OTHERS LETS REVIVE THE ALCOHOL PROHIBITION ERA AND THAT WAY WE CAN ALL MOVE BACKWARDS IN TIME TO "THE GOOD OL DAYS".

IN ALL SINCERITY MR. DORNAN, "HOW MANY ANGELS CAN DANCE ON THE HEAD OF A PIN?" WHEN YOU CON-DUCT YOUR FIRST "WITCH BURNING" AT THE STARK, WOULD YOU PLEASE NOTIFY ME PERSONALLY? THANKS, I REALLY WANT TO SEE THIS WORLD RID OF EVIL! I GUESS WHEN THE REAL EVILS OF THIS WORLD ARE SO DEEPLY ENWRAPPED IN FINANCIAL AND POLITICAL SECRET SOCIETIES, THESE SO CALLED LEADERS MUST CREATE SUCH REDICULOUS DRAGON PURSUITS AND WITCH HUNTS TO LET THE PEOPLE FULLY KNOW THEY'RE DOING SOMETHING TO EARN THEIR FAT WAGES, PERKS, AND DOUBLE DIGGING PENSION OPPORTUNITIES!

MR. DORNAN THE ONLY "SATANIC" FORCES THAT EXIST IN THIS COUNTRY ARE THE ONES THAT ARE CREATED BY CORRUPT INSTITUTIONS, LEADERS, AND POLITICIANS THAT ARE REALLY ONLY INTERESTED IN ACHIEVING THEIR <sup>OWN</sup> POLITICAL POWER BASE. YOU CLOWNS WONDER WHY THERE IS SO MUCH CRIME IN THE STATES, BELIEVE ME, THE PUBLIC IS ONLY FOLLOWING THE EXAMPLES SET BY THE CORPORATE, POLITICAL, AND WHITE COLLAR CRIMINALS!

YOU SHOULD HANG YOUR HEAD IN SHAME AND RESIGN FOR WASTING OUR TIME AND MONEY WITH SUCH STINKING PROPAGANDA BLOBS. IF YOU DON'T HAVE THE GUTS TO DO THAT, JUST GO STAND IN THE CORNER OF YOUR HOUSE!!!

A NATIONALIST MAL-CONTENT, WHICH IN YOUR MIND MUST EQUATE TO A CONFIDENTIAL, RIGHT? DON'T THAT HOW YOU WOULD PLAY THE GAME?

DEAR MR. & MRS. WALSH,

MY NAME IS JOHN STACK, HOW ARE YOU FOLKS DOING? I'VE SEEN YOUR STORY TWICE AND AS A SINGLE PARENT OF A TEN YEAR OLD SON I'M VERY SCARED AND VERY VERY ANGRY!

YOUR STATEMENT ABOUT NOT UNDERSTANDING THE PRIORITIES OF THIS COUNTRY
WHEN IT COMES TO THE PROTECTION OF OUR CHILDREN IS A BIT SURPRISING.
IF YOU LOOK AT THE HISTORY OF THE SOUTH, THE NORTH, MEXICO, AND EXPLOITATION OF CHILDREN IS NOTHING NEW. IN SCOTLAND AND IRELAND THEY MADE THEIR BARNS INTO THE COAL MINE'S WHICH THEY USED TO LIVE IN TRYING TO MAKE ENOUGH MONEY TO FEED THEM. THEN HERE, THIS COUNTRY IS A BARRAGE OF LABOR LAWS TO STOP THE BRUTAL EXPLOITATION OF CHILDREN BY THE HEAVY INDUSTRY?
NEED I SAY MORE?

THERE HAS BEEN A FEW VERY SERIOUS ATTEMPTS TO STOP CHILDREN FROM WORKING FOR PAYMENT TO PROTECT THEM. THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR HAS BEEN THE COLLECTOR OF CHILD SUPPORT HAS BEEN THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, THE OF THE PARENTS COURT HAS BEEN THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, THE
WHICH I THINK HAS BEEN THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, THE YET THE F.B.I. HAS BEEN THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, THE ENTRAP SOME BOTTLE CONSPIRACY, THAT IS THE ONLY PART OF THE DEPT. OF WHY ARN'T THEY STOPPING CHILDREN FROM WORKING? WHY ARN'T THEY STOPPING 50 TO 100 THOUSAND CHILDREN FROM WORKING EACH YEAR IN THIS COUNTRY NEVER TO BE SEEN AGAIN. WHO ANSWER, "WHY, THERE'S NO MONEY BEING PAID IN IT FOR THEM".

I'VE WRITTEN A VERY HARD HITTING BOOK WHICH IS VERY BRUTAL ABOUT THIS SUBJECT
RECENTLY, NO ONE HAS SEEN IT, WE DO I HAVE THE TIME TO SHOP FOR PRODUCTION MONEY. IT ALSO SUGGESTS IN BASIC DETAIL HOW TO STOP CHILDREN FROM WORKING SYSTEM DESIGNED AND DEVELOPED FOR CHILDREN. IF YOU WANT YOU CAN GET THE
AND AVENUES TO SECURE NEEDED FUNDS I WILL BE HAPPY TO SEND YOU THE MATERIAL
UPON WRITTEN REQUEST. IT SHOULD BE PRODUCED AND DISTRIBUTED A.S.A.P.
YOU CAN SEE HOW CONGRESSMAN DORNAN SPENDING OUR TAXES.

YOURS TRULY,

RE: County of Shasta, State of California vs.
Joy Kyun Ja Stack, Your URESA # 9218(R),
Our # 69579

Gentlemen:

A review of our file in this office indicates that a URESA Petition was forwarded to your office per our letter of April 6, 1981. We have yet to receive any Order for support after providing all information requested concerning Affidavits, phone numbers, school attendance records, and addresses where the Complainant and minor child resided even prior to the date this office opened it's file.

Your latest inquiry of January 14, 1982 was promptly answered per our letter of January 19, 1982; however we have heard nothing further since our letter.

It is impossible to understand why it is taking so long to bring this matter before the Courts to obtain an Order for support and arrearages, since the granting of aid in Shasta County September 1, 1980.

Should you not be able to proceed in our behalf, please advise, as it will be our intention to proceed to obtain a Felony Complaint and Warrant for Joy Stack's arrest pursuant to 270 of the California Penal Code. Should we not hear from you otherwise, by early June 1982, we will proceed as outlined above.

Very truly yours,

SUSPICIOUS INCIDENT

THE WAITRESS TORRES, WHO SERVED THIS FAMILY, STATED THAT SHE AND ANOTHER WAITRESS, PODLESZEK, AGREED THAT THE WHITE FEMALE AND THE CHILD RESEMBLED THE COMPOSITE IN ONE OF THE LOCAL NEWSPAPERS. APPROX. 2 DAYS PRIOR TO THIS DATE, OF THE MISSING BOY AND POSSIBLY THE FEMALE THAT WOULD BE ACCOMPANYING HIM.

TORRES STATED THIS COUPLE REFERRED TO THE CHILD AS "MICHAEL". THE CHILD ACTED VERY COMFORTABLE WITH THE COUPLE AND HE WAS VERY CONTENT AND THE FEMALE TREATED HIM AS IF IT WAS HER SON OR SHE WAS VERY WELL KNOWN TO HIM.

THE WITNESSES STATED THAT THE RESEMBLANCE WAS CLOSE ENOUGH TO RAISE SUSPICION SO THEY ASKED TO SEE ANOTHER COMPOSITE OF THE CHILD. THIS OFFICER PRODUCED THE COMPOSITE THAT OUR POLICE DEPT. IS CARRYING WHICH ARE THE TWO PICTURES THAT WERE GIVEN TO THE POLICE DEPT. BY THE FAMILY. AT THIS TIME, THE WITNESSES STATED THAT IT COULD POSSIBLY BE THE CHILD BUT THEY WEREN'T QUITE AS SURE ONCE THEY SAW THE PICTURE, HE DIDN'T LOOK THAT MUCH LIKE THE PICTURE.

EVERYONE AGREED THAT THE CHILD THAT HAD BEEN IN THE RESTAURANT HAD PERFECT TEETH AND ACCORDING TO THE POLICE DEPT. COMPOSITE, ADAM WALSH SHOULD BE MISSING A FRONT TOOTH WITH A SECOND ONE GROWING IN.

STOOPS SAID POSITIVELY THE BOY THAT WAS IN THE RESTAURANT DID NOT MATCH THE PICTURE OF THE BOY IN THE COMPOSITE. TORRES SAID SHE DIDN'T BELIEVE IT MATCHED. PODLESZEK SAID THERE WAS A CLOSE RESEMBLANCE.

THE VEHICLE COMES BACK REGISTERED TO A TERESA KAIRE, 1953 BEACH PARKWAY IN CAPE CORAL, FLORIDA.

MS. WEISBERG IS PSYCHIC, AND UNDER HYPNOSIS SHE CAN ACTUALLY BECOME PART OF ANOTHER PERSON OR TRANSPORT HERSELF TO ANOTHER PLACE. HER MOTHER, Mrs ANTOINETTE STATED THAT SHE IS A HYNOTHERAPIST. SHE HYPNOTIZED MS. WEISBERG, AND QUESTIONED HER WHILE SHE WAS IN A DEEP STATE OF HYPNOSIS ABOUT ADAM WALSH, HIS CAPTORS AND HIS LOCATION.

THE TAPE RECORDING (ATTACHED HEREWITH) IS A COPY RECORDED BY THE UNDERSIGNED FROM MS WEISBERG'S CASSETTE. THE TAPE IS APPROX 30-40 MINUTES IN LENGTH. THERE WERE REFERENCES MADE FROM TWO POINTS OF VIEW. DURING THE FIRST PART OF THE TAPE MS WEISBERG STATED THAT IT WAS THE BOY [WALSH] TALKING; THE SECOND PART REFERRED TO A W/M WHO APPEARS TO BE A CULPRIT, INVOLVED IN THE ABDUCTION AND HIDING OF THE BOY.

DETAILS IN THE TAPE RECORDING INDICATE AN AREA WEST OF DAVIE, OFF OF STATE ROAD 84 ON A DIRT ROAD.

BOTH Mrs ANTOINETTE AND Ms WEISBERG STATED THEY WOULD BE AVAILABLE FOR AN INTERVIEW BY INVESTIGATORS. MS WEISBERG ADVISED THAT IF DRIVEN THERE, SHE COULD POSSIBLY IDENTIFY THE AREA THAT SHE SAW WHILE HYPNOTIZED.

THE UNDERSIGNED DID NOT CONTACT HOLLYWOOD P.D.; Ms WEISBERG CALLED THE DETECTIVE BUREAU; THEY TOLD HER TO BRING THE TAPE TO THEIR STATION. SHE CAME TO LAUDERHILL DISTRICT OFFICE BECAUSE IT WAS CLOSE TO Ms WEISBERG'S RESIDENCE.

NO FURTHER INFORMATION AT THIS TIME.

Thurs. Aug. 13th 1981

Dear Mr. Jack Hoffman, Ref.: Adam Walsh case.

3096

J. just read the M. Herald (Charles Whitely)
"I can't help to put my 2 cent in," so please take notice, may you ever look at something. How many times was the boy waiting for his "M" in that room, & about how long? I also suspect an employee of Sears, what kind of people of Sears, straighten out the room, and placing toys back on the shelves, you and I know how children able to make a extra work etc. please check if one male person quit or ask for transfer since the abduction - the boy was probably killed, because He would recognize the "Bastard" killer - To get a kid out of a store is not hard, the "Gay" just told Mom that he has a big Bear, or Rabbit or anything right out side in his car and he can have it, because He has plenty of them etc. etc.
Now what suggest I hope its not late, place a cop (a female) to that "mail my parcel", she must have a friendly look with a Teddy bear in her arm and say talkative. - Since our neighbor Castro gave

I received a call from a Peggy Gordon. She advised she was working with a Jim Campbell and with the Hollywood PD, apparently she is a psychic-she said she had pin pointed the 10-20 of where the head was found? She advised to check within a 15 mile radius of where the head was found. She also said she has a feeling it is in a heavily wooded area buried by an old house. If you need to get in touch with her call her at 941-6484.

UNLAWFUL FLIGHT TO AVOID PROSECUTION -
ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO COMMIT RAPE,
ASSAULT WITH A DEADLY WEAPON, AND BURGLARY

FACTS OF THE OFFENSE

On August 30, 1979, a felony arrest warrant was issued in the Yolo County Municipal Court, Woodland, California, charging Gary Bradford Wyatt with Assault with Intent To Commit Rape, Assault With A Deadly Weapon, and Burglary. Recommended bond at $25,000.

On May 25, 1979, Wyatt entered the home of a young man at Davis, California. Entry was gained through a glass/green sliding door by cutting the screen near the locking mechanism. Wyatt entered the residence while victim was sleeping. As Wyatt entered the bathroom he attempted to force the victim to the floor at knifepoint. A struggle ensued with the victim eventually escaping to a neighbor's home.

A nearby neighbor who heard the victim's screams advised Wyatt to his getaway vehicle where Wyatt stabbed the neighbor repeatedly and fled.

GENERAL PROCESS

On May 14, 1981, Assistant United States Attorney (SA) Fern Segal, Eastern District of California (EDC), Sacramento, California, authorized a filing of a complaint charging Gary Bradford Wyatt with violation of Title 18, U. S. Code, Section 1073, Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution. Authorized complaint filed by Special Agent (SA) John R.

cc 10 12 81

GARY BRADFORD WYATT

Trimarco on same date, and warrant issued by U. S. Magistrate Esther Mix, EDC, Sacramento, charging Wyatt with Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution, recommended bond at $25,000.

BRIEF PERSONAL HISTORY

Gary Bradford Wyatt was born on August 2, 1949 at Detroit, Michigan, the second son of Agnes and Frank Wyatt, Sr. (deceased).

Agnes Wyatt (mother of the fugitive) resides at 5754 Morley Street, Los Angeles, California, has been totally uncooperative and has furnished false information concerning her family to Bureau agents.

Frank Wyatt, Jr. (brother of the fugitive) resides at 3941 West 100 17th Street, Hawthorne, California, and is totally uncooperative in efforts to locate his brother.

On November 18, 1978, Gary Wyatt was married to Kathleen Marie Wilson at Stateline, Nevada. Kathleen Wyatt is a White female, date of birth December 14, 1953, 5'6", 125 pounds, blue eyes, brown hair, wears corrective lenses. Kathleen has accompanied Wyatt since his flight, and is aware of his fugitive status. Kathleen Wyatt has a degree in Plant Science from the University of California at Davis, California, and may be employed at a nursery-related facility.

Gary Wyatt has been employed as a car salesman, truck driver, cab driver, machine operator, and cannery worker.

MODUS OPERANDI AND OTHER INTERESTING FACTS

The Davis, California Police Department advised that on August 30, 1979 Gary Bradford Wyatt had been charged with Assault With Attempt to Commit Rape, Assault With a Deadly Weapon, and Burglary. Wyatt has been positively identified in several sex-assaults in the Davis area, and is a suspect in at least 12 other cases.

003500

From May, 1969 to September, 1970, Wyatt was charged with offenses which included Rape With Force, Oral Copulation, Crimes Against Children, Armed Robbery, Robbery By Force, Assault With Intent to Commit Rape, and Kidnapping. In total, 19 counts of sex-related crimes, the majority of which were committed upon children.

On December 4, 1970, the State of California, Department of Corrections, advised that Wyatt had been examined by two psychiatrists, both of whom concurred that Wyatt was a "mentally disordered sex offender..."

On January 16, 1980, Gary Bradford Wyatt was arrested using the alias David John Wilson by the Bellingham, Washington Police Department for the crime of Burglary, which in reality was an aborted rape. The Identification Division of the FBI advised the Bellingham authorities that David Wilson was in fact the fugitive, Gary Bradford Wyatt. Wyatt, however, had been released three days earlier.

Wyatt's crimes follow either one of two modus operandis: He abducts young girls (on one occasion a boy) from public places (parks, playgrounds, etc.) at knifepoint, takes them to a private area and initiates the assault. Any resistance is met by cutting the victim's arms. The second modus operandi consists of breaking into a residence during the late evening hours, confronting the victim, and while hiding his face with his shirt threatens the victim with a knife.

A review of the subject's identification record reveals that he has been arrested on at least four occasions:

1. Arrested on February 5, 1970 by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, Los Angeles, California (arrest number D352285) for Assault With a Deadly Weapon and Burglary).

PROBABLE CAUSE AFFIDAVIT

Before me this date personally appeared LYON, James P. who being first in LAST FIRST MIDDLE
 sworn deposes and says that on the 4th day of August 1981 at 1776 Polk Street
 CHIME LOCATION

the above named defendant committed the above offenses charged and the facts showing probable cause to believe so are as follows:

Units were dispatched to the above location in reference to a subject wrapped in blankets laying in the doorway of an apartment building. On the arrival of Officer Lyon it was found that the above arrestee was sleeping in the open in front of the apartment. She had been warned by this officer on two separate occasions to leave the area and not to sleep in the open. It was noted that she had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on and about her person, she was unsteady on her feet, her eyes were bloodshot and her speech slurred. Her clothing was also very disraveled. She was yelling and screaming when awoken and created a loud disturbance which attracted numerous tenants to the lobby area as they were awoken from there sleep. The arrestee was very argumentative and fought with this officer and had to be physically restrained and thrown to the ground. She was placed under arrest and transported to headquarters where she was processed.

Sworn to and subscribed before me the 4th day of August 1981

I, Notary, a Notary Public in and for the State of Florida, do hereby certify that the above statement is correct and true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Dear Sirs;

I have some information concerning the little boy kidnapped from the Sears store. I believe the name of the man who did this to be Carl Watson. I think he is a Vietnam veteran who has won a medal. I think the license number (but this I am less sure of) of the blue van may be DPS 4436.

I have just written a letter, also, to the Florida Police Dept. I am writing to you also because I'm afraid that I'll just be considered a crack or nut and no one will check out this information. So I thought two letters would be better than one. I have hesitated about writing to anyone about this for quite awhile because I'm sure this will make me sound very foolish.

You may, also, just consider this a letter from some nut in Texas. I sincerely hope that you will have the time to check out this information, though.

I read the story in our newspaper. I'm just a housewife, but in the past I have had dreams and visions that turned out to be correct. The day that the news story came out that the little boy's head had been found, I had a vision of the little boy being led out of the store by a man and being driven off in a blue van. A couple of days later I read that a witness, another child, had seen this very thing happen. 3341

The next vision I had was of the man dressed in camouflage fatigues cutting the boy with a curved knife (called machete?) that was so upsetting to me that I tried very hard not to think about the matter any further. I had the distinct impression that the man is a Vietnam veteran and has won a medal (heart?) I'm not familiar with war medals. I drew the man's picture and sent it along with my letter to the police. I'm not sure it's a very good likeness, though.

Recently, I had a vivid dream on the same subject and upon awakening, I prayed to Jesus Christ for the man's name. It is Carl Watson.

I don't know anyone by that name and I've never even been to Florida. I do feel strongly, though, that I must write you with this information. I'd feel terrible if I didn't write and it turned out that the man could have been.

caught sooner if I had. He must be caught before another child is lost.

Please, sirs, even if I sound like a nut to you. Even if you do not believe in E.S.P. visions. Even if you do not believe that answers come in prayer. Please check this out.

Yours truly,

Jeresa S. Gabaldon

Dear Sir:

I have a strong feeling that I have come across a clue to the man who abducted the boy in Sears in Hollywood, Fla, who was later found in the canal.

Today, as I was shopping in Clothworld on North Federal Highway in Pompano Beach, a swarthy looking man, in his 40's, about 57 or 8 came in. His actions were highly suspicious. He stayed behind the stands holding the various fabrics, supposedly looking for a fabric - however, his eyes were not on the fabric but were perusing the store in the area of the cashier and the pattern department where women were selecting patterns. After surreptitiously watching him for several minutes, I reported to the manager that he may be facing a holdup. The manager began to carefully look the situation over - at which point the man walked to the other side (the south side of the shop), still looking and fingering, but acstly looking. Another thought that crossed my mind was that he was staking a woman for some reason - jealousy perhaps. However, that idea was soon dispersed when he decided to leave the store.

I had other business to attend to in that shopping area, but soon I saw him in an orange colored van with a luggage carrier on top in the rear and it hit me, that this could be the person who abducted the child in Hollywood. What better place to look for a child, than a clothing store while a mother could be busy looking at patterns and the child roaming around? The luggage carrier is also a perfect place to hide the remains of a child until they could be disposed of.

I feel strongly that this man should be investigated. His license No. was 101 VJI from New York. His actions were highly suspicious and the manager of the store also agreed that he could be up to no good. He was obviously not there to purchase fabrics or to use the bathroom - he was looking for someone.

I do not care to reveal my name at this time, but will sign myself -

Dear Jim -

Tried to reach you on the phone, but since you aren't due back til Monday, I'll write what I wanted to say.

I want to add this "P.S." to my last letter - Some of this I told to Dennis Naylen - In adding all ESP things together so I can put this behind me, I want to add this possibility from my dream as it is to my mental programming in hoping to get info on the Adam Walsh case.

Now, I only know two people named "Ralph" - The dude next door that I grew up beside, and my "uncle Ralph" (a lovely man) - Now, Jim, what the word uncle means to me, combined with wrestling, is a man I met about 10 years ago. He was raped by his uncle - His name was Tony PABA ZOLO, and he was a young man, who was a SALES (SAIL?) MAN - This man was nice enough, but his rape experience, I felt, had turned him into a sub-conscious "Hustler" of women - (Remember I told you of my dream of 3 guys, who looked like wrestlers, being in a big rush (to rush is to "hustle"). The man I saw in the dream is not Tony Palanzola (he's younger, & handsome) - but it could be my mind's way of telling me that Adam was raped by someone called "Uncle So-+so", or, perhaps, a great uncle (I hope not!) The man I saw in the dream would be too old to be a young child's uncle - It could be, but I don't think so, that a man named 'P.A.L.A.Z.O.L.O' is the killer - There are two in your city! — I never thought there would be any, because it is a strange name — Could be it is a common Italian name, I don't know — (This would be a rare happening in ESP, but it could happen, I guess.) I'd lie right down and die if I caused any innocent person one moment's sorrow or anxiety, Jim, but do you guess any of those people of the same name look like the older dude I saw in the dream? I, personally, think it is just my mind's hint it could be "Uncle 50- + 50" — It is not uncommon for a child to call close family friends "Uncle" — I had several "Uncles" who were no kin to me, when I was growing up —

All of this would be so easy to pull from my mind in hypnosis, but no qualified person here will work with me, because they know that Dr. Paul J. Winkler, the one I told you the Justice Dept. is looking for, hates me, and they are all afraid to work with me, for fear that what happened to two other doctors here could happen to them, namely, that they would end up dead! I can't blame them for being afraid!

So I have to depend on my mind cluing me in in dreams, & then translate them —

Hope this helps, Jim —

Have a successful & happy '82 —

Best regards,

Tracy Green

Jim,
What a person isn't familiar with often sounds familiar, for example, if I knew nothing creative work, and you when trying me spoke to me of "procedures", or "ice", it could sound like nonsense to each of us know different things — and field of Clairvoyance there are so few able persons, and so many kooks that ably hard — show you that my mind finally came forth the name I had clues to for months, or to the exact conditions that one gives I'll relate it now to you.

night, exactly as I was ready to awake, one man ask another "What name would to the man that killed Adam Walsh?"
er man said, "GARNER". (This is my mind having me remember info, giving me the seconds before I awake.) There it was!
name that my subconscious had been in for so long. (I resisted the name because greatly one RALPH GARNER, a man who said to look into my windows (transparent material into" in the dreams I discussed with you.)
Ralph Garner person lived right next door to me.
next door to him. He used to hide behind the door and try to "make out" with girls neighborhood, when he was young. 353

Once he threw a rock + split my forehead open. His father whipped him so severely that "he had a fit," (remember my dream reference to "he has fits") jumping up and down, + yelling.

I did not associate with Ralph Garner after that, until years later, "he fell down" and broke a bone in his leg, + I took him a piece of birthday cake.

My senior prom dance was held in the school "gymnasium" and Ralph Garner was to take me there. He took me in his car, and made advances toward me, which I wouldn't tolerate. He dropped his "faint" "fellow-well-met" pose (the pose he "hid" behind), and was mean, and ugly with me. When we arrived at the prom, I asked a friend to drive me home. I never spoke to Ralph Garner from that day to this.

As I dreamed these dreams after programming my mind to please give me the name of the man who killed Adam Walsh, I know that these dreams relate to The Adam Walsh case. Now, the name given was the last name. I knew the first name, by the "Clues". So, as I told the woman there who takes your messages when you're out, the murderer of Adam Walsh is either a man named "GARNER" - or a man whose first name is "Ralph" - either that, or my mind is telling me that Adam Walsh had a next-door neighbor, who hid behind a friendly pose, and who got him in his car, and treated him terribly, + in a mean way. (No doubt raping him, and then murdering him.)

The body of the headless male wrapped in plastic shower curtain, represented a knowledge given to me that the young woman who was murdered here in a motel shower, died after sexual intercourse, by having her throat cut by her assailant.

My mind showing me how Adam Walsh died. (The killer cut the victim's throat, in this case here, using a broken bottle. Adam's murderer may have used a knife. What an awful death!)

The three men I saw in a dream with the shower curtain wrapped around them to "Keep them dry in their cleaning," could mean, as I said, the killer is, or was, in the dry cleaning business, or could be a doctor, or could be an insurance man (protecting one from water).

The older man that I saw in the dream, whom I believe is Adam Walsh's murderer, may wear a usual style hat for men, parked on the back of his head. I recall he wore one when I saw him the ESP picture. He wore expensive clothes, but NO TIE. He is heavy, and has flesh around the neck that forms rings about 1/2 wide under his jaw + chin, when his head is only slightly lowered. I'd say from the "smile" that he is a person who is foker-faced, even when he's being "friendly" and playing the part of good old "Jimnie," or "Johnnie," or "Ralph." He is well known, and well thought of! He is over 55. Comes from a good neighborhood.

It occurred to me that if he is, or was, an insurance man, he arranged it where part of the body would be found, making the insurance company pay off - (most insurance men hate the companies they work for.)

I think it is possible that the murderer kept & buried the rest of the body. This man is "insane", & insane people often bury the bodies on their own home property, as you know.

I can tell you as an astrologer of 20 years, that (now) the information coming into this case has an 82% chance of coming to a fruitful conclusion. I have looked at a lawyer's chart, and by looking at the star pattern of the deceased person involved in claim cases, hit with 82% accuracy whether, or not, the case would be won! (No star pattern is over 82% accurate in any one planetary motion of a planet) As I tell you, most of astrology is nonsense, but a small part of it is very helpful.

Yesterday & today, all planets were in a degree relative to the date of Adam Walsh's kidnapping.
It will be a long time before that happens again - So, I encourage you to see to it, as I know you will, that the info I put in is looked into very carefully!

I'm not interested in publicity, or money -
I'm interested in justice, just as you all are.
This winds it up for me, Jim, as I can "feel" when I've "hit it" in a case. Salutation. Die the end do.
Thanks for your help, & patience. Happy New year, and good luck on this, & everything else!

ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THIS YOU CAN SEE ANOTHER COMPARISON OF MY PRINTING, SO THEN COULD OUR OPponents (i.e., those who betrayed their oath - Constitution)
YOU SAID, THINK OF THE COUNTRY, I'VE DONE THAT FOR YEARS. (THAT'S WHY YOU NEVER HEARD OF ME)
THEY DO NOT THINK OF THEIR COUNTRY, THEY THINK ONLY OF THEIRSELVES.

THEIR MAKE UP IS THAT THEY CAN'T STAND FOR HOW THEY WERE BEATEN & BY ONE MAN, WITH THE AID OF HEAVENLY HOSTS, THEY WILL NOT QUIT, I HAVE NUMEROUS TIMES.

I DON'T WANT YOU TO GIVE ME CREDIT FOR HAVING A LOT OF BRAINS, JUST DON'T THINK THAT I'M COMPLETELY - STUPID ENOUGH TO HAVE WRITTEN AN ANONYMOUS LETTER TO A NAME ONE AND NOT DISGUISED IT IN SOME MANNER OR CUT OUT NEWS PAPER WORDS.

I LEARNED HOW TO PRINT IN RADIO SCHOOL IN THE SERVICE 1946 EARNED. (I think not Hoffman, believe I don't think to E.R.
I believed the coroners report on Rockefeller. <sup>was wrong</sup>)

"Eli's Presley too." Why is it then that
ABC TELEVISION IS TRYING SO HARD TO DISCREDIT PARSLEY'S AUTOPSY OF HIM HAVING A HEART ATTACK?

Remember when A.B.C. got the news (first) before the other networks & Barbara Walters, was the - darling of the Nixon - Ford White House?

Meanwhile: It was a mob-hit on Adam Walsh.

I have the personal assurance of a most respected

October 7, 1981

Mr. President
once again we are reminded of cruelty against you, perhaps more than most Americans.
Let me remind you Mr. President, as chief guiding officer of our country, you can do little to stop foreign assassins from doing their black deeds.
If you can do a great deal to stop them, note here. (I tried and failed.)
I hope both you and Nancy watched Mr. & Mrs. John Walsh, of Hollywood, Florida, on television
if you should, as one father to another, realize how I feel.
When they saved this small child, only to deliver his body to me here in Vero Beach, Fla.
Let me tell you the date that my young lady's head was crushed.
I called Mr. President August 10th.
I was in my act, a 35-year old woman throat was cut so deep, she too was almost decapitated.

You may call them assassinations, inventions. I call them cowardly senseless murders, & direct warnings to myself.

It's funny how hollow your words seem, when you speak of oaths, & live, & dedicated my life for that oath I took at 17-years of age, "and to protect it against all enemies, both foreign and domestic." But these latest two murders of a young boy & woman should bring you to your duty to stop fighting, & end these inhuman wasteful of life. But even as I write this, I know that you will not act, because you are an actor, I, a performer.

"a six year old male-child Mr. President..." Think about that, the rest of your life, & know these people are in your ranks, not mine. Think about August 10th 1926, and a bomb detonation in Fort Pierce, Fla. that James Mc. Anderson detonated that was supposed to make a ruler of me, but for a fixed incident the F. B. I. He was a doctor, former neighbor of 630 Curtis Wood Dr. My Decoye F. I.

3367

But that's alright Mr. President, all the murders as well, up until Treburn of 1977. Even though those elements within the bureau fingered
Bob Gagne, Big Young, + wife + Vice President Rockefeller later on, plus many more because of this swan song. Quoting:

This is the composite that appeared in our newspaper which prompted the call from a visitor from your area.

We have no name on this subject yet, however two possibilities are:

- 1. Michael Gene Nixon 12/25/58 270-66-2869
- 2. Todd Vincent Hoskinson 1/22/61 276-68-6253

Both of these individuals are local people and we don't know if they have been in Florida.

The homicide that we are investigating relative to this composite happened at approximately 12:20 A.M., 8/30/81 in a parking lot of a bar/restaurant. The victim was stabbed 4 times in the chest with a kitchen knife with an 8" blade. Robbery is apparent motive and the knife was recovered.

If we can be of any assistance to you in the future, please call.

The Monday that little Adam Walsh was reported missing, at the time I did not know until Tuesday morning while listening to the news.

You let me explain what happened
Monday night between the hours of 7 to 7<sup>30</sup> nearer to 7<sup>30</sup>. I was sitting on one of those marble steps having a smoke, while waiting for a friend of mine who went to Woolworths to shop. A boy who I will describe to you, was wearing a red baseball hat which was to large for his head that the hat was hanging on to his ears, he also had a red shirt, white socks and blue shoes. You couldn't help seeing him because it was odd to see a boy in a red baseball shirt, but I am trying to see you couldn't help but notice him.

3375

He was sort of trotting, he stopped short looked around as if he was looking for someone, saw this man, ran to him and held his hand. I remarked to this man and told him he had a cute son, He paid some attention to what I said kept walking north in the parade, towards the direction of possible, then let me describe this man. He was 6 or 7 in tall, had a Cowboy hat & Boots a pale complexion and if this man had a Cowboy hat, I could almost say that this is the man who was walking with this boy. He also was wearing a sort of light tan + white stripe shirt, which looked more tan than white and looked as if he weighed about 210 to 220 lbs. This boy did not go to a stranger, He went to someone he knew 3376

Mall attack a lead In Adam's death?

HOLLYWOOD — Police are looking into a report that a man tried to abduct a young boy from a Palm Beach mall just two weeks before Adam Walsh disappeared in the same manner.

Hollywood police spokesman Sgt. Barbetta said an unidentified Palm Beach County woman came forward Wednesday to say she was in the toy department of a Sears store in mid-July when a white man grabbed a boy.

"It's a helluva coincidence," Barbetta said Thursday. "It is another lead, another road we can take. We hope it will develop into something."

Hollywood Detective Jack Hoffman was also optimistic.

"Due to the similarities of the incidents, I'd put a lot of faith into the possibility that the two could be related," Hoffman said.

"The man supposedly grabbed the child, who immediately started screaming and kicking," Hoffman said. "The child then broke free. He ran, and the man went after him again, but the kid got into a crowd of people, causing a commotion. The man fled the scene."

The artist in Miami drew a police sketch of the man after talking with the woman and her 11-year-old son, who also was a witness. The sketch was released last Thursday. Barbetta said the drawing would be distributed statewide.

Police refused to call him a suspect in the gaily abduction-cloping of Adam, but said the similarities in the cases lead them to believe there may be a connection.

The Palm Beach attack came about two weeks before 5-year-old Adam vanished July 27 from the toy department of a Sears store at the Hollywood Mall, about 40 miles south of Palm Beach. Adam's head was found in a manhole about 10 miles along Florida's Turnpike east of West Beach.

Orange County Medical Ex-

Police sketch of attacker ... woman says he grabbed boy.

aminer Dr. Ronald Wright said the youngster had been decapitated "by the hand of a human. There is no doubt it was a homicide."

Like the Walsh child, the Palm Beach woman's son was playing in the toy section when he was attacked.

Barbetta said the similarities are "quite interesting, but we don't want to make too much of it yet. We just don't know where it will lead."

He said investigators also are rechecking a tip that a blue van, driven by a tall, white man with dark curly hair, was seen speeding away from the Sears parking lot about the time Adam disappeared.

"Nobody saw Adam in the van, but it is curious that this van was speeding away. He almost ran a couple of people over."

There have been no similar reports of a speeding blue van in the Palm Beach episode, but Barbetta said "that is something we want to check."

Hollywood police Lt. Richard Hynds says he believes the killer is a psychopath who could strike again.

"No one else could have done it," Hynds said. "If we were dealing with a criminal, like a kidnapper who wanted a ransom or someone with a criminal mind, and he wanted to get rid of the boy because there was too much attention because of the police and the media, he might have killed him ... shot him or something."

"But he wouldn't mutilate him. So we're dealing with a psychopath."

Adam's parents, Bahamas motel executive John Walsh and his wife, Revo, warned other parents to watch their children closely.

"People, hold onto your children," Walsh said. "They're the resources of this country. Adam was a guarded child, a sheltered child. If this could happen to Adam, it could happen again."

The Walshes, saying "it's too late for Adam but it's not too late for other children," have called for a national computer system to aid in the search for missing children.

An anonymous donor has offered $100,000 as a reward for the capture and conviction of the person who killed the Walsh youth. That increased to $200,000 the amount of money offered in the case.

Most of the $120,000 that had already been set aside for a reward will be given to nationwide search groups involved in finding missing youngsters, said the boy's parents.

Walsh declined Thursday to identify the person who offered the $100,000 reward. But he told The Miami News that he knew the person to be reliable.

The Adam Walsh Memorial Fund also will be used for lobbying on the missing-children issue, said Walsh, vice president of the new Paradise Grand Hotel in the Bahamas.

He also said part of the money would go to groups like Child-Find in New York City, which he said tries to help find some of the 100,000 children who disappear each year.

Adam mourned; probe goes on

1,000 attend funeral for murdered youth

2 sketches released in search for killer

By Rami Bredek
 Staff Writer

With a life-size color photograph of their 6-year-old son Adam in front of them, and the child's ravaged remains in a small white coffin to their left, Jon and Revie Walsh listened to a sermon meant to ease their suffering with assurances that good eventually triumphs over evil.

"Evil will be overcome by good somehow," the Rev. Michel Conboy told the 1,000 mourners who gathered at St. Maurice Catholic Church in Hollywood at 10 a.m. Saturday for the funeral of the boy who was kidnapped and murdered.

"We are here that has happened to such a sweet, innocent, loving little boy," said Conboy. "But he's now with God."

In sharp contrast with the gruesome facts of a murder in which only the victim's head has been found, Conboy and young Adam had been "tormented and gently ... nurtured into the presence of the Lord."

Throughout the Mass, Walsh, who had publicly maintained a composed demeanor in the two weeks between the kidnapping and the discovery of Adam's remains, frequently let his forehead and dabbed at his eyes with a handkerchief.

Mrs. Walsh, who had been silent, with sorrowful face and pained, haunted eyes during public pleas for the safe return of Adam, looked calm and composed during the service. She smiled, somewhat guardedly, as she greeted friends and relatives.

Toward the end of the funeral, Walsh drove his wife's head to his breast, clutched it there, then held it to his lips.

They embraced each other, then French. Then, Mrs. Walsh walked up to the photograph in front of her and kissed the smiling, gap-toothed image of her only son.

There were no emotional outbursts during the service; the hushed atmosphere was pierced only occasionally by a sob or the wailing of a child. It had been 20 days since Adam disappeared from (near) Hollywood Mall on July 27, and five days since his head was discovered by fishermen in a canal along Florida's Turquoise near Fort Pierce.

Friends of the Walsh's hope said they want to pour their energy into developing a national network for finding missing children.

"We'll keep plugging it for Adam, to do something for other kids," said a family friend.

Adam's description

Child's description

By Don Christensen of Jim Matthews

Hollywood police Saturday released two new composite sketches of a man they believe is a prime suspect and their only lead in the murder of Adam Walsh.

The sketches were compiled from information furnished by hypnosis from a 16-year-old boy and adult in his vicinity, both of whom saw the suspect in the parking lot outside the Sears in the Hollywood Mall on July 27, the Adam disappeared.

The adult witness talked with police Friday and was hypnotized Saturday by Dr. Martin Segal of Miami. His description of the suspect corroborated that of the child who was hypnotized Friday, except for a shorter haircut and four mustaches, according to police.

Both witnesses described a white man with an olive-like complexion of from 25 to 35 years of age with feet 10 inches to 6 feet tall and weight of 170 pounds. They describe him as wearing a multi-colored, long-sleeved shirt and a multi-colored sweater.

According to police, a younger witness saw the suspect in the parking lot at the time Adam Walsh was a witness. He told police the suspect was also wearing blue jeans.

read less. He also described a male passenger in the van as being about 34 years old with brown hair.

The van has been described by both witnesses as a late model Ford that is midnight blue with a black front bumper, a chrome ladder on the left rear, tinted windows, ribbed mag wheels, two antennae, black mirror with black mounting wheel and black high-back seats, chrome running boards, a rectangular window on a passenger-side sliding door and a Florida license plate.

Hollywood police said the description provided by the second, adult witness, strongly supported that of the 16-year-old boy.

"We saw the same van near the same area of Sears and he also, under hypnosis, provided the same basic description of the vehicle," said Det. Jim Gibbons. "Now we have two people at the same time on the same day and they're both saying the same thing. We feel very strongly this is our suspect."

Police said they have now completed the search to apprehending the suspect depicted in the composite. Gibbons said that Saturday they eliminated a report that Adam had been seen in a van on page 25, column 1.

Man found shot to death in city park after accepting ride June 19

Police detectives have been hunting for the slaying of a man who was shot to death in a city park after accepting a ride from a woman who was found dead in a trunk.

The man was found shot to death in a city park after accepting a ride from a woman who was found dead in a trunk.

The man was found shot to death in a city park after accepting a ride from a woman who was found dead in a trunk.

Police investigator Dave Smith said police are looking for a man who passed up Reed in an old truck at Pine Street and South Orange Avenue Tuesday night, June 19, at 11 p.m.

"Reed was wearing a dress and high heels," Smith said Monday. "He was dressed up like a female when the suspect picked him up." The investigator said Reed may have been going to a prostitute who he was picked up, and may have been killed by a man who believes looks like the suspect.

The suspect is described as a white male, 34 to 38 years old, with curly medium-length, dark brown hair. Witnesses said the suspect was clean-shaven and driving an older model, orange or red pickup truck, possibly with a wooden truck bed.

The truck was last seen driving north on the Trail, with Reed and the suspect in it.

Residents who live across from the park in the 100 block of East Hazel Street told police they heard shots about 11:00 p.m., but nobody called police. The Orange County medical examiner determined the body had been there between six and eight hours, leading police to believe Reed was killed by the shots heard by residents.

Smith asked anyone with information to call Orlando police.

Smith thought Reed was a woman. Reed, 27, head of OBI EBI's Alley, Orlando. His body was found about 6:30 a.m. by a newspaper deliveryman. Smith said police are "really stumped" and released a police artist's composite drawing they

11:30 AM 549-7337
9/16/86 Spoke to Investigator McKendrick, Dade ME, who pulled Dr. Davis' consult file on the LaPuma case from 1982. She read the autopsy report which did not indicate any trauma from knife or other sharp-bladed instruments. Detectives involved are : Kirby Owen, Jeff Chance & Sgt. Thomas Warwick, all Monroe S.O. Philip Carlton was defense, and Wayne Miller was ASA on the case, according to the file. Probable COD: Anoxia by drowning/asphyxia.

I will follow up with Monroe SO.

DPH

2:40 PM Monroe SO: Plantation Key, 305/852-3211

Called for detectives above. Dispatcher states that Owen has left the department and is now SAO investigator 852-9245.

Owen states that Jack Hoffman has already called reference the case file. He advises that he requested the file several days ago, but that the reports have been microfilmed, and must be retrieved from archives. Advised Owen we were concerned re: the machete. He has no knowledge about the article, since it didn't play a role in the death that he handled. He does recall two Hollywood detectives coming down to see him, however, and that the deaths appeared to be unrelated.

He advised that he would call when the file was obtained from records.

DPH

2:45 PM

Called Hoffman, and advised that the file has not been received. Also told him that I would call FBI Homestead, inasmuch as that is the office that Owen obtained his flight warrant on LaPuma from. Remembered two agents: Carl Lowery & Bill Scarborough (retired). Phone 248-8677.

DPH

3:50 PM.

Finally got through to FBI Homestead. Lowery is out of office. Spoke to Agent Jack Beckster (phonetic), who requested case #'s from the dispatches. He will attempt to determine the disposition of the evidence and will call when information is available.

Case # 81-1187

9/17/86 11 AM

Received a call from Agent Jack Heckster, FBI Homestead. He advised that Charlotte FBI has been contacted about the machete. Their records indicate that the machete was returned to the Charlotte office by FBI Lab, and was subsequently released to Deputy Angle (phonetic) of the Buckham County, North Carolina Sheriff's Department. Angle is still with the agency, but is lecturing today. Agents will locate and request information on the whereabouts of the article. Heckster advises that Angel did testify in the LaPuma case in Monroe County, and may have brought the machete with him. Hopefully, Monroe S.O. or the court file will indicate the disposition of the weapon. A Charlotte agent recalls that the machete appeared to be brand new, and that area stores were checked. Results unknown, at this time. FBI Charlotte will call Heckster in the morning, and he will advise further.

DPH

9/17/86 4:55 PM

Received a call from Jack Heckster, FBI-Homestead. He advised that agents had located Deputy Ken INGLE, of Buckham County S.O. He stated that the machete was returned to the Asheville FBI office, then released to him. He recalls transporting all the evidence they had in their possession to Florida, but does not know if it was introduced at the trial. Probably not, inasmuch as the machete did not figure in the death of the Monroe County boy. Also seems to recall that they had found a receipt for the machete, and that the knife was in new condition. No information as to where the machete was bought. He also recalled a green cloth scabbard. All evidence was left in Monroe County.

Ingle works afternoons (3:00PM+), and the dept. phone # is 704/255-5441.

It appears, at this time, that the Monroe County case file will be the only means of determining what happened to the knife.

 safety who apparently had quite an impact on the children because when my

I thought if a policeman

 just such an impact, so I have spoken to my son's

November 15, 1981

Dear Mr & Mrs Walsh,

I don't know if this will reach you or, not but I knew of no other way to contact you.

I am a concerned mother of two boys, ages six and three, who saw you on the Phil Donahue program and I was very moved to do something about the safety of my children and others and, with regard to the Missing Children Act, do something about the plight of those parents grieving and wondering about their missing children.

I am aware that safety should be initially taught at home but recently my that topic.

I also called the office of my representative, who is Daniel Mica, and requested a copy of Bill # 3781, which I have received.

From listening to you and the other parents on Mr. Donahue's program I'm led to believe that if this bill can be passed, many grieving parents can be at least aware of the fate of their unfortunate children rather than speak their lives not knowing.

I thought if perhaps enough concerned people would sign a petition and those petitions then be sent to their representatives, maybe this bill could be passed.

I am willing, as I'm sure other people are also, to be at a local shopping mall with just such a petition to get signatures.

I am writing to you because you seem to be on top of the matter and most aware of what needs to be done.

If you think my suggestion might work, please contact me and I'll be glad to help in any way I can.

I deeply sympathize with you both for the loss of your son and hope that the person responsible will be found.

Very sincerely,

Dear Sir,

3406

I am writing this because I am concerned about something that happened a few weeks ago. I had dropped my son at the Sears store in Hollywood where he was going to purchase a birthday gift for his father. Several hours later he made his way home. He seemed very upset & when I asked what was wrong he got quite flustered & refused to tell me. I was still Belgian so I kept on it. Finally, mother's intuition paid off. He turned out that while my boy was in Sears another young man in his 20's approached him & invited him to his house to play some "Atari" some kind of T.V. game. When they got to the boys house he attempted to sexually molest my son. We are from a very quiet & kind of small town & this kind of thing just didn't happen. I would readily say my son was terrified & embarrassed. He didn't know how to tell me at the time because he had been so frightened. I still get such a horrible feeling now while writing this. The way my son said that the other boy practically stripped his shirt off in his struggle to get away of there. Which he did finally tell me & I made him show me the house he had been in. It has no number on that particular building but the address next door to it is (332 SW 2nd Ave Dania) my son told me the car that the fellow had given him the ride on was a small green station wagon & the day in question it was in the drive way with a small white car. In front of it I wrote the # of the green car down & hope it can be of some help PNM 593. Our vacation will end in 2 more days I'm glad my son finally told me about what happened. but since then we will both be here & I could not come by & report this person. My husband has a terrible temper & if he found out he would go over there & tear the kids head off. as you can see this would create more of a problem. Also, we have been here every year this is a place to come to relieve tensions if we were to have embarrassing publicly. Our relatives that we stay here with would probably not attend the invitation as they have always done - they are old & very quiet people - I do hope you can understand why we are not making a formal complaint. P.S. My son did describe the other boy to me but I had neglected to put it in before. He said his name was Terry, he was slender, mid 20's, dark hair, about 5'5-5'8

This was all he could remember. I tried to put myself into his old mind by thinking back when I was that young & it seems to me that I can't even remember what I looked like at 12. You not sure that the description is all that accurate but it's all I have,

Thank you very much for taking the time to read this.
Hopefully we have been helpful.

A Worried Mother -

Dear Charlie

You did a wonderful job reporting the Walsh case but in no way do I agree with you or feel sorry for that slut Mrs. Walsh. She should be driven out of town. I feel for the child, he was murdered by his mother's thoughtlessness. She left him on the other side of the store while she looked at lamps. The child should have been at her side. Not left alone. She deserves all the Hell she is going thru and a lot more.

The blame should not be put on the Mall, Sears, other children, security police or the F.B.I. The blame falls on the mother for leaving the child ALONE.

The article you have, "Walshes determined to help their children:" Well the only way she can help other children is by not being able to have another child or have contact with others and be charged with the Crime.

I would not let a dog unattended, no less a child. Charlie, give this letter a little thought, and if you don't agree with some of my views, I hope you never have to go thru the same with your child and you deserve a wife like Mrs. Walsh.

A friend of yours since you in regards to Walsh case -----

One William ~~W~~ Issacs---convicted felon on 5 year probation lived Sterling Road Hollywood at time of child's story .
Divorced wife lives Longwood Village, Fla .
J.F. Issacs was driving blue van at that time.
Issacs then left state about time of child supposedly heading for Texas ,but actually comes from Philadelphia.

Blue van at time owned by one John Forti ,one of Longwood Village contractors. which is a front. this man is into heavy heavy narcotics traffic.also is convicted felon.

his divorcing estranged wife lives in Sunrise,he lives somewhere in Longwood V. or Davie.

Both these men are animals and capable of anything.

J.F. is very shrewd ,his eyes always on rear view mirror when driving.

Gentlemen: —

I want to give you possible help in catching the murderer of a little boy in Vero Beach. Though I do not have first hand information, the source that told me is authoritative enough that I feel I must speak out in case some other child's life is in danger.

I was told that there is a young man whose name is Toby. I don't know the last name. He attends from time to time the group called Acceptance that meets at a local church. It is a homosexual group learning to live with society and themselves. They used to meet at the Episcopal church in WFB.

This Toby I was told likes molesting young boys. He drives a blue van or at least did, likely he had it painted, and curiously, he was away so I was told for three days right at the time the lad was killed. He told my source that he was "north" for those days. My source is confident that this Toby may well have killed this child. The killer had a blue van.

I don't know Toby ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ last name or address but I understand that he lives in a three or four story building on the side street that Saint Edwards rectory is on in PB. He, I understand lives on the top floor.

I pray to God that I am wrong, but if I am right I hope to God also that he hasn't killed others.

I hope his note helps.

A citizen.

*Oval letter
the year*

Aug 12, 1981

Dear Sirs:

Heard about death of A. Walsh. Hope you catch person(s?) responsible Believe boy's story about abduction in blue van possible.

Therefore following re a blue van. Please at least read as brief.
On Sat. Aug 1st at about 6:35PM I turned west from Ravenswood Rd onto Hi #84. From Ravenswood Rd intersection until I turned off
#84 a little past Davie Rd a Blue van was near me.

Van: Dark Blue Dodge - Dark tinted windows; Special wheels perhaps Mag - year late 70's or 1980 as good condition but no ladder in back but had built-in spare tire on one rear door - main point is two tall white male occupants one appeared about 200 lbs. Couldn't see occupants as dark windows but appeared rough type. -- License plate (all I can remember): Florida T-S 288. Not sure of middle letter now as first choice would say TWS: 2nd choice TMS but not definite.

I turned off shortly after Davie Rd about 7PM and van continued west on 84.
Also van had small round dome on top, probable air conditioning. Windows were closed.
Cannot remember any more.
Do not want to give name as if right one,
possible retaliation.

Sincerely
a citizen

(To Whom it may concern) JUN 21 1982

I just read for second time in Official Detective of this person's horrible deed. The sketch is of a person I've known. The description is same too. He is I believe 5'10" tall but he is about 31 or 32 years old now. He had a habit of brushing his hair over toward right side of head so his hair would fall down on forehead Exactly like sketch. He has green eyes, very green, + black hair + wears a wig in a driveway, just like sketch. The only difference is sketch is just a little longer than his face otherwise it is exactly like him. He is a bisexual but stronger toward men. He is also known to be sadistic. He hides the fact he is bi-sexual + I heard he married.

<sup>2</sup>
The only thing I least I heard he lived in Corpus Christi, Texas it's been several years now since I heard the (405) I think I at that time he had a job at store named Kaggo + Albertson's in Corpus + he worked on air conditioners (I think) there as he trained in this line of work. As a youngster he worked on pleasure boat (he claimed) in Corpus also he is a ace in firework. It seems far-fetched to think this could be him since distance is so far but it is possibly like his picture! All but the face which I folded close exactly like his face.

387

His name is:

ROBERT George FENTON

he has or had a drivers licence in Texas + if you send + get his picture at Austin you'll see what I mean about how its exactly like him!

Please dont even tell him a little come from Texas or he will guess maybe who it is
+ this is all I know as no need to sign this.

He was in air force in 1970-72

still he said
you instruct
I don't know make sure its right.

He also wears contacts; or glasses
on other than in writing

3880 the picture is from the same place

I guess a lot of people look like but this is just like his picture. He liked to torment small animals too so maybe a Doctor in the field could say if a good possibility its him or not. I don't know any current info on him at all but figure he used to check it out knowing he worked at Skaggs & Albritton's few years ago & all

I want sign my name because I am afraid he'll start on something He's a lover & weird & don't talk much & I think his half nuts

(over)

P.S.

This letter is somewhat jumbled up but I will send as it. I wrote it as thoughts came to me.

This person also played the drums at some place at one time also.

I don't know exactly where it was.
He wouldn't even say + seemed very secretive about it (place)

Dear Jim -

Just talked with Lillian there at the Det. Bureau and left a message for who is now working the Adam Walsh case - (Jim, I know Lillian is the Secretary there - Who has a similar name, a male Detective there? Its so hard to talk on the phone to you<sup>at</sup> there -) At any rate, I want to say this to you, as you handled the case, & I like to inform you of what I "mentally" pick up. I know this is trying, & takes a lot of patience, but trying to explain EST impressions on the phone would be like you trying to explain a complex police procedure to someone who knew only that police were people, if you get what I'm driving at. Please bear with me.

Adam Walsh's case keeps sticking to my mind like glue! Let me make this final contribution to what my mind is showing me, and then maybe I can forget the case. And read some novels, or paint some pictures.

There is one more name that my answers to my programming my mind in Adam's case for the name of his killer. This will take a while to show you, but I think Adam's killer may be called "Kemp" (I think this is his last name.) - Another reading could be "Hyde" or "Hide". It may be "Jekyll" - If you will bear with me, I'll explain! Of course, the Kemp I know is just my clue. My father in law used to swear that his son in law, a preacher, used to hide in

dinners they'd eaten (Ha! Ha!)

My very first thought on Adam's case (my first conscious thought) was that Adam had had to go to the bathroom, & that that innocent visit to the bathroom had cost him his life!!

Bear in mind, I always programed my mind for the name of Adam's killer.

The dream about my friend, Duncan, who once drove a Cushman at a college campus (Kemp, who hid from Pete, went to college forever & a day, and the whole family ~~laughed~~ <sup>went to school no to conf. out of washing</sup> at that, & thought he the nick name of Crazy Foam, and my dream about foam, & a man who had fits, could be calling to my mind the horror film, "Dr. Jeckyll and Mister Hyde" — my other hint, about the barber, and the man without a head, whom I saw wrapped in plastic, could be showing me my other favorite horror show,
"The Invisible Man" (Have you seen this old film? I saw when I was a kid?) The Invisible man would unwrap his head first, and his head would be gone (because he was "an Invisible Man") The name of the Doctor in "The Invisible Man" was Kemp — (Get it??)

All right, let us reason together, and see this thing through. A man who is hidden (hiding, in a suitcase, like Pete, my lawyer, etc; make an Invisible Man)

So, we are left with the names: Duncan, Hyde, or Jekyll, or Kemp.

The fact that I saw a man joggng leads me to think the man could have been dressed in jogging clothes. It also calls to my memory the black man, who tried to attack my daughter — he was wearing a jogging suit. This jogger could also be my "mike" way of showing me "a male (mail) runner (a postman delivering mail, perhaps, or a Cushman.)"

In "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," a doctor drinks a foamy liquid, and becomes another person (Mr. Hyde) and Mr. Hyde is the result of Dr. Jekyll's fits, as the other person takes over his normal self —

Also, in my dreaming of bathrooms, etc., I once knew a "gay" who said most queers have sex in bathrooms, an awful thought, but, as you know, true.

The only other thing about "hiding in the bathroom" that my mind could be showing me is that I've heard people who work for big places complain that their black help sneaks into the bathroom to hide from their work, & boss — Who cleaned the bathroom in the mall where Adam disappeared? Could Adam have been raped & strangled in the bathroom, & dropped into a plastic bag, & wheeled out? or some sort of cleaners' vehicles used for that?

That's all I've been thinking. I do hope I can put this behind me, and forget it.

Best regards,

P.S. I picked up, in ESP, there would be a bad plane crash two days before the last one happened! 3887

Enclosed is the clipping we talked about today over the telephone. Since I thought there were some obvious similarities between the case in British Columbia and the Adam Walsh investigation, I'm sending it along for your perusal.
I hope it proves to be of some help.

Canadian cops question man in one of 3 child slayings

VANCOUVER (Special Column) — Police investigating the slaying of three full-blooded Indian children and the disappearance of five others are questioning a man in one of the slayings. But the Mounted say there may be more than one killer, and they are questioning a man who has been made by the friends of one of the dead girls.

Police refused to release any details about the man being questioned, except to say he was about 25. He was questioned in the case of Judy Korman, 14, whose body was found in 1968, and Mary Jane, 10, at a Quiver Lake campground, 20 miles west of Vancouver.

The other children have been found dead and five others, ages 7 to 11, have disappeared in south-western British Columbia in the past few months. Police suspect the slayings could be related and about 200 investigators are working on the case.

Special Canadian Mounted Police Superintendent Bruce Harthorn, who is directing the investigation, would not confirm reports the man had been arrested on Vancouver Island.

"We're not going to release any information that would identify the suspect in any manner," he said at a Thursday news conference, adding later that "permission is given the entry of the investigation."

TEXT

ATTENTION: DETECTIVES HICKMAN AND HOFFMAN.

THE REPORTER ADVISED THAT APPROXIMATELY ONE MONTH AGO THE ABOVE SUSPECT APPROACHED HER DAUGHTERS DANIELE, A MF, 5/14/72 AND KATRINA, A MF, 7/13/68, AS THEY PLAYED IN THEIR FRONT YARD. HE ASKED THEM FOR DIRECTIONS TO A HOUSE IN THE AREA. A FEW DAYS LATER HE CAME AGAIN AND SPOKE WITH MRS DUMBLEBERGER, TELLING HER THAT IF SHE WANTED TO GET RID OF THEM FOR A FEW DAYS HE WOULD TAKE THEM TO THE MALL AND BUY NEW CLOTHES FOR THEM. HE CAME AGAIN A WEEK LATER, KNOCKING ON THE DOOR. KATRINA ANSWERED AND WHEN SHE TOLD HIM THAT HER MOTHER WAS ASLEEP HE ASKED TO BE LET IN. SHE REFUSED. WHEN MRS DUMBLEBERGER BEGAN QUESTIONING HIM ON HIS INTEREST IN HER CHILDREN, SHE WAG SEVERAL. HE STATED THAT HE ONLY WANTED TO REPAY THEM FOR THEIR KINDNESS WHEN HE ASKED FOR DIRECTIONS. HE GAVE MRS DUMBLEBERGER HIS BUSINESS CARD FROM A & M CARPET INSPECTION, WHICH LISTS HIM AS THE SOUTH FLORIDA MANAGER. THE REPORTER STATED THAT THE LAST TIME SHE SAW HIM WAS APPROXIMATELY ONE WEEK AFTER THE DISAPPEARANCE OF ADAM WALSH. SHE ADVISED THAT SHE MENTIONED THE INCIDENT TO HIM AND HE APPEARED ILL AT THE TIME AND LEFT. MRS DUMBLEBERGER AND ALL HER CHILDREN CONCLUDED THAT THE COMPOSITE DRAWING OF THE ADAM WALSH SUSPECT IS MR SHERMAN. EXCEPT THAT HIS MUSTACHE IS LONGER THAN THE PICTURE AND THAT THEY ESTIMATE THAT HIS AGE IS CLOSER TO THIRTY-TWO. NO FURTHER INFORMATION.

POLICE DEPARTMENT

SUPPLEMENTARY OFFENSE REPORT

Offense Information

Complaint No. 87-143652

Additional Details of Offense, Progress of Investigation, etc.

At approximately 6:30 p.m. on 8-14-81 I received a call from a man who wished to speak with a detective. I advised the man that the detective on duty was tied up at the time and asked if I could take a message. The man replied, "I think I know who killed that boy, the one from Hollywood." He then advised his name to be Dave Risley from Boynton Beach and that he was staying at the Driftwood Inn. When asked for a number where he could be reached he advised that he was getting ready to go back home that he has been here for a week, and that we could reach him in 2 hours at 737-5172.

Mr. Risley advised me that there is a w/m named "Kurt" approximately 25 years of age who frequents the Driftwood Inn, hanging around the pool area, and constantly walks up to young boys and starts carrying on strange conversations with them. Risley advised that Kurt talks about abduction and murder to these young children. Risley went on to say that one day Kurt walked up to a 14 year old boy by the pool and when the boy showed a picture of his girlfriend to Kurt he said to the boy, "So this is your girlfriend. Don't be surprised when you find her one day strung up, dead, and all cut up."

It should be noted at this time that Risley was describing these events as if it were a first hand account. I questioned him as to how he knew what Kurt had been doing and after hesitation he replied by saying that he spoke with Kurt on the beach the other day. Risley advised that Kurt seems to be from another planet as he is way off base. Risley also described Kurt as being a "loser" one of those guys that no one likes, saying he's the lonely type and also mentioned that he thought Kurt was a faggot and then repeated that he was a "real loser". Risley kept stressing that Kurt is obsessed with abduction and murder and wanted us to have this information because he didn't want this to happen again if he could help it.

This form is used by Officer assigned to a case to report progress after three and seven days and weekly thereafter, also to report significant developments.

I thanked him for the information and told him I'd make sure the detective would be notified and started to hang up the phone when I heard him say, "By the way... what's your name?" I thought it strange, but replied "Dennie". He kept repeating my name and said "okay Dennie". At that time I hung up the phone and spoke with Prl. Jesse Allen about the matter.

Gentlemen:

I want to give you possible help in catching the murderer of a little boy in Vero Beach. Though I do not have first hand information, the source that told me is authoritative enough that I feel I must speak out in case some other child's life is in danger.

I was told that there is a young man whose name is Toby. I don't know the last name. He attends from time to time the group called Acceptance that meets at a local church. It is a homosexual group learning to live with society and themselves. They used to meet at the Episcopal church in WPB.

This Toby I was told likes molesting young boys. He drives a blue van or at least did, likely he had it painted, and curiously, he was away so I was told for three days right at the time the lad was killed. He told my source that he was "north" for those days. My source is confident that this Toby may well have killed this child. The killer had a blue van.

I don't know Toby ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ last name or address but I understand that he lives in a three or four story building on the side street that Saint Edwards rectory is on in PB. He, I understand lives on the top floor.

I pray to God that I am wrong, but if I am right I hope to God also that he hasn't killed others.

I hope his note helps.

A citizen.

Thursday September 24, 1981 @ 10:00 AM:

Sgt. Croft and I arrived at Mr. Hanna's residence and obtained the following information. He advised that he had met the subject known as Toby approximately ten months ago at a group meeting. Mr. Hanna stated he had heard of the group known as Acceptance but he was not a member. Mr. Hanna advised a subject known as Charles Beck belongs to Acceptance and may have additional information. Beck is employed as a butler by some family in Palm Beach.

Mr. Hanna stated that the name Toby is a pen name and the subject using that name is a poet. Hanna does not know the subject's real name. Hanna stated that Toby lives in Palm Beach, address unknown and supposedly drives a older white van, year and make unknown.

Mr. Hanna stated that Toby generally makes all the meetings generally being held by the Live and Let Live Organization and he is expected to attend tonight's meeting.

Hanna will attempt to obtain additional information pertinent to Toby and he will contact me.

Friday, September 25, 1981 at 9:10 AM:

I received a phone call from Hanna requesting I meet with him at the park at U.S.1 and Park Avenue in Lake Park,

9:40 AM:

I arrived at the above-mentioned park and I met with Hanna who related the following information. After Sgt. Croft and I left him yesterday, he gave a lot of thought as to why we were interested in Toby and he went to church this morning to seek God's guidance as to what he should do. Mr. Hanna asked me if we were looking for Toby because of the incident that happened several months ago where the little boy was kidnapped and then they located his head somewhere north of here. I advised Hanna we received information that Toby might be involved in that offense and we are investigating that possibility.

Mr. Hanna advised that he recalls seeing the photograph of the suspect on television and it closely resembled Toby. It should be noted at this time the photograph Mr. Hanna referred to probably the composite likeness that Hollywood Police Department broadcast. Mr. Hanna advised several days after seeing the photograph he had coffee with Toby and mentioned the photograph to him and advised him that if he had anything to do with it, he should contact the police department. Mr. Hanna stated that Toby said, "That's not me", and would not discuss the matter any further.

Mr. Hanna stated he was wrong when he stated Toby had a white van and he stated it is a blue van and he believes it has windows on the rear doors. Hanna advised the tag on Toby's van is POET and he has had the tag for the past four or five months.

Hanna described Toby as 5'7", to 5'8", 170-175 lbs. light complexion, curly blonde hair, small mustache, smooth complexion, 25-30 years of age, speaks with a New England accent and dresses in ivy league style.

Toby is self-employed and sells threads. Hanna is unsure if Toby sells material, clothes or anything similar.

Mr. Hanna has not seen Toby for two weeks and believes he is presently at some sort of retreat at an unknown location. Hanna further stated he believes that Toby at one time had a business in Massachusetts under the name of TOBY T.

Mr. Hanna was unable to supply the correct name of Toby and advised he lives in Palm Beach in a three story house location is unknown. Hanna is going to attempt to obtain additional information pertinent to Toby and then will contact me.

Mr. Hanna advised the reason he is supplying information on Toby is that if he is involved in this offense he should receive some sort of medical help and if he is not involved he should have all suspicion erased.

12:10 PM:

A record's check on Florida tag POET shows it is registered to George Nicholas, 612 NW 12th Avenue, Miami, Florida on a 1959 four-door Rolls Royce, phone number obtained from directory assistance for Nicholas is 324-5557.

1:45 PM:

I attempted to contact Nicholas at the above-mentioned phone number and I was unable to make contact with him, message was left for Nicholas to contact me at his earliest convenience.

2:10 PM:

I phoned Miss Alice Walsh, Division of Corporation, Secretary of Commonwealth, Boston, Mass. 617-727-2850 and was advised there is no corporation known as TOBY T. Miss Walsh advised the company might not have been licensed through the State but could possibly have been licensed through a Town or City and not incorporated through the State.

2:30 PM:

A check through our electricor showed a Charles Beck employed at the Dreitzer residence at the Palm Beach Towers. I attempted to contact Mr. Beck, 655-2818 and was informed all calls were being taken at 212-752-1197.

September 28, 1981

2:50 PM:

I phoned Mr. Beck at the above New York phone number and was informed he had met subject Toby at an Acceptance Meeting and the last time he saw him was sometime in the Spring at Howard Johnsons Restaurant in West Palm Beach, Florida and Mr. Beck believes that Toby was driving an older VW van red and white in color. Beck could not supply any additional information pertinent to Toby and stated that the group Acceptance is supposed to be an anonymous group and therefore would not give any additional information.

3:40 PM:

I phoned Mr. Nichols 324-5557 and was informed that he does not know anyone named Toby and the tag Poet is still attached to his vehicle. Mr. Nicholas could not supply any additional information which would assist in this investigation.

Monday, September 28, 1981:

A phone message was received showing Mr. Hanna had phoned this department on Saturday 9-26-81 at approximately 8:30 AM advising the tag on Toby's vehicle is a green tag with white letters and is possibly a Connecticut tag.

A record's check of Connecticut tag POET shows it is registered to David M. Schwartz, 68 Binney Lane, Old Greenwich, Conn. on a 1974 Triumph Spitfire convertible.

11:00 AM:

I phoned Mr. Hanna, 844-7854 and attempted to obtain additional information pertinent to the tag Poet. Hanna stated he is sure the tag is green with white letters.

Details: On 9/23/81 at approximately 9:15am, I received a letter and envelope from Chief Terlizzese for the purpose of obtaining possible latent prints from same. I processed these items for possible latent fingerprints with chemical ninhydrin, which reacts to amino acids present in perspiration.

On 9/24/81 at approximately 9:30am, I examined two partial latent prints which had developed on the letter, and compared them with the standard inked impressions of Chief Terlizzese and his secretary, Marian Crook, the only known persons handling the letter. It is my opinion that the two partial latent prints obtained do not match the inked impressions of Chief Terlizzese or Secretary Crook. It should be noted that the two partial latent prints obtained are of questionable value, as they contain only seven to ten points of identification. (approximately) Other partial impressions did develop on the letter, however they were of no value as they do not contain any ridge detail. The envelope itself was not compared at this time, as it was handled by U.S. mail employees and possibly by other unknown persons prior to its delivery at police headquarters. It will be maintained in the event a suspect is identified, for comparison purposes at that time. Photographs of the envelope, letter, and latent fingerprints were taken by this officer.

Sex offender charged with molesting 3

WOODSBURY — An unemployed, convicted sex offender was charged for 1976 with a year sentence and a $750,000 bond Wednesday, according to state officials.

Broward County Judge Graham Stinson said Judge Thomas (L. Mike Tom) Woodbury must pay $250,000 bond for each count.

Woodbury, an unemployed kitchen helper, was charged with molesting the girls in a home recorded statement to police, Sheriff Duane Perry Pizzi testified Wednesday.

Woodbury had served three years in prison for molesting a Broward County girl in the age of 11.

Woodbury was released from prison on Oct. 10, 1976, after serving nearly all of a three-year sentence in Broward County district court.

judge on May 2, 1978, probation officer Matt MacCormick said Wednesday.

In the Broward County case, Woodbury was convicted of "attempted criminal intent—sexual battery on a female under the age of 11," according to court records and testimony.

Woodbury is a barber in the home of a family living in the Vero Lake Estates subdivision, Pizzi said.

Members of the family babysit for children, Pizzi said. All three of the girls Woodbury is accused of molesting are clients of the babysitter.

The Sheriff's Department was notified about 9 p.m. Saturday by the mother of the 3-year-old, Pizzi said. The woman's identity was not released because it is illegal to identify — either directly or indirectly — the victim of a sexual assault.

The incident involving the 3-year-old occurred Oct. 5, but did not come to light until Saturday, Pizzi said in a sworn statement. As a result of that investigation, Woodbury was charged with a "lewd, lascivious and indecent act upon a child," which included exposing himself and touching the child, Pizzi said.

During the investigation, Pizzi said, detectives learned that two other children also might have been victims. An interview with the other children and their parents resulted in Woodbury being charged with "sexual battery" on the nine-year-old and with a "lewd, lascivious and indecent act upon a child" on the six-year-old.

While on his way to get arrest warrants signed by Stinson, Pizzi found and arrested Woodbury at the Florida State Probation and Parole office in Vero Beach.

Cathy Ann Nelson, nee Cantrell, was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent by display of credentials. She was interviewed at the parking lot of the Hollywood Memorial Hospital just after her husband, Lawrence Edward Nelson Beard, was arrested by Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). Thereafter she provided the following information:

She was married on February 4, 1981, at Oklahoma City to Lawrence Edward Nelson Beard. She met Beard four days prior to their marriage and married him at Oklahoma City. They resided in Oklahoma City at her residence for a period of time and they departed and moved to Concord, California. They resided in Concord, California, with her two children. While living in Concord, California, her husband was employed at a hospital. Her husband has a background in Medical Technician work and is a "P.A." A P.A. is a Physician's Assistant.

During their residency at Concord, California, they operated a checking account at Wells Fargo Bank. During January or February of 1982, this account began being overdrawn and was overdrawn to the amount of approximately $2,000. Due to this overdraft amount and the fact that her husband had a previous problem with law enforcement, they were forced to leave. She was not aware that her husband was in a fugitive status but was aware that he had problems with law enforcement.

They left the Concord, California, area in a Midland trailer motor home and came to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. The camper was rented from a Doctor in Midland at a cost of $250. Her husband advised her that he wrote a check for this amount and that the check was being held by the Doctor.

The credit card they used in their crossing of the United States was a Shell credit card that she and her husband had obtained from her uncle, Captain Ford. She advised this credit card had been provided to she and her husband by her uncle Ford. She had a letter giving she and her husband permission to use this card but was unable to locate this letter. At this point in the interview she advised she wished to decline any further questions because she did not want to get her husband

They remained in Concord and Jack worked at Mt. Diablo until February 21, 1982. She remembers that date because they received a notice from their bank in Concord, The Wells Fargo Bank, that their $550 rent check had bounced. They also were about to leave for Disneyland for a two day stay there. It was also at that time that she became aware that they were about $2,800 or $3,000 overdrawn on their checking account. Jack told her that the automatic teller which he used at the bank must have been malfunctioning. She said that she hardly ever wrote any checks, as Jack did not want her to. She believes that she discovered the large amount of overdrafts just after returning from Disneyland.

With regard to the kidnapping of the Tara Burke child in Compton, Mrs. Cuntrell recalled that the kidnapping occurred on a Saturday and it was the day before they left for the Disneyland trip. Jack's usual working schedule was from 11 p.m. to 7 a.m., Sunday through Thursday. He was at home then on the Friday evening before the kidnapping and also they were together on Saturday when they first heard of it. She knew the victim child and child's parents because of a Cub Scout den common relationship with an older Burke child. Also, Jack was a Cub Scout pack master and they had contact with the Burke family through this position. She advised that Jack tried to call the Burke family to see if he could be of some assistance, and also called the Cub Scout Regional Council to notify them of the kidnapping. She said that she feels certain that Jack did not have anything to do with the kidnapping itself, because of their presence together and trip to Disneyland at that time.

Following their return from Disneyland, Jack decided it was best to leave Concord and having heard of a need for surgical technicians in South Florida, so they decided to go to the Fort Lauderdale area. She believes the reason for this was also because of the overdrafts.

Jack told her that he would be able to obtain an RV (Recreational Vehicle) to travel in. He told her that an attorney (name unknown) and a Doctor Shelley had an RV business. For $250, which Jack gave a check for and which Dr. Shelley was to hold until the checking account got straightened out, Dr. Shelley was to give them an RV. Jack also told her that it was Dr. Shelley's intention to find another similar RV which was wrecked, take photos of the wreck, and then make an insurance claim on the RV he would give to Jack. In this fashion, Jack then obtained the Midland camper they traveled to Florida in and had in their possession at the time of his arrest.

She further advised that they then left Concord and proceeded directly to the Hollywood, Florida area. They sold a TV for $50 to a neighbor and left their furniture behind. Some of the furniture was to go back to the store they had bought it from on time. She also left her 1978 Malibu Chevrolet behind after Jack took the Oklahoma license tag off. She stated this car was left with Dr. Shelley.

They proceeded to the Hollywood, Florida area and were staying in the camper at the ME Thompson Campground, Krome Avenue and Alternate Route 27. Jack got a job at Hollywood Memorial Hospital, and had worked there about four weeks up to his arrest.

She further recollected how she had also typed up a "letter of recommendation" from a Dr. Richard E. Mondall, M.D., dated December 21, 1981. This was for Jack to use in getting a job, and was not done by Dr. Mondall in any fashion.

Cathy Ann Cantrell, wife of Mitchell Jack Compton, hereafter referred to as Jack, voluntarily appeared at the office in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. She wanted to clarify the position regarding her husband's fugitive status and the investigation surrounding him. She said she would be going for Oklahoma City, Oklahoma in the immediate future, probably on April 3rd or 4th, and henceforth could be reached by Phil and Paula Johnson, (405) 324-6604, her parents.

She met Jack on Friday, January 31, 1981, at a social gathering in Oklahoma City. When she first met him, he said he was an Australian paratrooper, and even spoke with an Australian accent. They were married four days later, on a Tuesday, and at that point he maintained the Australian paratrooper persona. Jack was living in a hotel in Oklahoma City at that time but she was unable to recall which one. Jack also had a car which she was led to believe was a rental from somewhere in Oklahoma.

Shortly after their marriage she became aware that he was not an Australian. She stated that about two weeks after their marriage, Jack indicated that the FBI was looking for him, and she believed he was the subject of an FBI investigation and that the FBI wanted to question him. She said that she had no idea he was an escaped prisoner.

After being married, Jack got a job as the Assistant General Director of an ambulance company in Oklahoma City. Due to a disappearance of $100 to $200 at his company, which she thought Jack did not take, they decided it was best to leave the area as they thought the FBI might locate Jack. Herself, her children by a previous marriage, and Jack decided to go to her uncle, U.S. Air Force Captain Raymond F. Ford, near Pope Air Force Base, North Carolina, where they had $1,000 cash and a Shell Oil credit card. After a short stay in Oregon where her former husband and father of her two children lives, they relocated in Concord, California. This was in April or May of 1981. Jack started working as a surgical technician at Mt. Diablo Hospital in Concord.

He stated he intended to use the motor home for transportation and then abandon the vehicle after it no longer suited his purpose.

He stated that he advised his wife that the owner had given him the motor home as it was too expensive to operate and that the owner was going to write the motor home off on an insurance policy by securing an older "beat up" motor home and having it destroyed in an accident or by fire and thereby collect the insurance.

On April 1, 1982, Lawrence N. Beard, subsequent to his arrest as an Escaped Federal Prisoner, was interviewed at the Ft. Lauderdale Resident Agency (RA) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). Beard was orally advised of his rights by Special Agent (SA) Irvin B. Bruce and further advised by SA Bruce and SA William K. Donovan that he was a suspect in numerous Forgery, Check Kiting and Auto Theft charges and further a kidnaping which occurred in Concord, California. Beard stated he understood his rights and furnished the following information:

He, prior to his arrival in South Florida, had resided and worked in Concord, California, under the name of Mitchel Jac Compton. In Concord, California, he became a Cub Scout leader and in this regard in December, 1981, met Elizabeth Burke who was the mother of a boy in his Cub Scout Troop. As Burke's son was the same age as his the children became good friends.

In mid-February, 1982, exact date unrecalled, he heard that Burke's daughter, Tara, age 2½, had been kidnaped. Through media and general town gossip he heard that Mr. and Mrs. Burke had gone to a store with their two children, the nine year old boy and Tara, and left the children in the car. A man approached the car, told the boy that the parents were waiting for him inside the store and when the boy left the vehicle subsequently abducted the little girl.

He, in his empathy for the family, felt it necessary to establish a fund for the aid of the family through the local Cub Scout Troop.

Beard denied any firsthand knowledge of the kidnaping. Beard advised he left Concord suddenly approximately two weeks after the kidnaping as he had passed several fraudulent checks and thought he would be apprehended for those and subsequently his true identity would be discovered.

Beard insisted that the only information he had of the kidnaping was from both the media and discussion with the victim's parents and other towns people. Beard stated that he would be willing to be polygraphed to help establish his innocence in this matter.

AT Miami Lakes Jr. H.S.

CARA STEVENS GAVE THE FOLLOWING VERBAL STATEMENT, AND, A WRITTEN STATEMENT, WHICH IS PART OF THIS REPORT:

AT APPROXIMATELY 9:25 A.M., 8 DEC. 78, CARA WENT TO THE 2ND FLOOR GIRLS REST ROOM (BY ROOM 258) AND ENTERED A STALL. AS SHE WAS ABOUT TO PULL HER PANTS DOWN, SHE SAW A SHADOW TO HER RIGHT. SHE SAW A W/M LOOKING OVER THE PARTITION - SHE THOUGHT HE MUST BE STANDING ON THE COMMODE - AND HE TOOK A PHOTOGRAPH OF HER. CARA SAID ANOTHER FEMALE ENTERED THE REST ROOM, THE MAN LEFT HIS STALL AND TOOK A PHOTOGRAPH OF HER, AND SHE THOUGHT HE LEFT THE REST ROOM. THIS W/M CAME BACK AS SHE WAS SNAPPING HER PANTS, AND TOOK A PICTURE OF CARA FROM HER LEFT. CARA ASKED THIS W/M WHAT HE WAS DOING, BUT HE GAVE NO REPLY. CARA LEFT HER STALL, THINKING THE MAN HAD LEFT BECAUSE HE DIDN'T ANSWER. AS SHE LEFT THE STALL, CARA SAID THE W/M WAS STILL THERE. HIS PANTS WERE DOWN AND HE WAS HASTUR BATING. CARA SAID SHE SAW THIS W/M EJECTULATE, WHILE SHE TOLD HIM TO GO AWAY, THEN LOCKED HERSELF BACK IN THE STALL. SHE TOLD HIM A COUPLE OF MORE TIMES TO GO AWAY, AND SHE HEARD HIM LEAVE THE RESTROOM. AFTER A SHORT WAIT, SHE LEFT THE RESTROOM, AND, ENROUTE TO THE OFFICE TO REPORT THE INCIDENT, SHE SAW THIS W/M GOING BACK TO THE SECOND FLOOR ON ANOTHER STAIRWAY.

OUR MEMORIAL BLACK OLIVE TREE

The idea of planting a tree as a living memorial to Adam Walsh was born in the mind and heart of one of the mothers of Adam's first grade classmates and spread to others. An appropriate plaque will be purchased and permanently mounted at the base of the tree. As memorial gifts continue to be offered and promises of fill dirt for the "valley" materialize, perhaps the entire athletic area can be completed with a sign and Adam's picture identifying the "Adam Walsh Playfield." About 4,000 square yards of fill are still needed. When finished the field will include softball, soccer, a complete track, tennis and perhaps handball.

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrims' pride,
From ev'ry mountainside
Let freedom ring.

Areas of concern for statement
The soccer show - Adam was afraid
The plant " " " "

Reve told Rex she left Adam alone at soccer show to teach him to be more independent.

When did Adam go to bed the night before?

When did he get up, Monday?

What did you wear that day?

What did Adam wear?

Did you tell Adam's grandmother that you were coming over with Adam?

(Reve didn't recall any one coming out on 11/17 morning.)

(Reve stated she left home about 5 after 12.)

Find Gail Sherman - who Reve says
she was going to meet that day.

Reve has indicated that although she had a hurried schedule, she was willing to go to her mother's without showing first to verify that she could drop Adam off.

4416

When was the first call made by seats to locate Adam.

Reve says she got to the store at 12:25-12:30 PM.

she said she remembered feeling him let go of her hand - she doesn't say she ever looked at him -

Reve says she showed a photo of Adam to the clerk she had paged Adam.

Time was around 12:50 PM.

{ when was the first page recorded? }

~~Reve first said when she did not see Adam that~~

In answer to a question relating to the time she was in seats, she answered

because after I had paged seats --- paged Adam in seats and looked for him. I asked what time it was, and a woman behind the

On Tuesday, 5/9/78, at approximately 1858 hrs, officer ELFO responded to J.C. PENNY'S, 1600 NE 23 St., Pompano Beach, in reference to a LARCENY (RETAIL THEFT), that occurred at approximately 1845 hrs. Upon arrival spoke with the complainant. The complainant told this officer that she had observed the arrest PERRY place one pair of mens black slacks (retail value $15.00), one pair of white mens slacks (retail value $15.00) one beige print top (retail value $17.00), one blue and white top (retail value $5.00), one pair of pink shorts (retail value $10.00), and one green top (retail value $13.00) in her otherwise empty purse. The arrest DEAN assisted the arrest PERRY in concealing the merchandise and looked around as the arrest PERRY put the items into her purse. The complainant also observed the arrest juvenile RIDER conceal one bank top (retail value $4.00) and one pair of shorts (retail value $15.00) in an otherwise empty purse. The arrest DEAN assisted the arrest juvenile in concealing the merchandise and looked around as she concealed the merchandise. The complainant and the witness apprehended the 3 arrests outside the store and brought them back to the Security Office and then summoned the Police Dept. As officer ELFO walked into the Security Office the arrest DEAN made a spontaneous statement "this is the first time I've been caught stealing" and then asked the officer for a break. DEAN admitted to officer ELFO, after being advised of his Miranda Rights, that he had assisted the arrests PERRY and RIDER in concealing the merchandise and that he had planned to resell said merchandise. RIDER told ELFO that both the arrests PERRY and DEAN had told her to steal the merchandise and that they had plans to resell it. RE: FREARY, HAROLD T.

Dear Investigator Castlen:

Reference is made to your teletype message concerning the above captioned subject.

Subject Freary is described as a white male, D.O.B., 8/13/55, 5'10", 145 pounds, brown hair, hazel eyes, Social Security number listed as 130-48-1503. Freary was arrested on 5/19/77 for Burglary 3rd, Endangering the Welfare of a Child and Sexual Abuse of a Child.

The Burglary and Sexual Abuse charges were dismissed in the interest of justice based on Freary's plea of Guilty to the charge of Endangering the Welfare of a Child and he was committed to jail for 89 days.

The above charges were the result of Freary aiding minor boys, ages 12, 14 and 15, to run away from their homes. During the time period in question the subjects burglarized a building, stealing camping equipment. The subject camped and Freary subjected the boys to sexual contact.

re Pertaining a Homosexual tendency by the owner Hunter states that she has kicked Freary out of her residence & further states that she last saw him somewhere between about Simpson Beach & Safford where she states she kicked him out of her car after confronting him with the pictures which she had Freary that she was going to give the pictures to the police. Hunter feels that some of the pictures (pictures) have been of her son Hunter states that she asked her children if they had seen "involved" in any way with Freary & they stated they had not. Freary's car is presently a QAD in front of Hunter's residence.
 There is no record at this time of any criminal history on Freary or is there a photo available. Freary is however wanted by Orange County for Contempt of Court for a traffic offense. Also in the tool box was a pair of boys shorts (jams cut off's) with the name of Jeffrey Smith.

appeared to be playing in neighborhoods. There were other material reference children involved in sexual behavior and gross injuries. Harold was never arrested for any possession of the materials. I contacted the State of New York reference his involvement of juveniles in Auburn, New York. The New York State Police sent me a report that stated Harold was arrested for burglary 3rd degree, Enticing the welfare of children, and sexual abuse of a child on 5/19/77. Allegedly, he enticed three young juveniles between the ages of 12 and 15 to commit a burglary and steal camping supplies. They all ran away in the woods near Auburn and there he committed sexual acts on the children. According to the police, he pled guilty to enticement for welfare of children and the other two charges were dropped. He served 90 days for his time involved. Florida is currently investigating. Since I made contact with Harold last November, he has been working as a bell boy in a restaurant at the [redacted] Lakes. I looked through his locker at work and he had similar material stored in his locker. Several magazines that contained alot of pictures of people being sexually abused. I am concerned about the problem at his employment other than to advise him of his appearance. On 1/20/78 Deputy Sheriff [redacted] advised me that he had found a pair of [redacted] tennis shoe. Deputy Harris was very sure that it was Freary and he stated that he found [redacted] and pictures of the mutilated children. Photos were taken of the shoe and the pictures.

(NARRATIVE - BE SPECIFIC IN FIRST PERSON)

Summation
 I RESPONDED TO A SILENT SPARKED ALARM AT THE CHURCH AT ORANGE. I ARRIVED ABOUT 1 MINUTE LATER. AS I ARRIVED TWO OTHER PATROL CARS ARRIVED ON OTHER SIDES OF THE CHURCH. I THEN SAW THE DEFENDANT COMING OUT OF THE CHURCH PROPERTY FROM A GRASSY AREA ADJACENT TO A GATED COURTYARD ON THE S.W. CORNER OF THE CHURCH. WHEN HE SAW ME APPROACH HE RAN ACROSS ORANGE AVE WESTBOUND. I STOPPED HIM AND TALKED HIM.

I THEN GAVE HIM THE MIRANDA WARNING. HE SAID THAT HE UNDERSTOOD ALL OF THE WARNING.

I THEN ASKED HIM WHAT HE WAS DOING AT THE CHURCH. HE SAID THAT HE WAS ONLY RESTING ON A BENCH. THERE IS NO BENCH IN THE AREA THAT I SAW HIM COMING OUT OF. ALSO, HIS PANTS WERE SHIRTED AND HE WAS RUNNING THROUGH THE LAWN SPRAWLERS ON THE CHURCH LAWN.

NOT BELIEVING HIS EXPLANATION, AND DUE TO THE GROVE FACTS, AND ALSO DUE TO OTHER OFFICERS FINDING AN ADEQ DOOR IN THE CHURCH COURTYARD I ARRESTED THE DEFENDANT FOR LOITERING & TROUBLE.

Mr. Farris

I not good on writing so I am going to try any ways.
 The trip ~~to~~ here took about three hours, they traveled about 75 mph. We got here about 4 am Thursday. The meals here are like eating shit if you can get them. The staff plays cards alot. I'm confined to this building for five days with a bunch of Rejects. Now I told you about this place a little I would like you to write to the doctors here and tell them I still have a job when I get out. Would you send my paycheck to me please. And would you ask Ray if he would mail me a carton of Winston's every week. Tell Ray I'm going to have my sister send you ten dollars to give Ray for the first carton he bought me and five dollars every week after that. I asking because I'm only allowed 15 dollars a week and at $6.60 a carton, it don't leave me much money. Oh yes one more thing please have every body write me so I don't ~~go~~ go crazy myself.

I may not be able to write everyone back I just so much freedom here that jail would look better than this.

The address for this dump is, Northeast Florida State Hospital

Facility, Macclenny, ~~Florida~~
Macclenny, Florida 32063, It's located in unit 2 ward 9.

Missing boy sighted with woman

Hollywood Police are looking for a woman seen with 6-year-old Adam Walsh two days after his disappearance July 27 from a Hollywood department store.

The woman was spotted with a boy matching Adam's description at a miniature golf course near Hollywood, a witness told police. She is described as 35- to 45 years old, about 5-foot 7, with a thin build, dark complexion and brown teased hair. She was wearing square-framed, designer-type glasses. Police released this composite sketch made from the description.

Adam's parents, John and Rose Walsh, are offering a $100,000 reward for information leading to the safe return of their only child.

Attn: Detective Naylon

Dear Sir:

Please find enclosed a photo of Hermann C. Parodi who was arrested by this agency on August 15, 1981. Parodi was charged with exhibiting his sexual organs.

Brief details of this case are as follows: Uniformed-patrol unit was dispatched to a shopping center in Vero Beach in response to a complaint that a W/M was slowly driving by the store fronts exposing his genitals.

Another detective and myself were in the general area; and after receiving other descriptive data from an officer at the scene, Parodi was observed at an adjoining shopping center driving slowly by the sidewalk in front of the store fronts exposing himself. He was driving a small MG convertible, top down, at this time. Myself and the accompanying detective approached the vehicle and found Parodi to be exposing his genitals, was placed under arrest and appropriately charged.

While talking with Parodi, he advised that he was returning from the beach area and had become "horny". This was his explanation for his behavior. He acknowledged that he was in fact masturbating, further stated that he engaged in similar activity in the Ft. Lauderdale area, exact time and date unknown.

Sincerely yours,

Timothy N. Burke
Detective Sergeant

P. S.: Parodi had a Dania Police Department parking citation in his possession at time of arrest; date/time unknown.

701 Colcord Dr.
Oklahoma City 73102

August 9, 1982

Hollywood Police Department
3250 Hollywood
Hollywood, Florida 33021

Dear Detective Hickman,

I am hopeful that the enclosed reports concerning ROBERT LUTHER HATCHER, BM, DOB: 1-10-52, aka: OSCAR D. JOHNSON, will be of assistance to you in your investigation. I would like to give you a brief summary of Hatcher's method of operation in our city in recruiting minor children for illicit sexual activity.

Hatcher frequents area municipal parks, generally posing as a karate instructor or a baseball coach for pee-wee players. By using this approach Hatcher has apparently had little trouble in getting the children away from their parents for lengthy periods of time, (i.e. over night, weekends) under the pretense of attending either a karate or baseball tournament in another city. Once the child has been persuaded to accompany Hatcher on his excursions the child is held against his will at knife point or with the threat of being injected with a syringe filled with air. The child is then bound securely with string or rope and sexually molested. The child is then again threatened with death or the death of their family if anyone is made aware of these sexual acts. It has been established that Hatcher has been in the state of Oklahoma for the past 11 months following his arrival here from the Dallas, Texas area. Hatcher's movements prior to Dallas are uncertain, nor has it been determined how long he stayed in the Dallas area.

Hatcher is a frequent blood plasma donor and has been employed by local blood donor centers in a non-specialized capacity while in our city. He frequents free food centers and is familiar with the process for obtaining welfare assistance.

Hatcher escaped from the Jackson, Michigan penal institution in March, 1980 and it is unknown what his movements were up until that time.

If you should require any additional information regarding this subject feel free to contact me or Detective Willard Paige at AC 405, 232-5311 Ext. 371.

Note: At the time of this letter the mug shot of Robert Hatcher has not been processed by the photo lab, however we have enclosed a recent polaroid of Hatcher.

On 7-23-62 at approximately 10:00 AM, this Sgt. was assigned to go to Tulsa to follow-up on information received reference to Oscar Johnson. This officer went to Tulsa, OK and was assisted by Officer Gary Stennell. It might be noted that prior to being directed to Officer Stennell, there was apparently some confusion as to exactly what had been done with teletype information and photographs that were sent to the Dept. regarding this individual. It further appeared that the officers of the Dept. had been rather busy, and had not had very much time to develop in the request made by the teletype information.

After contacting the area Tulsa Office, about the subject, it was learned that the suspect had applied for and received a ten month supply of food stamps on 7-1-62. In the application, the name used was OSCAR JOHNSON JOHNSON, and there were two brothers listed, ALVIN JOHNSON, and RONALD JOHNSON. There was also a wife listed as being CHARLES JOHNSON (no name) 3-12-34, living in 124 SOUTH 11TH ST. The home address for Tulsa was given as general delivery and Mrs. E. Fowler, who is an invalid address given d.o.b. was 1-10-32 and social security number was 04-39-0974. Identification was also used from OSCAR JOHN JOHNSON COLLIER spring and summer of 1962. Previous employment was FARMER, reference was CHARL JOHNSON 212 1st St. It was also learned that subject was to have attempted to get money from BILLIE ANN JOHNSON.

Officers then went to 124 SOUTH which is CHARLES JOHNSON'S & CHARLES JOHNSON'S EMPLOYMENT SERVICE. Officers spoke with CHARLES JOHNSON advised that JOHNSON had been at the location, and several children with him, had purchased a food stamp, and was living in his vehicle which was usually parked in the area. CHARLES identified a photograph of JOHNSON and BROWN as being one of the juveniles with JOHNSON. It was further advised that JOHNSON was working on a job night and JOHNSON was to have started work that evening at a piano center on SOUTH 11TH. Officers checked the area of the employment service building and found JOHNSON'S vehicle, this being the 1960 CHEVY bearing OK 664. BROWN parked in the 200 block of N. BROAD. It appeared that someone was living in the vehicle since it was full of clothing, blankets, and miscellaneous items. Officers called for a unit to keep the vehicle under surveillance while

STATEMENT MADE PUBLIC DAY SEVEN ON 7-21-68, AT OKLA. CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

Q: When you first met GOSCH, where did you guys all get? On the day you ended up leaving on the street?

A: Well, first he got us into the car, took off and we went to Hender's and got some chicken. After that we went all the way up to this park. I think it was on, I don't know really, by or something like that.

Q: About 12th and Hwy?

A: Yeah, near the Fairgrounds.

Q: Yeah, okay, I know where it is. Right. It's about 12th and Hwy? It's got a 1961 Lincoln in it.

A: Yeah, and well, he held us to wait there for 20 minutes and while I was waiting, it took him too long to come back so I was, I was....there was this guy, he was kind of a part guy. He was kind of a wild a....

Q: Like a ranger or a worker there?

A: Well, he goes to all these different parts. He goes from Memorial Park, the park that I was at and he was at that park at that time and they had closed and he was coming on and I was asking him "can I have a ride back to Memorial Park?" and he said he wasn't allowed to do that way, so I had to wait back until GOSCH got back, which was about 20 minutes later. And we, we were up there and uh...he got us into the car.

Q: And the other?

A: And SHEA and we drove up to the Fairgrounds and we waited for long.

Q: Why did you wait?

A: Well for SHEA, for...somebody. The last name I can't remember. But SHEA had come up after two hours, he came to the Fairgrounds and he got into the car with us and we had drove off somewhere.

Q: Did you leave town that?

Q: I beg your pardon?

A: Yeah.

Q: Look at us. You left town that?

A: Yeah, that's right, we were heading out of town only we picked SHEA up.

Q: The same day, right?

A: Yeah. That's right, we picked SHEA up and he was at this place, I don't know if it was or the name of it was good.

Q: Where did you meet your first night?

BROWN: At...uh...we were about 15 miles from...

SMITH: BROWN, I want you to start again. I want you to tell me the truth. What have you been doing wrong here?

BROWN: All right.

SMITH: Have you been lying to me?

BROWN: Yeah.

SMITH: Have you lied to the other officers?

BROWN: Yeah.

SMITH: Okay, why did you do that?

BROWN: I was scared.

SMITH: What were you scared of now?

BROWN: OSCAR would get me.

SMITH: Well, OSCAR is not going to get you. You're okay now. We're going to be honest with each other. Okay? No more fibbing. No more lying. The truth. You've got to understand, I've already talked to ANDY and I've got it all on tape and I'll bring ANDY in here and he'll vouch for you, he'll back it up. He told me exactly what happened the first night. He told me where it happened and what happened. I want you to tell me. Where did you spend the first night?

BROWN: At the fairgrounds.

SMITH: Where at?

BROWN: It was in the ballpark, it was the fairgrounds at the, it was by the park...it was about I don't know two or three miles up. There's these fairgrounds and there is a ball park right there.

SMITH: Yeah, where at, in the trees, in the bushes?

BROWN: Okay, okay. We were...I was walking...well

SMITH: Tell the truth, that's all I want? It's so much easier to tell me the truth isn't it? You don't have to lie now. You see when you tell one lie you've gotta tell another lie.

BROWN: Can I start from the first day?

SMITH: You can start right there, after what happened, the truth.

BROWN: This is how it goes for real.

SMITH: No bullshit, right? You know what that means don't you?

BROWN: Yeah.

SMITH: Okay, buddy?

BROWN: Okay, the first day, he picked us up. He took us all the way up to Wendy's on 11th and got us some shakes. Then he took off, dropped us off at the park and told us to wait for 15 minutes and we were really there for two hours and then after an hour I had asked that guy "can I have a ride" to Memorial Park and he said, "I'm not heading back up that way", so I said okay and me and ANDY waited there and finally OSCAR was walking back up here... He had two flat tires he said. He said he had two flat tires and we waited all the way up to Memorial Park (corr) ball park, the fairgrounds ball park. There is a TUBY and cab...there is a TUBY there that we dropped by and ANDY was supposed to wait there for ANDY to pick him up. That's right, go ahead. (stated by SMITH)

DOUG: And we and.....

SMITH: You and OSCAR then walked on to the.....

DOUG: Fairgrounds. And we were up there and I was right by him and he grabbed me. He had me by the mouth and I started to shout and he slapped me. He had that knife on my throat, so he just told me to start to walk, so I started walking...

SMITH: Wait a minute now, why would he pull a knife on you and grab you then? Now remember we are not going to make up stories.

DOUG: I'm not, he grabbed me and I started shouting and he slapped me and said shut up and he had that knife on my face, on my throat so I shut up.

SMITH: OK so what happened then?

DOUG: He told me to start walking, near these bushes there's a whole bushhock woods, like a woods, so that's how I got these mosquito bites. We went all the way, we went over, under a fence and we went into these bushes and he tied us up.

SMITH: With what?

DOUG: Yarn

SMITH: Where did he get the yarn?

DOUG: He bought it from TONY before we had left.

SMITH: YARN?

DOUG: Yeah, some kind of white string....

SMITH: Was Andy with you bought it?

DOUG: Yeah, I think so

SMITH: He bought the yarn...

DOUG: And he had tied us up and told us to take up...

SMITH: What color of yarn was it?

DOUG: White, it was like the stuff a kid would play with a ball of yarn, he handed packages and told me to take my pants and underwear off, so if I got untied, I wouldn't try to run. He put them in a TONY case, my pants and stuff and then he went somewhere. He went back to spot ANDY AND LEE I think, so first he went walking around, looking out, cause I started shouting, he was looking around to see if any people saw him, and he was looking around he had he tied up, hands in back and feet and stuff on my stomach. And I was right there and he was looking around and finally he said you stay here, I going to be right back and boy, before he left he look like he had the knife, look like he was about to stab me and then he said I ain't gonna kill you yet. And so he then said you wait here I'm gonna.. and then I took off and then he came back about an hour or two later with LEE AND ANDY, I think

SMITH: Is right I've gotta it all right....

DOUG: LEE, LEE, LEE he came back, he was up there, I don't know where Andy was, I didn't see him, that was the last time I saw him, it was at TONY.

SMITH: OK, GO HEAD

DOUG: And All I saw was Lee coming up and he told Lee to watch me and so he watched me a couple of hours later OSCAR came back, about, yeah a couple of hours later, Oscar came back and we were there....

SMITH: ABOUT what time was this when you got... when you first went down to the p...

DOUG: No, about three o'clock.

SMITH: Where did you spend the night?

DOUG: At the fairgrounds

SMITH: In them bushes

DOUG: Yeah.

SMITH: What happened that night.

BOUG: Yeah, I know that.

SMITH: I mean, a lot of people. A lot of people put a lot of worrying, your Mother and Father, just for example, put a lot of worrying, and there's a lot of policemen not just policemen that put a lot of time in and you should've called, you should've done and you should've done a lot of things but you didn't, so lets work with what we've got okay?

BOUG: Okay.

SMITH: Okay, now what else did, did you guys ever have to steal anything? For him or anything like that?

FROM DOUGLAS BROWN
OFFICER: E.E. SMITH UNIT 6637

Q. ANDY, ANDY shoplifted once or twice for himself, did he?

A. He stole, he came back one day when he was guarding me, at the ballpark, with me on the bus, from a freezer that he had stuffed down his sock.

Q. Did you steal anything?

A. And RONNIE, they keep on... I didn't steal anything?

Q. Not me.

A. (chuckle).

Q. Oh, not me, I wasn't in stores really, I only started... Did OSCAR call you, his boy or what?

A. Boy.

Q. Did he take, have you wear any hats or anything?

A. He made me wear a green hat, it had on, lets see GILER's NUMBERS, 30 cent. I saw something like that.

Q. Did he have you wear that?

A. I could cover up my hair, so nobody would see me. Cause we went to... Did he tell you he was going to do to you?

A. He didn't really say what he was going to do with me, that day that he was... he was going to kill me that day there, he said that, because I was a real pain to him he said, because there was too many cops looking for me, so that these cops hadn't drove up that day I would have been dead.

Q. He mentioned taking you anywhere to California?

Q. What Disney land.

A. What was he going to do then?

Q. Did you were going to spend quite a while there about 2-3 weeks and he said you that he was going to take me to this Karate thing.

A. He say about when he was going to let you return home?

Q. He said, he said, he said maybe if you keep it cool that day, that last day that he was going to kill me, he said that.

A. Heard him say that?

Q. Yes, he was going to kill me and ANDY.

A. Was he going to kill ANDY?

Q. Thought well I was giving ANDY a message, well just rubbing baby oil on his back, he, and he keeps on saying that I'm his, and a while back ANDY had got this 12 year old and done it to him.

Q. Did it to a 12 year old?

A. Yes, to a yank he OSCAR told me ANDY told me.

Q. Did you see it?

A. Not...

Q. Was it the 12 year old?

A. Was this little boy, he never said who his name was or anything, he said it was a 12 year old boy that ANDY had done it to before, that's all I heard that ANDY did. Then, he OSCAR, keeps on thinking that ANDY is stealing the boys from him because he did that other little boy and OSCAR had had that boy, and after ANDY did it to him, OSCAR didn't want the little boy back so I think the little boy died. I don't know that, though.

Q. Do you realize that OSCAR tells a lot of lies?

A. ...

Q. He ever tell you that he had been to jail?

DOUG: Yes.
 SMITH: What did he say he'd been in jail?
 DOUG: Yes, he told me that, he that he had been in jail I don't know where though.
 SMITH: What did he say he'd been in jail for?
 DOUG: For uh, he never said what he was in jail for, I think for Bank Robbery, I think something like that, I think it was kidnaping another little kid.
 SMITH: How do you know that?
 DOUG: He said something I don't know what....
 SMITH: Well what did he say?
 DOUG: I wasn't really positive that what he did though wrong, I didn't really heard what he said, but all he really told me is what he did what he was in jail.
 SMITH: What did he say he did when he was in jail?
 DOUG: Done it to other little boys.
 SMITH: In jail? What little boys?
 DOUG: Well like 16 year olds.
 SMITH: Oh uh, did he mention anything that he had of a girl or a boy anything?
 DOUG: No, he had a boy, he got this little 16 year old boy and he got him and done it to him, because he got bored.
 SMITH: Did you see him saying to anybody else while you were sitting?
 DOUG: No.
 SMITH: When everybody would go down to like to the, I mean when ARBY would go to the River fishing, and you stayed back in the Hotel or wherever you were at....
 DOUG: Well, no ....
 SMITH: What did you guys do, you and OSCAR.
 DOUG: When (car) he and OSCAR, he practiced, he taught me Karate.
 SMITH: What did he teach you?
 DOUG: He taught me uh, he was just teaching me the basics of Karate.
 SMITH: Okay, did he do anything to you while you were away from there or not?
 DOUG: While I was away from....
 SMITH: I mean while ARBY was away from there?
 DOUG: While I (car) he, nothing else. But that last day of Karate we went, me and OSCAR went to the car to rest and the cop came up and arrested him, undercover cop.
 SMITH: So you spent the first two nights in Oklahoma City out by the Fairgrounds?
 DOUG: I don't know, we spend a couple more nights after that, about five days.
 SMITH: Here in Oklahoma City?
 DOUG: Yes.
 SMITH: Where at?
 DOUG: Fairgrounds.
 SMITH: Well now wait a minute, you told me that you went to Stroud on the 3rd day.
 DOUG: Something like that, not on the 3rd day, it was at least a while before we ever got out of Oklahoma City, it was a while before we got out of Oklahoma City, we spent a bunch of nights in their woods.
 SMITH: What did you eat?
 DOUG: He uh, he brought us milk and stuff.
 SMITH: What kind of stuff?
 DOUG: Cookies.
 SMITH: What else?
 DOUG: Nothing else, that's all he bring us.
 SMITH: What aboutologna and cheese.
 DOUG: Nights for dinner, he would bring usologna, sandwich.
 SMITH: So you stayed how many nights do you think?
 DOUG: About five or six.

 BOON: He spent, quite a few nights there and AMY knew that, AMY knew that.
 SMITH: You didn't spend just two nights there.
 BOON: No way.
 SMITH: Then you know that people were looking for you.
 BOON: Yes.
 SMITH: Why didn't you go to the police?
 BOON: I never had the chance to, AMY, AMY wouldn't let me, I asked him, I said if you're my friend why don't you get me to the police now, and get us both out of this, cause you said that GOCOR, GOCOR had AMY for a year and kidnapped AMY for a whole year.
 SMITH: He's had him since November.
 BOON: Yeah, that's right, that's what he said.
 SMITH: I don't think you're telling me all the truth now.
 BOON: Yeah that's right, I'm telling you the truth. He spent at least....

 SMITH: Where would you drive to?
 BOON: Well, I don't know really, well he took me, he'd take us to places to get us some drinks and stuff.
 SMITH: Now that doesn't make a lot of sense does it, if everybody in town is looking for you, your picture is all over the newspapers and everything and he's taking you into a place to get something to drink?
 BOON: He's not taking me in, he goes in there and get Sprite or something like that and brings it back out to me.
 SMITH: Where?
 BOON: Like he, I don't know all the stores, he kept me covered up, I didn't see where he stopped at every time.
 SMITH: But he kept you with him all the time?
 BOON: Yeah, almost all the time.
 SMITH: What did he call you?
 BOON: He, what do you mean?
 SMITH: Well, did he have a name for you, like BOON?
 BOON: DAVID, he'd call me DAVID GILBERT, that's where he started....

 BOON: Yeah, he would call me his son.

 BOON: No, not really. He just did it to me.
 SMITH: Why did you tell a lie to me earlier? About him not doing anything to you?
 BOON: I was mostly, I was afraid he was going to get me good, he was going to call his friends up or something.

I'm on your side, we can't sit here and tell them, now damn it I've got to know the truth. Now the game is over with, the fun and games are over. Now this is a type of deal you guys just didn't really care if you went home for a while, now that's fine. Now I know you've been gone for a while, now I'm asking you the truth and I want to be told the truth, that's all I'm asking. Okay? Now how long did you guys stay in Oklahoma City?

ARMY: About a week.

SMITH: Okay, now why didn't one of you call the police? I want the truth!
 BROWN: OSCAR wouldn't let us and he has LEE or RONNIE watching us and LEE and RONNIE were scared to go to jail and they were watching us like birds.

SMITH: Okay now that's NOT enough, all I want is the truth though. See if you just tell me the truth it makes it easier for everybody. Now come you didn't tell anybody?

ARMY: I don't know.

SMITH: Okay, are you his friend?

ARMY: Yes.

SMITH: Are you his friend?

BROWN: Yes.

SMITH: By god fellas get this guy and that's tell the truth and let's not lie anymore. Okay? Most of your stuff that you've told me is the truth, but some of it you started lying to me and there is no reason to lie, now whatsoever, I don't care if it makes you look bad or not. No reason to lie, okay? You guys have been through a lot, you've had a lot of people but you damn sure have had a lot of people looking for you too, a lot of people and were on your side, I can't emphasize that enough. Now were starting to get down to the truth and that is why we talk to people like we do sometimes we have to get kind of down on you a little bit but I'm still your friend, I'm still that fat balding old gray headed Sugar and I'm going to be your buddy but just don't be putting no give talk on me okay? Now did you catch a 5 pound Sack?

ARMY: Yes.

BROWN: Yes.

SMITH: Okay, Yeah I don't like that, okay...

ARMY: He was with me when I caught it.

SMITH: Alright BROWN about how many times over a period of the time you were with OSCAR did OSCAR take his penis and place it in your bottom, in your rectum?

BROWN: About how many times?

SMITH: About how many times?

BROWN:

SMITH: About how many times, and I don't care if it sounds a lot, if its not tell me.

BROWN: Its at least 15 to 16 or 17 days, 3-4 23 (over) 3-4 weeks at least.

SMITH: Did he do it every day?

BROWN: He not every night, not every night. Last night he did it to me it about 20r 3 nights ago.

SMITH: Okay, so would you say at least 16 times?

BROWN: Yeah, about.

SMITH: Okay how many times OSCAR as we know him, that's not going to be his real name, put his penis in your mouth.

BROWN: Yes, I know that, I know that it was two.

SMITH: Did something come out of your mouth, I mean out of his penis into your mouth?

BROWN: Like what?

SMITH: Did something come out of his penis, go into your mouth, gag you or anything?

BROWN: Yeah, this white shit.

Lt. Richard Hynds
Hollywood Police Department
Hollywood, Florida

Dear Sir:

The account of the abduction and slaying of Adam Walsh was recently read by me with the usual thought, "what can be done about crime against children". Being a one-woman awareness of child abductors seems to be my fate and I wish the rest of the adult population in America would join me. We are too complacent and lax and neither have any place in fighting crime in the 1980s.

The reason for my intrusion into your busy schedule by writing is to send you a copy of the article about the slaying of two little girls in Lane County, Oregon. Disposition of the corpses was the same as that of the Walsh child. In fact one of the victims was snatched on the riverbank by her home.

Since the crimes occurred in 1976 the prime suspects, even if convicted and sentenced, could well be back on the streets and riverbanks. There might have been some other suspect who found his way to Florida five years later. This story of great tragedy is for your information and probably belongs in the category of the very slimest lead.

Apprehension of the "mutant from hades" who did this horror to their son is the only consolation the Walshes and other parents with similar heartbreak will ever know. This killer's incarceration will save other young lives if his tendency is to keep snatching children.

Luck is what you need and I wish it in abundance for the police department in your city in solving the Walsh murder.

Sincerely,

Bessie B. Janis

in a closet. The man wasn't talking, but police considered him a prime suspect in the murder of one of the missing girls.
But no sooner was he behind bars, then a second suspect emerged. He was a 22-year-old convicted burglar and he told sheriff's deputies he knew something about one of the missing girls. The burglar was described by family friends as a "nice kid, maybe a little wild, but a nice kid."
Well, we have heard that one before.
He had already spent 18 months in a juvenile honor camp for the unprovoked stabbing of two young children. Now, while waiting sentencing, he admitted he was the last person to see one of the girls alive.
And suddenly after two years without a single clue in these criminal cases, investigators had two suspects and a wealth of evidence in the case.
At the center of the investigation was Richard Godwin, a 33-year-old drill press operator who lived in a pleasant, suburban town of Springfield, Oregon.
Godwin was known by his neighbors and a few of his co-workers as a nice, go-along sort of guy. And he was, in a way. Just another guy trying to earn a living — but with a problem. A big problem. Richard liked children. Very young children.

In January, 1978, he pleaded guilty and was placed on probation for five years for the rape of a 5-year-old Cottage Grove girl. Godwin was eager to plead guilty, for by doing so, the court had agreed to drop sex charges against him in another case, this one involving a three-year-old girl.
Lawmen questioned the wisdom of letting a sex offender like Godwin back on the streets. But the drill press operator promised to make amends. As part of his probation he promised to keep away from young children under 14 without another adult present. Godwin said he was eager to change his way. He even promised to give up drinking alcohol, and that was asking a lot of a man who liked to swig down booze with the best of them.
He promised and promised, but on March 9th, 1979, Godwin was back pe-hind bars, charged with the rape and sodomy of the same girl he had attacked two years before.

These were reprehensible charges. But three days later, lawmen wondered if murder could be added to the list of Godwin's crimes. It was on that day that Godwin's roommate at the mobile park on Industrial Avenue called the Springfield police to report an unusual discovery. While looking through Godwin's closet, Godwin's roommate found the remains of a human skull inside a box.

It was a small skull, perhaps that of a child's. Given Godwin's quirks — brutally assaulting young children — police thought the drill press operator might have an interesting explanation as to how the skull ended up in his closet.

If he did, Godwin wasn't telling. Godwin stonewalled police and refused to answer any questions.

The skull, meanwhile, was turned over to experts for examination. These included a forensic dentist, an anthropologist from the University of Oregon and experts from the Oregon State Police crime laboratory.

These experts measured the skull and compared the bone configuration with photographs taken of the two missing girls. On March 15th, oral surgeon Dr. William Horton and anthropologist David Cole tentatively identified the skull as that of Summer Rogers, the five-year-old girl who had disappeared from near her home on July 29th, 1976. This identification added another piece of evidence to a criminal case that had stumped lawmen for over two years.

Summer Rogers had been a healthy and happy little girl. With sparkling dark eyes and a pixie-like grin, she was a child that would make any mother or father proud. She was loving and trusting — too much so. "She was a perfect kidnap victim because she was such a trusting, friendly child," her mother recalled bitterly.

On the afternoon of July 29th, Summer was at play on the bank of the Willamette River not far from her home on Heritage Street. She had been cautioned about straying too far from the house, just as she had been warned of the dangers of playing too close to the edge of the fast moving river.

Summer often played on the river bank. And she was careful not to stray too close to the water. When she did not return home that afternoon, her mother grew worried and searched the river bank and then the neighborhood looking for her. She contacted parents of Summer's friends and strangers on the block. But no one had seen Summer.

For the next few days Lane County Sheriff's deputies searched the River End area of the city looking for the missing girl. They could find no trace of her or locate anyone who had seen a girl matching Summer's description.

Police feared that the girl had fallen into the river and drowned in the swift, chilly waters. A search team combed the river for miles on each side. They dragged the bottom and searched far down river. They found nothing.

Days went by, then weeks. Posters containing the girl's picture and description and a brief summary of the circumstances of her disappearance were widely distributed. The parents offered a reward for information leading to the safe recovery of their missing child. Every possible lead was exhausted, every tip followed up, and still no sign of the girl.

During those long weeks the family never gave up hope. Parents have nightmares that they will come home someday and find a psychopath has kidnapped their child. Now the parents of Summer Rogers prayed someone had, in fact, kidnapped their little girl. That way she might still be alive. There might still be a chance to rescue her.

Those hopes were dashed on October 14th, 1976, when the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers agreed to lower the levels of the Willamette and Mckenize rivers to aid police in their search.

With the levels lowered, sheriff's detectives and volunteers trudged along in the muck where downstream from where she was last seen, volunteers found Summer Rogers. At least they thought so.

The badly decomposed body of a young girl was nestled in the black muck. The body was in such bad condition that police could not take fingerprints or other forms of identification. And, grotesquely, the head was missing.

Lane County medical examiners knew they had the corpse of a young girl. But they did not know who the victim was, how she had died, or if she had been sexually molested. Experts determined the corpse was that of Summers Rogers because the torso was about the same size as that of the missing girl, and clothing found near the body matched that worn by Summer the day she disappeared.

Probers also found a tooth near the corpse. But they weren't talking about that piece of evidence. At least not right away.

The murder of Summer Rogers was a sensational shock in the Eugene, Oregon, area. And an avid follower of this grisly crime was Arnold Roy Brown, a nervous, disturbed teenager.

Brown was a snarly youth who faced the world with a chip on his shoulder — and a screw loose in his head.

At the time of Summer's disappearance, Brown, who lived in the same neighborhood that the five-year-old did, had just been released from Parrot Creek Boys Ranch, a work camp for juvenile felons. Brown had spent 16 months at the camp for the unprovoked stabbing of two young children.

According to police reports, Brown was walking along the banks of the Willamette River when he came upon two children, ages 13 and 8, playing near the water. Brown, for some unfathomable reason, decided he wanted to stab the two kids "because I wanted to see what it was like." He approached the kids, pulled out a hunting knife and stabbed both victims several times in the back.

Miraculously, both survived the savage attack and managed to run away from the knife-wielding kid-stabber. Brown was later arrested and, in February of 1974, was sent back to the work camp.

Sixteen months later he was out of the camp and back at his home in the River Road area. The disappearance of Summer Rogers was the topic of conversation. Residents wanted to know what had happened to the girl.

Arnold Brown could have told them. But he didn't. Not until June 21, 1978. Now a young man in his early twenties, Arnold still hadn't learned it doesn't pay to break the law. He bungled a burglary of the Big Wheel Skate Center on River Avenue. It was an easy burglary for a pro, but Arnold was just an amateur, and he was caught redhanded leaving the building.

With one felony conviction under his belt, it looked as if Arnold was headed for the "big house." While being escorted by two sheriff's detectives, Arnold Brown started to talk. What he had to say jolted both lawmen.

Brown said on July 29th, 1976, he was wading in the Willamette River when he spotted a little girl playing on the bank. He said he recognized her as Summer Rogers. He said he watched her play, then suddenly she stumbled and hit her head on a rock. "I went over to her and I felt for her pulse," he explained. "She didn't have one and I got a little scared and walked away, leaving her lying with her head and shoulders on some rocks and the rest of her body in the shallow water."

The burglary suspect told the detectives he walked farther upstream and "stopped and looked back to see if she was moving. She wasn't and that's the last I saw of her."

Brown's admission thickened rather than dispersed the cloud of mystery that surrounded the little girl's disappearance. If Brown was telling the truth, it might explain the circumstances in which the girl disappeared. However, it did not explain the torso found eight miles downstream. If the body belonged to Summer Rogers, then why was the head missing? If the body was not Summer's, then whose body was it? And what had happened to Summer?

Detectives pressed Brown for information. The harder they leaned on him, the more his story changed. In one story, Brown actually admitted he struck the girl on her head and then walked away. In another version he picked up the little girl, after she hit her head and "got scared and threw her in the river."

The public did not learn of Brown's confession until a sentence hearing for a burglary charge of which Brown was convicted.

On February 14th, Deputy D.A. Darryl Larson identified the teenage stabber of two children as a possible suspect in the murder of Summer Rogers.

Larson, arguing for a stiff sentence, told Judge Helen Frey that Brown "should receive the maximum sentence for his crime. He is an example of the type of person we fear most in society. He can maintain himself on at least a decent level for some periods of time, and then, for reasons which only he can know, does things which he might not otherwise normally do."

Larson requested Brown's conviction been tentatively identified by an anthropologist and an oral surgeon. But the district attorney was not ready to cast his vote with these experts until the results of all the tests were completed. Perhaps he was wary because the tentative identification had been based on precise measurements of the skull and on a tooth found near the headless torso. The tooth fit perfectly into the jawbone of the skull, and thus experts who had determined the torso was Summer Rogers' now believed they had found the missing skull.

But the district attorney wasn't so sure. When asked what his impression was of the experts' findings, Horton took his time before replying. "I can't say that the skull was from the river bank or that the skull is that of Summer Rogers."

Why didn't the D.A. follow the experts? A tactical move? An ingrained conservatism that would not let him take a position until he was absolutely sure? Instinct?

Perhaps. Maybe one, maybe all of these reasons. But Horton was right on one count: A skull and a torso do not a body make.

No sooner had experts given tentative confirmation, then University of Oregon anthropologist David Cole reversed his earlier opinion and announced the "skull definitely did not belong to Summer Rogers." He said anthropologists from the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C. had confirmed his findings that the skull was not Summer Rogers'.

Instead, he said he was "reasonably certain" that the skull belonged to Andrea Tolentino, another 5-year-old girl who had disappeared from the town of Blue River in eastern Lane County in late 1976.

The disappearance of Andrea Tolentino had been as baffling to Lane County investigators as the Summer Rogers case.

On the night of October 2nd, 1976, Andrea's 34-year-old mother and her 10-year-old boyfriend were driving along the McKenzie Highway in east Springfield, Oregon. In the backseat was 5-year-old Andrea and her 7-year-old brother.

The couple arrived in Blue River at about 9:10 p.m. and parked the family station wagon, which pulled a 22-foot ocean-going boat, in front of the small bar. The two children remained in the

for the stabbing of the two children in 1974. He then told of Brown's confession to sheriff's detectives — a confession which linked him to the dead girl.

Larson's remarks, given in a nearly empty courtroom, were strenuously objected to by court-appointed attorney Rush Hoag. The attorney jumped to his feet and demanded that the inflammatory statements be stricken from the record. Brown's statements had been made to police under duress and were not legally admissible in a court of law, Hoag argued.

Judge Frey, however, decided to let Larson's remarks stay in the public record. And the judge did something else — she threw the book at Arnold Brown.

She sentenced Brown to 20 years in prison — the maximum allowed. The judge, questioned later by reporters, said she had not considered the prosecution's remarks on the Summer Rogers case when she handed out the maximum sentence. Instead, she said she had decided to come down hard on Brown because society had to be protected from "impulsive" acts such as the 1973 stabbings and the more recent burglary. "You are a dangerous man, Mr. Brown," she said in pronouncing sentence.

Arnold Brown was taken away in handcuffs, a bit dazed at the prospect of facing 20 years behind bars.

Lane County District Attorney Pat Horton now had two suspects in the Summer Rogers case behind bars. Arnold Brown faced a minimum of several years in prison. And Richard Godwin? No charges had been filed against him yet. The District Attorney's Office wanted time to prepare their case against him and had decided to hold back on the charges until it had gathered more evidence. "But Godwin isn't going anywhere," D.A. Pat Horton told a reporter. "We are holding him on parole violation, so he'll stay put until we are ready to press charges."

Meanwhile, there was the skull. This was the strongest piece of evidence connecting Richard Godwin to the murder of Summer Rogers. The skull had already concerned, the killer immediately threw down his weapons and surrendered.

Hermine Schliefer was found hiding in another part of the house and seemed delighted at being taken into police custody. She apparently had, no more stomach for shoot-outs with the police than did her lover.
Rupert Trojacek's murderous resistance to arrest was soon explained when he told police officials that he had preferred to shoot it out rather than to go to jail for life for the "Munich job."
Cautiously questioned on the "Munich job," it was determined that he was referring to the murder of a man in the English Gardens on the night of March 3, 1977 and a check with the Munich police showed that this could only have been the murder of Harald Liedke.
Trojacek maintained later that he had been given a contract to kill Liedke because of his connections with drug and prostitution rackets, but the Munich police were never able to turn up the slightest evidence of such connections and it was believed that the true motive was simply robbery.

It is unlikely that Trojacek will ever stand trial for the murder of Harald Liedke for he is now awaiting trial for the murders of Johann Stauber and Johann Mueller. The sentence will almost certainly be life with no possibility of parole or early release.
Jakob Eggenreich survived, but was so seriously injured that he was retired.
Adrian Hoffmann, now sergeant Hoffmann, is in charge of the Kindberg
Police Post. ★

Mum, as they say, is the official word.
Reporters' questions are answered with either "no comment" or by vague generalities. District Attorney Horton has declined to say whether tests have determined the cause of Andrea Tolentino's death. New evidence has been uncovered in the Summer Rogers murder, but again, the district attorney was reluctant to say what this new evidence was.
Horton would say the discovery of the skull has "added a new twist to things."
He said investigators of the Summer Rogers murder "are just going to adopt a wait-and-see attitude."
Asked if he considered the identification of the skull a breakthrough in the Tolentino case, Horton replied, "It's certainly another piece of the puzzle."
It should be pointed out that neither Richard Godwin nor Arnold Brown have been officially charged with the murder of either girl, and should be considered innocent until such charges are brought against them and they are declared guilty of those charges by a jury.
At the same time, the two men are not exactly babes in the woods.
Richard Godwin was convicted of raping and sodomizing a five-year-old girl.

on the same charges, involving the same girl.

Arnold Brown spent 18 months in an honor camp for the unprovoked stabbing of two young children. In 1979, he was back behind bars, this time for the attempted burglary of an ice rink.

District Attorney Horton is very much interested in both men in connection with the murders of Summer Rogers and Andrea Tolentino.

Neither man will be back on the streets for awhile. Arnold Brown was sentenced to 20 years in prison. Richard Godwin's probation was revoked and he too will face a 20-year sentence. He also faces more rape and sodomy charges involving a young girl.

With both men behind bars, the investigations into the disappearance and presumed murder of Summer Rogers and Andrea Tolentino continue.

There are many things the police would like to know.

About the two murders.

About Richard Godwin.

About Arnold Brown.

Murder, First Class

was no mention in the extensive files in Las Vegas concerning Weiss. And there was only the rumor and no proof that Weiss and Lanteri might have been operating a "layoff" book.

One investigator said, "Of course we don't have all the information. If Weiss had been operating a layoff book and got into trouble, the two slugs in the back of the head and the body left in a car is the modus operandi of a mob hit."

The homicide investigators in Los Angeles were working with the physical evidence and a timetable for the murder. They were able to establish that Weiss played golf with friends on the morning he was slain. He did not have lunch because he was watching his weight.

Vic met with Cooke and Buss at the Beverly Comstock at four o'clock. They discussed the Tarkanian contract for an hour, with ten minutes out while Weiss made his telephone call to Las Vegas.

When Weiss climbed into his Rolls-Royce in the parking lot at the hotel, he hadn't mentioned that he had any other meeting. An hour later the Rolls with Weiss' body was parked in the garage in North Hollywood.

The investigators were positive from their knowledge concerning Weiss that he would not have picked up a stranger. They pointed out that if he planned to meet his wife at the San Fernando Valley restaurant, he would have made a left onto the Ventura Freeway instead of a right onto the Hollywood Freeway and to the Sheraton Universal.

A close friend said, "Hell, Vic was a pretty smart guy. He wouldn't be stupid enough to have gone to a known setup on his own volition. Whoever got him or had him set up had to be a friend."

Puzzling, too, was that the killer had left the expensive diamond ring on his finger and the $6,000 watch on his wrist. Unknown was how much cash he might have been carrying, but the known things taken were the Tarkanian contract and his address book.

Cutter told the detectives, "Who in hell would take Vic's address book unless it was somebody who didn't want his name found out? If I had Vic's book, I could tell you the name of the person who killed him. I knew Vic that well. He was one of the finest and most generous persons I've ever known."

He added, "As far as I know, Vic never had any ties to organized crime, but my saying that doesn't mean anything. Like they say, the husband or wife or partner is the last to know. So, I don't know."

Tarkanian, following the murder of Weiss, announced that he was withdrawing as a candidate for the coaching job for the Lakers. Tarkanian's wife, in an interview, told reporters, "It had to have something to do with boxing. Both Jerry and Vic's partner told Vic to get out of boxing because of the weird people involved in that sport, but Vic just loved boxing so much he wouldn't listen."

After several months of investigation, the detectives assigned to the case said that the wealthy sports figure moved so skillfully and secretly in his role of "man about town" to connections with unsavory characters that it was impossi-

Off. D. Robinson and M. Williams responded to Jefferson Woods located at 2000 W. Colonial Dr. on 7-25-81 at 1108 hrs reference to a possible child molester. Upon arrival we contacted Mrs. Maltzer who stated that a man who was later identified as James D. Shirley approached her children and offered her daughter JENNIFER FIVE dollars to be his girlfriend. Also Mrs. Shirley invited both children to go downstairs with him and he would buy them some toys.

Mrs. Maltzer did not hear Mr. Shirley tell the children anything, but both children corroborated their mother's story when interviewed alone.

I interviewed Mr. Shirley who was very cooperative and he stated that he did invite the children to look at some toys. But he also stated that he didn't offer Jennifer

REMARKS:

On the aforementioned time and date this officer was dispatched to the address of occurrence to investigate a report of a fight in progress. Upon arrival at the scene, this officer went inside the SOLID SURF PLAYGROUND to try and ascertain what the problem was. While this officer was inside the SOLID SURF PLAYGROUND, Officer Doug Johnson stopped the above mentioned subjects in a parking area of the SOLID SURF PLAYGROUND. This officer made contact with CHRIS GENDICS, who stated that Subject #1 had just cut a hole through the office door of the SOLID SURF PLAYGROUND with a sugar cane cutter in an attempt to get at RAY BRYAN. It was learned by this officer that the argument was over a skateboard. RAY BRYAN stated that his skateboard was stolen approximately three weeks prior to this date, and that he noticed that subject #1 has a skateboard, and he believes that it is his. RAY BRYAN stated that his skateboard is extremely unique and that he recognized the one in subject #1's possession as being his. Subject #1 did not like RAY BRYAN accusing him of stealing his skateboard and chased him into the office of the SOLID SURF PLAYGROUND, at which time RAY BRYAN and CHRIS GENDICS were in the office attempting to call the police. While they were calling the police, subject #1 began striking the door with the sugar cane cutter and cut his way through the door. At this time he told CHRIS GENDICS to hang up the telephone. The argument continued in the office, and subject #1 continued to yield the sugar cane cutter in a threatening manner. Both RAY BRYAN and CHRIS GENDICS stated that they feared for their lives and were extremely frightened. At this time subject #1 then left the office, still yielding the sugar cane cutter and challenging patrons of the SOLID SURF PLAYGROUND to try and take it away from him.

Officer Johnson located the sugar cane cutter sitting on the rear seat of Subject #1's vehicle. This officer ran a records check on both subject #1 and subject #2. Results were negative. Subject #2 was accompanying subject #1 during the entire incident. However, there was no complaint made about subject #2 at the time. Both victims were hesitant to press charges at this time. This officer advised them that a complete report would be made in the event that they decided to prefer charges at a later date. Both victims were extremely shaken up after the incident.

After getting information both subject #1 and subject #2 and checking with NCIC, the subjects were released on the scene. This officer took into evidence the sugar cane cutter and brought it to the Oakland Park Police Station and bagged it and marked it, evidence tag 11266. NFA.

Offense Investigation Date Occurred 24 August, 1981 Complaint Number 756232

Location 725-1st Street Complainant or Victim Herman ABRAMS

Prisoner(s) 1. _____ 2. _____
3. _____ 4. _____

On this date Herman ABRAMS came to the detective bureau to report that he heard the voice of his half brother outside his apartment window three nights saying that he cut the head off Adam Walsh. Mr. Abrams appeared to be mentally confused to some extent. He continued by saying that his half brother's name is Irving Stein, aka Stamopolis aka "Stan the Man". He lived at 5600 W. Park Rd., Hollywood the last time Mr. Abrams saw him. This was about two years ago. Supposedly also living at 5600 W. Park Rd. are two sons of Stein. One of the sons, "Eddy" allegedly looked like the Walsh boy when he was nine years old. Mr. Abrams stated that Stein stood outside his window and said that he had seen the Walsh boy who looked like his son Eddy and mistook him for Eddy. He then took the boy by the hand and led him out of the shopping center (supposedly Dadeland) and to his apartment. The boy was screaming at him, "Pedophile, pedophile leave me alone". Stein allegedly told him to be quiet and when he wouldn't, Stein took out a samurai sword that he has and threatened the boy. The boy continued to scream. Stein then heard a voice which told him to cut the boy's head off. After he did this, he put the body in a plastic garbage bag. Abrams does not think Stein told him anything else. Abrams described Stein as 52 years old, 5'5", 180 lbs. brown hair and balding, brown eyes. Stein is also allegedly a manic depressive.

Abrams is residing at 426 Meridian Ave. #123 Miami Beach. He is 5'8", thin build brown hair, brown eyes, dressed

33. Remarks Continued:

SUSPECT DESCRIPTION: White male, approximately 21 years of age, First name RON, 6'1" tall, 225 pounds, brown short neatly styled hair just over the ear, clean shaven.
CLOTHING: Pinkish red pullover short sleeve shirt with buttons running from the neck to the chest area. Wearing dark colored polyester material slacks.
SUSPECT VEHICLE: Maroon Stationwagon, possibly Ford or Chrysler, having 4 doors with dark interior (see narrative of report).

On November 28, 1980 at 0625 hours, this officer was advised via the radio to respond to Miramar Police Department and there meet with a sexual battery victim who had been located by the Dade Public Safety Dept. Officer Fernandez, Bado #1112. Meeting with the victim at headquarters, she advised that after the attack she returned home and summoned the police and Dade Public Safety Responded to determine that this offense had occurred within the jurisdiction of the City of Miramar.

The undersigned officer transported the victim out to an area she specified as being near the C-9 Canal and the exact place of occurrence was located at 0645 hours that being the 14200 Block of the C-9 Canal on its north side. There was no physical evidence lying about this particular area and no obvious signs of tire markings etc. and the victim was subsequently transported back to headquarters for interview with Det. George Pierson.

The victim's accounts of the occurrence is as follows: Between 0230 and 0300 hours, the victim was waiting to be picked up by her boyfriend at a Tom Thumb Convenience Store which she states is located in Miami Lakes at N.W. 67 Ave. and 167 St. The victim advised that the boyfriend never arrived and the suspect pulled up in the mentioned vehicle and stated, "You look as though you need a ride". The victim agreed to be taken home, however insisted to ride in the rear seat of the vehicle however, during transit the suspect convinced her it would be alright to sit in the right front seat of his vehicle. Victim states that the suspect stopped at a church located at Ludlum Rd. and 186 St. where conversation ensued and he advised her to come to his house for a party where his girlfriend and other friends were. Suspect stated that he had had an argument with his girlfriend and wished to make her jealous and that he would appreciate her accompanying him home. At this church parking lot and while stopped, the suspect allegedly smoked one marijuana cigarette and the victim did not participate. The victim states that it was at this time that the suspect embraced her strongly while holding on to her arms and telling her that if she did not go to the party she would get hurt. The victim states that out of fear of his physical size verses her physical size she submitted and agreed to accompany him to this alleged party. The suspect drove his vehicle while clutching the victim close to him in the car and headed out to Flamingo Rd. approaching the City of Miramar whereas the victim became hysterical and the suspect repeatedly demanded that she ceased any hollering. The victim states that the suspect drove her west on the C-9 Canal Rd. on its north side still reaching the 14200 Block where he parked the car with same facing in a westerly direction and advised her to submit or be hurt. The suspect supposedly produced a small knife which was carried in his left sock and informed the victim to get into the rear seat of this stationwagon.

The victim advised this officer that they both got into the back seat whereas the suspect layed down the rear seat via a latch device and she there observed the entire rear bed of the stationwagon was covered with a white sheet and was equiped with two white pillows. The victim was told to disrobe while the suspect did same and they then engaged in sexual intercourse for a time period which she described as being approximately one minute.

The victim states that the suspect did at one time begin to perform oral sex on her person however, ceased after a short period of time and again had sexual intercourse before having orgasm and ejaculating withing the victim's vaginas. The suspect mentioned during the sex act that he would like to date her and immediately after having sex produced a yellowish small handtowel which he cleaned himself off with and they both put their clothes on and returned to the front seat of the car. The victim states that she participated in sex with this suspect due to fear that he would undoubtedly harm her if she did not go along with his demands. Miss Bell advised that she was transported home by the suspect after providing him directions and during this time engaged in conversation with him to learn that he probably originates from Dallas, Texas and may have been employed as a tile layer. Once reaching her residence, she told the suspect goodnight and exited the car without obtaining tag number or further description. Once reaching the apartment, the victim informed her boyfriend what had occurred and he subsequently notified Dade Public Safety Dept.

This officer met with SAs. George Pierson at Miramar Headquarters and informed him of the facts received regarding this incident and there turned the investigation over to him without taking further actions.
