RE: Adam Walsh

Dear Sirs,

As per my conversation on 8/17/81 with Carol Sykes of your department, I am enclosing a copy of Inv. Buscher's report along with a motel registration card from the Sannibel Motel in Daytona Beach and the cut-out photograph of the young w/m which was recovered from room 306 at the Sannibel Motel.

This may or may not be of use to your investigation but we are sending you the information for your evaluation. If you need any additional assistance in our area, please feel free to contact myself or Inv. Buscher at any time.

Respectfully,

Cpl. J. A. Lockwood

Responded to 101 So. Ocean Avenue, the "Sannibel Inn", Daytona Beach, Florida had conversation with a Mr. John Welts of same address, telephone number 258-5421. Welts related that on 8/12/81 at approximately 1400 while cleaning Room 306, he found the enclosed photograph of a young white male's head stuck in the bottom portion of a painting frame belonging to the motel.

Investigator Buscher secured the enclosed motel registration card for Room 306 indicating the room was last occupied 8/7/81 through 8/9/81.

No further information is presently available.
